

LOCALS

—Miss Bernice Heltman, of Logan, was a guest last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, of Willowbank Street.

—Neon signs were erected last week in front of the Elks Home, West High Street, and the Brooks-Doll Post American Legion Home, on East Howard Street.

—Mrs. E. E. Spencer returned to her home in Corning, N. Y., early this week after having been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Panning, on Willowbank Street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ardell Wilson, of State College, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilson and daughter Sondra, of Lemont, motored to Elysburg on Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. Ardell Wilson's sister, Mrs. Ray Casselberry.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. Gar Young and children, Janna, John and Anne, of Ardmore, arrived in town Saturday, and will be in town with Mrs. Young's mother, Mrs. H. Laird Curtin and family at their home in that community.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gail Veder, of Cleveland, Ohio, who spent the weekend in State College as guests of Mrs. Veder's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. David Slagel, were callers at this office Monday morning while on a pleasure trip to Bellefonte.

—Mrs. Mary Fauble, of North Allegheny Street, proprietor of the Fauble insurance agency, yesterday was notified of her appointment as appraiser in Centre County. It is understood that Mrs. Fauble's duties will consist of appraising lands and buildings upon the request of the Highway Department.

—On Tuesday, July 18th, a delightful dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Casselberry at Mr. Carmel in honor of Mrs. Casselberry's father, Harry Rocky, formerly of Curtis, whose present whereabouts are unknown. Mrs. C. L. Casselberry and daughter, Josephine, and Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Kreamer, of Elysburg.

—Miss Bernice Johnstonbaugh, of Little Nittany, and Mrs. Joe Baird and son Franklin, of Lemont, motored to Williamsport Tuesday where they picked up the latter's mother and continued on to Binghamton, New York, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. O'Shaughnessy, relatives of the party. They returned home late Friday evening.

—The following persons held a picnic Sunday at Harry John's Park: Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Ream, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hoy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eckenroth, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ream, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Royer, of Mill Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Eckenroth, Mr. Arch Hagan, Miss Vera Hagan, Ruby and Emeline Ream, Norman and Carl Ream.

—District Attorney Musser W. Gettig and Mrs. Gettig returned to Bellefonte Wednesday last week from St. Louis, Mo., where Mr. Gettig represented the Bellefonte Elks lodge at the annual national convention of Elks. During their absence the Gettigs enjoyed a 900-mile boat trip on the Great Lakes and visited relatives and friends in various middle western states.

—Miss Carolyn Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell, of East Bishop Street, has resigned her position in the offices of the American Lime and Stone company in view of her approaching marriage to Archie Caldwell, of Uniontown. Mr. Caldwell was for two years chief clerk in the West Penn Power Co. offices in Bellefonte, having been transferred to Uniontown last February.

—Harry C. Yeager, of North Spring street, owner of the Yeager Shoe store, and Ralph L. Malory, of the Hays apartments, North Allegheny street, dealt in the Bellefonte Photographic show, spending a week's vacation at the Sycamore Camp, Wingo. Although the two men departed with the avowed purpose of "roughing it" for a week or ten days, they took Junior Miles, of North Thomas street, along with them to keep the outfit from being too much of a chore.

—Mrs. Blanche Schloer, of Philadelphia, who for the past ten days has been with her brother, A. Fauble, at his home on North Allegheny street, departed for Harrisburg yesterday as the driving guest of her sisters, Mrs. W. E. Seel, of Paxtang and Mrs. Edwin Tausig, of Harrisburg, who accompanied her in the day. Mr. Fauble, who has been quite ill at his home for some time, has not improved in health to any noticeable degree. Some days he is well enough to be up and around at his home, while at other times he is bedfast.

—Mrs. Joe Lannen, of Lock Haven, who was seriously injured in the motor accident near Bercak, May 3, in which a Mrs. Shaffer was killed, is visiting her brother, G. W. Smith on the old Smith homestead near Rockview. Mrs. Lannen suffered a double fracture of the skull. Early reports of the accident stated that she jumped from the car. This was in error, as she was thrown from the machine as it ran into a field after the brakes burned out. Other guests at the Smith home are: Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Smith, of Alliance, Ohio, and Mrs. Charles Goodrich, of Lock Haven.

—Mr. and Mrs. John B. Payne and daughter, Virginia, and son, William, of Dayton, Ohio, former residents of Bellefonte, motored here last Thursday to spend the day with local friends. Mr. Payne, who from 1920 to 1928 was Centre County Vocational Supervisor, has been employed by the Curtis Publishing Company for the past ten years and is now circulation manager for that house in Indiana and Ohio. Miss Virginia Payne is an accomplished musician and regularly sings over the radio as well as in the choir of a Presbyterian church in Dayton. She plans to spend the coming winter in Florida where she will study at a conservatory in that state.

—Found: Pocket folder. Inquire at this office.

—Abbott's Philadelphia ice cream, Everitt's Drug Store, 24 S. Allegheny Street, Bellefonte. 224f

—Mrs. Margaret Snyder of North Allegheny Street, spent the weekend in Howard, returning home Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor, of Penn Street, have returned home after a week's visit at the New York World's Fair.

—Dr. Howard P. Bauer, Optometrist, have your eyes examined now. For appointments call Bellefonte 3. W. W. E. Crossley Jewelry Store, 191f

—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hunter, of Mechanicsburg, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. Hunter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter, at their home on East Curdin street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Relish and Mrs. James Reish, of Lock Haven, has spent the weekend in Bellefonte, Pa., motored to Jacksonville on Monday and spent the evening with Miss Della Garbrick.

—Mrs. Raymond Weschler and three daughters, Mary Ann, Patty Lou and Kathryn Jane, of Erie, are here visiting Mrs. Weschler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rider, of Willowbank street.

—Miss Barbara McGowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGowan, of Willowbank Street, has gone to Washington, D. C., to spend a month as a guest of her sister, Miss Louise McGowan.

—Mrs. John Hopkins and children John and Dick, of McKeesport, spent the latter part of last week in Bellefonte as guests of the children's great-grandmother, Mrs. Jas. B. Lane, at her home on East Linn street.

—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ammerman arrived home Tuesday after a two weeks' visit near Jersey Shore at the home of their sons, E. D. Ammerman and John T. Ammerman, Jr., who reside at Jersey Shore, R. D.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Irvin, son Harry, daughter Mildred and granddaughter Louise, all of Akron, Ohio, spent from Thursday until Sunday in this vicinity visiting Mr. Irvin's mother and sister residing on Reynolds avenue, and Mrs. Irvin's relatives at Pleasant Gap.

—Lyman L. Smith, of East Curdin Street, has taken over the management of the gasoline pumps on West Bishop Street which formerly were operated as a part of the W. F. Kessinger auto store. Mr. Smith has contracted to sell Mobil gasoline and oil and invites his many friends throughout the county to call upon him.

—The Bellefonte A. M. E. church and Sunday school joined with the churches of Tyrone, Philipsburg, Altoona, Hollidaysburg and Huntingdon for their annual picnic at Lakemont Park last Thursday. It was a delightful occasion, well attended, and marked with games and contests of all kinds. Appropriate enough, the occasion was marked with a service of devotion in the evening.

—Miss Rachel Reichert, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reichert, of Burnside Street, who recently fractured her left arm in a fall, last Wednesday had the member broken over and re-set, the operation being performed at the Centre County Hospital. Her treatment was necessary because the part of the fractured bone were not in proper position. The girl is now recovering nicely at her parental home.

—Miss Bertha Rimmey, of Pleasant Gap, Red Cross nurse of the Bellefonte Chapter, will leave for her annual vacation on Monday and expects to be absent until August 27. While she has not made definite plans for a vacation trip, Miss Rimmey expects to spend some time at the World's Fair in New York. While she is off duty Mrs. Mary Childs will substitute for her on emergency calls. She may be reached by telephoning Bellefonte 165.

—The Rev. Father William E. Downes, rector of St. John's Catholic church, Bellefonte, attended funeral services in Wilkes Barre, Monday, for Father Malachy Kitzick, of Pensacola, Florida. Father Downes and Father Kitzick were members of a group of four students who were ordained into the priesthood at Altoona in 1903, and Father Kitzick is the first of the four to pass away. Upon his return to Bellefonte, Monday, Father Downes was accompanied by Father James Gilmore, of Pittsburgh, who was a classmate of the local rector at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Md., many years ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Jodon and daughter, Mary, returned to their home on East Lamb Street, Wednesday night of last week, from a most pleasant vacation trip to Ft. Wayne, Indiana, where they were guests of Mr. Jodon's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rosenberger and family. Mrs. Jodon and Mary went to Fort Wayne several weeks ago by rail. Mr. Jodon motored out during his annual vacation from his duties as an employee of the Atlantic Refining Company here. While the family was in Ft. Wayne they attended the fourth annual national air races and reported that the event was so exciting that they were so busy they didn't mind sitting all afternoon in the hot sun to watch the proceedings.

—The Rev. William E. Marks, for the past 25 years a resident of Lakeland, Florida, spent last Friday morning in Bellefonte in conference with Henry Linn and his sister, Miss Mary Linn, in regard to some incidents in the early history of the county. The Rev. Mr. Marks, a Presbyterian minister who is spending some time in Port Matilda, is engaged in writing an historical novel, in which Centre County, and particularly Bald Eagle Valley, are prominently featured. The novel is scheduled to be released in the near future by one of the nation's best known publishing houses. The author has not revealed the title of his book, but arrangements have been made for printing of the novel in Florida as soon as the volume is off the press.

—Found: Pocket folder. Inquire at this office.

—Abbott's Philadelphia ice cream, Everitt's Drug Store, 24 S. Allegheny Street, Bellefonte. 224f

—Mrs. Margaret Snyder of North Allegheny Street, spent the weekend in Howard, returning home Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor, of Penn Street, have returned home after a week's visit at the New York World's Fair.

—Dr. Howard P. Bauer, Optometrist, have your eyes examined now. For appointments call Bellefonte 3. W. W. E. Crossley Jewelry Store, 191f

—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hunter, of Mechanicsburg, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. Hunter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter, at their home on East Curdin street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Relish and Mrs. James Reish, of Lock Haven, has spent the weekend in Bellefonte, Pa., motored to Jacksonville on Monday and spent the evening with Miss Della Garbrick.

—Mrs. Raymond Weschler and three daughters, Mary Ann, Patty Lou and Kathryn Jane, of Erie, are here visiting Mrs. Weschler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rider, of Willowbank street.

—Miss Barbara McGowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGowan, of Willowbank Street, has gone to Washington, D. C., to spend a month as a guest of her sister, Miss Louise McGowan.

—Mrs. John Hopkins and children John and Dick, of McKeesport, spent the latter part of last week in Bellefonte as guests of the children's great-grandmother, Mrs. Jas. B. Lane, at her home on East Linn street.

—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ammerman arrived home Tuesday after a two weeks' visit near Jersey Shore at the home of their sons, E. D. Ammerman and John T. Ammerman, Jr., who reside at Jersey Shore, R. D.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Irvin, son Harry, daughter Mildred and granddaughter Louise, all of Akron, Ohio, spent from Thursday until Sunday in this vicinity visiting Mr. Irvin's mother and sister residing on Reynolds avenue, and Mrs. Irvin's relatives at Pleasant Gap.

—Lyman L. Smith, of East Curdin Street, has taken over the management of the gasoline pumps on West Bishop Street which formerly were operated as a part of the W. F. Kessinger auto store. Mr. Smith has contracted to sell Mobil gasoline and oil and invites his many friends throughout the county to call upon him.

—The Bellefonte A. M. E. church and Sunday school joined with the churches of Tyrone, Philipsburg, Altoona, Hollidaysburg and Huntingdon for their annual picnic at Lakemont Park last Thursday. It was a delightful occasion, well attended, and marked with games and contests of all kinds. Appropriate enough, the occasion was marked with a service of devotion in the evening.

—Miss Rachel Reichert, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reichert, of Burnside Street, who recently fractured her left arm in a fall, last Wednesday had the member broken over and re-set, the operation being performed at the Centre County Hospital. Her treatment was necessary because the part of the fractured bone were not in proper position. The girl is now recovering nicely at her parental home.

—Miss Bertha Rimmey, of Pleasant Gap, Red Cross nurse of the Bellefonte Chapter, will leave for her annual vacation on Monday and expects to be absent until August 27. While she has not made definite plans for a vacation trip, Miss Rimmey expects to spend some time at the World's Fair in New York. While she is off duty Mrs. Mary Childs will substitute for her on emergency calls. She may be reached by telephoning Bellefonte 165.

—The Rev. Father William E. Downes, rector of St. John's Catholic church, Bellefonte, attended funeral services in Wilkes Barre, Monday, for Father Malachy Kitzick, of Pensacola, Florida. Father Downes and Father Kitzick were members of a group of four students who were ordained into the priesthood at Altoona in 1903, and Father Kitzick is the first of the four to pass away. Upon his return to Bellefonte, Monday, Father Downes was accompanied by Father James Gilmore, of Pittsburgh, who was a classmate of the local rector at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Md., many years ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Jodon and daughter, Mary, returned to their home on East Lamb Street, Wednesday night of last week, from a most pleasant vacation trip to Ft. Wayne, Indiana, where they were guests of Mr. Jodon's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rosenberger and family. Mrs. Jodon and Mary went to Fort Wayne several weeks ago by rail. Mr. Jodon motored out during his annual vacation from his duties as an employee of the Atlantic Refining Company here. While the family was in Ft. Wayne they attended the fourth annual national air races and reported that the event was so exciting that they were so busy they didn't mind sitting all afternoon in the hot sun to watch the proceedings.

—The Rev. William E. Marks, for the past 25 years a resident of Lakeland, Florida, spent last Friday morning in Bellefonte in conference with Henry Linn and his sister, Miss Mary Linn, in regard to some incidents in the early history of the county. The Rev. Mr. Marks, a Presbyterian minister who is spending some time in Port Matilda, is engaged in writing an historical novel, in which Centre County, and particularly Bald Eagle Valley, are prominently featured. The novel is scheduled to be released in the near future by one of the nation's best known publishing houses. The author has not revealed the title of his book, but arrangements have been made for printing of the novel in Florida as soon as the volume is off the press.

—Found: Pocket folder. Inquire at this office.

—Abbott's Philadelphia ice cream, Everitt's Drug Store, 24 S. Allegheny Street, Bellefonte. 224f

—Mrs. Margaret Snyder of North Allegheny Street, spent the weekend in Howard, returning home Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor, of Penn Street, have returned home after a week's visit at the New York World's Fair.

—Dr. Howard P. Bauer, Optometrist, have your eyes examined now. For appointments call Bellefonte 3. W. W. E. Crossley Jewelry Store, 191f

—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hunter, of Mechanicsburg, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. Hunter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter, at their home on East Curdin street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Relish and Mrs. James Reish, of Lock Haven, has spent the weekend in Bellefonte, Pa., motored to Jacksonville on Monday and spent the evening with Miss Della Garbrick.

—Mrs. Raymond Weschler and three daughters, Mary Ann, Patty Lou and Kathryn Jane, of Erie, are here visiting Mrs. Weschler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rider, of Willowbank street.

—Miss Barbara McGowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGowan, of Willowbank Street, has gone to Washington, D. C., to spend a month as a guest of her sister, Miss Louise McGowan.

—Mrs. John Hopkins and children John and Dick, of McKeesport, spent the latter part of last week in Bellefonte as guests of the children's great-grandmother, Mrs. Jas. B. Lane, at her home on East Linn street.

—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ammerman arrived home Tuesday after a two weeks' visit near Jersey Shore at the home of their sons, E. D. Ammerman and John T. Ammerman, Jr., who reside at Jersey Shore, R. D.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Irvin, son Harry, daughter Mildred and granddaughter Louise, all of Akron, Ohio, spent from Thursday until Sunday in this vicinity visiting Mr. Irvin's mother and sister residing on Reynolds avenue, and Mrs. Irvin's relatives at Pleasant Gap.

—Lyman L. Smith, of East Curdin Street, has taken over the management of the gasoline pumps on West Bishop Street which formerly were operated as a part of the W. F. Kessinger auto store. Mr. Smith has contracted to sell Mobil gasoline and oil and invites his many friends throughout the county to call upon him.

—The Bellefonte A. M. E. church and Sunday school joined with the churches of Tyrone, Philipsburg, Altoona, Hollidaysburg and Huntingdon for their annual picnic at Lakemont Park last Thursday. It was a delightful occasion, well attended, and marked with games and contests of all kinds. Appropriate enough, the occasion was marked with a service of devotion in the evening.

—Miss Rachel Reichert, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reichert, of Burnside Street, who recently fractured her left arm in a fall, last Wednesday had the member broken over and re-set, the operation being performed at the Centre County Hospital. Her treatment was necessary because the part of the fractured bone were not in proper position. The girl is now recovering nicely at her parental home.

—Miss Bertha Rimmey, of Pleasant Gap, Red Cross nurse of the Bellefonte Chapter, will leave for her annual vacation on Monday and expects to be absent until August 27. While she has not made definite plans for a vacation trip, Miss Rimmey expects to spend some time at the World's Fair in New York. While she is off duty Mrs. Mary Childs will substitute for her on emergency calls. She may be reached by telephoning Bellefonte 165.

—The Rev. Father William E. Downes, rector of St. John's Catholic church, Bellefonte, attended funeral services in Wilkes Barre, Monday, for Father Malachy Kitzick, of Pensacola, Florida. Father Downes and Father Kitzick were members of a group of four students who were ordained into the priesthood at Altoona in 1903, and Father Kitzick is the first of the four to pass away. Upon his return to Bellefonte, Monday, Father Downes was accompanied by Father James Gilmore, of Pittsburgh, who was a classmate of the local rector at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Md., many years ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Jodon and daughter, Mary, returned to their home on East Lamb Street, Wednesday night of last week, from a most pleasant vacation trip to Ft. Wayne, Indiana, where they were guests of Mr. Jodon's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rosenberger and family. Mrs. Jodon and Mary went to Fort Wayne several weeks ago by rail. Mr. Jodon motored out during his annual vacation from his duties as an employee of the Atlantic Refining Company here. While the family was in Ft. Wayne they attended the fourth annual national air races and reported that the event was so exciting that they were so busy they didn't mind sitting all afternoon in the hot sun to watch the proceedings.

—The Rev. William E. Marks, for the past 25 years a resident of Lakeland, Florida, spent last Friday morning in Bellefonte in conference with Henry Linn and his sister, Miss Mary Linn, in regard to some incidents in the early history of the county. The Rev. Mr. Marks, a Presbyterian minister who is spending some time in Port Matilda, is engaged in writing an historical novel, in which Centre County, and particularly Bald Eagle Valley, are prominently featured. The novel is scheduled to be released in the near future by one of the nation's best known publishing houses. The author has not revealed the title of his book, but arrangements have been made for printing of the novel in Florida as soon as the volume is off the press.

—Found: Pocket folder. Inquire at this office.

—Abbott's Philadelphia ice cream, Everitt's Drug Store, 24 S. Allegheny Street, Bellefonte. 224f

—Mrs. Margaret Snyder of North Allegheny Street, spent the weekend in Howard, returning home Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor, of Penn Street, have returned home after a week's visit at the New York World's Fair.

—Dr. Howard P. Bauer, Optometrist, have your eyes examined now. For appointments call Bellefonte 3. W. W. E. Crossley Jewelry Store, 191f

—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hunter, of Mechanicsburg, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. Hunter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter, at their home on East Curdin street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Relish and Mrs. James Reish, of Lock Haven, has spent the weekend in Bellefonte, Pa., motored to Jacksonville on Monday and spent the evening with Miss Della Garbrick.

—Mrs. Raymond Weschler and three daughters, Mary Ann, Patty Lou and Kathryn Jane, of Erie, are here visiting Mrs. Weschler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rider, of Willowbank street.

—Miss Barbara McGowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGowan, of Willowbank Street, has gone to Washington, D. C., to spend a month as a guest of her sister, Miss Louise McGowan.

—Mrs. John Hopkins and children John and Dick, of McKeesport, spent the latter part of last week in Bellefonte as guests of the children's great-grandmother, Mrs. Jas. B. Lane, at her home on East Linn street.

—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ammerman arrived home Tuesday after a two weeks' visit near Jersey Shore at the home of their sons, E. D. Ammerman and John T. Ammerman, Jr., who reside at Jersey Shore, R. D.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Irvin, son Harry, daughter Mildred and granddaughter Louise, all of Akron, Ohio, spent from Thursday until Sunday in this vicinity visiting Mr. Irvin's mother and sister residing on Reynolds avenue, and Mrs. Irvin's relatives at Pleasant Gap.

—Lyman L. Smith, of East Curdin Street, has taken over the management of the gasoline pumps on West Bishop Street which formerly were operated as a part of the W. F. Kessinger auto store. Mr. Smith has contracted to sell Mobil gasoline and oil and invites his many friends throughout the county to call upon him.

—The Bellefonte A. M. E. church and Sunday school joined with the churches of Tyrone, Philipsburg, Altoona, Hollidaysburg and Huntingdon for their annual picnic at Lakemont Park last Thursday. It was a delightful occasion, well attended, and marked with games and contests of all kinds. Appropriate enough, the occasion was marked with a service of devotion in the evening.

—Miss Rachel Reichert, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reichert, of Burnside Street, who recently fractured her left arm in a fall, last Wednesday had the member broken over and re-set, the operation being performed at the Centre County Hospital. Her treatment was necessary because the part of the fractured bone were not in proper position. The girl is now recovering nicely at her parental home.

—Miss Bertha Rimmey, of Pleasant Gap, Red Cross nurse of the Bellefonte Chapter, will leave for her annual vacation on Monday and expects to be absent until August 27. While she has not made definite plans for a vacation trip, Miss Rimmey expects to spend some time at the World's Fair in New York. While she is off duty Mrs. Mary Childs will substitute for her on emergency calls. She may be reached by telephoning Bellefonte 165.

—The Rev. Father William E. Downes, rector of St. John's Catholic church, Bellefonte, attended funeral services in Wilkes Barre, Monday, for Father Malachy Kitzick, of Pensacola, Florida. Father Downes and Father Kitzick were members of a group of four students who were ordained into the priesthood at Altoona in 1903, and Father Kitzick is the first of the four to pass away. Upon his return to Bellefonte, Monday, Father Downes was accompanied by Father James Gilmore, of Pittsburgh, who was a classmate of the local rector at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Md., many years ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Jodon and daughter, Mary, returned to their home on East Lamb Street, Wednesday night of last week, from a most pleasant vacation trip to Ft. Wayne, Indiana, where they were guests of Mr. Jodon's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rosenberger and family. Mrs. Jodon and Mary went to Fort Wayne several weeks ago by rail. Mr. Jodon motored out during his annual vacation from his duties as an employee of the Atlantic Refining Company here. While the family was in Ft. Wayne they attended the fourth annual national air races and reported that the event was so exciting that they were so busy they didn't mind sitting all afternoon in the hot sun to watch the proceedings.

—The Rev. William E. Marks, for the past 25 years a resident of Lakeland, Florida, spent last Friday morning in Bellefonte in conference with Henry Linn and his sister, Miss Mary Linn, in regard to some incidents in the early history of the county. The Rev. Mr. Marks, a Presbyterian minister who is spending some time in Port Matilda, is engaged in writing an historical novel, in which Centre County, and particularly Bald Eagle Valley, are prominently featured. The novel is scheduled to be released in the near future by one of the nation's best known publishing houses. The author has not revealed the title of his book, but arrangements have been made for printing of the novel in Florida as soon as the volume is off the press.

—Found: Pocket folder. Inquire at this office.

—Abbott's Philadelphia ice cream, Everitt's Drug Store, 24 S. Allegheny Street, Bellefonte. 224f

—Mrs. Margaret Snyder of North Allegheny Street, spent the weekend in Howard, returning home Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor, of Penn Street, have returned home after a week's visit at the New York World's Fair.

—Dr. Howard P. Bauer, Optometrist, have your eyes examined now. For appointments call Bellefonte 3. W. W. E. Crossley Jewelry Store, 191f

—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hunter, of Mechanicsburg, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. Hunter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter, at their home on East Curdin street.

—Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Relish and Mrs. James Reish, of Lock Haven, has spent the weekend in Bellefonte, Pa., motored to Jacksonville on Monday and spent the evening with Miss Della Garbrick.

—Mrs. Raymond Weschler and three daughters, Mary Ann, Patty Lou and Kathryn Jane, of Erie, are here visiting Mrs. Weschler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rider, of Willowbank street.

—Miss Barbara McGowan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGowan, of Willowbank Street, has gone to Washington, D. C., to spend a month as a guest of her sister, Miss Louise McGowan.

—Mrs. John Hopkins and children John and Dick, of McKeesport, spent the latter part of last week in Bellefonte as guests of the children's great-grandmother, Mrs. Jas. B. Lane, at her home on East Linn street.

—Mr. and Mrs. John T. Ammerman arrived home Tuesday after a two weeks' visit near Jersey Shore at the home of their sons, E. D. Ammerman and John T. Ammerman, Jr., who reside at Jersey Shore, R. D.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Irvin, son Harry, daughter Mildred and granddaughter Louise, all of Akron, Ohio, spent from Thursday until Sunday in this vicinity visiting Mr. Irvin's mother and sister residing on Reynolds avenue, and Mrs. Irvin's relatives at Pleasant Gap.

—Lyman L. Smith, of East Curdin Street, has taken over the management of the gasoline pumps on West Bishop Street which formerly were operated as a part of the W. F. Kessinger auto store. Mr. Smith has contracted to sell Mobil gasoline and oil and invites his many friends throughout the county to call upon him.

—The Bellefonte A. M. E. church and Sunday school joined with the churches of Tyrone, Philipsburg, Altoona, Hollidaysburg and Huntingdon for their annual picnic at Lakemont Park last Thursday. It was a delightful occasion, well attended, and marked with games and contests of all kinds. Appropriate enough, the occasion was marked with a service of devotion in the evening.

—Miss Rachel Reichert, 15-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reichert, of Burnside Street, who recently fractured her left arm in a fall, last Wednesday had the member broken over and re-set, the operation being performed at the Centre County Hospital. Her treatment was necessary because the part of the fractured bone were not in proper position. The girl is now recovering nicely at her parental home.

—Miss Bertha Rimmey, of Pleasant Gap, Red Cross nurse of the Bellefonte Chapter, will leave for her annual vacation on Monday and expects to be absent until August 27. While she has not made definite plans for a vacation trip, Miss Rimmey expects to spend some time at the World's Fair in New York. While she is off duty Mrs. Mary Childs will substitute for her on emergency calls. She may be reached by telephoning Bellefonte 165.

—The Rev. Father William E. Downes, rector of St. John's Catholic church, Bellefonte, attended funeral services in Wilkes Barre, Monday, for Father Malachy Kitzick, of Pensacola, Florida. Father Downes and Father Kitzick were members of a group of four students who were ordained into the priesthood at Altoona in 1903, and Father Kitzick is the first of the four to pass away. Upon his return to Bellefonte, Monday, Father Downes was accompanied by Father James Gilmore, of Pittsburgh, who was a classmate of the local rector at Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Md., many years ago.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Jodon and daughter, Mary, returned to their home on East Lamb Street, Wednesday night of last week, from a most pleasant vacation trip to Ft. Wayne, Indiana, where they were guests of Mr. Jodon's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Rosenberger and family. Mrs. Jodon and Mary went to Fort Wayne several weeks ago by rail. Mr. Jodon motored out during his annual vacation from his duties as an employee of the Atlantic Refining Company here. While the family was in Ft. Wayne they attended the fourth annual national air races and reported that the event was so exciting that they were so busy they didn't mind sitting all afternoon in the hot sun to watch the proceedings.

—The Rev. William E. Marks, for the past 25 years a resident of Lakeland, Florida, spent last Friday morning in Bellefonte in conference with Henry Linn and his sister, Miss Mary Linn, in regard to some incidents in the early history of the county. The Rev. Mr. Marks, a Presbyterian minister who is spending some time in Port Matilda, is engaged in writing an historical novel, in which Centre County, and particularly Bald Eagle Valley, are prominently featured. The novel is scheduled to be released in the near future by one of the nation's best known publishing houses. The author has not revealed the title of his book, but arrangements have been made for printing of the novel in Florida as soon as the volume is off the press.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS

30,000 People Read This Column

every week. That's why the Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering its low cost and the benefits derived, it is undisputedly Centre County's Community Bargain Counter.

RATES—Advertisements of twenty-five words or less, 25 cents for first issue, and 15 cents for each additional insertion. Where advertisement contains more than twenty-five words, one cent a word is charged.

REAL ESTATE—A straight one cent a word is charged for real estate advertising—sale or rent.

KEYED ADS—All advertisements that request replies to be mailed to this office, must be complied with by those answering the advertisements. Please do not call at the office for information concerning such advertisements, as the publishers are not permitted to divulge the name of the advertiser.

SUBSCRIBER'S PRIVILEGE—Every subscriber to The Centre Democrat is entitled to a 25-word advertisement in these columns one time, free of charge. This privilege can be used six times a year at different intervals.

Lost and Found

FOUND—A dealer's license tax $48.85 owner can have same by calling at the Centre Democrat office and paying for this ad. 230

LOST—A house key between the promenade and the hotel. Inquire at Howard Street, Finder please return to this office or Mrs. William Fredericks. 230

LOST—In the vicinity of Bellefonte gold watch on upper plate. Please leave same at Centre Democrat office and get reward. 230

Card of Thanks

McKIVISON—We take this means of expressing our thanks to neighbors and friends for the use of their cars during the funeral, and their many acts of kindly sympathy during the illness and death of John W. McKivison. Mrs. McKivison and Family. 230

Help Wanted

WANTED—Middle aged lady to keep house in family of two. Mr. Albert Thompson, Howard, Pa. R. D. 2 (Nittany) Phone Zion 91993. 230

WANTED—Man for Rawleigh Route in Bellefonte and nearby. Particulars if you are a hustler, please write Rawleigh's Dept. PNG-34-103, Chester, Pa. 230

Work Wanted

WANTED—A school girl wants home work until school opens. Inquire of Mrs. C. H. Phone 732-1-1. Bellefonte. 230

TRUCKS LETTERED—Signs made to order. Reasonable rates. See W. M. Jackson, Millbrook on Route 45, Between State College and Lemont. 230

WANTED—Bellefonte high school girl wants housework in Bellefonte, in exchange for room and board. Write Vera Fiedler, 1119 Glen or Phone Show Shoe 3-4-13. 230

DON'T DELAY—Now is the time to get that roof painted before fall weather sets in. Also house painting and papering. Call at reasonable prices. Experienced workman. See Elmer Sampson, (Shnydertown) Howard R. D. 2. 230

Wanted to Buy

WANTED—I am in the market for sheep, calves and chickens. Call Centre Hall 54-R-11 or drop a card to Sidney T. Riegal, Centre Hall, Pa. 114

Articles for Sale

FOR SALE—An Acorn range, suitable for camp, good baker, price cheap. W. E. Conder, Howard, Pa. 230

FOR SALE—One good used Hoover vacuum, a great bargain. Laird Korman residence, last house in Mt. Eagle. 230

FOR SALE—A good cook stove, will burn hard or soft coal or wood. Inquire of Eugene Shaver, Aaronville, Pa. 230

FOR SALE—6x8x8 umbrella tent, complete with metal stakes, canvas porch and flooring. $5.00. L. M. Meek, Bellefonte, Phone 228-R. 230

FOR SALE—I will have postboxes at my home from now on. Frank Brooks, Bellefonte, Pa. R. D. 2. 111

FOR SALE—A small Frigidaire, 3-burner oil stove and a four burner gas stove. Inquire of Lee Reed, 174-R Street, Bellefonte, Pa. Phone 174-R. 230

LUMBER—Boost home trade; buy direct from mill. Penna. Pine, hemlock, hardwood southern and western white pine. Call or write to J. B. Sona, Howard, Pa. Phone 131. 230

FOR SALE—6 Volt Deutz Winchenger with 50-ft. steel tower, also 800-watt bike with 3 speeds will haul 2 persons. 10 mi. per hour. 75 on gal. gas. Ernest B. Long, Julian, Pa. 230

FOR SALE—Good grade of soft coal, stove wood, sand, crushed stone, top soil and building stone. Inquire of Lee Reed, Bellefonte, Pa. West Lamb Street, Phone 174-R. 230

FOR SALE—Hundreds of used tires, all sizes from 15 to 26 inch rims. Backed by written guarantee. Open every night, everything to hand. Auto service, Show Shoe Intersection, Phone 753. 11f

FOR SALE—All kinds of native sawed lumber at $25 to $28 per m. Applicable to all orders. Write to W. H. W. Houts Lumber Co., State College, Pa. Phone 703. 291f

FOR SALE—One Oil-O-Matic oil burner, with economizer and all necessary fittings for furnace. Write or see L. C. Stoneraker, 820 Turnpike Ave., Clearfield, Pa. or phone Clearfield 2-10-1. 230

FOR SALE—1 1/2 h. p. ball bearing electric motor 110-220 volt single phase. Fine for chop or hammer mills. Also blacksmith drill press. See L. C. Stoneraker, 820 Turnpike Ave., Clearfield, Pa. 230

BUILDING A HOME—We have a full line of concrete foundation blocks, soil pipe and fittings, septic tanks, complete with everything to build anything. O. W. Houts Lumber Co., State College, Pa. Phone 703. 211f

FOR SALE—New Indian Motorcycle, as low as $195.00. Buy and ride the same old Indiana as Lucky Teters uses. See them at Night-hart's Motorcycle and Bicycle Store, 141 W. 4th St., Lewisport, Pa. 230

FOR SALE—Second hand brick building supplies, radon, and other materials are from the Bellefonte High School Building and can be seen at Kottman's Garage and Wal-Mart Auto Service Station, Phone 319 or 153. 291f

Sale or Exchange

FOR SALE—Or exchange on live block one McCormick hay loader in good condition. Earl Armstrong, Bellefonte, R. D. 2 (Zion), Phone 1811. 251f

FOR SALE—160 acre farm, 140 acres wooded, 6 miles west of State College, electric light good road. C. H. Campbell, Penna. Furnace, Pa. 204

FOR SALE—One of two of the Allison Penna. Valley farms. For information inquire of R. M. Allison, Spring Mills, Pa. 230

FOR SALE—Lot on E. Logan St., 30 ft. by 78 ft. Also Great Majestic range. Inquire of D. Paul Fortney, 10 E. Bishop Street, 230

FOR SALE—A 46 acre farm located in the heart of the Allegheny Valley. Electric light, good house and barn. Inquire of C. W. Stanley, 423 Garfield St., Tyrone, Pa. 230

FOR SALE—A 124 acre farm on White Hall road, 4 miles west of State College, electric light good road. C. H. Campbell, Penna. Furnace, Pa. 204