Mrs. Roush was a daughter of Daniel and Sarah Lutz Condo and was born in Spring Mills on January 19, 1869, making her age at time of death 70 years, 5 months and 7 days. On September 2, 1894 she was united in marriage with James W. Roush, who passed away some years ago. Surviving are a son, Harry F. Roush, at home, and a brother, Jonathan F. Condo, of Howard. Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock this Thursday morning from the Reformed church at Aaronsburg, with the Rev. C. A. Fred Orling officiating. Interment was made in the Reformed cemetery at Aaronsburg. Mrs. Roush was a life long member of the Reformed church. Additional Deaths Page 3—2nd Sec.

Oldest Living Alumnus

Susquehanna University's oldest living alumnus, Dr. Thomas F. Dornblaser, of Chicago, Ill., and a graduate from the institution ten years after it opened its doors, celebrated his 96th birthday Tuesday. Susquehanna's famed alumnus was born June 27, 1841 at Clintondale, Clinton county. Despite his long span of years, Dr. Dornblaser is still enjoying good health and resides with a daughter, Dr. Dornblaser came from Berlin, Germany, in 1932 to attend the university's commencement exercises, returning to Germany again that same year. He made his last and sixteenth trip from Germany to the United States in 1936 at the age of 95. He is a World War veteran.

Radio Brought Tragic News

While Mrs. John J. McGhee, of Durango, Col., former Lock Haven resident, was seated in her home listening to her radio last week the news flash told of a five-car accident at Windber, in which one of the persons killed was Mrs. Sue Morrison, her sister. Mrs. McGhee left at once for Windber and was in time for the funeral, which was held Friday. While in this section, Mrs. McGhee visited her mother-in-law, Mrs. Hattie Johnson and her brother-in-law, Captain Foster S. McGhee, both of Lock Haven.

Six Sons Are Fall-Bearers

Jacob B. Miller's six sons carried the 71-year-old Blair county farmer to the final resting place he had selected beneath an old apple tree in the Miller orchard. One of the sons, the Rev. John H. Miller, of Springfield, Mass., conducted the services. One of the farmer's three daughters played the organ at the church ceremony.

It won't be long now before careless swimmers will be worrying the life-guards.
