

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Class Meeting—The regular meeting of the Kings Service Club will be held in the form of a wicker roast up at the dam, Friday evening, September 15th, at 7:30 p. m. In case of rain the meeting will be held in the Community House.

Methodist Church Services—Prayer service this Thursday evening at 7:30 p. m.; Sunday School Sunday morning at the regular hour, Epworth League in the evening at 6:30 p. m. immediately followed by the preaching service at 7:30 with sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. D. Kaufman.

League Meeting—The regular monthly business meeting of the Epworth League will be held this Friday evening at the home of Miss Ida Mae Barton. A good attendance is desired as there will be the annual election of officers. Social time will follow the business.

Free Methodist Church Services: Young folks prayer service Tuesday evening. On Friday evening, September 8th, Mrs. Vera Baughman of State College will give a Missionary address in the church, Sunday School Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. followed by preaching service with sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett. All persons invited to the Friday evening service especially.

Wedding Bells—Mr. Ralph Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Smith of this place, wedded to Emporium last Saturday where he was quietly joined in marriage with Miss Garrett of the Free Methodist, Lona Hathaway of that place. Rev. church of this place performed the ceremony which was witnessed only by the immediate families. They left on Sunday morning for a wedding trip in the southern part of the state, Washington, D. C. and other places of interest. Congratulations young folks, and now is the time to tune up our instruments for the happy occasion, upon their return.

Mrs. Orrie Holt and granddaughter, Meriam Way, visited last Friday with Mr. and Mrs. P. I. Holt and family at Milesburg, Pa.

The annual conference of the Free Methodist church will be held this month, commencing September 20th, and will convene at Sheffield, Pa., near Warren.

C. C. Holtzworth of Fairmont, West Virginia, spent the weekend with his brother, J. Blair Holtzworth and with his wife who had been visiting with her father, Daniel Duck, for several weeks. They all returned to their home on Monday.

The schools of the borough and township opened on Tuesday of this week with teachers in the borough as last year. Charlotte Stere in the Primary room and Russell Reish in the Grammar room. Mrs. Clark Williams is teaching the Bush Hollow School, Mrs. Harry Jones the Chestnut Grove school, Mrs. LeRoy

Hall, Upper Dix Run and Mrs. Harold Watson lower Dix Run, Plum Grove and the Pike school are the same as last year.

Miss Katherine Buck of Williamsport, is visiting for several weeks with her brother, Daniel Buck of this place.

Joseph Way, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Way, spent last week visiting with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Way of Union Township.

Miss Margaret Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parsons, left on Monday for Harrisburg where she had entered the Harrisburg business school.

Miss Dolly Snocke, of Clearfield, was a weekend guest of her aunts, Mrs. Harriet Askins and Miss Mary Turner also with her brother, Raymond Snocke and family of Union Township.

Mrs. Bertha Loughery of Philadelphia is visiting around among friends and relatives at this time, being in Bellefonte with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaeffer and in our community.

Guests at the home of Miss Julia Barton over the past weekend and Labor Day, were Miss Jean Keasey, Miss Wills Warnick, Albert Herman and Howard Sny and Dan Breznick, all of Cabot, Pa.

Ardery Calhoun of Pittsburgh is spending this week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Calhoun, also at the home of his aunt, Miss Ida Williams, of Martha, assisting her with the harvesting of her peach crop.

Students of the borough who are in Bellefonte High School, started their terms work on Wednesday. There are a great number going from our community and they are having some difficulty in finding transportation.

The brothers, sisters and friends and relatives of the late Thomas Holt, desire to publicly express their thanks and appreciation for the assistance and kindness rendered them by their many friends and neighbors during their recent bereavement.

The peaches on the Askin orchard, now Raymond Snocke, are in full swing at this time. A large number were picked on Labor Day, but the greatest crop will be ready by the latter part of this week. Come and pick your own and bring your own containers.

Mrs. Charles Schaeffer of Bellefonte, Pa., had placed in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening a very beautiful basket of pink and white asters in memory of the birthday of her deceased mother, Mrs. Carrie Rowan, who was a faithful member of that church and whose presence is greatly missed by the surviving members and friends.

SNOWSHOE

Those who visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hippel over the weekend were: John Peterman, Mr. and Mrs. William Peterman and three children; Mr. and Mrs. Nevan Shaffer and niece, all of Stoytown; Mr. and Mrs. George Weiser, three children and friend, Dr. Dixon, of Pittsburg; Mrs. Mary Viedorfer and John Shreffler, Jr., and two children, Charles Tyno, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hippel, Mr. and Mrs. James Hippel and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Shreffler Sr., all of Snow Shoe; Mrs. Blanche Robison and Gene Roan of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hazard and two sons of Moshannon.

Mr. James Smoyer and daughters Blanche and Celia, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smoyer and two children, Mr. and Mrs. Point Smoyer and family of Bellefonte were callers at the Orrie Conaway home on Labor Day.

Mr. Orrie Conaway sons Lloyd and Marlin, Mrs. Eva Wenrick and Kaylene Miller, were shoppers in Bellefonte on Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Hippel and daughters Marie and Pearl accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hazard of Moshannon, on a trip to Coburn on Labor Day.

Mrs. Eva Wenrick daughters Ellen and Dorothy, Miss Kaylene Miller visited on Friday with friends at Moshannon.

Miss Francine Eyer of Loganton, R. D. visited with her aunt, Mrs. Eva Wenrick and family over the weekend.

George, Gladys and Lloyd Wenrick returned home Saturday after visiting last week at the Blair Mann home in Howard R. D. 2.

Samuel Hippel of Pittsburgh, called at the home of his brother Frank Hippel and family on Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Eyer and family of Loganton, R. D. and Leonard Mann of Howard R. D. 2, were callers at the home of Mrs. Eyer's sister Mrs. Eva Wenrick on Labor Day.

REBERSBURG

Charles Waite and family of Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. R. Floyd Gramley and son Marion of Binghamton, N. Y. returned to their home on Sunday following the public sale of their mother's household furnishings and home on Saturday. Their mother, Mrs. Clara Waite, passed away several months ago. The home was bought by W. F. Bierly.

H. H. Hess and daughter Mary Ella and son Harold of Williamsport, Michigan, arrived at the Rev. N. F. Douth home on Sunday evening, where they were joined by Mrs. Hess and son David, who spent the past weeks with Mrs. Douth. The Hess family departed for New York City on Tuesday where they spent several days at the World's Fair, before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Weaver Jr., accompanied by the latter's mother, were Thursday visitors with their son, Walter Weaver and wife at Lemont.

Mrs. Anna Stanley of Nesbit and Mr. and Mrs. Myles Bowman of Auburn, N. Y., spent Sunday at the W. H. Ziegler home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wolfe visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Bottorf at Millmont on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Breen and daughter Virginia and son Eugene of Columbus, Ohio, were weekend guests at the home of M. W. Breen and W. J. Hackenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Frazier and daughter Dorothy of Akron, Ohio, were Sunday supper guests at the Howard Walker home.

C. S. Hoerman and family were Sunday dinner guests at the H. O. Yearick home at Mill Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baly attended the Bowersox reunion last Saturday in Snyder county.

John Metzger and family returned home Sunday after visiting Mrs. Metzger's mother, Mrs. Ida Weaver. Other Sunday visitors at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weaver and daughter of Lewisport, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eberline of Greenburg.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Hartman visited at Ingleby several days last week. Earl Burd of Honesville was a weekend guest with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Burd at the A. B. Winters home.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reahm last Sunday but died on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Brungart and children of Coburn and Mrs. Roy Brungart and children of town visited at the John Brungart home at Levisa, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Mingle and daughter Violet and son Donald, of Roaring Springs visited at the A. B. Wolfe home on Labor Day.

John Diehl of State College was a Monday caller in town.

Mrs. Margaret Kane of Kingston arrived in Rebersburg on Sunday and resumed her work as language teacher in the local High School on Monday when the Mill Township public schools began the term of 1939-1940.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brungart, Hazel Brungart, Lester Welshans, and Melvin Bright motored to Lewisport Valley on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Ziegler and daughter Gladys were Saturday visitors in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Margaret Kane of Kingston arrived in Rebersburg on Sunday and resumed her work as language teacher in the local High School on Monday when the Mill Township public schools began the term of 1939-1940.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brungart, Hazel Brungart, Lester Welshans, and Melvin Bright motored to Lewisport Valley on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Ziegler and daughter Gladys were Saturday visitors in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Margaret Kane of Kingston arrived in Rebersburg on Sunday and resumed her work as language teacher in the local High School on Monday when the Mill Township public schools began the term of 1939-1940.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brungart, Hazel Brungart, Lester Welshans, and Melvin Bright motored to Lewisport Valley on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Ziegler and daughter Gladys were Saturday visitors in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Margaret Kane of Kingston arrived in Rebersburg on Sunday and resumed her work as language teacher in the local High School on Monday when the Mill Township public schools began the term of 1939-1940.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brungart, Hazel Brungart, Lester Welshans, and Melvin Bright motored to Lewisport Valley on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Ziegler and daughter Gladys were Saturday visitors in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Margaret Kane of Kingston arrived in Rebersburg on Sunday and resumed her work as language teacher in the local High School on Monday when the Mill Township public schools began the term of 1939-1940.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brungart, Hazel Brungart, Lester Welshans, and Melvin Bright motored to Lewisport Valley on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Ziegler and daughter Gladys were Saturday visitors in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Margaret Kane of Kingston arrived in Rebersburg on Sunday and resumed her work as language teacher in the local High School on Monday when the Mill Township public schools began the term of 1939-1940.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brungart, Hazel Brungart, Lester Welshans, and Melvin Bright motored to Lewisport Valley on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Ziegler and daughter Gladys were Saturday visitors in Bellefonte.

Mrs. Margaret Kane of Kingston arrived in Rebersburg on Sunday and resumed her work as language teacher in the local High School on Monday when the Mill Township public schools began the term of 1939-1940.

BLANCHARD

After a lapse of two weeks, in which Mrs. Harold Packer had heard nothing of her son, Thomas, who is stationed at Panama, word came that he was suffering an attack of Malaria fever.

Junior Eck returned home on Saturday after spending a week with relatives in Williamsport.

Virginia Durkin is in Monument caring for her sister, Mrs. Otto Gilton, in whose home a baby girl has been born recently.

Mrs. Florence Donovan, of Hartford, Conn., rather than returning home, as slated last week, has taken her son Billy to New York to attend the World's Fair for a week.

Rev. Rodgers preached his first sermon at the new pastorate, the Church of Christ, on Sunday.

Rev. Kline, of the Baptist Church, has gone on vacation. The next preaching service in that church will be Oct. 1, 1939, both morning and evening.

June Miller went to Tyrone on Friday evening with Evelyn Andrews for a few days visit. She is planning to come to Howard on the weekend to spend the remainder of the week with her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Shay.

A son, who has been named David Clair, was born to Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Rupert at the Teah Hospital on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lee and sons Alexandria Va., spent Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of Mrs. D. C. Gardner, on Sunday. Mr. Gardner, Junior, Louise and William Neff of Mill Hill, were guests of the Lees at their summer cottage near Lock Haven.

Miss Annie DeLong entertained the Amosa Bible Class of the Baptist Sunday School in honor of Miss Storehill of Philadelphia, who is a guest of Miss DeLong on Friday evening.

Mrs. Roy Burlew and son, of Owensboro, Ky., spent the week with Mrs. D. M. Burlew. Later in the week Stanley and Nick with their respective wives arrived, to return home with their mother.

Edred Pletcher, of Altoona, spent Saturday at the home of his father, Hayes Pletcher.

Irvin Fravel, of Pottstown, spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. William Warren, of Pittsburgh, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Bathurst over the weekend.

Miss Tremna Deitz, employed at Lock Haven, is spending a week's vacation at her home here.

Miss Jane Williams left Monday evening to begin work for Mrs. Madeline Trexler of Aysa.

Mrs. Emma Jann, was called home from her visit to Atlantic City, due to an accident which befell her nephew while he was visiting relatives in Beach Creek.

The local W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Annie Ridge on Wednesday afternoon.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Maxon on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. George Barrett of South Williamsport, Mrs. Irvin Fravel and Vivian Fravel of Beach Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shilling and family of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Vaughn, of Montoursville, spent Monday with Mrs. Raymond Maxon and family. Raymond Maxon hasn't been so well for a week; he has a bad case of hay fever.

Evelyn Packer attended the party at the home of Vivian Fravel in honor of Janice Merriman's birthday.

Mrs. Raymond Maxon spent last Thursday in Lock Haven with her cousin, Mrs. Dorothy James.

The Friends Club of Blanchard, will hold their regular monthly meeting on Friday evening, Sept. 8th. All members of this club should turn out for this meeting as new officers for the coming year are to be elected. Also arrangements made for a huge trailblazer meeting in October, which may include neighboring clubs, when one of the best field speakers in the United States will speak, if nothing unforeseen intervenes to prevent.

A family reunion was held in Walker Grove, on Sunday. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Miller, present; Emily Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Miller, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller, grandchildren, Mrs. Roxie Heverly, Robert, Floyd Miller and Mary Hoiler, Ira Miller, Ray, Ruth Belle, Dora, and Lois Miller, Ruth Ann Miller, Robert, Kenneth, Kay, Gene and Dean Miller, Mary, Donald and Glen Miller, great grandchildren, Gertrude Heverly, Jimmie McManm.

Paul Bowes, who is employed at State College, is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bowes, at their home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Matman and two children of Victor, N. Y. are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Harris Confer.

Ivan Kunes of State College spent several days recently at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leone Kunes.

Mrs. Mary Hendricks spent several days last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lazelle Deitz in Lock Haven.

Jane Poieto, granddaughter of Mrs. Emma Kunes, received word that her father, Tony Poieto of Reno had an accident at the car shops and had to have two fingers amputated.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bealy were: Mrs. Edward Bryndie and son, Jim, daughters, Frances, and Mrs. Millie Schaut, and granddaughter, Marjorie Miller, all of St. Mary's, and Miss Lila Tressler of Mt. Eagle, Mrs. Clara Baker, Mrs. E. Headd, Mrs. George Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Johnson and children of North Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clark, Owensboro, Ky., are spending two weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harris Clark.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Bathurst over the weekend were: Robert McClellan and stepdaughter, Margaret McCauley of Pittsburgh.

Jimmy and Charles Stevenson of Mill Hill spent a week with their best friend to advertise your advertisement is to print it in The Centre Democrat.

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday, Sept. 10 are as follows: Sunday School 9:30 and C. E. 6:45, topic for discussion "What Jesus Said About Right Living."

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Breen and children Virginia and Eugene of Columbus, Ohio, were Friday evening supper guests at the Elmer Swope home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Romick and Michael Garver of Philadelphia, spent Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the E. R. Bartley home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Schupp and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dixon of Cleveland, Ohio, spent the weekend and Labor Day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon and sorry to learn that Mr. Dixon is no longer very fast.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Atkins of Philadelphia were Saturday evening supper guests, at the home of the latter's cousin, C. E. Aley and family. Sunday callers were Mrs. Sumner Noll and daughter Eise Jane of this place, and Miss Dorothy Womelsdorff of near Beech Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Smith, after spending some time at the Nevin Yearick home, returned to their home in Pittsburgh on Sunday.

Master Fred Beltz spent the past week in Altoona, visiting at the home of Kenneth Lucas and family. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potter and daughters Barbara and Eleanor, and son Billie and Mrs. V. F. Goodhart of Centre Hall, visited Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Vonada on Sunday.

Sunday afternoon and supper guests at the William Beightol home were her mother, Mrs. Harry Harter and brother Frank Harter, wife and daughter Dorothy of Kyrtown, and Miss Margaret Logan of Bellefonte, R. D. Other callers were Mrs. Alice Beltz and daughter Dorothy and son Fred, Mrs. E. R. Bartley and sons Arthur and Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Conroy and children Kathryn, Lucy, Lester and Harry of this place and Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul of Bellefonte.

A. A. Smith and daughter, Edna of Erie, Pa., spent a few days last week with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Fritz.

Misses Pauline and Marie Yarnell of Bellefonte, R. D. visited little Irvin Yarnell last week.

Wilson Romick of Bellefonte, spent Sunday at the E. R. Bartley home.

After spending two weeks of their honeymoon here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. John Ulmer left for their future home in Philadelphia, all with them a safe arrival and a happy and prosperous journey through their entire wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. George White and daughter Connie of Rote, Mrs. Florence Rossman and daughter, Shirley of Mill Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Rosman of Mill Hill R. D. 1, were Sunday visitors at the John Deitz home.

Foster Shamp of Hubersburg, was a Sunday caller at the home of his sister, Mrs. Winfield Deitz. Harry Swope and William Kaleos of Pittsburgh, spent the weekend and Labor Day with the former's father, Mr. Elmer Swope and family.

Mrs. Louise Beightol was a Sunday dinner guest of her friend Miss Margaret Logan.

Mrs. S. Theron Harang and Jack Rolles of Altoona, spent Friday and Saturday at the A. A. Garrett home. Saturday evening callers were Mr. G. P. Garrett and Miss Frea Stover of Rebersburg and William Garrett of Canton, Ohio. Florence Stover and Mr. Winner of Lock Haven spent Sunday evening at the same hour.

Mr. and Mrs. William Romick of Philadelphia, Mr. Wilson Romick of Bellefonte, Mrs. Anna R-bb and Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley of this place were Saturday evening callers on Mrs. Irvin Albright of near Salona.

Elmer Swope and family and James Lucas of Fox Hollow, Virginia Fisher of Charleroi, spent Monday evening at the C. S. Muijer home at Lock Haven.

Our schools opened on Tuesday morning with an enrollment of 21 pupils in Grammar school and Miss Laude Miller of Penna. Furnace as teacher and the primary has an enrollment of 19 pupils with Miss Eleanor Moore of Howard, as teacher. Now, to receive the best results, there must be true harmony and co-operation between parents, teachers and pupils so let us all do our part adequately.

School started on Tuesday with 22 children present the first day. The children were all pleased with their new teacher, Mrs. Williams of Unionville. We hope she has a pleasant year of teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Adams of Pittsburgh and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Custer of Unionville, visited Mrs. Spots home Saturday a. m. Mr. and Mrs. Adams spent several days with the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Custer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Monnell of Bellefonte, visited her grandmother, Mrs. Edna Spotts and family on Sunday.

Lots of traffic up this way the past few days. Everyone is hunting peaches, Jim Flick's orchard is a sight worth seeing, although they are not quite ripe yet.

The world would probably contain a greater number of human beings if more of them lived their own lives without so many inhibitions.

The most news for $1.50.

There will be a Toxoid Clinic diphtheria inoculatory held Thursday, Sept. 14th, at 2:30 o'clock in the High School Building, at Hubersburg. The age infancy to 16 years. There will be a Dr. and nurse in attendance, all parents wishing their children to take Toxoid please remember date and place.—Howard Health Service

Miss Martha Kerin of Moshannon is a guest at the home of Miss Annie Smith.

Mrs. William Perry and son of Altoona, spent Wednesday at the home of her aunt, Miss Nan Lucan, Bennington, Ga., and his mother, Mrs. C. G. Evans of Paduch, Ky., left for their home Thursday after spending a week at the home of John Wagner and family.

Mrs. Dean Bennisso, daughter Jean and Sally, left for their home Sunday, at Indianapolis, Ind.

Mary Kate Weber left Tuesday for New Kensington, where she will spend the winter at her father's home.

Miss Mary Weber and Miss Bertha Wolf entertained J. A. Hummel and Edwin Martin of Lancaster over Labor Day.

Callers and visitors over the weekend at the home of Mrs. Stella V. Williams are: Mrs. Lewis Brown of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; also Mrs. Sue Bricker, son Samuel, of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hastings, of Toronto, Canada, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Cauffel, daughter Dorothy of Coudersport.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Taylor of Williamsport, spent the weekend at the home of T. A. Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Ward, son Thurlow, of Bethlehem, visited Mrs. Alice Smith over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Buckley Jr., daughter Connie of Edwells, N. Y., visited at the home of their parents.

The Sunshine class of the Methodist church held a chicken waffle supper at the Bond White cabin in Curtin Gap.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Miller of Detroit, Mich., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennison Confer.

Mrs. Virginia Farris, son Tommy of Portland, Oregon returned to their home Saturday after several months visit with Mrs. Farris' mother, Mrs. Kate Weber. Alvin Pifer accompanied Mrs. Farris and son to Portland.

Mrs. Toner Robb returned Friday from Baltimore, where she spent the summer with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and M. A. Preston Robb.

Mrs. Sam Noll of Pleasant Gap was a recent visitor of Hilda W. Leathers.

Miss Josephine Muffy returned to New Platz, N. Y., to resume her work.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Holter, son William of Rochester, N. Y., visited several days with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baron of Beech Creek, spent Sunday at the home of John Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zeiler of York, spent the weekend at the homes of William Bathgate and Lewis Dorman.

The following young people attended the races in Altoona, Labor Day, Miss Doris Amick, Miss Mary Lumsion, John Bechtold, and Sheldon Schenck.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Robb of Merchantsville, N. J., were visitors at the home of Wilbur Hall over the weekend.

Mrs. Guy Fisher, of Baltimore, Md., former residents of our town, spent the weekend and Labor Day at the William Eckenroth home. Other former residents also of Baltimore, who spent the weekend and holiday here were Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Heaton, Mr. and Mrs. John Hall and two children and Norman Shawley.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pochler and son, of Batavia, N. Y., spent the weekend at the M. H. Hall home. They were accompanied by a friend of Mrs. Pochler's.

It surely was grand to see rain Monday for a great many wells in Centre City were very low. Of course the rain stopped the ball game but we can live better without them than without water.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCullough of Pittsburgh, are rejoicing over the arrival of a son on Friday of last week. As a result, Mr. and Mrs. George McCullough, grandpater-in-law are wearing a big smile.

Latest reports are that Mrs. John Allen is improving.

Some of our young folks met with accidents last week. Richard Hall fell while running and fractured a bone in his arm. About the same time Donald Bryan received a nasty cut in the hand and Emerson Hall quite a gash on the leg. This is quite a coincidence as the boys are all cousins.

School bells rang on Tuesday which was a welcome sound to some of our young folks also their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Sowers and son spent Labor Day with relatives at Millifield.

LITTLE NITTANY

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Schnyder, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Schnyder, of Altoona, and Mrs. Rachel Confer of Beech Creek were supper guests at the Willard Harter home Sunday evening.

The Elizabeth Laubach and sons Glen and Von visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dullen on Monday. Glen and Von are spending some time at the same place.

Mr. S. W. Frain of Altoona spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pletcher.

There will be a Toxoid Clinic diphtheria inoculatory held Thursday, Sept. 14th, at 2:30 o'clock in the High School Building, at Hubersburg. The age infancy to 16 years. There will be a Dr. and nurse in attendance, all parents wishing their children to take Toxoid please remember date and place.—Howard Health Service

Miss Martha Kerin of Moshannon is a guest at the home of Miss Annie Smith.

Mrs. William Perry and son of Altoona, spent Wednesday at the home of her aunt, Miss Nan Lucan, Bennington, Ga., and his mother, Mrs. C. G. Evans of Paduch, Ky., left for their home Thursday after spending a week at the home of John Wagner and family.

Mrs. Dean Bennisso, daughter Jean and Sally, left for their home Sunday, at Indianapolis, Ind.

Mary Kate Weber left Tuesday for New Kensington, where she will spend the winter at her father's home.

Miss Mary Weber and Miss Bertha Wolf entertained J. A. Hummel and Edwin Martin of Lancaster over Labor Day.

Callers and visitors over the weekend at the home of Mrs. Stella V. Williams are