On those days the teachers will be attending the Centre County Teachers' Institute at Bellefonte.

BUSH HOLLOW

Attendance at Sunday School was 46 on Sunday. Was a small increase over last Sunday, but there are so many more in this hollow we'd like to see come out to Sunday School each Sunday at 9:30 a. m. Come out and worship with us on Sunday morning and also Wednesday night at the preaching service. Everybody's welcome.

As we announced before we are planning a Sunday School rally for Sunday Oct. 29. Our aim is to have 100 presents that day. If we can't we'll receive a little reward. The Zimmerman sisters of Sunbury, who will be helping with a revival in Coleville will be present and will furnish lots of good singing. So we invite everybody to come, and especially we invite those who at one time attended this Sunday School and have moved away from here. Can't we count on you?

An apple cutting was held at the Roy Spotts home last Thursday night. The following people were present. Mrs. Mabel Monsell and daughter Molly of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Custer of Milesburg; Mr. and Mrs. Clark Custer and daughter Louise, and Ruby Davidson all of Wingate; Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Mrs. Edna Spotts, Jean Spotts, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Spotts and family; Freddie and Janice, all of Julian, R. D.; and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Williams, of Unionville.

Mrs. Margaret Feltl spent the weekend with her daughter Mrs. George Bush and family.

Mrs. Andrew Irwin and daughter Floreheim spent last Friday at the Roy Spotts home and helped make a kettle of apple butter.

Mrs. Edna Spotts received word on Sunday of the birth of another great grandson, which was born to Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Witmer on Sunday at the Bellefonte Hospital. The new arrival has been named Kenneth Allen, Jr.

Those who enjoyed a chicken dinner and all the good things that go with it, at the home of Mrs. Edna Spotts on Monday were: Rev. and Mrs. Roy Carlson of Beech Grove, Ind.; the latter being a granddaughter of Mrs. Spotts, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shirey and daughter

Martha, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shirey and children Betty and Paul and Mrs. Melvin Shirey and daughter Shirey, and Donald Rose all of Williamsport; Mrs. Marlin Moore and son Donald of Port Matilda; Mrs. D. H. Custer of Unionville;

Mrs. Roy Spotts and children Doris and David, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Spotts and children Freddie and Janice, Jean Spotts and Mrs. Edna Spotts. Others who arrived for supper were Mr. and Mrs. George Monsell and Roy Spotts. The day was spent very pleasantly in visiting and talking. Mrs. Ruth Rose and daughter Grace of Bellefonte were afternoon visitors there. Anyhow we all enjoyed the day but we wonder who ate the most. Especially ice cream at supper time.
