

PERSONALS FROM BELLEFONTE'S NEIGHBORING CITY

PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mae Fry)

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Reed transacted business at the County Capital last Friday.

Reports are that the Republican ax fell hard on some of the prominent employes in this section the past week.

Mr. Ernest N. Trosble farmer of the Mayes farm at Howard was a caller among his friends here last Wednesday.

Miss Esther Corl has been under the care of Dr. W. A. Glenn the past two weeks but improved somewhat at this writing.

Hugh C. Fry of Smithport and Conrad G. Fry of Waynesboro were over last weekenders at their parental home in Rock Springs.

Drover Lincoln Wilmer of the Branch trucked a nice load of fat cattle to Altoona market Monday "Link" is a real buyer and knows the good ones.

Bellefonte Grange degree team under the direction of Master Claude Myers motored to Half Moon grange Friday evening to confer 3rd and 4th degree on class of new members in that order.

County Farm Agent Ralph C. Blaney of Bellefonte was an important business caller among our farmers the past week. His pleasing personality is always the same except this spring he has laid his pipe on the shelf.

John Everhart, State Highway Superintendent of Vandergrift, Pa. was in the valley over the weekend, as his usual custom to spend Mother's Day with his aged mother, Mrs. Sara Everhart. He was accompanied by his daughter Betty.

John H. Bailey spent the past week with his son Warren P. Bailey and family at Mill Hill, looking after their gas and oil trade.

Farmer Miles Walker, tenant of the John W. Miller farm East of town, recently purchased a new tractor from Johnston Bros. agency at Rock Springs.

Miss Elizabeth Goheen our well known music teacher the past week and is improving nicely at present.

Ralph Albright and wife and daughter Nancy Lee, of Greensburg, motored in Saturday to spend the weekend at his parental home, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Albright.

Mr. Rodney Hoy of U. S. Government surveyors force of State College and lady friend Pauline Keller were pleasant callers Sunday with friends in Bellefonte.

The annual union church services will be held in school auditorium May 28th, at 7:30 p. m. Memorial sermon will be delivered by Rev. James Fisher of the Lutheran charge, all other ministers are invited to assist in services. Men's chorus will sing. The usual memorial day services will be observed at State College V. F. W.'s in charge at Gatesburg at 1 p. m. Pine Grove Mills at 2:45 p. m. and Pine Hill at 4 p. m. Our Citizens band will furnish music under direction of Mr. A. Brooks Corl, Sunday School children and civic organizations are all invited to parade. Please bring flowers to L. O. O. F. hall at 2 p. m. 70 bouquets are needed for soldiers who sleep beneath the sod.

calling among friends in this vicinity last Wednesday.

Mrs. Joseph Williams and Mrs. George Harpster visited Thursday afternoon in Tyrone with Miss Florence Steele and Mrs. Clifton G. ss.

Mrs. Miller is home after undergoing a very serious operation at the Phillipsburg Hospital. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Miss Ellen Williams and sister Mrs. F. H. Klett of Akron, Ohio, spent Mother's Day at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams. They were accompanied back to Ohio by Miss Betty Royer.

Blaine Williams and Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Heaton of Phillipsburg called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Melcher of Tyrone are busy planting flowers and beautifying their newly acquired summer home.

Advent Cemetery Cleanup. Lotholders and others interested in the Advent cemetery, Millsburg, are asked to meet at the cemetery on Saturday, May 20 to clean up the lots in preparation for Memorial Day. Lawn mowers, rakes, and other tools will be needed.

CLARENCE

By JAMES H. BRUNGARD

We are giving you an extra edition of Clarence News, surprise eh?

An item we overlooked but not intentionally follows: Miss Helen Rogus, R. N. departed recently for Chicago, Illinois, where she will take up a six month course in aesthetics in the St. Mary Nazareth hospital. She is a graduate of the 1938 class at Mercy hospital, Altoona.

Mine work is reported to be resumed again this week. Loading places like the club, pool room and barber shop will seem deserted if work is as good as anticipated especially in the daytime.

Mr. Brungard called on friends in Bellefonte, Monday evening.

Miss Meek plans to spend her vacation quietly with her mother at her parental home situated on the angle between N. Y. C. and Penna. Railroad tracks.

Corn planting is in progress despite the fact that we had two severe frosts the latter part of the week.

Lee Moore has purchased a real tractor and is utilizing it in tilling his own ground and that of his immediate neighbors.

Mr. Brungard and one of his pupils visited Kato school, a short time Tuesday p. m. They were planning a closing day outing and community picnic for Friday.

Pupils perfect in attendance for the term at Kato were two Leho children and Dale and Robert Grieb. Mrs. Roy Grieb was teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Craft visited a short time Thursday p. m. with their mother, Mrs. Cordelia Craft on Windy Hill.

Joe Drapcho has further improved the appearance of his home by the remodeling of the front veranda. A coat or two of paint would now put the house among class A residences in town.

John Koshko the new road supervisor is busily employed unrolling the township's byways of the eastern section Panaca road to Poorman-side is 90% better since it has been smoothed over and the high spots used to fill the chucks.

Boys of Grade Four who found it convenient to attend a small party at the Brungard apartment May 10th, were David Palinkas, Paul Dube ky, James Sechik, Glenn McCloskey, James Matty and Kenneth Carlson. Games and refreshments were part of the evening's entertainment.

Fred Herr is spending some of his vacation at the Confer farm near Howard. Confer is the local milk vendor.

Mrs. C. C. Craft called on her old friend Miss Emma Midlan at her Pine Glen farm home Thursday afternoon.

William Botson has come to Nanty Glo to spend some of his holiday, among relatives there.

Baseball game Friday p. m. between Millsburg and Snow Shoe played on the latter's field resulted in a 15 to 12 score in favor of Snow Shoe.

Commencement exercises for Snow Shoe High are scheduled for June 1st. A large class will say farewell to high school days at that time.

Mrs. Pete Wozniek and Mrs. Andy Bugosh were out of town Saturday presumably shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Remsnyder and three children of Williamsport spent the weekend with the tota grandmother, Mrs. Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Reiter and two children Agnes and Edna shopped in Bellefonte Thursday a. m.

Save your pennies now and maybe we'll see you at the World's Fair in August?

POTTERS MILLS

Bright Orwig and family visited on Sunday at the home of his parents in Aaronburg.

Those who visited on Sunday at the J. Roy Smith home were Mrs. Mabel Smith, daughter Bernice, Miss Helen Stover of Spring Mills, Melvin Stover of Rebersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Schrim of Barree.

Rolland Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pecht of Miroy called on Sunday at the P. F. Palmer home.

Mrs. Kathryn Carson, who has one of the stores in the village, had the misfortune to fall down the stairs and sprain her ankle. She is confined to bed.

Those who took supper at the G. H. McCormick home Sunday evening were, Miss Isabel Bradford, Miss Nellie Neil, Miss Marjorie Metz, of Bellefonte, George Bradford from Centre Hall, R. H. McCormick from State College.

Merrill Copenhagen and family from Aaronburg, visited on Sunday at the home of his mother, Mrs. H. E. Faust.

The men of the Spruce town M. E. church served a supper to the members of the Ladies Aid, in the basement of the church, on Saturday evening. All enjoyed themselves very much.

JULIAN

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bodie of Jersey Shore, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Nora Breon.

Guests at the home of William Chandler on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Chandler and son Kenneth, Miss Ida Showers of Bellefonte, Mrs. Edward Houser and sons Chandler and Maynard of Pleasant Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shipley and family spent Sunday among friends at State College.

Ray Walker of Williamsport spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Holt. Mrs. William Chandler spent Sunday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Helen Randolph, Pine Grove Mills.

Mrs. Walters has been visiting her brother Charles Bush and family, also spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Way and family. Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Walters visited with Mrs. Edna Spotts a short time last Tuesday p. m.

Rev. and Mrs. Byrd and Rev. Manker of Flint, Mich, took dinner last Thursday at the Andrew Irvin home.

Mrs. Andrew Irvin and daughters are visiting several days this week in Coyleville.

Don't forget the clean-up day at the church and cemetery May 27.

FILLMORE

The Ladies Aid of Fillmore held their monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harshberger. Those present were: Mrs. Hiram Grove, Mrs. Claude Corl, Mrs. Morris Garner, Mrs. Willis Johnsonbaugh, Mrs. Arduis Wan, Mrs. John Rokeye, Miss Mamie Gamber, Miss Adaline Garner and Oscar Gamber, Mrs. Roy Breon. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Johnsonbaugh.

BLANCHARD

The Bald Eagle Mountaineers presented a Mother's Day program at the Baptist Young People's meeting on Sunday evening. Among the selections rendered were, "Mother's Prayers Have Followed Me," "The Church by the Side of the Road," "Have you Written Mother Lately," "Meet Her in the Skies;" and "What a Friend We Have in Mother." After the service in the church had ended the group gathered at the several homes of Mother's who were unable to be out, and gave some musical selections.

The local PTA is planning to take their group of plays to Monument on Friday evening, for another performance.

The latest bulletin concerning Donald Bechdel is that barring any unforeseen developments he is on a fair road to recovery. Robert Bechdel took his sister Mrs. Harry Jones of Bellefonte to Philadelphia, on Wednesday, at which time Joseph Bechdel, who had been with "Don," returned home. Miss Jean Kunes accompanied them to Lancaster where she made a short visit.

William Kessinger has purchased the building on the Donald Glossner property, which formerly housed the undertaking establishment of Mr. Johnson. He has torn down the building and is trucking the lumber to Beech Creek.

Mrs. W. H. Vonaca and Mrs. D. C. Gardner, made a business trip to Williamsport on Saturday.

Martha Durkin of Monument, is spending this summer with her aunt, Mrs. Ed Miller.

Miss Helen Evelyn of Smithport, visited with Miss Jean Kunes during the weekend.

Mrs. John Williams, while cleaning house for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Gardner had the misfortune to run a tack in her arm. This necessitated a treatment for tetanus before she recovered from the accident.

Mrs. Annie Lingle, James McCauley and Maurice Bathurst of Pittsburgh, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Bathurst.

Miss Jane Bolopue spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Bolopue.

Miss Dorothy Marks of Lock Haven was a weekend guest of Mrs. Dorothy Williams.

Rev. and Mrs. Neilson of Gosport, Indiana, former pastor of the Church of Christ and his wife, were in town during the past week visiting old friends. They made the W. A. Bowers home their headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton of Lock Haven, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bowen on Monday.

Dinner guests on Sunday at the Gaylord Bathurst home were Mrs. Annie Lingle, James McCauley, Maurice Bathurst of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Spangler, and sons, Geo. and Robert together with the Bathurst family.

Mrs. Harold Packer and son Jerry Kunes Packer returned from the Lock Haven Hospital to their home on Saturday.

Miss Martha Rupert returned to State College on Tuesday evening and took over her job at Mrs. Ralph Weaver field while Miss Rupert visited in Beech Creek.

BUSH HOLLOW

There were 34 present at Sunday School Sunday. Was so glad to see that many of our Mothers' Day, but there could easily have been many more. Hope for a better attendance next Sunday. Sunday School each Sunday morning at 9:30 and Wednesday night services at 7:45. Everybody welcome to both these services.

Sunday night June 4th there will be a Child's Day program and then on June 11th Rev. Byrd will start the grove meeting in the grove by the church. Special singing and instrumental numbers will be given each night and preaching each night by Rev. Byrd.

Thursday May 18 has been set to finish putting up the fence at the cemetery. The posts and rails are all set and painted ready for the wire. A good many complaints have been heard on not putting the fence up along the bank any further, but what can we do without money? If some of those who are doing the complaining would give something toward the fence cause the fence would be finished all along the cemetery. But the wire etc. can't be bought without money.

A birthday supper was held at the home of Mrs. Edna Spotts last Friday evening in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Rote's birthday. Supper guests were Mrs. Rote and children and others who helped get away with the ice cream later in the evening were George Mansell and Ken Wilmer and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spotts and children.

Mrs. Marlin Moore and son Donald visited several days last week at the home of her mother Mrs. Edna Spotts. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Spotts took her to her home in Port Matilda Sunday evening.

The awards given out in Sunday School Sunday morning went to the following: to the mother with the largest family present, Mrs. J. Benner Hall which was a box of handkerchiefs; to the youngest babe and its mother present was Dora Bush and her mother, Mrs. Geo. Bush, which consisted of a rattle for the baby and 2 handkerchiefs for the mother and the one for the oldest baby present went to Martin Spotts which was a very pretty picture. Everyone enjoyed the singing and the several recitations which were given after Sunday School.

Mrs. Walters has been visiting her brother Charles Bush and family, also spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Way and family. Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Walters visited with Mrs. Edna Spotts a short time last Tuesday p. m.

Rev. and Mrs. Byrd and Rev. Manker of Flint, Mich, took dinner last Thursday at the Andrew Irvin home.

Mrs. Andrew Irvin and daughters are visiting several days this week in Coyleville.

Don't forget the clean-up day at the church and cemetery May 27.

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday, May 21, are as follows: Sunday School at 9:30. There will be no C. E. on account of the Baccalaureate sermon of the Howard High School Class of 1939.

Norma Yearick and Ruth Dolan two of our Jacksonville graduates at Hohenburg High School are enjoying a three day trip to Washington, D. C. with their graduating classmates. The tour began Monday morning, also includes a visit to the Gettysburg battlefield.

Geraldine Swapp and friend James Lucas spent Sunday at the Harry Fisher home at Chertrol and were supper guests at the Anglin Miller home of Ruffsdale. The Miller family were former residents of our town a few years ago.

Those who spent Sunday (Mother's Day) with Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon were the following children: Miss Margaret McCrea and Mr. John Ulmer of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Dixon and son Donald of Lock Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dixon and children of this place also remembering their mother with beautiful bouquets.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Poorman, Mr. and Mrs. William Bartholomew of Lock Haven spent Friday evening at the C. E. Aley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Betz and daughter Nancy of Howard, and Samuel Lucas of Altoona, were Sunday visitors at the Aley Betz home in a double celebration that of Mother's Day and Master Fred's fourteenth birthday.

Recent callers at the E. R. Bartley home here were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Thompson of Nittany, Mrs. Orvis Clark and daughter Martha of Little Nittany and Mr. Miles Bartley and children Clarabelle, Carl, Martha Jane, Roseeta, Dorothy and Vera of this place.

Mrs. Sumner Noll and children, Dickey and Elsie Jane, spent Saturday with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Neidigh of State College.

G. P. Garrett and Miss F. Eda Stover of Rebersburg, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the A. A. Garrett home, evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Baird and son Ralph of Bellefonte.

Mrs. Harold D'lan's sister is spending part of her school vacation here with her.

Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Ertley gave an ice cream party on Tuesday evening to the following invited guests: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mabus of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffer and daughter Nancy of Centre Hall; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Aley, daughter Bette and son Leon, Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children of this place and Miss Betty Corman of Axe Mann.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Vonada and children spent Sunday at the J. J. Vonada and Ray Miller homes of near Howard.

Henry Kossling of Yarnell, was a caller at the home of his uncle Robert Conaway on Saturday afternoon.

Sunday visitors at the Orin Fye home were William Fye, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fye, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Fye and family of Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dietz and family of Lock Haven were Sunday visitors at the Winfield Deitz home. Donald Nolan and Nevin Rhine of Nittany, were Sunday visitors and supper guests of the George Dolan family.

Arthur Dolan, a school teacher of Red Roof whose school term recently closed is spending his vacation here with his parents.

Mrs. William Beightel and daughter Louise spent Wednesday in Bellefonte at the John Dunkle home also calling at the hospital to see Mrs. Mervin Hoy who is slowly improving, but many friends wish her a more speedy recovery, many sincere and frequent prayers are uttered in her behalf.

Miss Dorothy Betz spent several days last week in Howard helping her sister-in-law with the spring house cleaning.

Saturday evening visitors at the D. P. Ertley home were Robert Corman and Miss Irene Hastings of Bellefonte. Miss Betty Corman of Axe Mann and Charles Poorman of Pleasant Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children spent Mother's Day with his mother Mrs. Elsie Noll and daughter, Mrs. State College, Mrs. Russell Stamm of Altoona, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Elsie Noll and daughters.

MOSHANNON

Sunday school was well attended Sunday, 68 being present. The sermon Sunday evening by the pastor, Rev. Hammond on "Memories of Mother," was very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guenot visited at Mr. Guenot's father's home at Keewaydin.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas, Mr. C. C. Lucas and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis, Monday afternoon motored to Karlsruhe, through Frenchville to Odessa, and vicinity. They enjoyed the trip, and scenery very much.

Miss Eva Lucas, Miss Albert Perry and daughter, Miss Mirlam Perry and Miss Janet Hyatt, of Altoona, motored through here Sunday and called at the homes of Mrs. LeRoy Lewis and John Lucas, cousins of Miss Lucas.

Mrs. Oscar Nicholson's sister, Mrs. Herman Nelson, daughter, and two grandchildren, Beverly and Dicky, of Johnsonburg; also Mrs. Sarah Roup and two grandsons, Billy and Jimmy, and Mr. Harold Sotel of Phillipsburg, were recent visitors at the Nicholson home.

Miss Eva Conaway of Madera, a visiting relative here.

Mrs. John Cartwright was called to Meadville, to visit her mother, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin McOmical and daughter Shirley, of Falls, Wyoming, spent the weekend at the Nicholson home.

LeRoy Lewis and daughter Hope, transacted business in Bellefonte Friday and were accompanied home by C. C. Lucas of Pleasant Gap, who is spending some time here.

Mrs. Christine May and Clarence Williamson of Williamsport, spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. May's mother, Mrs. Kerlin.

ZION

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rocky moved Tuesday to their home in Zion. Their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stover are living on the Rocky farm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hockman spent Sunday at the Harry Hockman home at Phillipsburg.

Misses Martha and Helen Vonada, George Breaser, members of W. T. H. S. senior class are on the annual senior trip to Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clevelantine and family spent Sunday afternoon with relatives at Centre Hall.

Miss Lois Gilmore attended the Mother-Daughter banquet of the Methodist church of Pleasant Gap on Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Russ of Williamsport, spent Saturday at the C. F. Clevelantine home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Noll and sons of Jersey Shore, spent the weekend with Mrs. Emma Noll.

Mr. and Mrs. Epley Gentzel and Mr. J. S. Royer spent Sunday at the Ray Clevelantine home in Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Emerick called at the Charles Emerick home on Sunday.

Billy and Bruce Carter of Hecla, are visiting at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Hockman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Samsel and family of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday evening at the Nevin Gilmore home.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hoy of Bellefonte spent Sunday afternoon at the Cyrus Hoy home.

Sunday May 28 at 2 p. m. Memorial services will be held at the Zion cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Yearick were Sunday callers at the John Yearick home.

Sunday callers at the Sharer-

Watch For Announcement of COOKING SCHOOL

To Be Held at GRANGE HALL CENTRE HALL, PA.

by the DeHaas Electric Co.

THE WESTINGHOUSE STORE Bellefonte, Pa.

Emerick home were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Corman is at the Samsel home caring for mother and babe, who are doing fine.

Quite a number of Mothers and Daughters attended the banquet held at Hubersburg last Thursday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Samsel of Snyderstown upon the arrival of a young son, M. S.

The most news for $1.50

THIRD BIG WEEK TURNER'S MONTH OF MAYS SALE

Thanks, Centre County, for the wonderful response to our special values last week. It seems as if every person in Centre County was here last week. For this week we are again offering outstanding values in new, wanted merchandise!

Advertisement for A. C. Turner Co. featuring various goods like Turkish Towels, Taffeta Slips, Dish Cloths, Polo Shirts, Refuse Receiver, Moshannon CUP & SAUCER, and more. Includes prices and store information.

Advertisement for A & P Food Stores featuring 'WEEK-END VALUES AT A & P' with a list of products like Brick or Longhorn Cheese, Polk's Grapefruit Juice, Pineapple Chunklets, etc., and their prices.