Bellefonte Central Relives Former Days

The accompanying photos were taken at the local Pennsylvania Railroad passenger station Wednesday of last week when the special Bellefonte Central Railroad passenger train made its historic run to Bellefonte from State College, in memory of the days when the Bellefonte Central provided the only regular means of transportation between the two Centre county towns.

Above is a general view of the station platform a few moments after the six-car train pulled into the station. In the background may be seen part of the Bellefonte High School Band, which turned out to greet the 515 passengers aboard the special train.

To the right Mayor Hardman P. Harris may be seen greeting Dean A. R. Warnock, father of the excursion idea and behind-the-scenes manager of the trip, as the Dean stepped from the train upon its arrival at Bellefonte.

SEVENTY BENEFIT FROM RED CROSS MILK FUND

Seventy Bellefonte school children benefited through the Junior Red Cross Milk Fund last year, according to the annual report submitted to the school board, Monday, by Mrs. Elinor C. McDowell, chairman of the fund.

During the year $47.75 was spent in purchasing milk for pupils in the Spring street school. Of 45 children who received free milk from January to April, 10 made no gain, 1 lost weight, and 34 gained from 1 to 6 pounds.

From a similar fund allocated to the Bishop street school together with $23.70 as a special fund, 24 children received free milk from November 7 to April 28. One of the children made no gain in weight, while 25 others gained from 1 to 9 pounds.

Receipts during the year were as follows: Bellefonte Woman's Club, $10; American Legion, $25; sale of candy-prize in Halloween parade, $40.95; gift, $15; Young Woman's Guild of the Presbyterian church, $5, or a total of $95.50. An additional gift of $5 from Miss Margaret Cook was transferred from the milk fund to purchasing glasses for a specially needy case.
