

PERSONALS FROM BELLEFONTE'S NEIGHBORING CITY PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mae Fry)

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strouse of Pine Hall spent Sunday at the Alvin K. Cori home at Bloomsport.

One of our best known aged citizens, Mr. John O. Harpster recently has been under his doctor's care, but is much improved this week.

Mrs. Florence Wogan, of Juniata, is spending some time at the home of her mother, Mrs. Etta Cori, on Wall Street.

The Robert Harpster family of Tapole, were visitors Saturday evening at the Albert Fry home on W. Main street.

Miss Anna Jane Musser spent a few days the past week in Centre Hall a guest of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Goodhart.

Farmer Charles T. Hodman purchased a new Allis-Chalmers all crop combine last Thursday from the Johnston Bros. agency, a real labor saving implement.

The Lake Bros. motored to Canada, last week and purchased a fine Belgium sorrel stallion as fine as ever stood on 4 legs, which they are raising this season.

James Cummings of McAlester's Fort, one of Huntington County's best dairy farmers was a pleasant caller Saturday evening in our town on a shopping tour.

The popular game protector, Mr. E. M. Woodward of Bellefonte, was in our midst the past week inspecting some deer damage to crops along Tussey Mountain.

One of our young musicians, Charles Lauck, a member of the Olin Butt orchestra is spending this week with his friends at the Jay Storch cabin near Lemont.

Claude Myers was a business visitor in State College Monday a. m. Claude is assisting putting away the season's crops at his father's fertile farm at Fairbrook, Mr. C. H. Myers.

C. H. Wedel of Lewisburg, the popular Marietta Sisto Agency with his district agent Samuel I. Cori were among our farmers the past week, getting their share of early fall delivery orders.

Robert W. Reed, attended the Centre Fair Committee meeting at Centre Hall last Saturday evening where final preparations are in progress for annual Centre Fair - that's just around the corner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Henry were recent shopping visitors in the Mt. City, also called at the C. S. Cori home and found Miss Frances Cori nursing a badly fractured arm sustained while at play last Wednesday.

H. M. Pickings, well known funeral director of Pittsburgh, accompanied by his wife, spent some time in our town guests of their daughter and husband Rev. and Mrs. James Fisher at the Lutheran parsonage.

Kyle M. Alexander of Penna. Dept. of Agriculture, was in Ferguson Twp., last Thursday, looking after the sweet corn project recently started. The first in our township and looks very encouraging for all interested parties.

The Sunday Schools of the Lutheran charge, Rev. James Fisher, pastor, Pine Grove Mills, Gatesburg, and Pine Hall will all picnic together at Spruce Creek State Camp, July 19th. A good attendance is desired to help devour a sumptuous dinner and gallons of free ice cream, plenty of entertainment is being arranged by the committee.

***** YEAGERS ***** ONLY $1.39 Women's Low Heel Patent Leather Sandals ***** BELLEFONTE *****

Advertisement for Markle's Dairy featuring '7c relhips' and 'Most Modern Container Neath the Sun - A Double Container Made as One'. Includes an illustration of a woman with a milk can and a cow.

BLANCHARD

Mrs. Dyer reports that the community cleared $157 from the festival on Saturday night, which will be applied to the electric light fund. The pigs were awarded to Miss Healey Egerly of Smethport.

Many of our young people are planning to attend the Daily Vacation Bible School at the Presbyterian church of Beech Creek, beginning July 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanna of Lock Haven have recently moved into part of the house occupied by Allison Dukeman.

Miss Lou Jones of Jersey Shore spent a few days of last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spangler.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clark of Osnabrook, Ky., is vacationing with relatives here and in Mill Hall.

Betty L'Opoue of Lamar is visiting relatives here.

Mr. Schmick of the Schmick farms had a picnic for his employees at his farm on Marsh Creek on July 4th. Employees from this vicinity and of New York State were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Smith entertained Mrs. Smith's sister, Mrs. Isemann and family, of Pittsburgh, last week. Margaret Smith accompanied them home for a short visit.

Mrs. Tillie Kunes and Margaret Beatty accompanied Mrs. Edward Bryndle to St. Mary's on Wednesday where they expect to spend a two week's vacation.

Jane Williams spent the weekend with her friend, Katharine Yagie, of Beech Creek.

Mrs. Mary Winslow, expects to leave this week for Curwensville where she will spend some time with her son, Melvin.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Schroat during the past week were Mrs. Lebo and son, of New Jersey, and Mrs. Guichall and son, of Blumina, Pa. Both women are sisters of Mr. Schroat.

Mrs. Raymond Maxon has been ill and under the doctor's care.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maxon Friday evening were Mrs. Irvin Fravel, Mrs. Ben Menman and Miss Vivian Fravel of Beech Creek, Carl Johnson and Esther Bauman of Lock Haven.

Ernest DeHaas spent the weekend at the Maxon home.

Mrs. Harry Peters and son Paul, of Beech Creek, John Borden, of Beechville and Helen Lentz of town, spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Maxon.

Miss Beatrice Packer spent Friday in Beech Creek.

SNYDERTOWN

Church notes for Sunday July 16, 1939. Sunday Church School at 9:30 a. m. preaching services at 7:00 p. m.

Choir practice on Thursday evening at 8 p. m. Young People's recreational program Friday evening at 8 p. m.

The following young people attended the monthly meeting of St. Mark's Lutheran church on Friday evening: Margaret Powers, Marjorie Powers, Sophia Miller, Betty Krape, Jean Walker, June Rogers, Mrs. Roseger, Rhoda Rogers, Marion Rogers, Betty Barney, Olive Baney, Barbara Haagen, Lucille Beck, Henry Miller, Harry Lansen, Elery Walther, Julius Fletcher, Harold Harshberger, Glenn Rogers, Jr., Glen Rhine, Junior Ardery.

Randall Ertel of Rebersburg, spent the weekend at the Alvin Beck home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lutz are visiting with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lutz in Pittsburgh.

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday July 16, are as follows: Sunday School 9:30 and C. E. 8:45. Topic for discussion "Building a Church Program of Recreation."

Marion Grange is holding their annual festival here on Wednesday evening, July 19. Music will be furnished by the Penna. Valley High School band and all the delicacies of the season will be on sale and games for amusement.

Miss Norma Yearick spent Sunday afternoon with her friend, Miss Rebecca Bartley.

Miss Arlene Beach and Clifford Walton from Heppburnville, visited with her friend Dorothy Betz on Tuesday, July 4th.

Arling Swop and Vivian Wolfe are spending an indefinite vacation in Rochester with the latter's mother, Mrs. Paul Ober.

William Aley of Niagara Falls, is spending an indefinite time here with his brother, Mr. C. E. Aley and family, also calling on other friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Vonada and children spent Sunday afternoon at the J. I. Yarnell home at Hubbersburg.

Mrs. N. H. Yearick spent Sunday with her son Nevin Yearick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCalister and daughter Lois of Bellefonte and Pauline Rossman of Nittany, called at the John Deitz home on Sunday.

Sunday dinner and supper guests of the William Boyz Saturday night were: Mrs. Mary Yearick and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCalister and daughter Lois of Bellefonte and Pauline Rossman of Nittany, called at the John Deitz home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Vonada and children spent Sunday afternoon at the J. I. Yarnell home at Hubbersburg.

Mrs. N. H. Yearick spent Sunday with her son Nevin Yearick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCalister and daughter Lois of Bellefonte and Pauline Rossman of Nittany, called at the John Deitz home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Vonada and children spent Sunday afternoon at the J. I. Yarnell home at Hubbersburg.

Mrs. N. H. Yearick spent Sunday with her son Nevin Yearick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCalister and daughter Lois of Bellefonte and Pauline Rossman of Nittany, called at the John Deitz home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Vonada and children spent Sunday afternoon at the J. I. Yarnell home at Hubbersburg.

Mrs. N. H. Yearick spent Sunday with her son Nevin Yearick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCalister and daughter Lois of Bellefonte and Pauline Rossman of Nittany, called at the John Deitz home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Vonada and children spent Sunday afternoon at the J. I. Yarnell home at Hubbersburg.

Mrs. N. H. Yearick spent Sunday with her son Nevin Yearick and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCalister and daughter Lois of Bellefonte and Pauline Rossman of Nittany, called at the John Deitz home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Vonada and children spent Sunday afternoon at the J. I. Yarnell home at Hubbersburg.

PINE GLEN

The Juvenile Grange celebrated with their annual picnic at Sterling on Monday, starting a drive for new members.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Polmor attended the funeral of Mrs. Merrill Polmor at Dribling on Saturday.

The Senior Choir of the Methodist church assisted with the music at the Karthaus church on Sunday.

Miss Ruth Hoover of Harrisburg, concluded her visit with home folks on Sunday. She was accompanied back by her sister Gladys, who will spend a week at the Capital City and another week with her sister, Mrs. Helen Ylinski at York.

Mr. and Mrs. George Houshbell, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bradford and children, Marie, Ford and Barbara of La Contes Mills were at Clyde Hoover's home on Sunday.

Olive McCollough is visiting with relatives at Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dixon and grandchildren William and Betty Bradford were on a fishing trip to Bradford over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hoover and Miss Ruth Hoover attended Neighbor Night meeting at the Grange on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dorley and children William and Jane of Avis, are at William Hoover's this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Marks and children, Eugene, Melba and Harry Meeker's home a few days recently.

The Epworth League elected their new officers for the year on Sunday p. m. with Rev. C. N. Shirley acting as chairman. They are: president, Clyde Hoover, Jr.; 1st vice president, Phil Hodge; 2nd vice president, Mary Lou Burkley; 3rd vice president, Betty McCollough; 4th vice president, Phyllis Wertz; secretary, Gladys Hoover; treasurer, Alla Veldorfer; organists, Lenore Hoover and Nan Burkley; counsellors, Mrs. C. Hoover, Lloyd Wertz.

Mrs. Ruth Askey of Erie, is spending a week's vacation at her home here.

Lloyd Wertz was at Cuba, N. Y. a few days last week.

The base ball boys will hold a festival at the festival hall on Saturday evening, July 15th. Refreshments will be sold.

The Pine Glen 4-H cooking club met at the Clyde Hoover home, July 6th. The meeting was opened by the president Rebecca Burkley, by asking the officers to report on the County Council meeting. Three new members were added, the meeting then was turned over to Miss Butler who showed the girls how to make muffins, cocoa and cook eggs. The next meeting will be at Clyde Hoover's July 20th.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Melcher, Miss Lenora Miss Frances Roberts and Miss Ida Williams were dinner guests of Mrs. Gertrude Crain Saturday evening, with Mrs. Mary Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Drain and George Jr., of Philadelphia. They spent Saturday night and Sunday with their nephew E. A. Turner.

The Melchers and Miss Roberts returned to the home in Wilkinsburg Wednesday morning after having spent ten days very pleasantly at Sylvan Crest and visiting friends in this vicinity. Other Sylvan Crest visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. W. W. Meicher, Miss Erma Culp Wilkinsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Robert and mother of Butler, Pa. Mrs. Marion Reese, Mrs. Raymond Reese, Port Matilda and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Buell of Chester, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Buell are taking a graduate work at State this summer.

The Game Warden is on the look out for some persons big dog that disturbs the stillness of the night by his discordant yelps, chasing deer. If you value your dog, better keep him home.

C. E. Ardery attended a meeting of the Grange Fair committee last Saturday evening at Centre Hall. Rev. and Mrs. A. G. Herr were guests at the Dorsey Cronister home on Sunday.

The Baptist Missionary Society held their July meeting at the home of Mrs. G. E. Swan Friday evening. There was a good turn out and had a fine meeting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Williams spent last week very pleasantly with Mrs. Elwood Steele.

Mr. and Mrs. Elery Knarr and daughter, who were in Lewisburg Saturday evening on business.

SMULLTON

Miss Bernice Gentzel returned to her home at Spruce Creek Wednesday after spending some time here with her aunt, Mrs. Ida Walizer.

PLEASANT GAP

Mrs. Bella Ping of Altoona, has been visiting the Misses Nettie and Lizzie Gill.

Mrs. Edna Kirkwood, who has been visiting in this vicinity for several weeks, left Tuesday for her home at New Castle.

Mrs. John Wilson returned to her home at Osceola Sunday, after a week's visit with the Millwades.

The Thomas Foss family is entertaining Mr. Foss' father, F. M. Foss and brother Paul.

Mrs. John Hockenberry entertained a number of friends at her home Saturday night when her night blooming cereus, a plant of which she is very proud and whose blooms open but one night, bloomed that evening.

Mr. George Margarell Sr. left Tuesday for the hospital at Aspinwall where he will receive treatment for his rheumatism.

Terry Noll, Clark Hill, and William Brown of State College, left last Thursday night for Detroit, Mich., where they attended a model Airplane meet and returned home Sunday by way of Canada. They report a most enjoyable trip.

The John Larimer family spent Sunday with friends in Sunbury.

The Elve Wire Class of the M. E. Sunday School held a picnic at Hecla Park Tuesday evening.

The Woman's Civic Club ladies held their annual picnic at Bradleys place in the Seven Mts. on Wednesday.

Mrs. S. E. Noll, Mrs. J. R. Barlett and Mrs. Edgar Summers attended the Amaranth picnic held at the summer home near the Triangle of one of the members.

Mrs. Ray Melroy made a business trip to Harrisburg Wednesday.

Miss Helen Tate is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Feldman Hamilton at Hecla.

Master Billy Tate underwent a tonsilectomy operation Tuesday.

Mrs. Bettie Lobb and mother Mrs. Lambert of Pittsburgh, spent last Thursday afternoon at the Noll-Melroy home.

Mrs. Kenneth Zerby and daughter of Johnstown have been visiting for the past few weeks at the Frank Irvin home.

Mrs. H. T. Noll and Mrs. Ray Melroy drove to Blanchard last Friday afternoon to see Mrs. Milton Kunes and have been very ill for several weeks and were glad to find her feeling much better. They also called at the home of Mrs. E. O. Dyer before returning home.

Rev. Henry and wife, have been spending a week with friends at Chambersburg and nearby places.

Mrs. Franklin Hoy and children were elected Monday evening to teach the coming year in the Bishop street school at Bellefonte, the former is a graduate of the Kutztown Teachers College and the latter graduated this year from the Pennsylvania State College.

Mrs. Franklin Hoy and children have been visiting for the past week with relatives in Lock Haven.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vongunden of Lock Haven spent Sunday with the Victor Vongunden's.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Brooks, Mrs. Benton and daughter Dolores, Elwood Brooks, Miss Marie Brooks and Mr. Struble of Lemont enjoyed a picnic dinner Sunday at Spruce Creek.

WOODWARD

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stover of Middleburg, were Sunday guests at the George Stover residence. They also took in the Stover reunion at the Woodward cave that same day.

ORVISTON

There were 126 present at Sunday School Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Ott and Miss Betty Packer, of Williamsport, Irvin and Harry Packer, of Newberry, spent Sunday at the Clayton Watson home.

Paul Lomison and two children Kelsey and Ann and Mrs. Blanche Daley visited the Roy Oyer home on Sunday afternoon.

John Dyer of Middle River, Md., spent the weekend at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lomison and son Harry spent the weekend with their daughter and family, Mrs. Walter Pierce, at Chester, Pa. and Mrs. Lomison and Mrs. John Chapman, returning home along after a week's visit with their sister.

The friends of Mrs. Paul Lomison gave her a birthday surprise party on Thursday night. The following were present: Mrs. Oscar Heaton, Mrs. Clayton Watson, Mrs. Robert Confer, Mrs. Bertha Condo, Mrs. J. R. Waite, Mrs. David Confer, Mrs. Roy Cyphert, Annie Confer, Mrs. Ed. Confer, Mrs. Willis Thompson, Mrs. Bertha Condo, Mrs. Earl Lomison, Mrs. A. J. Confer, Mrs. William Gillespie, Mrs. L. C. Barber, Mrs. Alfred Shawley, Mrs. Ed. Holter, Mrs. Mary B. Heverly, Nellie Heverly, Mrs. Blanche Daley, and Mrs. Paul Lomison. Mrs. Lomison received some very nice presents. The evening was spent in playing bingo, the following were prize winners: Mrs. Roy Cyphert, Annie Confer, Mrs. Bertha Condo, Nellie Heverly and Mrs. J. R. Waite.

It is hard for the wife with the garden fever, when the husband decides to raise poultry.

SHAFFER STORES

Advertisement for Shaffer Stores listing various products and prices: Penn Alto Tea, Shaffer Special Coffee, Penn Alto Evap. Milk, Post Toasties, Penn Alto Butter, Penn Alto Salad Dressing, Penn Alto Table Syrup, Maney or Mothers Bread Flour, Staley Cream Corn Starch, Jack & Jill Gelatin Desserts, Pure Cane Sugar, SPRY Shortening, Fancy Salmon, Cal. Lima Beans, Soft Drinks, Big Egg Laying Mash, Ful-O-Pep Egg Mash, RinsO or Oxydol, Octagon Soap, Strike Anywhere Matches, Firm, Ripe Tomatoes, Fancy Peaches, Yellow, Ripe Bananas, Quality Steer Beef, Rib Roast, Club Steak, Lean Bacon Squares.

SHAFFER STORES COMPANY

Advertisement for Shaffer Store listing various products and prices: SERVE SUMMER MEALS THE EASY WAY! WITH BIRD'S EYE FROSTED FOOD. READY TO COOK-READY TO SERVE. 4 BIG SPECIALS! PEAS 19c, SPINACH 19c, HADDOCK 21c, LEG OF LAMB 39c. TIME-SAVING VALUES: Corn on Cob, Chopped Steak, Ribbamb, Green Beans, Wax Beans, Sausage Links, Youngberries, Red Perch Fillets. PHONE YOUR NEAREST Shaffer Store OR VISIT OUR STORE, N. Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa.