Thursday, September 28, on Charles Gilmore farm and the Wycliff Gardner farm, Mackeyville.
All farmers are cordially invited to attend the demonstrations, at which time they will be given an opportunity to operate the tractors for themselves. Demonstrations in other parts of the county will be held in the near future. It was announced.

Creditors to Meet
A meeting of the creditors of Dean Williams, trading and doing business as the A. W. A. store, in Phillipsburg, who on February 23 was adjudged a bankrupt, will be held at 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning, October 24 in the United States District Court at Scranton.

Food Profiteering Is Condemned
During the past week, Senator Mead has collected clippings from leading newspapers in several score cities, and has become convinced by the similarity of price rises in different areas that at least a part of the increased cost of basic commodities is due to manipulation. The Bellefonte clipping in the Senator's collection is from The Centre Democrat of September 7, headlined "Public Buys Food Stocks."

Caldwell-Caldwell
At a ceremony performed at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning in St. John's Catholic rectory, Bellefonte, by the Rev. Father William E. Downes, Miss Carolyn M. Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James I. Caldwell, of East Bishop street, Berwick, became the bride of Archibald Caldwell, of Monongahela. Attendants upon the young couple were Mr. and Mrs. David Klinger, of North Allegheny street. The ceremony was witnessed by members of the two families and a few close friends. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Penn Belle Hotel, Bellefonte, with covers being laid for 48 relatives and friends. At the conclusion of the breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell departed for a week's wedding trip through the New England States. Miss Caldwell was at-

Ralston, of the United Brethren church of Bellwood. Immediately after the wedding a supper was served to the guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Musser, Mrs. Hannah Crisman, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Tate, all of State College, and Mrs. S. H. Ralston, of Bellwood.
Snyder—Boone
Announcement has been made by Miss Mary Struble, of Zion, of the marriage of Mary Elizabeth Boone, daughter of Charles Boone, to George Russell Snyder, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder, of Wilgate. Rev. J. N. Wagenhurst, retired Presbyterian minister of Trelletown, Pa., performed the ceremony in his home Saturday, September 16, at 5 o'clock. The only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. William Nichols, of Newark, New Jersey. The bride is a graduate of Walker Township High School and Geisinger Memorial training school for nurses in Danville. Mr. Snyder, a graduate of Bellefonte High School and Lebanon Valley College is a local underwriter for the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the U. S. Mr. and Mrs. Snyder will be home after October 1, in Pleasant Gap.

Rising—Everhart
Miss Margaret Everhart, daughter of John Everhart, of Wilkinsburg, and Martin J. Rising, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin J. Rising, of Vandergriff, were united in marriage at 8:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Graysville Presbyterian church. Dr. E. Reese, of Clarified, uncle of the bride, officiated. Miss Anna Jane Manager, of Spruce Creek Valley, sang and Mrs. LaVere Wise, also of Spruce Creek Valley, was the organ. After a reception at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. John Quinn, at Pine Grove Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Rising left for a wedding trip to eastern cities. They will be at home after October 31. Vandergriff, the bride's father, is a graduate of the State College of Spruce Creek Valley, and was a member of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Rising have one son, Robert, who is in the army.

Woman Swims to Safety
Mrs. Wesley Straub, of Mill Hill, had lost her balance when she was out in a canoe in Fishing Creek feeding the large white swan of Herm Uebe, and plunged into the creek. Unaided Mrs. Straub swam to shore. She was unharmed. Mrs. Straub has been feeding the big bird which crosses the stream from the south dam in Mill Hill to the Church street bridge every morning this summer.

Apprehended at Lock Haven
Robert Hamm, 16, who was sent to the Klatsop School, near Wilkes-Barre, earlier this summer, was found at his home in Lock Haven, Thursday night, by city police. They had been notified of his escape from the school earlier in the week and had been watching for him. He was the alleged leader of a group of smaller boys who had been tried for petty larceny the other boys being paroled in the care of their parents.
CARD OF THANKS
I wish to extend my thanks and sincere appreciation to those who so kindly gave me the benefit of their vote as nominee as County Surveyor in the Primary election, Tuesday, September 12, 1939.
J. THOMPSON HENRY.
To the Voters of Centre County
I wish to extend my sincere thanks to the voters who supported me in the Primary election for the office of Coroner, and hope to merit your continued appreciation.
CHARLES SHECKLER.

Schneebeli—Meyer
Miss Mary Louise Meyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry N. Meyer, of the Rogers apartments, South Spring Street, will become the bride of Herman T. Schneebeli, of Lancaster, at a ceremony to be performed at 10:30 o'clock this Thursday morning, September 21, in Washington Memorial Chapel at Valley Forge. The Rev. John Hart will officiate. The ceremony will be informal in nature and only members of the immediate families and attendants will be present. Miss Eleanor Rootes, of Philadelphia, will be maid of honor, and Otto Schneebeli, of Lancaster, will be his brother's best man. At the conclusion of a wedding breakfast to be held after the ceremony at the Martha Washington Inn, Valley Forge, Mr. and Mrs. Schneebeli will depart for a several weeks' wedding trip through the southern states, having abandoned a trip to Bermuda because of unsettled conditions. They will be at home late in October at 720 West 3rd Street, Williamsport. The bride-to-be is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School and of Hood College, Frederick, Md. For three years after completing her education she was employed as secretary to an executive of the Philadelphia Record, resigning that post to accept a position as director of publicity at Hood College. She retained that position until her resignation several weeks ago. Mr. Schneebeli is a graduate of Mercersburg and of Dartmouth College, and is a contributor of the Gulf Oil Corporation in Williamsport.

Evidence of REMEMBRANCE
To give visual and fitting expression to your love and regard, this medium and the form must be chosen with care. Comforting assurance of a duty well performed will be yours if you choose a genuine Rock of Ages Memorial to stand as your record for the years to come.
