

STATE COLLEGE

Mrs. Margaret Garner of East College Avenue entertained at dinner Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. John Roan and Suretta Turner of Philadelphia.

M. and Mrs. R. C. Miller of East Foster Avenue had as their weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lewis and three sons of Rahway, N. J.

Howard Parsons of Heister Street left Monday for Jonestown to resume his teaching duties in the Jonestown High School.

Mrs. Ruth Brooks of West Foster Avenue had as her weekend guests Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sunday and son of Hummelstown, visited recently at the home of Mr. Sunday's mother, Mrs. Della Williams of East College Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Buchan of North Holmes Street are spending this week visiting in Wildwood, N. J.

Rev. and Mrs. James D. Wykes of North Jackson, Ohio, spent several days recently at the home of Mrs. Margaret Garner of East College Avenue.

Caroline Swope of Sparks Street, Harriet Alexander of Park Avenue and Nancy Sprout of West Beaver Avenue spent the weekend, including Labor Day at Ocean City, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Catherman and family of Beaver Falls, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. Catherman's mother, Mrs. Ella Catherman of Somers Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reinhard of East Fairmount Avenue are visiting in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parsons of Heister street had as their guests last week Thelma Shop of Harrisburg and their son Lloyd who is spending several weeks with his parents.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. William Dennis Jr., who were hurt in an automobile accident last week wish them both a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gearhart and family of New Jersey spent several days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gill of Pine Street.

Mrs. Sara Erb of Heister street had as her weekend guests her son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lanier and two sons of Harrisburg.

Edward Mandel of Pugh Street returned on Friday from a motor trip to Virginia.

Howard Parsons of Heister street spent the weekend in Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kunes and son of Miles Street spent Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Kunes' parents in Blanchard.

Joseph Dennis of Cleveland, Ohio, spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dennis of Glensland Apartments.

Mrs. Clara Lynch of South Atherton Street, and daughter Mrs. Charles Reeder of East College Avenue spent the weekend visiting in Tyrone and Altoona.

Kenneth Kunes of Miles street, spent Labor Day visiting in Hershey.

MARATHA

Miss Betty Royer was a guest of Miss Eleanor Williams for several days last week.

Artery Calhoun of Belle Vernon, L. L. Melcher of Wilkensburg, and Doy Calhoun are handling the peach crop at Sylvan Crest this week.

Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Cramer returned to their home in Bedford, N. J., on Friday after spending a few days with Miss Ida R. Williams.

Other Sylvan Crest visitors were Mrs. L. L. and Miss Lenore Melcher of Wilkensburg, Webster Melcher of Swissvale, Mrs. Grau and daughter of Wilkensburg, Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Harpster and children of Pine Grove Mills, Mrs. Maud Douglas of Newark, N. J., Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Harpster and little Dona of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Mae Williams came home Sunday after having spent several weeks with her sister in Akron, Ohio. The sister has been in poor health for some time.

YARNELL

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Emel and son Clair and daughter Nancy Mae, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Klesling and son Clarence and Mr. Luther Emel motored to McKeesport and spent the weekend with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Walker and daughter Jean of Worcester, Mass., spent Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Miller.

Sunday visitors at the Fred Keshling home were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cox and friends.

Miss Florence Miller who spent sometime with her aunt and uncle at their home in Oneonta, N. Y., returned to her home here, on Wednesday.

Sunday visitors at the Milford Eiters home were Mr. and Mrs. Sam Emel and son Harvey of Pleasant Valley and Harold Eiters and Margaret McKain of Pine Glen.

JULIAN

Those who visited the home of Aaron G. Donley were: Mr. and Mrs. Philip Spotts of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Donley and family, of Altoona took dinner at this home.

WOODWARD

Well, war was sprung on Poland by the German dictator Adolf Hitler on Sept. 1 and war was declared by Great Britain, France, Australia and New Zealand, on Sept. 3, on Germany. The people of our country are shocked at the unreasonableness of Hitler's act, especially of a country which stood at the head of civilization. It certainly will reduce her name very low in the eyes of all civilized nations. In the mean time let every one in our country begin to pray God Almighty to overrule the criminal action and keep us free from war. Not only is Hitler alone to blame but his soldiers who were pledged with by our beloved President not to bomb innocent and unfortified cities, and they go right ahead and do just as they please. The whole upper clique is engaged in this wholesale murderous business.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Motz and daughter of Buffalo, N. Y., spent their Labor Day vacation at the Earle Motz residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Orndorf returned on Saturday night from their home in Philadelphia to spend their Labor Day vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker returned home one day this week accompanied by their son, Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Bowersox and family circulated among relatives and acquaintances over the weekend. They were pleasantly entertained at the Roy Bowersox home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Plank of Perdin Park in company with two of their friends of the same place were royally entertained at the former's sister and husband's home that of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kremer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Pierce and family of near Wilkes-Barre were weekend callers with acquaintances in town on Saturday evening and Sunday before returning home.

Fred Seitz of McKeesport with his family certainly is enjoying his vacation with acquaintances, especially does he like the cold shower baths. You should have seen him shiver when they turned on that cold mountain water.

The following were weekend guests at the Orndorf Inn: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob C. Yeaker, Mr. and Mrs. Balke, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Orndorf and son Paul, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy of Johnstown, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. George Orndorf, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weisming, Miss Alice J. Orndorf, of Lancaster, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mowery of Centre Hall.

Bear in mind the Harvest Home services which are scheduled for this coming Sunday in the Woodward Evangelical church at 7:30 p. m. Everybody is heartily invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Musser and family of Mifflinburg, were Sunday visitors at the R. E. Musser home. They brought Mr. Musser's father, R. E. Musser home. His father was quite busy doing a lot of repair work for him last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Kuhlman who made a hurried trip home returned to spend a few more days at the J. B. Ard home.

RUNVILLE

Don't forget the chicken sandwich supper at John Furl's home on Friday evening, Sept. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Furl and daughter came from Williamsport on Sunday afternoon and on Monday morning with Mr. and Mrs. John Furl and son Arthur and Earl Milton motored to Elliott Park, to attend the Green-Hancock reunion.

School opened on Tuesday morning with two sessions, the small ones in the forenoon and the large ones in the afternoon.

Rev. Tobias and family motored to McCarty on last Tuesday to attend a birthday supper for his sister, returning on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Lydia Keller from Arona, is visiting with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Tobias.

There were a great many from here attended the Grange picnic last week.

The threshing machine made its appearance at the farm of Milligan Lucas on Tuesday morning.

We were favored with a good rain on Monday which was badly needed.

Sunday school next Sunday morning at 9:30, preaching in the evening at 7:30 for which Rev. Tobias will preach his farewell sermon for this year. We all join in wishing him back for another year.

VALLEY VIEW

Those who spent Sunday with Mr. Christ Eckley and his daughter Bertha Corman were: Mr. and Mrs. George Eckley of Altoona; Elizabeth Miller of Greensburg; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hunter, of Bellefonte; Mrs. N. E. Parker of Virginia, and Grover Corman and two sons, of Bellefonte.

Mrs. James Gordon and children spent a few days with Mrs. Gordon's father Mr. Thomas King and other relatives of this vicinity.

Those who spent Sunday afternoon with Margie Hampton were Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, Glen McClain and Charley Reese of Tyrone, and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Dead.

Feron Eckley spent a few days in Cleveland, Ohio, with his daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McDonna. He went to Cleveland with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Reed of Bellefonte.

Those who called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William King were: Mr. and Mrs. Warner of New Jersey; Miss Martha King of Philadelphia and Mr. and Mrs. William Bohn and son of Hecla Park. The three ladies being Mr. King's sisters.

Marlin Houser, Leonard Resides and Paul E. Eckley motored to Altoona on some business.

Albert Corman and Kathlene Hillard spent Tuesday with Mrs. Vincent King.

FOUND AT LAST

Q-822—Relief for muscular aches and pains when associated with neuritis, lumbago or rheumatic disorders, etc. Prescription Q-822 has helped thousands of people when other remedies have failed. Get a bottle today. Price $1.50.

PARRISH DRUG STORE BELLEFONTE, PA.

BENNER TWP.

School opened up here at Rock Sept. 5, with a full attendance and Wilbur Dunkle teacher. This makes Mr. Dunkle's fourth term at this school.

Clarks school opened on Sept. 5 with Virginia Irvin as teacher. This is her first term at the Clark school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Berner are wearing a smile since they are grandparents of a baby girl.

Joseph Sever and family and Frank Dugan and wife moved home on Friday from the Grange Fair, where they spent the week, tenting.

William Emberton sprung a surprise on his young friends last Saturday, August the 26th, when he, with his lady friend Miss Cora Owens, daughter of Jerry Owens, and do just as they please. The whole upper clique is engaged in this wholesale murderous business.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Motz and daughter of Buffalo, N. Y., spent their Labor Day vacation at the Earle Motz residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Orndorf returned on Saturday night from their home in Philadelphia to spend their Labor Day vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker returned home one day this week accompanied by their son, Paul.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Bowersox and family circulated among relatives and acquaintances over the weekend. They were pleasantly entertained at the Roy Bowersox home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Plank of Perdin Park in company with two of their friends of the same place were royally entertained at the former's sister and husband's home that of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kremer on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Pierce and family of near Wilkes-Barre were weekend callers with acquaintances in town on Saturday evening and Sunday before returning home.

Fred Seitz of McKeesport with his family certainly is enjoying his vacation with acquaintances, especially does he like the cold shower baths. You should have seen him shiver when they turned on that cold mountain water.

The following were weekend guests at the Orndorf Inn: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob C. Yeaker, Mr. and Mrs. Balke, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Orndorf and son Paul, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy of Johnstown, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. George Orndorf, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weisming, Miss Alice J. Orndorf, of Lancaster, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mowery of Centre Hall.

Bear in mind the Harvest Home services which are scheduled for this coming Sunday in the Woodward Evangelical church at 7:30 p. m. Everybody is heartily invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Gurney Musser and family of Mifflinburg, were Sunday visitors at the R. E. Musser home. They brought Mr. Musser's father, R. E. Musser home. His father was quite busy doing a lot of repair work for him last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Kuhlman who made a hurried trip home returned to spend a few more days at the J. B. Ard home.

ZION

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rocky accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rocky of Port Chester, N. Y., to Michigan.

Our schools opened Tuesday, with Mrs. Beightel of Hecla teaching the Zion school and Miss June Rogers of Nittany teaching the Forest school. We wish our new teacher and scholars a very successful year.

Miss Norma Dale of State College, spent last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Hoy of this place.

Miss Edna Vonada was transferred to Hecla school and Miss Mary Detrick to Hublersburg school. We wish them success in their new port.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Miller of Cleveland, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Minnich of State College, and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Russ were weekend callers at the C. F. Clevens home.

Joel Royer spent a few days recently with his cousin in Springfield, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Emerick spent Saturday with Mr. Emerick's parents at Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Finkle and family of Newark, N. J., were recent visitors in our town.

The Golden Rule Sunday School class held their monthly meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Hecla Stover.

Misses Anna Louise Corman and Virginia Irvin began their term of school in Benner Twp. Miss Helen Stover in Spring Twp. We wish them success.

Miss Elizabeth Herman spent a few days recently with her son Melford and family.

Miss Ella Hand of Renovo, was a guest of Miss Hannah Boyle at the Kane home.

Prof. Fauett and family called at the Lutz home at Snyderstown on Saturday.

FAIRVIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Justice of Akron, Ohio, spent a few days last week at the home of Mrs. Justice's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Confer.

Miss Barbara Confer spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Miles Eiters.

Morgan Lucas of Marsh Creek, spent a couple of days last week with his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Lucas.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Confer and children of Bellefonte, and Miss Ella Lucas of this place visited on Friday at the Jessie Confer home.

Mrs. Ira Gilbert and daughter Betty and Mrs. Russell Jones of Pleasant Valley, and Mrs. Alfred Lucas and two children visited on Wednesday with Mrs. Malvin Lucas.

Mrs. Amelia Chapman visited on Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Myrtle Lucas.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones and son Ernie of Pleasant Valley, spent Saturday night at the Amelia Chapman home.

Mrs. Myrtle Lucas visited her daughter Mrs. Bryce Hoover at Howard, on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Roll Felmlee, of Orviston, called on Dick Watkins on Saturday evening.

Sunday visitors at Miss Ella Lucas were Fred Watkins and five daughters Evelyn, Ernestine, Marie, Ethel and Beulah, of Summit Hill; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Justice of Akron, Ohio, Imogene and Tom Confer of Bellefonte; Faye Chapman, Dick Watkins and Paul Lucas of this place.

Regardless of your income, if it is less than the outgo, you are financially defunct.

BUSH HOLLOW

(From last week.) There were only 46 out to Sunday School on Sunday. What's the matter folks? Try and come out next Sunday. The attendance wasn't very large at the Wednesday night service last week but we are hoping for a better attendance this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watson from along the pike visited at the home of Mrs. Edna Spotts last Tuesday evening. Other visitors Wednesday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Blair Welker, of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nearhood and son Ronnie, and Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Moore and son Donald of Port Matilda.

Mrs. Moore and son remained with her mother for a few days, returning to her home Sunday evening.

Mrs. George Weston, son Earl, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carver, and son Russell and grandson Donnie attended the tent meeting at Milesburg Tuesday evening. Also a number of other folks from the hollow have been attending this meeting. Go and hear the Zimmerman sisters sing and hear the good message brought forth each evening.

Arthur Watson of Runville, visited at the Clyde Watson home Sunday.

Harry Carver spent Saturday with his daughter Mrs. Edward Way and family.

Miss Martha Shirey of Williamsport, is spending some time with her grandmother Mrs. Edna Spotts.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Spotts and son Larry accompanied by other relatives motored to Maryland, Sunday morning to spend several days with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Harper and family.

Mrs. Edna Spotts, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Spotts and children spent Sunday at the Sunbury camp meeting. While there they talked with our former pastor, Rev. Lint and family, who live near Sunbury.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Tom Holt former resident of Bush Hollow and Edward Witmer husband of the former Clara Irwin, who also lived here; and the death of Henry Flick brother of James B. Flick.

Rev. and Mrs. Byrd and Dorothy and Beatrice Zimmerman were supper guests Thursday night at the Roy Spotts home. Sunday dinner guests at the Spotts home were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Irwin and family, Mrs. Marlin Moore and son Donald and Jean Spots. Those who spent Sunday night there were Martha Shirey and Jean Spotts.

The Pain King agent was visiting our hollow Monday morning.

Do Wild Animals Adopt Human Babies? Science makes interesting discoveries in which proof is found that children have been reared by apes, bears and other animals. An interesting story in the September 17th issue of the American Weekly, the big magazine distributed with the Baltimore Sunday American. On sale by all newsdealers.

Judging from the contents of some of the letters we receive it must be the hot air mail.

MOSHANNON

Mrs. LeRoy Lewis, Hope Lewis and Jack Ross of Karthaus motored to Briarhill, Monday.

Milford Pyle of Wesley, Washington county, is spending a few days here.

Mary Louise May returned home Sunday after spending the summer with her aunt, Mrs. James Walsh, of Franklin, N. J.

These visiting at Clyde Borgers Sunday were: Twila Borger of Newberry and friend, Mr. Wilford of N. Y., and Mrs. Mary Viehdorfer of Snow Shoe and Mr. and Mrs. George Waser and children of Traf-ford City.

The Ladies Class of the M. E. Sunday School met at Mrs. Clyde Borger's Thursday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett J. Kyster and children, Woodrow and Odette of Akron, Ohio, spent Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hazard.

There will be a festival at the Print Shop Sept. 16th, beginning at 5 o'clock for benefit of the M. E. church, more particulars later.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Norton of Karthaus spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Annie Norton.

Suzey Billy of Lock Haven is spending this week at her home here.

Mrs. Elva Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hart and son Jimmie, of Youngstown, Ohio, motored through our town on Labor Day and called at the home of LeRoy Lewis.

James Kelley stopped off at his home here on his way from New York World's Fair to the Dodge car factory in Mich. His purpose at the Fair was demonstrating the Dodge car.

LeRoy Lewis, John Bowers and Carl Schmoke enjoyed a fishing trip on Pine Creek near Jersey Mills, on Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Pyle motored to Pittsburgh on Labor Day and attended the Fair.

John Lynn and friend Eleanor Lees of Sunbury, visited Sunday and Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lester.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Lucas, Mrs. LeRoy Lewis, Hope Lewis, and friend Jack Ross attended the Home Coming at the Sylvan Grove Church last Sunday. Rev. O. B. Poulson of the Methodist church delivered the afternoon sermon which was excellent.

John T. Lucas spent Labor Day at home here.

The Culver clan and their friends met at the Culver homestead on Sunday and Monday. Those present were: Mrs. Agnes Culver Biehls from Ridgeaway, the only survivor of the original family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hippie, Ellsworth; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Culver, Moshannon;

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Culver and family Tyrone; Mrs. Laura Quick and Vincent of Moshannon, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Culver and Junior of Camp Hill, R. D., Mr. and Mrs. R. Grieb and family of Moshannon; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weaver, Snow Shoe; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Culver and family, Kylesburg; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Biehls, two sons and grandson, Ridgeaway; Charles Fleming, Dorothy and Eloise Beals, Marjorie Borger of Moshannon; Mr. and Mrs. Wiser and family of Traf-ford; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Borger, and niece, Dorothy of Curwensville; Mr. and Mrs. Laweg Lucas and daughter of Williamsport; Mr. Mahlon Watson and children Janet and Jay, of Moshannon; and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis of Moshannon.

The stork has been busy in our town; last Monday the 21st, a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Watson; Tuesday the 22nd, a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Doyal Borger.

Visitors at the Charles Guenot's Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Guenot and three children of near Karthaus, and Mr. and Mrs. Swanson and family of Drifting.

C. C. Lucas of Pleasant Gap, returned home Friday after spending the week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas of Munson called Wednesday afternoon at the J. F. Lucas home, and also at LeRoy Lewis'.

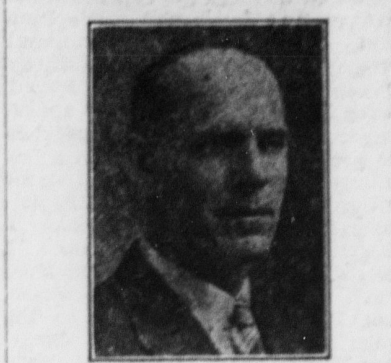

Fred Lucas of Belmont, N. Y., visited relatives and friends here from Wednesday until Saturday, when his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Merry of Allentown, N. Y., came and accompanied him home.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis, accompanied by C. C. Lucas and Fred Lucas motored to the Lewis hunting camp. Enroute they saw several deer, a fawn and a large wild cat.

Mary Ann Lucas, R. N., accompanied by Maxine Schnars, motored to Emporium, Thursday and visited at the home of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Lucas. Sunday they spent the day at Watkins Glen.

(Pol. Adv.)

TO THE VOTERS OF CENTRE CO.

I am taking this means of showing the voters of Centre County just how I stand in my own precinct. I ran for Supervisor two years ago, and out of 170 votes cast in Benner Twp. I received 130, which is mostly Republican.

I am a poor working man and will appreciate your support.

Elmer (Pete) Breon (Benner Township) BELLEFONTE, R. D. 1

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR SHERIFF OF CENTRE COUNTY

DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE For Register of Wills OF CENTRE COUNTY HARRY A. CORMAN SPRING MILLS, PA. (Gregg Township) If nominated and elected, I pledge myself to give the citizens of Centre County an Efficient, Courteous and Accommodating Administration.

CLARENCE R. STITZER STATE COLLEGE, PA. CANDIDATE FOR THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINATION FOR TREASURER YOUR SUPPORT AND INFLUENCE Are Earnestly Solicited, and Will Be Greatly Appreciated.

Repeated by Request Another SUSQUEHANNA VALLEY JUBILEE EXCURSION TO THE WORLD'S FAIR SUNDAY, SEPT. 10 Again, your own special train right to the grounds! $155,000,000 in thrills! . . . 1,500 exhibits, concerts and movies FREE! . . . Talk about FUN . . . don't miss it! FAIR ADMISSION TICKETS ARE LOW—50c for grown-ups, 25c for children—can be purchased with your railroad ticket. SPECIAL THRU COACH TRAIN (Standard Time) Lv. Altoona . . . 1:55 A.M. Lv. Lemont . . . 2:19 A.M. Ar. New York (Penn. Sta.) . . . 9:55 A.M. Ar. World's Fair . . . 10:50 A.M. RETURNING, Lv. World's Fair Sta. . . 4:30 P.M. Lv. New York (Penn. Sta.) . . . 7:45 P.M. Tickets may be purchased in advance and at all stations 15 days prior to train time Sunday morning. A FULL DAY OF THRILLS AND JOY AT THE FAIR! DON'T FAIL TO SEE THE HIT SHOWS OF THE FAIR—"RAILROADS ON PARADE", "RAILROADS IN BUILDING", "RAILROADS AT WORK" PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

FACTS FROM THE RECORD L. FRANK MAYES COLLEGE TOWNSHIP BOND C. WHITE SPRING TOWNSHIP 1. 44 years a worker for the regular Republican party in Centre Co. 2. Served 4 years as County Treasurer. 3. Asks what he believes to be a just reward for his unswerving loyalty in his years of service to the Republican party. The above summary is the background upon which both Republican Candidates for the office of Prothonotary base their campaigns for nomination. Will you, as registered voters of the Republican party, continue to favor a man who has already been so handsomely paid for his services of questionable value to party unity? OR, WILL YOU, as a reward for one who has given the best years of his life in the interests of the REGULAR REPUBLICAN PARTY, go to the polls on Primary Day and cast your VOTE for L. FRANK MAYES for YOUR Prothonotary? NOTE:—Due to an operation Mr. Mayes has not been able to conduct an active personal campaign. However, he is now able to be about and, WIN OR LOSE, Frank takes this opportunity of thanking all his friends for their support. (Signed) MAYES FOR PROTHONOTARY COMMITTEE