

LOCALS

The Veterans of Foreign Wars will sell poppies on Saturday, May 20th. Mrs. Alberta Krader, of West High Street, spent the weekend with her sister, Miss Carolyn Buser, in Altoona. Miss Adeline Garner and Mary Wolfe of near State College spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rean near Axmann. Stop signs have been erected at the upper and lower entrances to the Bellefonte Academy property to correct a dangerous condition which has existed since the high school was moved to that location. The signs, halting traffic coming from the Academy, were placed at the request of the School Board. Among those from Bellefonte who have gone to Wyoming, Pa., to attend the funeral today of Mrs. Mary H. Hughes are her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hughes, and family, and another son, Thomas Hughes, all of North Water street, and Dr. and Mrs. Harold B. Harris, of North Allegheny street. Mrs. Samuel McGinley, of Thomas Street, Bellefonte, last week purchased a lot near the A. C. Heverly summer home along Spring Creek, below the Fishermen's Paradise, Benner township. The former owner of the lot was Verna R. Waite. Mr. and Mrs. McGinley both are fishermen, expect to build a cottage on the site. Dr. and Mrs. D. W. Gates and family on Monday moved to Staten Island, N. Y., where Dr. Gates, well known local veterinarian, has accepted a position in a zoo. The Gates home at the corner of Spring and Curtin streets, built three years ago as Bellefonte's first "modern home," has not been rented at this time. Last week a group of Centre County newspaper carriers who were given a trip to the World's Fair in New York for their part in a subscription campaign were identified as employees of the Harrisburg Evening News. The youths are carried to the Harrisburg Telegraph, and they were accompanied on the trip to the Fair by Osborne T. Lambert, of North Thomas street, representative of the Telegraph in this district. Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm H. Hall and two sons, Malcolm and Emerson, of Miesburg, departed Saturday for a two weeks' vacation trip from here they went to Batavia, N. Y., for several days before continuing on to New York City to spend some time at the World's Fair. Mr. Hall, manager of the Western Union office in Bellefonte, is taking his annual vacation at this time. During his absence the local office is in charge of Robert A. Miller, of Tyrone. Calvin J. Smith of Tulsa, Oklahoma, departed for that city yesterday after having spent several days with relatives and friends in Bellefonte and in the vicinity of North Thomas street, particularly to visit his father, J. Frank Smith, who is a medical patient at the Centre County Hospital. While in the east he was a guest at the home of his brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Geary, at Centre Hall, and his brother, Swengel Smith, of Bellefonte. Mrs. Eva Simpson, who has been assisting in the care of her brother, S. W. Eilers, in North Rockview, during his recovery from an automobile accident, informs us that his injuries are more serious than at first considered. For this reason he will be unable to devote the proper attention and care to his present place of residence and is planning to vacate it. He expects to go to State College to live, while Mrs. Simpson will reside with her sister at Moshannon until she is able to get possession of one of her houses in Bellefonte, when she will return here. Mrs. Mary Harvey Scott entertained at a miscellaneous shower at the home of her mother, Mrs. A. R. Driscoll, on North Allegheny street, Wednesday night of last week, in honor of Miss Anne Dale, daughter of Mrs. David Dale, of West Linn street, who on June 10 will become the bride of Mrs. Scott's brother, Lewis Curtis Harvey. Guest presider were Mrs. Jack Smith, Mrs. John Curtin, Jr., Mrs. Joseph Parrish, Mrs. Donald B. E. Williams, W. Seg, Mrs. William Schwarz, Mrs. Cecil A. Walker, Mrs. R. R. Döbelbauer, Mrs. William Brachbill, Mrs. John Miller and the Misses Gertrude Purcell, Rebecca Dorsch, Jane Curtin, Dorothy Wilkinson and Catherine Love. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Miss Burnell, Miss Dale and Miss Wilkinson. The guest of honor received many gifts. According to word received last week by Bellefonte friends from the Rev. Robert J. Sudlow and family who since last year have been living at Yuma, Arizona, the Sudlows will leave there June 1 to return east. Mrs. Sudlow, who is reported to be unimpaired in health, will become a patient at Camp Devens, Allentown, Pa., while young Bobby Sudlow, who is suffering from asthma and who has been found to be allergic to over 70 desert plants, will go to the home of Mrs. Sudlow's sister, at Mansfield, Pa. The western climate is entirely unsuited to Bobby. For some of the plants to which he is allergic are in bloom the year around, and it is necessary for him to receive medical treatment several times a week to offset the effects of pollens. The Rev. Mr. Sudlow, who upon leaving Bellefonte suffered from a severe sinus condition, is reported to be entirely recovered. Physicians in the west discovered and removed the cause of his trouble. It is reported, and he will now be able to live in any climate. He expects to locate wherever an opening is available. The Sudlows are well known in the Bellefonte vicinity and lived here for several years prior to going to Arizona. The Rev. Mr. Sudlow was formerly pastor of St. John's Episcopal church here.

Joseph J. Puhalla, one of our valued subscribers from Clarence, was a welcome caller at our office on Wednesday. A General Electric milk cooler will remedy your milk cooling troubles. See one at the Electric Supply Co., Bellefonte, Pa. Mrs. Emily Warfield, of West Curtin street, departed Tuesday for Philadelphia, for an indefinite visit with relatives and friends in that city. Melvin A. Peters, a progressive farmer from Pennsylvania Furnace, was a Bellefonte visitor on Wednesday. Mr. Peters was a caller at our office. Dr. Howard F. Bauer, Optometrist, have your eyes examined now. For appointments call Bellefonte 3-W. W. E. Crossley Jewelry Store, 1914. A meeting of the Bellefonte High School Alumni Association will be held at 7:30 o'clock Tuesday night at the Academy. All graduates and former students of the high school are cordially invited to attend. Mrs. Lafferty, of Sylvan Hills, Hollidaysburg, is spending this week in Bellefonte as a guest of her brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Leamer, at their home in the Driscoll duplex apartments on East Curtin street. Harvey Treasler, who for the past several weeks has been ill at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Houser, on Howard street, was admitted to the Centre County Hospital, Monday, and underwent a blood transfusion Tuesday, and yesterday submitted to an operation. Last night his condition was reported to be as satisfactory as can be expected. This is the time of the year when we send out statements to our subscribers. Some have gone out this week and the balance will follow next week. Check the statement with the label on your paper and advise us if you have not been given proper credit. If you cannot pay the account in full at one time, just send part of the amount, as all payments are greatly appreciated. Demolition of the local high school building is proceeding at a steady pace and all of the brick walls, with the exception of a few inside ones, have been razed. A crane is now shoveling the debris into trucks for removal from the site. When the clean-up work has been completed, the stone foundation walls will be removed. The stack, 60 to 70 feet in height, will be removed last, it is reported. Charles B. McClellan, of Bellefonte, employed in the Treasury Department at Harrisburg, participated in what has all the earmarks of being a historic fishing trip off Ocean City, Maryland, during the weekend. Twenty-seven employees of the department returned from a deep-sea expedition with a total of 1615 fish, weighing nearly a ton. Old fishermen declared it was the best catch for a comparable length of time in their recollection. Members of Troop 3, Girl Scouts, Bellefonte, held a swimming party at the Glennland pool, State College, last Thursday night. Troop members attended the party were: Mary Grace Harlock, Betty Miller, Jean Clevenstein, Cyrene Newcomb, Jean Dunn, Freda Ross, Elizabeth O'Brien, Phyllis Shaw, Ruth Symmonds, Fern Witmer and Barbara McDowell. Leaders who accompanied the girls included Sara Symmonds, Catherine Hartie and Erma Sloop. Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Robb, of East Curtin street, departed yesterday for Philadelphia where Mr. Robb will consult a physician before continuing to Atlantic City to attend the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Bankers' Association next week. The Robbs will be joined in Atlantic City, Sunday, by Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Wagner, Mr. Wagner also existing to attend the convention. Mr. Robb, a president of the Bellefonte Trust Company who last year suffered a severe illness, is regaining strength rapidly and his visit to the Philadelphia physician today is in the nature of a check-up on his condition.

Mrs. Al Tomb, of Beaver, is spending this week in Bellefonte with her mother, Mrs. Klime Woodring, at her home on East Howard street. Mrs. Russell Smith, of Chapel Hill, North Carolina, arrived in Bellefonte early this week for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Charles R. Beatty and family at their home on East Curtin street. Mrs. Elizabeth Scott, who has been confined to bed at her home on North Allegheny street since last Thursday because of illness, yesterday was reported to be showing some slight improvement, although she is still bedfast. Mrs. and Mrs. Elmer Eby, of East Bytown street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to Dean K. Wetzel, of Milesburg, son of Centre County Register, John L. Wetzel. The wedding will take place early this summer. Miss Angela Carpeneto, of Logan street, has resigned her position as clerk at the Goldman Food Market, South Allegheny street, and has accepted a similar position at the Hazel & Company store. Miss Carpeneto will begin the duties of her new position on June 1. Harvey Treasler, who for the past several weeks has been ill at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Houser, on Howard street, was admitted to the Centre County Hospital, Monday, and underwent a blood transfusion Tuesday, and yesterday submitted to an operation.
