

MOSHANNON

Miss Mary C. McGowen is attending the World's Fair in New York this week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Guenet visited at the home of Mr. Herman Vallmont, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Ely motored to Johnstown over the weekend and visited at the Harry Wagner home. Their daughter Gladys returned home after a two weeks visit and reports a very nice time. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Powell and son Donald visited at the home of his brother, Isaac Powell, Sunday. Mrs. Clara Goshorn who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Isaac Powell is some better at this writing. Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lucas and Mary Ann Lucas were home the past week and helped celebrate their mother's birthday and presented her with a new radio. Miss Hope Lewis finished her course at Pottis Business College, Williamsport last week and received her diploma. Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis and Hope and Mr. and Mrs. John P. Lucas motored to Altoona, Monday, and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Zimmerman, also visited and took supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Muhlollan in Tyrone. The M. E. picnic will be held at Black Moshannon Saturday afternoon, meet at church at 1:30. A birthday party was held last Wednesday evening, Aug. 2nd, at the home of Mrs. James Beals for Dorothy. Those present were: Bill, Harry, Loraine, Marjory and Vick Borger, Lillian and Winola Retorick, Katherine and Marie Walker, Agnes Skropik, Edna Cartwright, John and Willard Guenet, Katherine Kerin, Gladys, Dorothy and Virginia Cole, Gladys Fanning, Jim Josephson, Mrs. Margaret Culver, Eloise, Evin, and Dorothy Beals. Dorothy received many useful gifts. A nice luncheon served and Mrs. Guenet departed, wishing her many more happy birthdays. Mr. and Mrs. James Beals and family motored to Brinsford Sunday and visited at the home of Miss Lillian Morris. Mr. and Mrs. C. Gearhart of Philadelphia, were visitors at M. D. Flanigan's. Mrs. Gearhart will be remembered as Mollie Flanigan. Mrs. Edith Ely and son William, and Carl Berger, and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Flanigan motored to Black Moshannon, Sunday. Campers at the O'Neil Farm Camp last week were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. James Burns, Mrs. Austin Kerin and granddaughter, Joan, Howard Cormick, Mrs. Helen Harrison, Mrs. Mabel Cosmel. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie P. May, Alfaretta May, Lanton Clark, Joe Smith, Miss Kathryn May, Talmadge Music, Miss Jean May, of Kentucky, Mrs. Harvey Emenhizer, Theodore Emenhizer, Arthur Kerin, Mrs. Christine May, Clarence Willanson, Mr. and Mrs. George Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Myers, James Myers, Frank Culver, Master Jackie Myers, Miss Mary C. McGowen, Miss Clara McGowan, Miss Amanda Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Garvin, Mrs. Elizabeth Fort. A family reunion was held at the home of Norman Quick in Reynoldsville, on Sunday. The following persons attended: Mr. and Mrs. Homer Quick and children, Donald, Billy, Lorraine, Phyllis, Alberta, and granddaughter Jean King, of this place, also Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eidel, Mr. and Mrs. George Beals and two children, Graddon and Von of Lanse; Mr. and Mrs. Herchel Elder, Maude and Pearl Elder, of Curwensville; Mr. William Quick and son James, of DuBois. Mrs. Marvin Bollow and Mrs. McFarland of Salamanca, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. Blair Bollow and son Blair James, of Hornell, N. Y. visited relatives and friends here on Tuesday. What the business and industrial world needs today, as much as anything else, is common honesty.

JACKSONVILLE

Mrs. Rena Orndorf Wilson of Lewisburg spent over the weekend with Miss Della Garbrick. Church services on Sunday, Aug. 13, are as follows: Sunday School 9:30, Promotion Day, Worship with sermon 10:45. C. E. 6:45, topic for discussion "What Can We Do About Intemperance?" A correction The Cheerful Helpers meet will hold their next monthly meeting at the home of Miss Josephine DeKa on Friday evening, Aug. 11th, not last week as stated. On Sunday morning Harry Beightold drove his car over to Howard and there was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Betz and daughter Nancy, and then motored to Altoona and Lakemont, where they visited friends and relatives and attended Bible Conference. Mr. and Mrs. J. Roy Schaeffer and daughter Nancy of Centre Hall, Tuesday afternoon called at the C. E. Aley home. Mr. and Mrs. Willard Corman and children and Miss Betty Corman of Aze Mann, and Charles Poorman of Pleasant Gap were Friday evening visitors at the D. P. Ertley home. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley, and son Fred, and Mrs. Anna Robb, were Sunday dinner guests at the William Hosterman home of Aaronsburg. Mrs. Irene Wilson spent a few days with her friend Mrs. Alice Betz. Mr. and Mrs. Max Markle of Belfonte, were Sunday callers at the E. R. Bartley home. Last week in reporting the names of the young people who attended the birthday party given in honor of Miss Kathryn McCrea several names were omitted as follows: Homer and June Yearick, Lee and Trivn Rogers, Arthur Bartley, Arlene Stover and Earl Beightol. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Remsnyder and daughter Doris were Sunday afternoon callers at the William Dixon home to see Mr. Dixon, who is not improving but growing weaker. A plum tree loaded heavily with delicious ripe fruit on the property owned by William Beightol and John Zellers, of this city, was entirely relieved of its burden on Wednesday night by some culprit. A number of electricians are canvassing our little town in quest of the job of wiring the homes for electricity which is not making much speed in arriving here. The writer is unable to explain the delay.

COLEVILLE

Mrs. Howard Boone and Mrs. Harold Boone of Howard, spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Billett. Mrs. N. H. Yearick was a Sunday dinner guest at the home of her nephew Summer Noll and family. Sunday dinner guests at the James Shaffer home were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Weight and Miss Esther Smith of Bellefonte, and Miss Lucy Conaway. O her callers were Robert Conaway. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley and son Fred, were Sunday callers at the homes of Messrs. Orvis Hosterman, Henry and John Kraep all of Aaronsburg. Miss Geraldine Swope spent Sunday at the home of the John Lucas some of Fox Hollow. C. E. Aley and daughter, Betty, attended the General Refractories picnic held at Hecla Park on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley and daughter Nancy attended the Neff reunion held at Neffa Grove at Curtin on Saturday. Mrs. Irene Wilson spent a few days with her friend Mrs. Alice Betz. Mr. and Mrs. Max Markle of Belfonte, were Sunday callers at the E. R. Bartley home. Last week in reporting the names of the young people who attended the birthday party given in honor of Miss Kathryn McCrea several names were omitted as follows: Homer and June Yearick, Lee and Trivn Rogers, Arthur Bartley, Arlene Stover and Earl Beightol. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Remsnyder and daughter Doris were Sunday afternoon callers at the William Dixon home to see Mr. Dixon, who is not improving but growing weaker. A plum tree loaded heavily with delicious ripe fruit on the property owned by William Beightol and John Zellers, of this city, was entirely relieved of its burden on Wednesday night by some culprit. A number of electricians are canvassing our little town in quest of the job of wiring the homes for electricity which is not making much speed in arriving here. The writer is unable to explain the delay.

BLANCHARD

The Amena Class of the Baptist Sunday School entertained the Philathea Class of the Milesburg Baptist Sunday School on Thursday evening. After the business of the class had been disposed of, the address of welcome given by Mrs. Estlin with the response by Miss President, Mrs. Peters of Milesburg. Games and entertainments were in order. The meeting closed with refreshments and short talks by the teachers of the two classes. Miss Ella Levy and Mrs. Annie Ridge. Mrs. Howard Hertel and son Bruce after spending a week with Mrs. Tillie Gardner and other relatives departed on Friday for their home in Parrockaway, N. Y. Geraldine Bathgate of Snow Shoe is spending a month with her cousin Miss Jane Williams. Mrs. Milton McDowell and daughter, Mrs. Cora Snyder of State College, spent Wednesday afternoon visiting friends here. Last week Miss Estlin Gardner, and her father, the Rev. Mr. Samuel Craig and two daughters, of Pittsburgh, they departed leaving one of the daughters, Rose, for a month's visit here. Mrs. William Frey entertained the local W. C. T. U. on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Beulah Heaton of Snyderstown is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Christ Heaton, at her home near the former Eagleville station. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eck of Cleveland, Ohio, stopped for a short visit with their sister, Mrs. D. C. Gardner on Friday evening. They were enroute to Williamsport and the World's Fair in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Gaylor Spangler and family of Berwick, visited with Mrs. Harry and Mrs. E. Spangler during the weekend. Guests at the T. M. Kunes home on Tuesday evening were Mrs. Evely and daughter, Misses Helen and Eleanor of Berwick. Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bowes were Cameron Kunes, Miss Nelle Kunes and Mrs. Mark Smith of Johnsbury, Empire. Mrs. Eva Kunes, of Emporium, and Mrs. Homer Broker of Emporium, are enjoying their vacation at this time. They arrived here on Saturday for the wedding of Mrs. Broker's sister, Betty, on the following day. Other guests at the Kunes home for that occasion were Eva Kunes, of Emporium, Mrs. Bess Johnstonbaugh of State College, Rev. and Mrs. Prick of Sweet Valley, and Rev. and Mrs. Charles Prick and family of Wilkes Barre. Mrs. Allen Fletcher and son Lewis, left on Sunday for a week's visit with friends in Pittsburg. Mrs. Austin Confer and son Lloyd, left on Sunday, with Mr. Confer and daughter Lois, for Rochester. They had been on a two week's vacation in this vicinity.

BLANCHARD

Mrs. Howard Boone and Mrs. Harold Boone of Howard, spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Billett. Mrs. N. H. Yearick was a Sunday dinner guest at the home of her nephew Summer Noll and family. Sunday dinner guests at the James Shaffer home were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Weight and Miss Esther Smith of Bellefonte, and Miss Lucy Conaway. O her callers were Robert Conaway. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley and son Fred, were Sunday callers at the homes of Messrs. Orvis Hosterman, Henry and John Kraep all of Aaronsburg. Miss Geraldine Swope spent Sunday at the home of the John Lucas some of Fox Hollow. C. E. Aley and daughter, Betty, attended the General Refractories picnic held at Hecla Park on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley and daughter Nancy attended the Neff reunion held at Neffa Grove at Curtin on Saturday. Mrs. Irene Wilson spent a few days with her friend Mrs. Alice Betz. Mr. and Mrs. Max Markle of Belfonte, were Sunday callers at the E. R. Bartley home. Last week in reporting the names of the young people who attended the birthday party given in honor of Miss Kathryn McCrea several names were omitted as follows: Homer and June Yearick, Lee and Trivn Rogers, Arthur Bartley, Arlene Stover and Earl Beightol. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Remsnyder and daughter Doris were Sunday afternoon callers at the William Dixon home to see Mr. Dixon, who is not improving but growing weaker. A plum tree loaded heavily with delicious ripe fruit on the property owned by William Beightol and John Zellers, of this city, was entirely relieved of its burden on Wednesday night by some culprit. A number of electricians are canvassing our little town in quest of the job of wiring the homes for electricity which is not making much speed in arriving here. The writer is unable to explain the delay.

BLANCHARD

The Amena Class of the Baptist Sunday School entertained the Philathea Class of the Milesburg Baptist Sunday School on Thursday evening. After the business of the class had been disposed of, the address of welcome given by Mrs. Estlin with the response by Miss President, Mrs. Peters of Milesburg. Games and entertainments were in order. The meeting closed with refreshments and short talks by the teachers of the two classes. Miss Ella Levy and Mrs. Annie Ridge. Mrs. Howard Hertel and son Bruce after spending a week with Mrs. Tillie Gardner and other relatives departed on Friday for their home in Parrockaway, N. Y. Geraldine Bathgate of Snow Shoe is spending a month with her cousin Miss Jane Williams. Mrs. Milton McDowell and daughter, Mrs. Cora Snyder of State College, spent Wednesday afternoon visiting friends here. Last week Miss Estlin Gardner, and her father, the Rev. Mr. Samuel Craig and two daughters, of Pittsburgh, they departed leaving one of the daughters, Rose, for a month's visit here. Mrs. William Frey entertained the local W. C. T. U. on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Beulah Heaton of Snyderstown is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Christ Heaton, at her home near the former Eagleville station. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eck of Cleveland, Ohio, stopped for a short visit with their sister, Mrs. D. C. Gardner on Friday evening. They were enroute to Williamsport and the World's Fair in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Gaylor Spangler and family of Berwick, visited with Mrs. Harry and Mrs. E. Spangler during the weekend. Guests at the T. M. Kunes home on Tuesday evening were Mrs. Evely and daughter, Misses Helen and Eleanor of Berwick. Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bowes were Cameron Kunes, Miss Nelle Kunes and Mrs. Mark Smith of Johnsbury, Empire. Mrs. Eva Kunes, of Emporium, and Mrs. Homer Broker of Emporium, are enjoying their vacation at this time. They arrived here on Saturday for the wedding of Mrs. Broker's sister, Betty, on the following day. Other guests at the Kunes home for that occasion were Eva Kunes, of Emporium, Mrs. Bess Johnstonbaugh of State College, Rev. and Mrs. Prick of Sweet Valley, and Rev. and Mrs. Charles Prick and family of Wilkes Barre. Mrs. Allen Fletcher and son Lewis, left on Sunday for a week's visit with friends in Pittsburg. Mrs. Austin Confer and son Lloyd, left on Sunday, with Mr. Confer and daughter Lois, for Rochester. They had been on a two week's vacation in this vicinity.

BLANCHARD

Mrs. Howard Boone and Mrs. Harold Boone of Howard, spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Fred Billett. Mrs. N. H. Yearick was a Sunday dinner guest at the home of her nephew Summer Noll and family. Sunday dinner guests at the James Shaffer home were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Weight and Miss Esther Smith of Bellefonte, and Miss Lucy Conaway. O her callers were Robert Conaway. Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley and son Fred, were Sunday callers at the homes of Messrs. Orvis Hosterman, Henry and John Kraep all of Aaronsburg. Miss Geraldine Swope spent Sunday at the home of the John Lucas some of Fox Hollow. C. E. Aley and daughter, Betty, attended the General Refractories picnic held at Hecla Park on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley and daughter Nancy attended the Neff reunion held at Neffa Grove at Curtin on Saturday. Mrs. Irene Wilson spent a few days with her friend Mrs. Alice Betz. Mr. and Mrs. Max Markle of Belfonte, were Sunday callers at the E. R. Bartley home. Last week in reporting the names of the young people who attended the birthday party given in honor of Miss Kathryn McCrea several names were omitted as follows: Homer and June Yearick, Lee and Trivn Rogers, Arthur Bartley, Arlene Stover and Earl Beightol. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Remsnyder and daughter Doris were Sunday afternoon callers at the William Dixon home to see Mr. Dixon, who is not improving but growing weaker. A plum tree loaded heavily with delicious ripe fruit on the property owned by William Beightol and John Zellers, of this city, was entirely relieved of its burden on Wednesday night by some culprit. A number of electricians are canvassing our little town in quest of the job of wiring the homes for electricity which is not making much speed in arriving here. The writer is unable to explain the delay.

BLANCHARD

The Amena Class of the Baptist Sunday School entertained the Philathea Class of the Milesburg Baptist Sunday School on Thursday evening. After the business of the class had been disposed of, the address of welcome given by Mrs. Estlin with the response by Miss President, Mrs. Peters of Milesburg. Games and entertainments were in order. The meeting closed with refreshments and short talks by the teachers of the two classes. Miss Ella Levy and Mrs. Annie Ridge. Mrs. Howard Hertel and son Bruce after spending a week with Mrs. Tillie Gardner and other relatives departed on Friday for their home in Parrockaway, N. Y. Geraldine Bathgate of Snow Shoe is spending a month with her cousin Miss Jane Williams. Mrs. Milton McDowell and daughter, Mrs. Cora Snyder of State College, spent Wednesday afternoon visiting friends here. Last week Miss Estlin Gardner, and her father, the Rev. Mr. Samuel Craig and two daughters, of Pittsburgh, they departed leaving one of the daughters, Rose, for a month's visit here. Mrs. William Frey entertained the local W. C. T. U. on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Beulah Heaton of Snyderstown is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Christ Heaton, at her home near the former Eagleville station. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eck of Cleveland, Ohio, stopped for a short visit with their sister, Mrs. D. C. Gardner on Friday evening. They were enroute to Williamsport and the World's Fair in New York. Mr. and Mrs. Gaylor Spangler and family of Berwick, visited with Mrs. Harry and Mrs. E. Spangler during the weekend. Guests at the T. M. Kunes home on Tuesday evening were Mrs. Evely and daughter, Misses Helen and Eleanor of Berwick. Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bowes were Cameron Kunes, Miss Nelle Kunes and Mrs. Mark Smith of Johnsbury, Empire. Mrs. Eva Kunes, of Emporium, and Mrs. Homer Broker of Emporium, are enjoying their vacation at this time. They arrived here on Saturday for the wedding of Mrs. Broker's sister, Betty, on the following day. Other guests at the Kunes home for that occasion were Eva Kunes, of Emporium, Mrs. Bess Johnstonbaugh of State College, Rev. and Mrs. Prick of Sweet Valley, and Rev. and Mrs. Charles Prick and family of Wilkes Barre. Mrs. Allen Fletcher and son Lewis, left on Sunday for a week's visit with friends in Pittsburg. Mrs. Austin Confer and son Lloyd, left on Sunday, with Mr. Confer and daughter Lois, for Rochester. They had been on a two week's vacation in this vicinity.

SWIM At Hecla Park OUTDOOR POOL Life Guard on Duty Pure Chlorinated Water Reduced Admission 10c to all VINES Ives 10 Cents Hahn's Self-Branching Ivy 15 Cents Philodendron Pothos Aurens Variegated Ivy Woodring's Floral Gardens 127 EAST HOWARD ST. BELLEFONTE, PA. PHONE 64.

PLEASANT VIEW Master Clair Walker, Jr., of Somerset, Pa., is spending several weeks with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Keller Snyder on the D. F. Houser farm. James and Ronald Neidigh attended a birthday party for little Donnie Dreibeis on Friday, Aug. 4th, at the home of Donnie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dreibeis. Mrs. Dreibeis was the former Miss Ruth Herman. Mrs. Sue Houser of Bellefonte, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. James Kusterborder of Lemont. Mrs. Charles Meyers and sons Stanley and David spent a couple of days with the John C. Poorman family while her husband was away. Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Neidigh and sons Ronald and James spent Sunday at the Reservoir Park at Tyrone, attending a family reunion basket picnic. Some men who, a little while ago, decided to get their vegetable gardens are beginning to conclude that they are too old for such "exercise."

Announce Itinerary of Banjo Band Trip (Continued from page one) played there preceding the Court of Peace concert and broadcast. The band also is scheduled to parade through the Fair grounds after that, the Goodrich Exhibit has a special show for the band and pictures will be taken there. A conducted tour of most of the buildings of the Fair has been arranged and two hours of freedom in the amusement area for members. The lighted fountain display will be seen from the seats on the Pennsylvania Building balcony. Featured in the Court of Peace concert will be numbers by the Banjoers and a march directed by 8-year-old Norma Jean. That night the band will stay at the Park Central Hotel, and Sunday's schedule includes a swim in hotel pool; Sunday school; 3-hour bus trip; a 4-hour boat trip; Radio City Roof and trip through broadcast studios. There will be 79 in the band party, including 17 parents, Oliver Bell, trap drummer for the band, can not make the trip because of illness, and Toots Wilson, who once filled that position in the band, will take his place in the party. The band treasury will pay the total cost of the trip, with money earned by the band this summer in out-of-town concerts, parades, and festivals. Plans are already being made for the band to visit Cincinnati, Ohio, in July next year, to take part in National Banjo Band contests. Agriculture, as we always insist, is the backbone of industry, but farmers can't buy unless they make some money.

BUSH HOLLOW There were 54 present at Sunday School last Sunday. Attendance is increasing a little and hope it continues. Everybody's welcome each Sunday, and don't forget the preaching service next Wednesday night Aug. 16. Rev. and Mrs. Byrd are attending the camp meeting below Howard this week but next week he expects to be here for the services. Glad to hear that our Sunday School superintendent Andrew Irvin has improved so much that he was able to come home last Friday evening. Hope he continues to improve, but we were sorry to hear his daughter Benita had a light attack of rheumatic fever and is supposed to stay off her feet for several weeks. We hope she too will soon recover. Mrs. Roy Spotts and family visited last Thursday evening with his brother Joseph Spotts and family of Buffalo Run. Last week in mentioning the donors to the cemetery work we unintentionally missed the name of Mrs. Sylvia M. McDonald, who had for the fence to be rebuilt. We thank her very kindly as that helped a lot towards the fence. Miss Jean Spotts is spending a couple weeks with relatives in Williamsport. Mrs. Myrtle Watson is spending some time with her brother Clyde Watson and family. Miss Mae Baney of Unionville, spent Friday at the E. P. Lucas home. Quite a number of folks from the hollow attended the Titan Metal picnic at Hecla Park last Friday. Russell and James Watson visited friends in Altoona on Saturday. Clair Carver and daughter Roselyn of Unionville, called at the Harry Carver home Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Toner Spotts and children, Edna, Margaret and Eugene, of Centre Hall, visited with his mother. Others who visited there were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spotts and children, Doris and David, and Mr. and Mrs. George Monsell of Bellefonte. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Way and family were Sunday dinner guests at the Harry Carver home. Mr. and Mrs. William Lucas and family were supper guests at the E. P. Lucas home Sunday evening. Those who attended the camp meeting being Howard on Sunday were Mrs. Edna Spotts, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Spotts and family, and Mrs. Roy Spotts and family. Mrs. Martin Spotts and children are camping with her mother at the Bald Eagle camp meeting several days this week. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Spotts and 96th ANNIVERSARY SALE. OPEN EVENINGS BY APPOINTMENT. This remarkable sale is still going on and we have many outstanding values in Quality Merchandise to offer you at a saving from 10 to 40%. Shop with us and compare value and prices before buying! SPRING STREET BRACHBILLS BELLEFONTE, PA.

Plant Near Completion (Continued from page one) The total consideration was $124,000. Final inspection will be held on Monday, August 14, at 1:30 p. m. at which time the owners: Bellefonte Borough Authority; president, W. W. Sieg; vice president H. A. Brockerhoff; treasurer, J. W. Engerick; assistant treasurer, H. Badger; secretary, W. Leide Thomas; owners' representative, George Carpenter; D. Davis, of Chester Engineers; H. P. Melxner, and William T. Peck, representing the Public Works Administration, will be present. The financial assistance given the Borough Authority by the Public Works Administration has made it possible for the borough to comply with the requirements of the Pennsylvania State Board of Health.

MUNICIPAL MIELHEIM, PA. FRIDAY & SATURDAY (August 11th & 12th) Tyrone Power Alice Faye Al Johnson Marie Wilson 'Rose of Washington Square' A musical with an all star cast. LATEST NEWS ISSUE CARTOON SINGLE REEL MONDAY & TUESDAY (August 14th & 15th) SPECIAL DOUBLE FEATURE PROGRAM FOR THE FAMILY No. 1—Pat O'Brien, Ann Sheridan "Indianapolis Speedway" No. 2—Buck Jones, in: "The California Frontier" ALSO SELECTED SHORTS Friday & Saturday, Aug 18 & 19 "YOUNG MR. LINCOLN"

FINAL CLEARANCE of Our Summer Unloading Sale - Friday & Saturday This Week 50% Off on Everything in Store One Lot of Children's Coats Values to $6.25 - NOW $2.99 All Ladies' Hats That are left - NOW 50c Men's 'Lee' Gloves 12 Styles - NOW 49c 100 Ladies' Dresses In Silks, Voiles, Spun Rayon. Values to $6.95 - NOW $1.00 ONLY 1 TO A CUSTOMER 9 A. M. FRIDAY ONE LOT LADIES' $6.95 Silk Dresses All Sizes - NOW $2.00 MEN'S $1.38 to $2.38 PRE-SHRUNK Wash Pants 99c All Ladies' Spring and Early Fall Coats Regardless of cost. Values to $29.50 - NOW $6.99 Ladies' $2.98 Bathing Suits OUT THEY GO $1.79 Ladies' Summer Shoes Values to $3.98 59c $1.00 $1.49 Nothing Reserved - Be Here Friday When The Doors Open! Sid Bernstein, Inc. ALLEGHENY STREET. BELLEFONTE, PA.