

WOODWARD

If you would like to see some pretty varieties of dahlias, you may have your wish granted by stopping at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kreamer in town. Some of the flowers measure from 7 to 10 1/2 inches in diameter. Some are even larger.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Musser were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Musser near Centreville a few days last week. They returned home last Thursday evening.

Well, the boys who are interested in the new swimming pool in town did take up by surprise. Last Tuesday they got at the work with a will and had the water in the pool till that evening. The sign: "Bathing at your own risk" is set over the foundation of the pool.

Mrs. Bertha Boone of Millheim, visited relatives in our locality for a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stover and family are enjoying the electric lights and other electric appliances since Tuesday last week.

Howard Plank and sister, Bessie, of Camp Hill, accompanied by Mr. Plank's daughter, June, son Howard, Jr., and friend spent Friday evening and night at the C. E. Kreamer home. They were accompanied home by Gladys Plank who had visited there for a week or more, the next morning.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Kuhlman and son, Ernest, Jr., also Junior's lady friend, Miss Arbery Wenderburgh, of Cleveland, Ohio, are spending a few weeks vacation at the J. B. Ard home since last Wednesday. By the way Miss Wenderburgh is an instructor in a Cleveland High School.

On Saturday morning Harwood Kreamer and Miss Trovola Stover accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ard and daughter, Marie, as far as Pittsburgh where they expect to visit at the Sitz home for a few days while Mr. Ard and Mr. Kreamer continued their journey by auto to Lima, Ohio, in order to bring back a new auto school bus. They returned one day this week.

The P. O. S. of A. picnic was held in the large hall at the Woodward Cave on account of the rainy weather last Saturday. Quite a crowd of lodge members were present and enjoyed the occasion. Rev. Miller of Rebersburg delivered a suitable talk for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolf and children of Akron, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Adam Wolf of Rebersburg were Sunday visitors at the R. E. Musser home.

Three young people of the Millheim Evangelical appointment Nina Auman, Betty Auman and Tessie Bargas presented a splendid program in the Woodward Evangelical church on Sunday evening on Echoes of the Central Oak Heights Summer Assembly and the Greenwood Hills Bible Conference. The attention was remarkably good. We trust some lasting good will come out of the service.

Up to Monday morning the barn swallows had not left for their southern winter home. The usual time to leave this locality is Aug. 21 of each year.

Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Houseal held a very impressive devotional camp fire service at the monthly business meeting at the Woodward Cave last Thursday evening. The devotional centered around the subject of "Jesus the Light of the World." The program was interspersed by suitable scripture, poem, talk, songs and prayers. After the devotional program came the regular business part which was followed by a wailer-rocket and other social activities. Don't you say the young people didn't enjoy the entire meeting. The Woodward Evangelical League of C. E. certainly appreciate the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hosterman for various things.

COLEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stover and daughter of Phillipsburg spent Sunday in our town.

Mrs. H. E. Garbrick and little granddaughter Jane Reber of State College are visiting relatives in Pittsburgh.

Miss Mary Etta Shay of Axemann spent last week with Dona Kelley.

Mrs. Martha Rider returned to her home here after spending last week with Mrs. Emma Minemyer of Fillmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Bloom and son Freddie, Mrs. Thomas Martin and daughter Sara, spent last Wednesday in Altoona.

Mrs. Myrtle King and two grandchildren, Virginia and Beverly Gray returned home after spending ten days at the Beech Creek camp meeting.

Fred Confer who is employed at Baltimore, Md., spent the weekend with his family.

Fred Billett and family, Oscar Billett and family, Kenneth Houser, and family, joined a number of relatives and spent the day at Hecla Park on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kessler of New York are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Justice, they all motored to Phillipsburg, Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bumbarger.

Billie and Ralph Lee, Miss Louise King, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Lee spent Sunday at Potter's Mill.

The Misses Marion Houser and Martha Rider of Valley View took dinner Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Houser.

Joe Gramley of Freeport, Ill., took supper Wednesday with his niece, Mrs. Fred Billett.

Miss Mary Ecker of Bellefonte is visiting at the Homer Justice home.

A birthday party was held Saturday night at Bond White's cabin for Mrs. Elmer Justice. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Lee Justice and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lowery Justice and children, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller and children, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Benner and children, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gardner and children, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilmer and son, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Justice, Paul, Dorothy, Bill and Ann Justice.

The loyalty of its employees is one of the best assets that a business, large or small, can possess.

PINE GLEN

The Senior Class of young people are still holding the banner at Sunday School. Let us all try our best to bring the banner to our own class get busy. League at 8:30. The Junior choir will have charge of the music church at 7:30. The Adult choir will sing. You'll be glad you come. Our motto.

Members of the Epworth League had a baked ham supper on Saturday evening, Aug. 12 at the Viendorfer camp. Those who attended reported not only a wonderful time but a delicious supper, were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wertz, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hoover, Mrs. Clyde Hoover, Mrs. Annie Fye, Merrill, Norman, Alta and Alma Viendorfer, Jesse Benton, Charles Narehoff, Willard, Clyde Jr., Don, Robert, Gladys, Jean and Marvin Hoover, Dorothy Frances, Marie and Beatrice Fye, Betty and Anna Florence McCollough, Terrel and Phyllis Wertz, Mary Lou Burkey, Phil Lodge, Wesley Schomok. A hike and a song program concluded the best time of the season.

Raymond Hoover, Mrs. Clyde Hoover and son Bob attended Sunday school field day at Curwensville on Wednesday last week.

Miss Zoe Meek, Abida and Elizabeth Kroe of Clarence, called on Mrs. Russell Hoover recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beates, Mr. and Mrs. Na. Bickle of Harrisburg were guests at the Beates home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dixon were at Port Matilda on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Askey of White Plains, N. Y., Mrs. William Askey and Mrs. Roy Askey of Karlsruhe, recently visited Robert Askey, here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Steele of Bellefonte, and their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steele and two daughters, spent Sunday with the Wertz family at Camp Bob.

Miss Nan Burkey has gone to Johnston where she has employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Polmer and son, were visiting friends at Clearfield, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Dixon was at Clearfield Wednesday.

The C. H. club and the leader Miss Butler, served with a banquet at the community hall on Monday. The girls displayed in a fine way the wonderful things they did this summer in the line of cooking and sewing. The girls who were most proud of the girls that have been under Miss Butler's leadership. The girls had as their guests their mother's, it being a mother and daughter supper. The mothers who gladly attended and helped to make up the tabular.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Redinger and son Eddie of Buffalo, N. Y., are spending this week at the Ambers Fye home.

Miss Elizabeth Fleming returned to her home in Pittsburgh on Thursday.

Maxwell Fitzsimmons of Roulette spent the weekend here.

We regret to hear of the death of Mr. Roland Berger. Among those who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Berger of Curwensville, Mrs. Paul Culver, of Harrisburg, Miss Alice Berger of DuBois, Mr. Lee Fye and son of North Bend, Mrs. Cordelia Craft is much improved at this writing.

Mr. LeRoy Lewis and Mr. Carl Schmoke spent two days last week at a cabin along Pine Creek. They each brought a nice mess of bass and trout. John F. Lucas and Mary made a business trip to Williamsport on Monday.

Miss Elizabeth Fleming returned to her home in Pittsburgh on Thursday.

Maxwell Fitzsimmons of Roulette spent the weekend here.

We regret to hear of the death of Mr. Roland Berger. Among those who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Berger of Curwensville, Mrs. Paul Culver, of Harrisburg, Miss Alice Berger of DuBois, Mr. Lee Fye and son of North Bend, Mrs. Cordelia Craft is much improved at this writing.

Mr. LeRoy Lewis and Mr. Carl Schmoke spent two days last week at a cabin along Pine Creek. They each brought a nice mess of bass and trout. John F. Lucas and Mary made a business trip to Williamsport on Monday.

There is nothing like keeping a steady eye on the goal you wish to attain. It keeps your mental energies aimed at the same point all the time and your mind is not so apt to wobble from the trail that leads to the real big game called success.

A bunch of well known boys have been cutting capers along Spring Creek, throwing rubbish, and glass jars and stones into the water, and filling up the spring where the people from far and near get their drinking water. People have gone together several times and cleaned out the spring. This week they had the same experience. The boys have been warned by several people not to fill up the spring with rubbish which makes the water impure and unfit to be used.

Our two scout troops The Panther and Flaming Arrow, held a camping party at Eters Camp over the weekend. Those present were: assistant Scout Master, Harry Bland, Donald and David Eters, Galtette, LeRoy Shaw.

The Ladies Aid, Presbyterian church held their monthly meeting at Mrs. Arthur Marshall's Thursday night.

The Peaceful Circle Sunday School class will hold their monthly meeting on Thursday night at Mrs. Pearl Viendorfer's home.

Miss A. A. Bedient, grandson, Dean, Mrs. Dick Morrison, of Painted Post, N. Y., visited over the weekend with Mrs. Bedient's sister, Mrs. Mabel Lucas and family.

Miss Blanche Hippie, and friend Gene Rhone, of Bellefonte, spent the weekend with Mrs. Hippie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hippie.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sickle and children of Trenton, N. J., and Harry Sickle of Pittsburgh, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Mary Sickle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Irwin of Somerset, Pa., visited with their parents, Mrs. Kathryn Irwin, and Mrs. Martin Walker.

Lee Anna Deal has returned to the Walker-Gilliland home for the fall and winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross and family visited relatives at Morrisdale, Pa., over the weekend.

Miss Mary Katherine Lauck, attended the Richner reunion at Pleasant Valley, Sunday.

(From last week) Last Sunday Miss Mary E. Swartz entertained the following guests at her cabin near Howard: William C. Swartz, wife and son Richard, of Harrisburg; her brothers Clarence Swartz and wife, Charley Swartz and family, Mrs. Dale Swartz and two daughters, of Philadelphia; and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rabert of Snow Shoe.

William C. Swartz has been spending most of his vacation in Centre County, among friends and relatives. He is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rabert of Snow Shoe. Mr. Swartz is connected with the Workmens Compensation Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rabert and Mrs. William Swartz, James Swartz and Richard Swartz attended the Clearfield county Sunday School field day held at Irwin's Park Curwensville, Wednesday, August 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Watson and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Watson were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheesley and family at Stormstown, on Sunday. Elwood Robb is employed at the Sheesley home.

Mrs. Edith Burd visited relatives at Runville and Millersburg recently. John Emihlizer spent the weekend with home folks at Lock Haven.

Marlin Reese of Gum Stump spent Sunday night in our burg.

MOSHANNON

There were 65 present at the Methodist Sunday School on Sunday. The collection was $2.25.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lewis and son Melvin and niece Phyllis, visited at the LeRoy Lewis home on Saturday afternoon. Also Mr. and Mrs. Clair Lewis and children of Williamsport.

Billy Quick returned home Sunday after a week's visit with his aunt, Mrs. Herchel Eider of Curwensville. He was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. Herchel Eider, Mae and Pearl Eider.

Mr. George Walker and two children, Mrs. Annie Norton, Mrs. Isabelle Holt and two children of Moshannon called at the home of Homer Quick last week.

Mr. C. C. Lucas of Pleasant Gap is spending sometime at the homes of LeRoy Lewis and J. F. Lucas.

The monthly class meeting of the Loyalty Class met at the home of Mrs. Ivy Skrippe last Tuesday. Those present were: Dorothy and Eloise Beas; Marjorie Berger, Peggy McKean, Jean Martin, Edna Cartwright and Gladys Fye. After the meeting an adjourned refreshment were served and a nice social time was reported.

Those who spent Sunday at the Lewis Hunting Camp were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mulholland and Mrs. Anna Lewis of Tyrone, Mr. and Mrs. Lebkucker and family of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lewis, family of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reichelcher and parents of Williamsport; Miss Hazel Lewis, R. N. of Philadelphia; and Mr. LeRoy Lewis and Hope of Moshannon.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Lucas, Mr. John T. Lucas, Mrs. LeRoy Lewis, Mr. Clyde Lucas spent Sunday at the annual Home Coming at Curwensville.

Visitors last Wednesday at the Homer Quick home were: Mrs. Arch Gushier of Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Johnson, and two children of New Jersey.

Miss Alice Berger and nephew of DuBois are spending this week at Moshannon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Redinger and son Eddie of Buffalo, N. Y., are spending this week at the Ambers Fye home.

Miss Elizabeth Fleming returned to her home in Pittsburgh on Thursday.

Maxwell Fitzsimmons of Roulette spent the weekend here.

We regret to hear of the death of Mr. Roland Berger. Among those who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Berger of Curwensville, Mrs. Paul Culver, of Harrisburg, Miss Alice Berger of DuBois, Mr. Lee Fye and son of North Bend, Mrs. Cordelia Craft is much improved at this writing.

Mr. LeRoy Lewis and Mr. Carl Schmoke spent two days last week at a cabin along Pine Creek. They each brought a nice mess of bass and trout. John F. Lucas and Mary made a business trip to Williamsport on Monday.

There is nothing like keeping a steady eye on the goal you wish to attain. It keeps your mental energies aimed at the same point all the time and your mind is not so apt to wobble from the trail that leads to the real big game called success.

A bunch of well known boys have been cutting capers along Spring Creek, throwing rubbish, and glass jars and stones into the water, and filling up the spring where the people from far and near get their drinking water. People have gone together several times and cleaned out the spring. This week they had the same experience. The boys have been warned by several people not to fill up the spring with rubbish which makes the water impure and unfit to be used.

Our two scout troops The Panther and Flaming Arrow, held a camping party at Eters Camp over the weekend. Those present were: assistant Scout Master, Harry Bland, Donald and David Eters, Galtette, LeRoy Shaw.

The Ladies Aid, Presbyterian church held their monthly meeting at Mrs. Arthur Marshall's Thursday night.

The Peaceful Circle Sunday School class will hold their monthly meeting on Thursday night at Mrs. Pearl Viendorfer's home.

Miss A. A. Bedient, grandson, Dean, Mrs. Dick Morrison, of Painted Post, N. Y., visited over the weekend with Mrs. Bedient's sister, Mrs. Mabel Lucas and family.

Miss Blanche Hippie, and friend Gene Rhone, of Bellefonte, spent the weekend with Mrs. Hippie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hippie.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sickle and children of Trenton, N. J., and Harry Sickle of Pittsburgh, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Mary Sickle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Irwin of Somerset, Pa., visited with their parents, Mrs. Kathryn Irwin, and Mrs. Martin Walker.

Lee Anna Deal has returned to the Walker-Gilliland home for the fall and winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross and family visited relatives at Morrisdale, Pa., over the weekend.

Miss Mary Katherine Lauck, attended the Richner reunion at Pleasant Valley, Sunday.

(From last week) Last Sunday Miss Mary E. Swartz entertained the following guests at her cabin near Howard: William C. Swartz, wife and son Richard, of Harrisburg; her brothers Clarence Swartz and wife, Charley Swartz and family, Mrs. Dale Swartz and two daughters, of Philadelphia; and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rabert of Snow Shoe.

William C. Swartz has been spending most of his vacation in Centre County, among friends and relatives. He is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rabert of Snow Shoe. Mr. Swartz is connected with the Workmens Compensation Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rabert and Mrs. William Swartz, James Swartz and Richard Swartz attended the Clearfield county Sunday School field day held at Irwin's Park Curwensville, Wednesday, August 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Watson and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Watson were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheesley and family at Stormstown, on Sunday. Elwood Robb is employed at the Sheesley home.

Mrs. Edith Burd visited relatives at Runville and Millersburg recently. John Emihlizer spent the weekend with home folks at Lock Haven.

Marlin Reese of Gum Stump spent Sunday night in our burg.

BENNER TWP.

All are thankful for the rain we had this week, although it will not revive the vegetables and corn. Vegetables are dried up and corn is near ripe. The bean crop is very poor. The intense heat ripened the beans before full grown. Beans are very small and pods are not filled.

Roy Corman thanked for John Keape this week the crop he had planted on the Marshall farm.

Floyd Silver and wife from Bellefonte, spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. George Walker and two children, Mrs. Annie Norton, Mrs. Isabelle Holt and two children of Moshannon called at the home of Homer Quick last week.

Mr. C. C. Lucas of Pleasant Gap is spending sometime at the homes of LeRoy Lewis and J. F. Lucas.

The monthly class meeting of the Loyalty Class met at the home of Mrs. Ivy Skrippe last Tuesday. Those present were: Dorothy and Eloise Beas; Marjorie Berger, Peggy McKean, Jean Martin, Edna Cartwright and Gladys Fye. After the meeting an adjourned refreshment were served and a nice social time was reported.

Those who spent Sunday at the Lewis Hunting Camp were: Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mulholland and Mrs. Anna Lewis of Tyrone, Mr. and Mrs. Lebkucker and family of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lewis, family of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reichelcher and parents of Williamsport; Miss Hazel Lewis, R. N. of Philadelphia; and Mr. LeRoy Lewis and Hope of Moshannon.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Lucas, Mr. John T. Lucas, Mrs. LeRoy Lewis, Mr. Clyde Lucas spent Sunday at the annual Home Coming at Curwensville.

Visitors last Wednesday at the Homer Quick home were: Mrs. Arch Gushier of Kane, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Johnson, and two children of New Jersey.

Miss Alice Berger and nephew of DuBois are spending this week at Moshannon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Redinger and son Eddie of Buffalo, N. Y., are spending this week at the Ambers Fye home.

Miss Elizabeth Fleming returned to her home in Pittsburgh on Thursday.

Maxwell Fitzsimmons of Roulette spent the weekend here.

We regret to hear of the death of Mr. Roland Berger. Among those who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Berger of Curwensville, Mrs. Paul Culver, of Harrisburg, Miss Alice Berger of DuBois, Mr. Lee Fye and son of North Bend, Mrs. Cordelia Craft is much improved at this writing.

Mr. LeRoy Lewis and Mr. Carl Schmoke spent two days last week at a cabin along Pine Creek. They each brought a nice mess of bass and trout. John F. Lucas and Mary made a business trip to Williamsport on Monday.

There is nothing like keeping a steady eye on the goal you wish to attain. It keeps your mental energies aimed at the same point all the time and your mind is not so apt to wobble from the trail that leads to the real big game called success.

A bunch of well known boys have been cutting capers along Spring Creek, throwing rubbish, and glass jars and stones into the water, and filling up the spring where the people from far and near get their drinking water. People have gone together several times and cleaned out the spring. This week they had the same experience. The boys have been warned by several people not to fill up the spring with rubbish which makes the water impure and unfit to be used.

Our two scout troops The Panther and Flaming Arrow, held a camping party at Eters Camp over the weekend. Those present were: assistant Scout Master, Harry Bland, Donald and David Eters, Galtette, LeRoy Shaw.

The Ladies Aid, Presbyterian church held their monthly meeting at Mrs. Arthur Marshall's Thursday night.

The Peaceful Circle Sunday School class will hold their monthly meeting on Thursday night at Mrs. Pearl Viendorfer's home.

Miss A. A. Bedient, grandson, Dean, Mrs. Dick Morrison, of Painted Post, N. Y., visited over the weekend with Mrs. Bedient's sister, Mrs. Mabel Lucas and family.

Miss Blanche Hippie, and friend Gene Rhone, of Bellefonte, spent the weekend with Mrs. Hippie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hippie.

Mr. and Mrs. William Sickle and children of Trenton, N. J., and Harry Sickle of Pittsburgh, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Mary Sickle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Irwin of Somerset, Pa., visited with their parents, Mrs. Kathryn Irwin, and Mrs. Martin Walker.

Lee Anna Deal has returned to the Walker-Gilliland home for the fall and winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ross and family visited relatives at Morrisdale, Pa., over the weekend.

Miss Mary Katherine Lauck, attended the Richner reunion at Pleasant Valley, Sunday.

(From last week) Last Sunday Miss Mary E. Swartz entertained the following guests at her cabin near Howard: William C. Swartz, wife and son Richard, of Harrisburg; her brothers Clarence Swartz and wife, Charley Swartz and family, Mrs. Dale Swartz and two daughters, of Philadelphia; and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rabert of Snow Shoe.

William C. Swartz has been spending most of his vacation in Centre County, among friends and relatives. He is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rabert of Snow Shoe. Mr. Swartz is connected with the Workmens Compensation Bureau.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Rabert and Mrs. William Swartz, James Swartz and Richard Swartz attended the Clearfield county Sunday School field day held at Irwin's Park Curwensville, Wednesday, August 9th.

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Watson and children, Mr. and Mrs. John Watson were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheesley and family at Stormstown, on Sunday. Elwood Robb is employed at the Sheesley home.

Mrs. Edith Burd visited relatives at Runville and Millersburg recently. John Emihlizer spent the weekend with home folks at Lock Haven.

Marlin Reese of Gum Stump spent Sunday night in our burg.

JACKSONVILLE

Rev. Charles Robb of Tom's Brook, Virginia, called Tuesday a. m. at the E. R. Bartley home, to see Mrs. Anna Robb.

Miss Ellora Weight of Howard, Mrs. Ted Dixon and Mrs. E. R. Bartley of this place, motored to State College on Tuesday evening and assisted in the serving of cookies and lemonade to the crowd of participants who attended the middle Atlantic Lecturers conference held at said time and place.

Misses Arlene Swope and Vivian Wolfe returned to their home here on Sunday after spending the past six weeks in Rochester, N. Y. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Paul Uber, of Rochester, who is spending this week with her father, Elmer Swope and family.

Friday evening visitors at the C. E. Aley home were Mrs. Delmer Ertley and children Kenneth and Peggy Ann, and Mrs. William Beightolt and children Louise and Earl.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Vonada and children Billy, Wava Darling and Evelyn Marie of this place and Mr. and Mrs. William Poorman and daughters Evelyn and Margaret, Miss Ann Beightolt, and Mrs. Dora Haines of Howard packed their dinner and motored to Poe Valley Park and spent the day.

Mrs. Norman Reichelt of Bellefonte, Mrs. Taylor Doherty and son Taylor of Williamsport, R. V. Hoffman and son of Ferris, Michigan, G. A. Ekiaki and sons Carroll and Harry of Howard, Mr. and Mrs. James Carner and daughters Phyllis and Barbara of Hubsburg, were Sunday callers at the Huber Vonada home.

Miss Dorothy Bets spent Wednesday in Bellefonte, visiting her friend Miss Violet Ertley.

Charley Rathburn of Olean, N. Y. was a caller at the Miles Bartley home Sunday. Other callers were: Mr. and Mrs. John Neff and son John of Boothwynn, Mrs. C. L. Neff and daughters Sara and Lillian, wife and two daughters Betty and Janet, and son Junior from Lock Haven, Mrs. Barbara of Philadelphia, three daughters Velma, Rosena and Thacie from Butler, and Charles Johnston from Lyonsport, Fred Benner from State College; Caroline, Dorothy and Abner Rider from Tyrone.

Farmer and other residents have been hauling water the past week. As the cisterns have gone dry, and William Davey's family, John Solt, Luther Solt, Alfred Catherman, Joseph Connell, with several other people from Bellefonte autotod to Howard on Friday evening to fish and they enjoyed a seiner and marshmallow roasts; on the banks of the creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conaway and son Harry and Mrs. William Beightolt and children Elaine, Billy and Robert, returned home on Friday night from their visit with relatives in the west.

Margaret Yarnell and Marie Yarnell of Hubsburg, visited at the Robert Yarnell home one day last week.

Sunday visitors at the Winfield Delta and John Diets homes were: Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dixon and daughter Connie Lou of Rote, Marjory and Junior Deits of Lock Haven and Joseph Deits of Howard.

Mrs. Lucy Conaway spent Saturday with her daughter Mrs. Zola Keeling and attended the reunion of the Yarnell, returning home on Sunday.

Sunday visitors at the Orin Fye home were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ritz and children of Renovo, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fye and family of Lock Haven, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malone and grandson, of Jersey Shore.

Mr. Floyd Long and son Bill spent several days last week with her father, William Peters, of Beech Creek.

Mrs. Matilda Ertley and son George of Howard, and Mrs. Walter Daley of Altoona, were Sunday dinner guests at the Delmer Ertley home.

Friday afternoon callers at the Vonada home were: Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Deput of New York City, Mrs. Russell Confer of Milesburg, and Mrs. Harry Butler, of Howard.

Elmer Pelimie, Mrs. Mont Riggie and daughter Mae of Hyner, and Mrs. C. E. Borkula, of Lock Haven, were Sunday dinner guests at the E. R. Bartley home.

Sunday callers at the James Shaffer home were Mr. Ellsworth Conaway of Beech Creek, Robert Conaway and sons Lester and Harry and Louise Beightolt, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Weaver of State College, were Sunday evening callers at the A. A. Garrett home.

Charley Rathburn of Olean, N. Y. called Thursday at the E. R. Bartley home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffer and daughter Nancy Lou of Centre Hill spent Saturday evening at the C. E. Aley home.

Miss Geraldine Swope spent Sunday at the John Lucas home, of Fox Hollow.

Mrs. Anna Robb, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley and son Fred called at the Irwin Beightolt home near State College, to see Mrs. Albright Vonada several weeks ago had been in an auto wreck but is improving nicely at her home.

Miss Margaret Logan of Bellefonte, R. D. 2 spent Friday afternoon with Louise Beightolt and helping to get their Orange exhibit ready for the fair next week, of which several of our families are planning on tenting a week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son, Paul, of Bellefonte, Ellsworth Conaway of Beech Creek, were Sunday evening callers at the Robert Conaway home.

Monday evening Aug. 14, some friends gathered at the home of E. E. Vonada to help him celebrate his birthday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Helpman, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Helpman and daughter Jane and Nancy of Mackeyville, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vonada, and Mrs. James Carner and daughters Phyllis and Barbara, of Hubsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Heaton and children Nora, Harold, Evelyn and Faye and Ben Vonada of Upper Marion; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler and son Harry and daughter Evelyn Doherty of Howard, and Mrs. Hubert Vonada, and children Beverly and Donald, and E. E. Vonada. Refresh