

SUMMIT HILL

Miss Fay Woomer spent over Sunday with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fulmer and family, of Williamsport, are visiting for a while at the Harry Woomer home.

Sunday visitors at the Irvin Young home were: Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Chapman and daughter, Janet, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Boone and son, Manley of Howard, Albert Young and three sons of Holts Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Herr of Orviston, Mrs. John Warr and son Charles, Fay and Charlotte Woomer.

Miss Alta Watkins spent over Sunday with her parents. Miss Martha Young and Mrs. Sam Herr took supper Friday with Mrs. John Warr.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Fye and family, visited at the Elmer Yeager home, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanley and Mrs. Joe Hanley and two children of Monmouth, called on Mrs. John Warr, on Friday.

Marlin Watkins spent over Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Watkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bassel and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Berry and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Chapman and daughter called at the Ben Chapman home on Sunday.

There were 112 of Miss Ruth Bowman and Florence Renn friends and neighbors gathered at the parsonage Friday evening for a well-gathered, music and singing were furnished by the Fye children of Jacksonville and Miss Bowman and Florence Renn. Ice cream and cake was served to all and at a late hour all returned home, hoping to see the girls soon.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam Herr of Orviston; Mrs. Irvin Young and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Blair Mann, Leonard and Ira Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Russel Jones, and son Ernest, Mary Heverly, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Boone and son Ronald, Mrs. Toner Mann, Eleanor Mann, Jerry Mann, Eleanor Boone, Catharine Confer, Nancy Lucas, Alta Watkins, Lloyd Bryan, Dorothy Poorman, Pauline Boone, Chester Poorman, Stanley Poorman, Jimmie Boone, Elmer Watkins, Martha Lucas, Harry Woomer, Alton Woomer, Merle Woomer, Charlotte Woomer, Harold Woomer, Alfred Bowman, Ray Miller, Isabelle Miller, Nancy Miller, Patty Miller, Thomas Nyman, Roy McKinley, Florence Renn, Ruth Bowman, Elmyr Watkins, Daisy Watkins, Floyd Watkins, Marlin Watkins, Loreta Watkins, Geraldine Watkins, Arthur Watkins, Ralph, Fred, Francis, Evelyn, Marie, Fay, Ethel, and Beulah Watkins, Sarah, Orin, and Harry Fye, Fred Betz, Mary Jane, Johnny, Eugene, Billy and George Fye, Mrs. Alfred Lucas, Meale Chapman, Fred Woomer, Don Woomer, Eleanor Woomer, Adeline Woomer, Lee Woomer, Ralph Woomer, John Warr, Esther Warr, Floyd Warr, Bobby Warr, Charles Warr, Harry Kessling, Ollie Kessling, Harry Kessling, Lewis Heverly, Cecelia Heverly, Viola Heverly, Ivan Chapman, James Chapman, Norman Richner, Harold Richner, Toner Robb, William Robb and wife, Mrs. Mattie Gardner, Eleanor Fye, Margaret Fye, Danny Fye, Jessie Thomas, Cal Yeager, Olive Yeager, Evelyn Yeager, Mrs. Lydia Confer, Hazel Lucas, and Myrtle Gardner.

Mrs. Mattie Gardner is visiting her daughter Mrs. James Watkins.

SNOWSHOE

Ladies Aid, of the M. E. church was held at the home of Mrs. P. M. Endinger, on Wednesday. Ladies Bible Class has planned a picnic for Aug. 9th. The place has not been decided on.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McDonald, and children have returned home after visiting Mrs. McDonald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald, of those who attended the Thompson reunion at Howard were: Mrs. William Hall Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Clair Hall, Sr., daughters, Charlotte, Barbara, son George, Mrs. Clair Hall Jr., son Rodgers, Bernice Gillette, Bobby Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Thompson, daughter Lucille, Maxine, Elina, Peggy, Betty, and son Dick, Clarence Thompson, daughters Audrey and Leona, all of Snow Shoe; Mrs. Gordon Stanley, daughter Beverly Ann, of Spangler.

Bobby Sherman of Sinnimhonung is visiting his sister, Mrs. Fred Hall.

Mrs. P. M. Budinger, daughter Sally, and son Herbert, visited the past week at the home of Mrs. E. J. Watson, of State College.

Betty Hughes of Trenton, N. J., is visiting Dorothy Smith.

Miss Minnie Mueser, of N. N. of Bridgeport, Conn., is spending her vacation with her sister, Mrs. Wilbur Confer and brother John Musser and family.

Miss Dorothy Lessing, of Schuylkill Haven, visited at the home of Mrs. P. M. Budinger, on Sunday. She was a roommate of Mrs. Budinger, at Teachers' College, West Chester.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Watson, daughter Janet, son Jay, spent Sunday with Mrs. Watson's mother, Mrs. Mabel Lucas, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cashier, and family, of Clarence, visited Mrs. Cashier's father, Simon Walker on Sunday afternoon.

The farmers of the nation, including those of Centre County who have good crops do not know whether they ought to be thankful or not.

KELVINATORS PHILCO RADIOS

MELROY'S

Phone 9599-R-1 PLEASANT GAP, PA.

ABC and VOSS WASHERS

BENDIX HOME LAUNDRY ELECTRIC STOVES

REBERSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sholl and two daughters Virginia and Ethel Jean of Turtle Creek, visited at the home of Emma Sholl during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bair and Master Gerald Bair called at the Earl Peck home at Nittany one day last week.

Mrs. Marie Mann, Mrs. C. Paul Ziegler and daughter, and Miss Ann Cright were business callers in Bellefonte on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bierly, sons Woodrow and Paul, and daughter Edythe, Mrs. H. S. Smull, and Miss Loris Bierly, spent the weekend at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brungart are the proud parents of a baby girl born to them on Sunday.

The following group of young people had a weiner roast at Halfway dam on Saturday night: Messrs. Stanford, Raymond and Paul Sholly and Pauline Sholly from Lewisburg, Lemuel Dresler of Millsburg, Lee Dubendorf, the Misses Pauline, Amanda, and Ruth Dubendorf, Barney Strohecker, John Troutman and Mark Dubendorf all from Sunbury, Lester Welshans, of Booneville, Frances Showers, of Loganston, and Betty Page, Hazel Brungart and Melvin Bright from town.

Mrs. A. G. Cummings is on the sick list. Elizabeth Gephart, daughter Helen, and grandson Charles Meyers, Jr., of State College visited Mrs. Emma Corman on Sunday.

Mrs. C. A. Page and daughters Phyllis and Betty spent several days last week at Atlantic City.

Mrs. E. C. Creeger of Thurmont, Md., was a Sunday guest at the Reformed parsonage. She was accompanied home by her son, Eddie, who had spent the weekend with his friend, John Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg and Mrs. M. C. Haines spent Saturday at Allentown with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Zacharis.

Weekend guests at the L. A. Kidder home were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eversman, and Mr. and Mrs. William Hatting and son Billy, all of Pittsburgh. Mrs. Eversman and daughter, Mrs. Hatting and son, remained at the Kidder home for an extended visit.

The sixth annual Ziegler reunion was held on Sunday at Hecla Park with the following people attending: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ziegler and two sons Billy and Louis of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nixon and daughter Louise from Mill Hall, Mr. and Mrs. John Klinefelter of Millheim; Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ziegler and daughter Rae Anna from McAllisterville; Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Haines and Mrs. John Winkler of Aronburg; Mrs. Ziegler and sons of State College; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ziegler and daughter Gladys, H. C. Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Page and two daughters, Phyllis and Betty, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitehill, Mr. and Mrs. C. Paul Ziegler and daughter Cynthia Sue, Melvin Bright, and Mrs. and Mrs. E. R. Wolfe and son Jason all from Rebersburg.

Miss Jean Hartman spent several days last week with her uncle, John Barker, at Ingaby.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker of Pittsburgh, were guests of Mrs. Almeda Miller over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cummings and son Dean visited relatives at Williamsport on Sunday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Regal of Middleburg, returned home on Sunday, and visited her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Arbogast.

Rev. and Mrs. Dale Koir were dinner guests of Mrs. M. C. Haines and son Ken last Wednesday. Guests at the same place on Friday included Mrs. W. C. Gramley, Mrs. John and Miss Orpha Gramley of Millheim; and Mrs. Cieta Bincher of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Annie Miller of Pitscarn, visited her mother Mrs. Lena Brungart the past week.

Sunday visitors at the R. W. Meyer home included: Mrs. C. C. Haines, daughter Harry Kimball and son Myron, from Milton, and Mrs. William Harpeter and son, Bruce, of Asbury, Park, N. J.

Miss Betty Miller is visiting in Hummelstown, Pa., the wife of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Mullin.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolf and family of Centre Hall, called at the A. B. Wolfe home on Sunday.

Archlie Igen and two friends of Alliquippa, spent the weekend with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Igen.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brungart and family were: Mr. and Mrs. Merle Brungart and family of Coburn, Miss Hazel Brungart of town, and Lester Welshans of Booneville, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gephart of Boalsburg called at the same place Sunday afternoon.

Miss Helen Arbogast of Laurelton, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Arbogast one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Oatherman and son Harold from Hanover, spent several days this week at the W. J. Hackenberg home.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Resnick transacted business in Lewistown on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hartman and daughter Jean, attended the funeral of the former's uncle, Mr. Joe Hartman, at Millersburg last Saturday.

The Misses Phyllis and Laura Ruth Tyson of Millheim, visited relatives in town last week. They returned home Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Tyson, who were dinner guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smull were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Struble at Cogan Station.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weaver, Sr., left this week for New Kensington, Pa., where they will visit their son Harry and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bair and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wolfe were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Young at Jersey Shore.

Miss Maxine Farrar returned to Rebersburg with the above party for a visit at the Wolfe home.

John Miller returned home Friday from a week's visit with college friends in York, Pa., and Thurmont, Md.

WOODWARD

Steward Benner and Steward Eisenhuth made a hurried business trip to Harrisburg, one day last week.

Earle Brindel, Randal Stover and Harwood Kreamer, returned home on Wednesday evening from their trip to New York City and the World's Fair. They express their appreciation to Prof. and Mrs. Paul F. Bartsch of Aronburg, for their good time they showed the boys. The boys were pretty well tuckered out when they came home, yet they enjoyed the Fair immensely.

From Saturday evening at 9:30 o'clock until Sunday morning about two inches of rain fell in this locality which greatly helped to reduce the drought, yet the ground is not soaked enough to date in order to help to increase the potato crop yield. The corn is making good time now to finish the stalk but not the ear since Saturday nights rain.

The Bartsch East Centre County Band rendered some extra fine selections of music at the P. O. S. of A. festival, such numbers were never heard there before. Had the rain not interfered the occasion would have been a grand time all around. As it was a large crowd had already gathered and were certainly enjoying themselves, but as everybody knows the rain was badly needed.

Stover Hess, of his children and Dan Snyder, arrived home on Sunday afternoon. They had been visiting relatives in the neighborhood of Scotland, S. Dakota, for several weeks. They report conditions are better, enough. The cotton wood trees have about all died due to the severe drought. Mr. Hess' brother Lowell Hess, threshed about 300 bushel of grain on his large farm. They report that whatever rain they do have is only in streaks.

Mrs. Fannie (Haines) Jones, one of the girls formerly of near Woodward, passed away at her home in Scotland, South Dakota, on Monday, July 24. Interment was made in the Scotland cemetery on last Thursday. Daniel Snyder in company with Stover Hess and children attended her funeral. Mrs. Jones was a daughter of Ambrose and Amanda (Hosterman) Haines and leaves to mourn her departure an only son besides two brothers, Frank of Texas state, and John of Aronburg, and three sister, Annie Eisenhuth of State College, Amanda and Cora of Aronburg.

The Evangelical Sunday School picnic date was changed on Sunday from Saturday, August 19th, to Saturday August 26 on account of the P. O. S. of A. picnic which had already been set last year for Aug. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stanley and family of Baltimore, are spending their vacation here.

We are glad to see Mrs. Emily Miles at home again, after being a patient in the hospital due to a broken hip. We hope she continues to improve.

Latest reports from Mrs. Alma Alexander, who is in Philadelphia, taking treatments, are some slight improvement. We her friends here hope to hear better news soon.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley of Centre Hall, spent several days with relatives at this place.

J. J. Fyfe of New York City, is spending this week with his family and other relatives in this state.

Mary Marlin and Jane Reese of Guilford, visited friends at this place recently.

Mrs. Clyde Watson and son of Millsburg, Mrs. J. Fyfe and son of N. Y.; Mrs. Lee Johnson and daughter and Mrs. John Watson called at the Charles Lucas home on Thursday.

Communication services will be held next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, everybody welcome.

Visitors at the Lee Johnson home during the week were Mrs. Olive Rhoades and children of Bellefonte, Mrs. J. Fyfe and sons of N. Y.; Mrs. Clyde Watson and son of Millsburg; Emily Swetzer, Mrs. Ida Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley.

Mrs. Edith Burd spent the weekend at the J. E. Confer home in Millersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley, Mrs. Ida Johnson and son spent Thursday at the Boyd Johnson home at Buffalo Run.

Richard Fyfe, John and Thomas Conway of New York, spent a few days at the M. C. Reese home at Gum Stump.

Miss Brooks of Centre Hall, was a recent guest at the Johnson home.

Mrs. John Postinger of Coleville, Md. and Mrs. Arthur Burd of Central City; Mrs. Paul Bennett and daughter Mrs. Art Bennett and two children of Runville and Milford Burd of Pleasant Gap, were visitors at the Edith Burd home.

Evelyn Roberts of Cleveland, O., Marie and Barbara Roberts of Millersburg were callers at the Watson home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Watson and sons, Mrs. J. Fyfe and sons, Nevin Watson and Betty Shawley were recent visitors at the Roy Sheeley home at Stormstown.

Jack Flesher was kept very busy over the weekend inspecting and repairing cars.

Mrs. Gladys Armstrong of State College, visited at the home of Miss Ella Alexander on Sunday.

Charles Holl and family of Detroit, Mich., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Holt and his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris.

W. H. Richards added to the convenience of his home by having electric lights installed.

The young folks of our community are certainly enjoying "ye swimming hole" in the Bald Eagle creek. It affords a lot of enjoyment these hot days.

FILLMORE

I. G. Neff has been ill with pleurisy the past week. He is now able to resume his milk route. Bernard Crust took his route for him when he was ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Johnston-baugh and children Junior, Jane and Joe spent Tuesday evening of last week visiting friends in Bellefonte. Jane remained in town the remainder of the week for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Booher and Mrs. Robb and Mrs. Lydia Johnston-baugh and children, were called at the Glenn Johnston-baugh home on Friday evening of last week.

Clarence Hull has been helping his brother Frank with the oats harvest.

Vincent Speary, who was operated on the Lock Haven hospital the other week is getting along very well and is expected to come home this week.

Arlene Crust spent Tuesday of last week at her home.

Louise Benner of Bush Addition spent the weekend at the Harry Speary home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marshall and granddaughter of Port Matilda, visited at the W. D. Marshall home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Kelley and family of Altoona, visited at the Bernard Crust home on Sunday. Don't forget the Fillmore Homecoming supper and festival to be held on August 19, by the Young Ladies Class.

MILESBURG

Friday August 11th, has been set as the annual meeting date for the Trezilyny cemetery association. All lot owners are urged to be present, as business of importance is to be transacted.

It is an ill wind that blows no body any good. As a result of the R. R. wreck a number of our residents have had a supply of coal.

We noticed on Monday a number of cars from Ohio, Florida, California, and Michigan, whose occupants went to view the wreck, which is just another proof that news travels fast.

Miss Mary Boyle, Ralph Mitchell, Elizabeth Fetter and Phyllis Sholl were Saturday evening dinner guests at the Ross Fetter home.

Faye Sheekler left Monday for Harrisburg where she will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Rupert visited Saturday at Beech Creek with friends and relatives.

Visitors at the Noss home on Sunday were Mr. Shope, a mail-carrier at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brian of Mill Hall visited Sunday at the William Thomas home.

Mrs. Frank Gant of Julian, visited Monday at last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Rupert.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Wensel visited at Orviston on Sunday.

H. A. Peters of Renovo, visited relatives here Sunday.

Bruce Peters celebrated his (?) birthday Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. David Evans and daughter left Sunday by motor for a vacation. They expect to do some deep sea fishing.

James Fetzter celebrated his 15th birthday on Tuesday of this week.

Miss Ruth Miles has returned to duty at the Phillipsburg hospital, after a three week's vacation at her home here.

Mrs. Clyde Boggs has returned home from Philadelphia, where she was called due to the death of her mother.

Rev. Levy Sheets, daughter Elizabeth and Mrs. Litus Hill left Sunday for a week of Bible Study at Lakemont.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCullough left Monday by motor for a week's vacation at Atlantic City.

Visitors at the John Sholl home on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Haug of Clymer, and Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Knecht of Mill Hall.

Mrs. Leonard Glenn and three sons left Sunday by motor for a vacation at Philadelphia, with Mrs. Glenn's sister Ruth Fulton.

Guyver D. Fisher went to Baltimore recently and has found employment there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stanley and family of Baltimore, are spending their vacation here.

We are glad to see Mrs. Emily Miles at home again, after being a patient in the hospital due to a broken hip. We hope she continues to improve.

Latest reports from Mrs. Alma Alexander, who is in Philadelphia, taking treatments, are some slight improvement. We her friends here hope to hear better news soon.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley of Centre Hall, spent several days with relatives at this place.

J. J. Fyfe of New York City, is spending this week with his family and other relatives in this state.

Mary Marlin and Jane Reese of Guilford, visited friends at this place recently.

Mrs. Clyde Watson and son of Millsburg, Mrs. J. Fyfe and son of N. Y.; Mrs. Lee Johnson and daughter and Mrs. John Watson called at the Charles Lucas home on Thursday.

Communication services will be held next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, everybody welcome.

Visitors at the Lee Johnson home during the week were Mrs. Olive Rhoades and children of Bellefonte, Mrs. J. Fyfe and sons of N. Y.; Mrs. Clyde Watson and son of Millsburg; Emily Swetzer, Mrs. Ida Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley.

Mrs. Edith Burd spent the weekend at the J. E. Confer home in Millersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley, Mrs. Ida Johnson and son spent Thursday at the Boyd Johnson home at Buffalo Run.

Richard Fyfe, John and Thomas Conway of New York, spent a few days at the M. C. Reese home at Gum Stump.

Miss Brooks of Centre Hall, was a recent guest at the Johnson home.

Mrs. John Postinger of Coleville, Md. and Mrs. Arthur Burd of Central City; Mrs. Paul Bennett and daughter Mrs. Art Bennett and two children of Runville and Milford Burd of Pleasant Gap, were visitors at the Edith Burd home.

Evelyn Roberts of Cleveland, O., Marie and Barbara Roberts of Millersburg were callers at the Watson home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Watson and sons, Mrs. J. Fyfe and sons, Nevin Watson and Betty Shawley were recent visitors at the Roy Sheeley home at Stormstown.

Jack Flesher was kept very busy over the weekend inspecting and repairing cars.

WOODWARD

Steward Benner and Steward Eisenhuth made a hurried business trip to Harrisburg, one day last week.

Earle Brindel, Randal Stover and Harwood Kreamer, returned home on Wednesday evening from their trip to New York City and the World's Fair. They express their appreciation to Prof. and Mrs. Paul F. Bartsch of Aronburg, for their good time they showed the boys. The boys were pretty well tuckered out when they came home, yet they enjoyed the Fair immensely.

From Saturday evening at 9:30 o'clock until Sunday morning about two inches of rain fell in this locality which greatly helped to reduce the drought, yet the ground is not soaked enough to date in order to help to increase the potato crop yield. The corn is making good time now to finish the stalk but not the ear since Saturday nights rain.

The Bartsch East Centre County Band rendered some extra fine selections of music at the P. O. S. of A. festival, such numbers were never heard there before. Had the rain not interfered the occasion would have been a grand time all around. As it was a large crowd had already gathered and were certainly enjoying themselves, but as everybody knows the rain was badly needed.

Stover Hess, of his children and Dan Snyder, arrived home on Sunday afternoon. They had been visiting relatives in the neighborhood of Scotland, S. Dakota, for several weeks. They report conditions are better, enough. The cotton wood trees have about all died due to the severe drought. Mr. Hess' brother Lowell Hess, threshed about 300 bushel of grain on his large farm. They report that whatever rain they do have is only in streaks.

Mrs. Fannie (Haines) Jones, one of the girls formerly of near Woodward, passed away at her home in Scotland, South Dakota, on Monday, July 24. Interment was made in the Scotland cemetery on last Thursday. Daniel Snyder in company with Stover Hess and children attended her funeral. Mrs. Jones was a daughter of Ambrose and Amanda (Hosterman) Haines and leaves to mourn her departure an only son besides two brothers, Frank of Texas state, and John of Aronburg, and three sister, Annie Eisenhuth of State College, Amanda and Cora of Aronburg.

The Evangelical Sunday School picnic date was changed on Sunday from Saturday, August 19th, to Saturday August 26 on account of the P. O. S. of A. picnic which had already been set last year for Aug. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stanley and family of Baltimore, are spending their vacation here.

We are glad to see Mrs. Emily Miles at home again, after being a patient in the hospital due to a broken hip. We hope she continues to improve.

Latest reports from Mrs. Alma Alexander, who is in Philadelphia, taking treatments, are some slight improvement. We her friends here hope to hear better news soon.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley of Centre Hall, spent several days with relatives at this place.

J. J. Fyfe of New York City, is spending this week with his family and other relatives in this state.

Mary Marlin and Jane Reese of Guilford, visited friends at this place recently.

Mrs. Clyde Watson and son of Millsburg, Mrs. J. Fyfe and son of N. Y.; Mrs. Lee Johnson and daughter and Mrs. John Watson called at the Charles Lucas home on Thursday.

Communication services will be held next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, everybody welcome.

Visitors at the Lee Johnson home during the week were Mrs. Olive Rhoades and children of Bellefonte, Mrs. J. Fyfe and sons of N. Y.; Mrs. Clyde Watson and son of Millsburg; Emily Swetzer, Mrs. Ida Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. James Wesley.

Mrs. Edith Burd spent the weekend at the J. E. Confer home in Millersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley, Mrs. Ida Johnson and son spent Thursday at the Boyd Johnson home at Buffalo Run.

Richard Fyfe, John and Thomas Conway of New York, spent a few days at the M. C. Reese home at Gum Stump.

Miss Brooks of Centre Hall, was a recent guest at the Johnson home.

Mrs. John Postinger of Coleville, Md. and Mrs. Arthur Burd of Central City; Mrs. Paul Bennett and daughter Mrs. Art Bennett and two children of Runville and Milford Burd of Pleasant Gap, were visitors at the Edith Burd home.

Evelyn Roberts of Cleveland, O., Marie and Barbara Roberts of Millersburg were callers at the Watson home on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Watson and sons, Mrs. J. Fyfe and sons, Nevin Watson and Betty Shawley were recent visitors at the Roy Sheeley home at Stormstown.

Jack Flesher was kept very busy over the weekend inspecting and repairing cars.

Mrs. Gladys Armstrong of State College, visited at the home of Miss Ella Alexander on Sunday.

Charles Holl and family of Detroit, Mich., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Holt and his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harris.

W. H. Richards added to the convenience of his home by having electric lights installed.

The young folks of our community are certainly enjoying "ye swimming hole" in the Bald Eagle creek. It affords a lot of enjoyment these hot days.

LITTLE NITTANY

Rev. John Quilick of Howard and Laird Felmeie spent last Monday evening at the Earl Harter home.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dolan and daughters, Hazel and Gladys of Aze Mann, and George Dolan, of Zion, spent Wednesday at the John Dullen Sr., and the William Dolan home.

Raymond Harter and daughter Kathleen of State College spent Sunday at the Earl Harter home. They also visited the W. C. Harter home.

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Clark accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heichel and sons, George and Homer, of Lock Haven, R. D. attended the Home Coming at Karthaus on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dullen spent Thursday evening at the John Dullen Sr. home.

Bean Poles Cause Trouble At the intake of the Berwick Water Company dams at Poundingville