—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chamblin, of Los Angeles, California, have announced the arrival of a new baby girl at their home. They have named her Marie Sue. This is the second child, the other is a son, Rodney, 5 years old.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Peters, of Niagara Falls, N. Y., expect to return home today after having been guests since Sunday of Mrs. Peters' brothers, Frank Irvin, of Pleasant Gap; Arch Irvin, of Coleville and Samuel Irvin, of Bellefonte.

—A motor party consisting of E. E. Ardery and daughter, Mrs. Lela Cole and Miss Verna Ardery, of Reynolds Avenue, with Philip O'Leary as chauffeur, departed Sunday for the east coast where they are spending this week at Ocean Grove and Asbury Park.

—Mrs. Harriet Ray Smith and daughter, Miss Dorothy, of Wyoming, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mrs. Louella Dale Chesman, at her home on East Curtin Street. Miss Dorothy Smith was a student at the Penn State summer session.

—Miss Daisy Graham, of Brooklyn, N. Y., former secretary of the Bellefonte Academy, is spending a two weeks' vacation in Bellefonte with Miss Mary McGarvey, at her home on Arthur H. James street. Miss Graham came here last Thursday night as the driving guest of Miss McGarvey, who has been in Brooklyn for a brief visit.

—Mrs. Nelson Billet, of South Water Street, departed Sunday morning by bus for a two weeks' vacation trip with relatives and friends in Ocean City, N. J., and Boston, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Billet's vacation this week was accompanied by Cyrus Hoy, of Zion, and Ray Rachau, of Williamsport, on a motor trip to Canada, their itinerary including a stop-off to see the Dionne Quintuplets.

—Mr. and Mrs. Karl E. Kusse and daughter, Joan, of East Linn Street, and Miss Donna Jean Flickinger, of Bartons, Ohio, who has been their guest for the past two weeks, departed yesterday morning for Barbours for a week's vacation. The Kusse family will be entertained by various relatives and friends in Barbours, where they resided before coming to Bellefonte several years ago.

—Northern Lights were visible here for several hours, last Friday night and were unusually brilliant. The entire northern sky was illuminated by a cold bluish-white glow which shifted and wavered and was some times shot through with fingers of bright light. All through there was no moon, the light was sufficiently brilliant to make objects nearly as visible as in full moonlight. Many persons went to hill-tops and other points of vantage to watch the display.

—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thomas and the latter's father, Adam Fisher, of Thomas Street; Mrs. E. C. Burghoff, of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. Frank Rosenhoover and two children, of Tyrone, spent Friday in Williamsport as guests of the John Holland family. Saturday, Mr. Burghoff's husband flew here from Baltimore and on his return Sunday morning he was accompanied by Leslie Thomas who returned home by bus the same night. The flight to Baltimore required two hours' time, with a half-hour stop at Lewisburg.

—A Centre County merchant called attention to a new folder issued by the Pennsylvania and the Pennsylvania State Publicity Commission. The front page of the folder bears a photo of the trylon and perisphere of the New York World's Fair, and invites fairgoers of the nation to stop while in Pennsylvania on their way to New York. Although two of the main routes to the fair through Pennsylvania are shown on the folder's map, the name of the town is omitted.

—Four Centre County carriers of the Harrisburg Telegraph, accompanied by Osborne T. Lambert, of Bellefonte, district circulation manager for that newspaper, spent the weekend on a trip to Virginia Beach, Norfolk, Va., as guests of the newspaper in reward for their efforts in obtaining new subscribers. Leaving Bellefonte by bus, Friday night, they went to Baltimore, Md., where they boarded a boat for the remainder of the trip. The four carriers were Leroy Hill, Bellefonte; William Reese, Centre Hall; Lawrence Condo, Spring Mills, and John Brown, Millheim.

—Officials of the Bellefonte plant of Sheffield Farms, Inc. on North Water Street, have asked The Centre Democrat to notify parents of children who are permitted to loiter in the vicinity of the plant, that the company will not be responsible for any accidents that may happen to such children. The official report that many youngsters gather at the plant each day to get the pieces of ice which are packed around milk cans to keep milk fresh while it is being hauled on trucks from the farms in their eager-ness to get the ice, the children often narrowly escape being run down by trucks, and several near tragedies have been averted only through the constant watchfulness of truck drivers and plant employees. Despite this fact, the danger is ever present and unless the practice is stopped some child may be seriously injured, officials aver.

—Abbott's Philadelphia ice cream, Everitt's Drug Store, 24 S. Allegheny Street, Bellefonte.

—Mr. and Mrs. John S. Dubbe, of North Thomas street, are spending a brief vacation at a cottage in the Adirondacks.

—Miss Virginia Healy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Healy, of the Petrikin apartments, West High street, is spending a week's vacation with relatives and friends in Pittsburgh.

—Miss Laura Runkle, of Centre Hall, returned home the latter part of last week from Buffalo, N. Y., where she had been with friends for two weeks. She also visited Niagara Falls and Canada.

—Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coates and children, Frances and Paul, Jr., of Coatesville, spent the weekend in Bellefonte with Mrs. Coates' parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McGinley at the family home on Thomas street.

—Edward Gates, telegraph editor of the Johnstown Tribune, arrived in Bellefonte Saturday evening to spend part of his annual week's vacation with his father and sister, Charles Gates and Miss Winifred Gates, at their home on North Spring street.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Decker, of Thomas street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth of an 8 1/2 pound baby girl, born at their home on Sunday morning. The little girl is the first child in the family and her mother is reported to be getting along nicely.

—Ad Fauble, who has been quite ill at his home on North Allegheny street for the past number of months, is continuing to improve steadily and spends part of each day on short walks. He is gaining in weight and appears well on the way to complete recovery.

—Guests at the home of Mrs. T. N. Shaughnessy and family, on East Howard street, include Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shaughnessy and the former's sister, Miss Helen Shaughnessy, all of Philadelphia, and Miss Ann Shaughnessy, of New York, all of whom are here for a month's vacation.

—Clayton Royer, Samuel Clevenstone, Daniel Houser, John Garbick and Sinie H. Hoy, departed yesterday morning in John Garbick's car for a motor trip to New York, where they will remain until Sunday attending the World's Fair and talking in other places of interest in the New York area.

—Mrs. Louis H. Brown, of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday night from New Hampshire, where she had been spending part of the summer. Mrs. Brown expects to remain in Bellefonte until sometime in September as a guest of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Bricker, at her home on Reynolds avenue.

—Mrs. E. M. Gabel, of Howard, left Wednesday for Rochester, N. Y., where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. Hallman for three or four weeks. Her brother, David Erb, from Michigan, will also be there on visit. Mrs. Hellman is not enjoying the best of health, and it is for this reason that Mrs. Gabel is making the trip at this time.

—Mrs. Willard Abt and daughter Lois Ann, of Norfolk, Va., arrived in Bellefonte, Sunday, for a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Abt, at their home on West Bishop street, with Mrs. Abt's sister-in-law, Mrs. John Smith, at her home on Pike street. Willard Abt had planned to make the trip here with his family, but several weeks ago fractured an ankle while playing ball and has just been able to return to work.

—Miss Anna Mary Troup and a friend, Miss Mary Tarallo, of Hastings, both of whom have just completed post graduate courses at the Children's Hospital in Philadelphia, are arriving in Bellefonte and are now with Miss Troup's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Troup, at the family home on South Thomas street. Both young ladies specialized in children's diseases. Miss Rebecca Troup, who will be a member of the Junior class at the West Chester State Teachers' College this fall, is spending the summer vacation at her parental home.

—James Marshall, Bellefonte's newly-appointed dog catcher, has swung into action and a number of the town's dogs, of both blooded mongrel varieties, have "spent time" in the borough's dog pound at the Gamble Mill. For the first offense, the owners must pay a fine of $2 and the costs of feeding their pets. The dog-catcher is authorized to pick up any dog, licensed or unlicensed, found running at large at night. In the daytime any unlicensed dog may be taken into custody regardless of whether he is running at large or on a leash, while licensed dogs may be apprehended if found running at large. Mr. Marshall announces that any persons who are annoyed by dogs should notify him by calling the Thomas Coal Yard at 515-J.

—A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl E. Kusse, on East Linn street, Friday night, in honor of the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Joan, and also in honor of Joan's guest, Miss Don-Jean Flickinger, of Barbours, Ohio. Those who were present for the evening's festivities were: Alice Jane Jodon, Phyllis Jodon, Nancy Wagner, Helen Keller, Sarah Risan, Edith Risan, Eleanor Dohelbower, Lina Mitchell, Hugh Manchester, Charles Guyer, Bill Dunn, Bill McGinley, Don Ping, Stanley Musser, Bill Beatty, Bobby Schaeffer, Swenell Smith and Jim Cox. The chief entertainment was a scavenger hunt in which the guests scoured the town in quest of odd and hard-to-find objects. Refreshments at the Kusse home topped-off the evening's program.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas Lane, of McKeesport, motored to Bellefonte, Sunday, to spend several days with Mr. Lane's grandmother, Mrs. James B. Lane, at her home on East Linn street.

—Michael Pligianos, of the Boston Candy Kitchen, returned home Tuesday from Alden Springs, N. Y., after spending two weeks at that health resort. Mr. Pligianos visits the S. C. Derr, editor of The Centre Democrat, is taking a well-earned vacation from his editorial duties this week and is spending the time with members of his family touring through Central Pennsylvania and in general "taking life easy."

—Mr. and Mrs. Merle M. Wetzel, of Waterbury, Conn., are expected to arrive in Bellefonte Saturday to spend a week's vacation with Mr. Wetzel's mother and sister, Mrs. Emma V. Wetzel, and Mrs. Ethel Wetzel McCoy, at the family residence on Willowbank street.

—Miss Virginia Bertram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bertram, of Spring Creek, received word last week from the Allegheny General Hospital School of Nursing, Pittsburgh, Pa., that she has been accepted as a student nurse in the first class. Miss Bertram will leave early in September to take up her duties.

—Announcement was made yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. James Kerschner, of East High street, Bellefonte, of the marriage last April 10 of their daughter, Hazel Elda, to Robert L. Penrod, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Penrod, of Windber, formerly of Bellefonte. There were no attendants at the ceremony, which took place in Winchester, Va.

—Mrs. Collins Shoemaker and sister, Miss Betty Stevenson, of Widdie, will leave this Thursday for Washington, D. C. to bring home the former's daughter, Sally, who has been visiting her aunt, Miss Stevenson, at her home in Bellefonte. She will spend her annual vacation which she will spend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson at Waddie.

—Mrs. F. W. Harriman and her father, Lincoln Musser, of Miami, Florida, expect to begin their return trip today to their home in the south after having spent two months with relatives and friends in Centre county and elsewhere in the north. They are cutting short their visit to some extent because Mr. Musser has not been in the best of health for the past several weeks. Before her marriage Mrs. Harriman was Miss Mary Musser, of Bellefonte.

—Edward Whitaker, of the Schlow apartments, South Allegheny street, a Penn State student, has been engaged in decorating and painting signs for Bellefonte business houses during the past few weeks. Among the jobs completed are ones on the front of the display windows at the Worth store, and at the new Levine store, South Allegheny street. His designs are original and the work is of excellent quality.

—Visitors at the home of Mrs. E. L. Way at Unionville last week were Jack Moore and wife of the borough; Helen Meyers Hollibaugh and son James, of Cleveland, Ohio; Paul Switzer, of Bellefonte; Mrs. Harry Hall and daughters Grace, Pauline and Dorothy, of near Unionville. Mrs. Way visited at the Walter Eberhart home on Sunday to see her niece, Mrs. Blanche Poorman, who is much improved from a recent illness.

—The board of directors of the State College American Legion and Auxiliary Junior Drum and Bugle Corps Tuesday night accepted Drillsmaster C. W. "Buck" Taylor's resignation and decided against entering the corps in the national championships at Chicago this fall. Taylor, who collapsed after the corps retained the State championship at Williamsport, Saturday, resigned because of ill health. The Chicago trip was voted down because of the expense involved.

—Mr. and Mrs. Clyde G. Swartz and daughter, Mary, of East Logan street, returned home Monday from a ten days' visit with Mr. Swartz' brother, Guy E. Swartz, of Detroit, Michigan, at his summer home along Clark Lake, Michigan. Guy Swartz learned the machinist's trade from 1901 to 1907 in the old Lingie Machine Shop, Bellefonte, while his uncle, James Selbert, was foreman of that plant. After leaving this community he was employed by the Westinghouse Company at Pittsburgh, and later in Wilmington, Ohio, and Philadelphia. In 1910 he went to Detroit where he established the successful Swartz Tool Products Co., which manufactures tools, jigs and fixtures. His uncle, Clyde, conducts a flourishing machine shop on Race street, Bellefonte.

—Tony and Joe Panetta, father and son, of Philadelphia, entertained the members of the Bellefonte Kiwanis and Rotary Clubs at a joint luncheon of those two organizations, Tuesday noon, at the Markland Hotel. The Panettas are probably known by sight to nearly every Bellefonte resident, for every summer for the past twelve years they have visited the town once, and sometimes twice, to render sidewalk concerts of accordion and "snake horn" music. The son is an accordionist of considerable talent, while the father is no less a master of whatever it takes to play a snake horn. So well pleased were the diners with the Panettas' concert that the usual hour for adjournment was delayed by more than a half hour, and the musicians were rewarded by a generous purse contributed by the Rotarians and Kiwanians.

—Louis Brown, of DuBois, son of one of the owners of the Brown Boot Shops, is managing the Bellefonte store while the regular manager, James Green, is absent on a two weeks' vacation.

—Mrs. Leo Gagnon and little daughter, Ruth, returned to their home in New York City, yesterday, after having been guests for two months of Mrs. Gagnon's father, John L. Wetzel, at his home in Millersburg.
