

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Garden Club News—The Unionville Garden Club met last Wednesday evening in the Community House with a good attendance. There was a lovely flower exhibit of which prizes were awarded to the following: A blue ribbon for Mrs. Prize, a Gloxinia owned by Mrs. Flora Lucas. A red ribbon for second prize, a Shrimp plant owned by Miss Anna Hall. White ribbon for third prize, a large bouquet of wild crab apple blossoms, taken by Mrs. H. E. McClellan. A pink ribbon as fourth prize presented to Mrs. J. R. Williams for a lovely vase of tulips. The Garden Club will meet the first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p. m. They are anxious to have new members and all persons interested in flowers and shrubbery are invited to attend. Interesting programs will be planned for each meeting. Come and bring your friends.

Memorial Day Services—There will be no services in the morning as in years past, but shortly after the noon hour the State College Drum and Bugle Corps will appear in the community and perhaps march around our streets, then at 1:30 a. m. services will be held at the Oak Ridge cemetery where the Honorable James E. VanZandt will give an address which will be preceded by Rev. D. D. Kauffman of the Methodist church. There will also be recitations and singing by our local talent and music at the cemetery by the Drum and Bugle Corps. We hope everyone will cooperate and make this a day well worth while and one to be remembered.

Methodist Church Services—Prayer service this Thursday evening at the close of which will be choir rehearsal; Sunday School on Sunday morning at the regular hour followed by the preaching service at 10:30 a. m. with sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. D. Kauffman; Epworth League in the evening at 6:30 p. m.

Funeral—The funeral of Mrs. J. R. Williams will be held at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. R. Williams, on Monday evening at 7:30 p. m. Burial will be in the Oak Ridge cemetery. Rev. D. D. Kauffman will officiate. Friends are invited to attend.
