WARNING: Pull in your clutch. And put on the brake. You are going down hill. At too great a rate. When you strike bottom. Where will you be. Just a pile of junk. Don't travel the highway. At 80, just for fun. You endanger other lives as well as your own. Don't go around a corner before you take a peep. For the coming toward you. Just might be asleep. We should heed a friendly warning. Of impending calamity. For stubbornness only leads us straight to Eternity. We can only see mistakes when it is too late. But if we resent advice. Then we should be resigned to fate. L. S.
