

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Shower & Serenade—The young folks of the Epworth League gathered together their cow bells and other musical instruments and went out to Bush Hollow on last Friday evening and gave Mr. and Mrs. Pearce Rumberger the usual welcome by a good serenade. After the serenade they invited themselves into the house and surprised the happy couple by a miscellaneous shower. They received some very pretty and useful gifts and were then treated by the groom with candy and cigars. The bride and groom were then taken a ride by the serenaders up through the village of Unionville and serenaded all the way. They did not object and seemed to enjoy the fun as well as the serenaders.
