

EXCURSION TO BE GALA EVENT

PENN STATE TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE FOR LOCAL VISITORS

Schools to Close to Enable Pupils to Make Historic Trip
B. H. S. BAND WILL BE ABOARD TRAIN
Mardi Gras Spirit Hovers Over Running of BCRR Special, June 7

Assistance Board Discusses Policies

Members of the newly appointed Centre County Public Assistance Board met on Monday in the assistance office, Temple Court building, with H. T. Struble, of Zion, chairman of the board, presiding.

24 GRADUATE AT HOWARD

Class Pageant Illustrates Theme: 'Your Life in the Making'
Commencement exercises at the Howard High school were held Friday evening in the high school auditorium where the 24 members of the class received their diplomas.

Name Judges For Flag Day Floats

Judges for the commercial and industrial floats to appear in the Flag Day parade here were named last Thursday night at a meeting of the Directors of the Bellefonte Chamber of Commerce.

Owens and Phelps Stores Relocated

The Ralph K. Owens Electrical Shop which has been temporarily quartered in the room in the Berardis building, South Allegheny street, formerly occupied by The Smart Shop, yesterday was moved into the room on West High street which until recently housed the Democratic headquarters, and in which the Ed. Garman store was located for many years.

WELL KNOWN BELLEVILLE PAIR OBSERVES 50TH ANNIVERSARY

Memorial Day was a particularly festive one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus A. Solt, South Spring street, Bellefonte, for it marked the fifth anniversary of the marriage of that well known local couple. All of their children and grandchildren were here to make the occasion a memorable one.

Parade Route For Flag Day Announced

Establish Police and Information Headquarters For Visitors' Benefit
TO BAN PARKING IN BUSINESS AREA
Parade Will Move at 5:30; All in Readiness for Legion Carnival

Local Woman Injured In Crash

In a collision between an automobile and a truck opposite the Bliss Aikie residence on Willowbank street, Bellefonte, Saturday afternoon, Mrs. H. Snyder, of Rousburg, near Bellefonte, was painfully but not seriously injured.

Willowbank Street Curve is Scene of Two Motor Crashes Same Day

In a collision between an automobile and a truck opposite the Bliss Aikie residence on Willowbank street, Bellefonte, Saturday afternoon, Mrs. H. Snyder, of Rousburg, near Bellefonte, was painfully but not seriously injured.

Ancient Stoves Bring Awards To Owners

Owners of ancient New Perfection oil stoves were recognized at the Wolf Furniture Company store here during the weekend when prizes were awarded to persons having the oldest stoves now in use.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

TOWN TURNS OUT TO REVERE WAR DEAD

One of the largest Memorial Day crowds to assemble here for many years gathered at the Diamond Tuesday morning to participate in services sponsored by the American Legion in honor of the memory of veterans of all wars.

EX-SHERIFF WALKER DIES

W. Miles Walker, former Sheriff of Centre county, and father of Judge Ivan Walker, President Judge of the Centre county Courts, died unexpectedly at his home on East Linn street, Bellefonte, at 5:40 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after an illness with a complication of diseases. He would have been 84 on August.

SEVERAL HURT IN ACCIDENTS

Three accidents, with only slight injuries resulting, occurred in this section over Memorial Day, according to reports from the Pleasant Gap sub-station, State Motor Police. Traffic was comparatively light, police said.

Father of Centre County Judge Succumbs; Funeral Held Yesterday

W. Miles Walker, former Sheriff of Centre county, and father of Judge Ivan Walker, President Judge of the Centre county Courts, died unexpectedly at his home on East Linn street, Bellefonte, at 5:40 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after an illness with a complication of diseases. He would have been 84 on August.

State College Child Injured In Fall

Peter Fishburn, aged two and one-half years, son of Mr. Hummel Fishburn, of State College, suffered severe bruises Sunday night when he fell from a third-story window of his home.

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS AT FRIEDMAN BUILDING

Work on the reconstruction of the Friedman building, South Allegheny street, which was badly damaged by fire last February, is progressing rapidly and workmen are now engaged in painting the exterior of the brick structure. Several coats of buff paint have been applied and the appearance of the building has been greatly improved.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

TOWN TURNS OUT TO REVERE WAR DEAD

One of the largest Memorial Day crowds to assemble here for many years gathered at the Diamond Tuesday morning to participate in services sponsored by the American Legion in honor of the memory of veterans of all wars.

EX-SHERIFF WALKER DIES

W. Miles Walker, former Sheriff of Centre county, and father of Judge Ivan Walker, President Judge of the Centre county Courts, died unexpectedly at his home on East Linn street, Bellefonte, at 5:40 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after an illness with a complication of diseases. He would have been 84 on August.

SEVERAL HURT IN ACCIDENTS

Three accidents, with only slight injuries resulting, occurred in this section over Memorial Day, according to reports from the Pleasant Gap sub-station, State Motor Police. Traffic was comparatively light, police said.

Father of Centre County Judge Succumbs; Funeral Held Yesterday

W. Miles Walker, former Sheriff of Centre county, and father of Judge Ivan Walker, President Judge of the Centre county Courts, died unexpectedly at his home on East Linn street, Bellefonte, at 5:40 o'clock Saturday afternoon, after an illness with a complication of diseases. He would have been 84 on August.

State College Child Injured In Fall

Peter Fishburn, aged two and one-half years, son of Mr. Hummel Fishburn, of State College, suffered severe bruises Sunday night when he fell from a third-story window of his home.

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS AT FRIEDMAN BUILDING

Work on the reconstruction of the Friedman building, South Allegheny street, which was badly damaged by fire last February, is progressing rapidly and workmen are now engaged in painting the exterior of the brick structure. Several coats of buff paint have been applied and the appearance of the building has been greatly improved.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

Graduates Today

ENSIGN RICHARD ROBB

Today at ceremonies being conducted at the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md., Richard E. Robb, son of Mrs. C. Edward Robb, of North Allegheny street, Bellefonte, will be graduated from the institution and will receive his commission as an Ensign.

Postoffice Shows Revenue Decrease

Total Receipts Last Year Were $741.46 Below Previous Year's

Political Echoes As Assembly Ends

With the legislative session over finally, remarks the Harrisburg Patriot, political strategists now turn their attention to the future.

Scotia Picnic To Be Held On August 5th

The Scotia picnic committee will meet at Reed's Filling Station, midway between Scotia and Waddle along Highway Route 322, at 2:30 o'clock Saturday, June 17, to make preliminary plans for the annual Scotia Picnic and Homecoming which is to be held on Saturday, August 5.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

HEAVY WINDSTORM WREAKS DESTRUCTION NEAR COLLEGE

Commencement Busy Season For Family

The commencement season no doubt has its vicissitudes in earnest for our good friend, Brigadier C. A. McClellan, of Racine, Wisconsin, who in a recent communication informs us that one of his sons will graduate from the local high school, another from the Western Teachers' College at Kalamazoo, and a third son completing his third year of medicine at Northwestern University, Chicago.

Boys Held In Theft Series

Three of the boys, arraigned before Justice of the Peace Charles W. Slack, at Centre Hall, posted bonds of $250 each for their appearance in court. They are: Clarence McCormick, 18, and his brother, Donald McCormick, 16, of near Centre Hall, and George Martz, 18, of Centre Hall.

Farmer's Experience In Raising Cattle

A good idea of the farmer's problem in making a living these days is gained from the experience of Joseph C. Hayes, of Salona, Clinton county, who several days ago disposed of some cattle which he prepared for the market over the past winter.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

HEAVY WINDSTORM WREAKS DESTRUCTION NEAR COLLEGE

Homes and Barns Badly Damaged; Many Trees Uprooted

A sudden and violent wind storm which for a few moments assumed tornado characteristics and intensity tore its way through the Fire Grove Mills-Shingleton area south of State College Saturday afternoon and left in its wake a path of damaged and overturned buildings, and uprooted trees.

HIGHEST WINDS IN MEMORY REPORTED

Described by even the oldest residents as the most severe windstorm in their experience, the damage was heightened by hail which was driven almost horizontally by the gale. The destructive part of the storm lasted about five minutes, it is reported.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD

Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

MR. AND MRS. CYRUS A. SOLT
Memorial Day was a particularly festive one at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus A. Solt, South Spring street, Bellefonte, for it marked the fifth anniversary of the marriage of that well known local couple.

Pet Pony is No More
"Queenie," a white pony belonging to Jack and Donald Dreibeis, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dreibeis, of Slatte College, R. D., was destroyed last week after it was injured when kicked by a farm horse.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD
Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.

OSCEOLA WOMAN FATALLY INJURED NEAR MANSFIELD
Mrs. Ella Odle, 73, of Osceola, died in the Corning (N. Y.) Hospital Tuesday night of injuries received earlier in the evening, about 5:30 o'clock, when she was reported to have walked into the side of a coach operated by Howard Williams, 23, Elkland, on Route 49, near Mansfield.