

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Methodist Church Services-Prayer service this Thursday evening, Sunday School on Sunday morning at 9:15 a. m. followed by the regular preaching service at 10:30 a. m. and Epworth League in the evening at 6:30 p. m.

Free Methodist Church Services: Young folks prayer service Tuesday evening, adult prayer service Friday evening; Sunday School Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. followed by class meeting; Young Peoples meeting in the evening at 6:30 p. m. followed by the regular preaching service at 7:30 p. m. with sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett.

Presbyterian church services on Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. with sermon by the pastor, Rev. H. E. Oakwood. Bible Study Class Monday evenings.

Missionary Meeting-The members of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Sue McEwen, Thursday evening, November 2nd.

League Halloween Party-The members of the Epworth League will hold a Halloween party this Saturday evening in the Community House. All members are urged to be on hand and to come masked. Refreshments will be served.

Birthday Party-Miss Minnie Senor was very delightfully surprised on Saturday evening when a number of her friends and neighbors gathered at her home in honor of her birthday. The most of the guests she did not know as they came masked in celebration of Halloween which is so near. They all had a very delightful time and Miss Minnie received a number of very beautiful gifts. Refreshments were served and all departed for their homes wishing Miss Minnie many more happy birthdays.

Stork Busy-When Paul Immel returned to his home in Washington, D. C. on Sunday he found his family had increased when his wife had been presented with a baby girl weighing six pounds. The new daughter arrived at the home just two hours before Mr. Immel got there. Mother and daughter are doing nicely in the hospital at Washington. Mrs. Immel will be remembered as Sara Holt, daughter of Mrs. Mollie Holt of this place. Congratulations young folks and may success be yours.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burkholder are moving this week from the Rouser property, into the C. W. Bauder property on the hill.

Ardery Calhoun of Pittsburgh, is visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Calhoun of this place, having arrived on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mollie Holt is visiting this week with friends and relatives in Bellwood, Pa., having gone with some folks who visited with her on Sunday.

Mrs. Margaret Keasley left on Tuesday for Washington, D. C. where she will visit indefinitely with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Keasley.

Mr. "Buddie" Williams is busy this week tearing down the old depot. We understand it to be rebuilt in the Borough of Port Matilda as a dance hall.

Paul Immel of Washington, D. C. spent the weekend in the community calling on friends and relatives and transacting business. He returned to his home on Sunday.

Forrest Homan has been quite ill at his home since last Saturday, his condition is somewhat better but he is still unable to get out. All hope for a speedy recovery for Mr. Homan.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lucas and family have moved from the C. W. Bauder property on the hill and are now residing at the Holt & Son lumber camp at Cherry Tree, Pa., where Mr. Lucas is employed.

Mrs. C. C. Holtzworth of Fairmont, West Virginia, spent several days last week with her father, Mr. Daniel Buck, and visiting with her sister, Mrs. Alice Bosworth who is a patient in the Centre County Hospital.

Miss Alice Brugger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger, is ill at her home and has been unable to attend school, she being a Junior in Bellefonte High School. Her many friends and relatives hope her complete recovery may be speedy.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. "Buddie" Williams made a kettle of apple butter last week and we were not informed whether it was old fashioned or new fashioned, but we know it was good for Mrs. Williams certainly does know how to make it good.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ingram of Tyrone, visited at the home of Mrs. Amanda Way over the past weekend and on Sunday Mrs. Way accompanied them to their home in Tyrone where she visited for a week, returning to her home here on Saturday.

Robert Hall has returned to his home after an indefinite stay in Huntingdon County and is now assisting with the work at the home of his brother, Perry Hall on Dix Run, who is reported as being seriously ill. His many friends in the community hope for his speedy recovery.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mong last week were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnston, of Shippensburg, Pa. During their weeks visit they enjoyed the beautiful mountain scenery of this vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston returned to their home on Friday.

We would like to correct an error of last weeks items in stating that we were informed by our good friend J. "Rollie" Williams, that the kettle of apple butter which he made last week at his farm on Dix Run, was not the old fashioned kind, but rather the "New Fashioned" kind. We are sorry to have made this error, but nevertheless we know the apple butter was good. How about it, Rollie?

WOODWARD

Clayton Haines and Harwood Kremer made a business trip to Lock Haven on Saturday.

Mrs. Almada Vonada took suddenly ill on Saturday last week. Illness is due to high blood pressure. She has not improved very much in her physical condition since that date.

On last Wednesday morning the mercury dropped to twenty-two degrees above zero. This was the lowest morning temperature thus far this month.

Miss Edna Young of New Jersey, who spent the greater part of a two weeks vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Benner, left last Thursday for place of employment.

On Saturday this locality had the heaviest down pour of rain in a short time that we had this summer and fall. The thunder shower was accompanied by a good deal of wind and hail.

All the public schools in town were closed on Thursday and Friday. It was the time when the teachers were called to their annual institute at Bellefonte. Of course the pupils all enjoyed the short vacation.

Mrs. Harry Boone was admitted as a patient, at the Lewistown hospital on Monday.

Mrs. R. W. Meyer, who is employed at the Laurelton State Village, spent the weekend at her home in East Rebersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William Conser of Pine, called on relatives in town, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Breen of Centre Hall and C. S. Hosterman and family of town, were Sunday dinner guests at the M. W. Breen home.

James Mallory enlisted in the Army Air Corps last week and is now stationed at Langley Field, Va.

John Diehl of State College, visited his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Tatz over the weekend.

Mrs. Fred Whitehill and daughter Maria Kay, are visiting the Whitehill family at Lemont this week.

Miss Julia Ocker of Millheim, spent several days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bierly.

Mrs. Annie Ruhl and son Lester, and wife, of Millifinburg, called on Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mallory, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Bierly and sons Billy and Darryl and Mrs. Ada Bierly called at the Eugene Lee home at State College on Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie Rohrbaugh of Jersey Shore, visited among relatives in and about Rebersburg last week.

Mrs. Lulu Mallory of State College, spent the weekend at her home in West Rebersburg.

Paul Ziegler and family of Port Matilda, visited relatives here last week.

Miss Phyllis Page of State College, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Page.

C. C. Smull, Mrs. Helen Shultz and daughter Hilda, Mrs. Alveta Brungart and children Madeline, Evelyn and Eugene spent several days last week at Everett.

Miss Betty Miller spent the institute vacation with relatives in Harrisburg and Hummelstown.

Mrs. J. R. Schechterly and daughter Joyce of McClure, and granddaughter Marian Keefe of Beaver Springs, visited at the K. S. Breen home last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brungart of Millifinburg, were Sunday callers at the home of Mrs. Alveta Brungart.

Rev. A. J. Miller and Mr. J. N. Moyer attended the Fall Synod of the Evangelical-Reformed churches at Bellefonte last Thursday. Miss Alma Corman attended the evening session as a representative of the Woman's Circle of the local church.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brungart and family of Coburn, were Sunday dinner guests at the Roy Brungart home.

Mrs. Roy Mastellar and daughter Gloria of Bloomsburg, visited with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moyer last week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Royer of Lock Haven, called at the E. H. Hosterman home on Sunday afternoon.

In order to accommodate her customers, Miss Edythe Bierly had another high pressure dryer installed in her beauty parlor last week.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Babcock attended the ministers and District conference on Evangelism of the Evangelical church on last Thursday at Jersey Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wert of Madisonburg, called at the John Brungart home on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wenger of Canton, Ohio, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garret and also her sister Mrs. John Hanselman and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg are on a ten day business trip through West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moyer and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mastellar and family from Bloomsburg motored to Wellboro this week to visit the Grand Canyon of the East.

REBERSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sholl of Bellefonte, called at the home of Miss Emma Sholl on Sunday.

Rev. Dale Kohr, R. C. Blair and C. M. Bierly represented the local Lutheran church at the Church Councilmen's conference held in the Redeemer Lutheran church at Williamsport last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Auman and daughter Pauline and Irene were Sunday dinner guests at the Frank Bierly home near Millifinburg.

E. H. Hosterman returned from Philadelphia Sunday, after a week's stay in that city where his wife underwent a surgical operation last Monday. Mrs. Hosterman's many friends will be glad to know she is getting along very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ziegler and daughters of McAllisterville, were Sunday guests at the W. H. Ziegler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Diehl of Ambridge, called on the former's grandmother, Mrs. Ella Diehl on Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Boone was admitted as a patient, at the Lewistown hospital on Monday.

Mrs. R. W. Meyer, who is employed at the Laurelton State Village, spent the weekend at her home in East Rebersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William Conser of Pine, called on relatives in town, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Breen of Centre Hall and C. S. Hosterman and family of town, were Sunday dinner guests at the M. W. Breen home.

James Mallory enlisted in the Army Air Corps last week and is now stationed at Langley Field, Va.

John Diehl of State College, visited his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Tatz over the weekend.

Mrs. Fred Whitehill and daughter Maria Kay, are visiting the Whitehill family at Lemont this week.

Miss Julia Ocker of Millheim, spent several days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bierly.

Mrs. Annie Ruhl and son Lester, and wife, of Millifinburg, called on Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mallory, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Bierly and sons Billy and Darryl and Mrs. Ada Bierly called at the Eugene Lee home at State College on Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie Rohrbaugh of Jersey Shore, visited among relatives in and about Rebersburg last week.

Mrs. Lulu Mallory of State College, spent the weekend at her home in West Rebersburg.

Paul Ziegler and family of Port Matilda, visited relatives here last week.

Miss Phyllis Page of State College, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Page.

C. C. Smull, Mrs. Helen Shultz and daughter Hilda, Mrs. Alveta Brungart and children Madeline, Evelyn and Eugene spent several days last week at Everett.

Miss Betty Miller spent the institute vacation with relatives in Harrisburg and Hummelstown.

Mrs. J. R. Schechterly and daughter Joyce of McClure, and granddaughter Marian Keefe of Beaver Springs, visited at the K. S. Breen home last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brungart of Millifinburg, were Sunday callers at the home of Mrs. Alveta Brungart.

Rev. A. J. Miller and Mr. J. N. Moyer attended the Fall Synod of the Evangelical-Reformed churches at Bellefonte last Thursday. Miss Alma Corman attended the evening session as a representative of the Woman's Circle of the local church.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brungart and family of Coburn, were Sunday dinner guests at the Roy Brungart home.

Mrs. Roy Mastellar and daughter Gloria of Bloomsburg, visited with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moyer last week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Royer of Lock Haven, called at the E. H. Hosterman home on Sunday afternoon.

In order to accommodate her customers, Miss Edythe Bierly had another high pressure dryer installed in her beauty parlor last week.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Babcock attended the ministers and District conference on Evangelism of the Evangelical church on last Thursday at Jersey Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wert of Madisonburg, called at the John Brungart home on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wenger of Canton, Ohio, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garret and also her sister Mrs. John Hanselman and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg are on a ten day business trip through West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moyer and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mastellar and family from Bloomsburg motored to Wellboro this week to visit the Grand Canyon of the East.

Returning to his store last Friday after attending the thirtieth anniversary of the National Convention of Clover Farm Stores held in Cleveland, Ohio, October 17th and 18th. W. H. Hackenberg reported that this was one of the most instructive conventions he had ever attended. About one thousand members were present. Major General Smedley D. Butler, chief of the U. S. Marines, Col. Finney and other well known men were the speakers. The convention voted unanimously to stand by the government and sent resolutions to Secretary Wallace that they would push all commodities that were surplus to the American farmer.

WOODWARD

Clayton Haines and Harwood Kremer made a business trip to Lock Haven on Saturday.

Mrs. Almada Vonada took suddenly ill on Saturday last week. Illness is due to high blood pressure. She has not improved very much in her physical condition since that date.

On last Wednesday morning the mercury dropped to twenty-two degrees above zero. This was the lowest morning temperature thus far this month.

Miss Edna Young of New Jersey, who spent the greater part of a two weeks vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Benner, left last Thursday for place of employment.

On Saturday this locality had the heaviest down pour of rain in a short time that we had this summer and fall. The thunder shower was accompanied by a good deal of wind and hail.

All the public schools in town were closed on Thursday and Friday. It was the time when the teachers were called to their annual institute at Bellefonte. Of course the pupils all enjoyed the short vacation.

Mrs. Harry Boone was admitted as a patient, at the Lewistown hospital on Monday.

Mrs. R. W. Meyer, who is employed at the Laurelton State Village, spent the weekend at her home in East Rebersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William Conser of Pine, called on relatives in town, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Breen of Centre Hall and C. S. Hosterman and family of town, were Sunday dinner guests at the M. W. Breen home.

James Mallory enlisted in the Army Air Corps last week and is now stationed at Langley Field, Va.

John Diehl of State College, visited his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Tatz over the weekend.

Mrs. Fred Whitehill and daughter Maria Kay, are visiting the Whitehill family at Lemont this week.

Miss Julia Ocker of Millheim, spent several days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bierly.

Mrs. Annie Ruhl and son Lester, and wife, of Millifinburg, called on Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mallory, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Bierly and sons Billy and Darryl and Mrs. Ada Bierly called at the Eugene Lee home at State College on Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie Rohrbaugh of Jersey Shore, visited among relatives in and about Rebersburg last week.

Mrs. Lulu Mallory of State College, spent the weekend at her home in West Rebersburg.

Paul Ziegler and family of Port Matilda, visited relatives here last week.

Miss Phyllis Page of State College, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Page.

C. C. Smull, Mrs. Helen Shultz and daughter Hilda, Mrs. Alveta Brungart and children Madeline, Evelyn and Eugene spent several days last week at Everett.

Miss Betty Miller spent the institute vacation with relatives in Harrisburg and Hummelstown.

Mrs. J. R. Schechterly and daughter Joyce of McClure, and granddaughter Marian Keefe of Beaver Springs, visited at the K. S. Breen home last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brungart of Millifinburg, were Sunday callers at the home of Mrs. Alveta Brungart.

Rev. A. J. Miller and Mr. J. N. Moyer attended the Fall Synod of the Evangelical-Reformed churches at Bellefonte last Thursday. Miss Alma Corman attended the evening session as a representative of the Woman's Circle of the local church.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brungart and family of Coburn, were Sunday dinner guests at the Roy Brungart home.

Mrs. Roy Mastellar and daughter Gloria of Bloomsburg, visited with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moyer last week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Royer of Lock Haven, called at the E. H. Hosterman home on Sunday afternoon.

In order to accommodate her customers, Miss Edythe Bierly had another high pressure dryer installed in her beauty parlor last week.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Babcock attended the ministers and District conference on Evangelism of the Evangelical church on last Thursday at Jersey Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wert of Madisonburg, called at the John Brungart home on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wenger of Canton, Ohio, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garret and also her sister Mrs. John Hanselman and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg are on a ten day business trip through West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moyer and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mastellar and family from Bloomsburg motored to Wellboro this week to visit the Grand Canyon of the East.

Returning to his store last Friday after attending the thirtieth anniversary of the National Convention of Clover Farm Stores held in Cleveland, Ohio, October 17th and 18th. W. H. Hackenberg reported that this was one of the most instructive conventions he had ever attended. About one thousand members were present. Major General Smedley D. Butler, chief of the U. S. Marines, Col. Finney and other well known men were the speakers. The convention voted unanimously to stand by the government and sent resolutions to Secretary Wallace that they would push all commodities that were surplus to the American farmer.

REBERSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sholl of Bellefonte, called at the home of Miss Emma Sholl on Sunday.

Rev. Dale Kohr, R. C. Blair and C. M. Bierly represented the local Lutheran church at the Church Councilmen's conference held in the Redeemer Lutheran church at Williamsport last Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Auman and daughter Pauline and Irene were Sunday dinner guests at the Frank Bierly home near Millifinburg.

E. H. Hosterman returned from Philadelphia Sunday, after a week's stay in that city where his wife underwent a surgical operation last Monday. Mrs. Hosterman's many friends will be glad to know she is getting along very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ziegler and daughters of McAllisterville, were Sunday guests at the W. H. Ziegler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Diehl of Ambridge, called on the former's grandmother, Mrs. Ella Diehl on Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Boone was admitted as a patient, at the Lewistown hospital on Monday.

Mrs. R. W. Meyer, who is employed at the Laurelton State Village, spent the weekend at her home in East Rebersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William Conser of Pine, called on relatives in town, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Breen of Centre Hall and C. S. Hosterman and family of town, were Sunday dinner guests at the M. W. Breen home.

James Mallory enlisted in the Army Air Corps last week and is now stationed at Langley Field, Va.

John Diehl of State College, visited his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Tatz over the weekend.

Mrs. Fred Whitehill and daughter Maria Kay, are visiting the Whitehill family at Lemont this week.

Miss Julia Ocker of Millheim, spent several days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bierly.

Mrs. Annie Ruhl and son Lester, and wife, of Millifinburg, called on Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mallory, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Bierly and sons Billy and Darryl and Mrs. Ada Bierly called at the Eugene Lee home at State College on Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie Rohrbaugh of Jersey Shore, visited among relatives in and about Rebersburg last week.

Mrs. Lulu Mallory of State College, spent the weekend at her home in West Rebersburg.

Paul Ziegler and family of Port Matilda, visited relatives here last week.

Miss Phyllis Page of State College, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Page.

C. C. Smull, Mrs. Helen Shultz and daughter Hilda, Mrs. Alveta Brungart and children Madeline, Evelyn and Eugene spent several days last week at Everett.

Miss Betty Miller spent the institute vacation with relatives in Harrisburg and Hummelstown.

Mrs. J. R. Schechterly and daughter Joyce of McClure, and granddaughter Marian Keefe of Beaver Springs, visited at the K. S. Breen home last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brungart of Millifinburg, were Sunday callers at the home of Mrs. Alveta Brungart.

Rev. A. J. Miller and Mr. J. N. Moyer attended the Fall Synod of the Evangelical-Reformed churches at Bellefonte last Thursday. Miss Alma Corman attended the evening session as a representative of the Woman's Circle of the local church.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brungart and family of Coburn, were Sunday dinner guests at the Roy Brungart home.

Mrs. Roy Mastellar and daughter Gloria of Bloomsburg, visited with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moyer last week.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Royer of Lock Haven, called at the E. H. Hosterman home on Sunday afternoon.

In order to accommodate her customers, Miss Edythe Bierly had another high pressure dryer installed in her beauty parlor last week.

Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Babcock attended the ministers and District conference on Evangelism of the Evangelical church on last Thursday at Jersey Shore.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wert of Madisonburg, called at the John Brungart home on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wenger of Canton, Ohio, visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Garret and also her sister Mrs. John Hanselman and family last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hackenberg are on a ten day business trip through West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Moyer and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mastellar and family from Bloomsburg motored to Wellboro this week to visit the Grand Canyon of the East.

Returning to his store last Friday after attending the thirtieth anniversary of the National Convention of Clover Farm Stores held in Cleveland, Ohio, October 17th and 18th. W. H. Hackenberg reported that this was one of the most instructive conventions he had ever attended. About one thousand members were present. Major General Smedley D. Butler, chief of the U. S. Marines, Col. Finney and other well known men were the speakers. The convention voted unanimously to stand by the government and sent resolutions to Secretary Wallace that they would push all commodities that were surplus to the American farmer.

WOODWARD

Clayton Haines and Harwood Kremer made a business trip to Lock Haven on Saturday.

Mrs. Almada Vonada took suddenly ill on Saturday last week. Illness is due to high blood pressure. She has not improved very much in her physical condition since that date.

On last Wednesday morning the mercury dropped to twenty-two degrees above zero. This was the lowest morning temperature thus far this month.

Miss Edna Young of New Jersey, who spent the greater part of a two weeks vacation at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Benner, left last Thursday for place of employment.

On Saturday this locality had the heaviest down pour of rain in a short time that we had this summer and fall. The thunder shower was accompanied by a good deal of wind and hail.

All the public schools in town were closed on Thursday and Friday. It was the time when the teachers were called to their annual institute at Bellefonte. Of course the pupils all enjoyed the short vacation.

Mrs. Harry Boone was admitted as a patient, at the Lewistown hospital on Monday.

Mrs. R. W. Meyer, who is employed at the Laurelton State Village, spent the weekend at her home in East Rebersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. William Conser of Pine, called on relatives in town, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Breen of Centre Hall and C. S. Hosterman and family of town, were Sunday dinner guests at the M. W. Breen home.

James Mallory enlisted in the Army Air Corps last week and is now stationed at Langley Field, Va.

John Diehl of State College, visited his mother, Mrs. Lloyd Tatz over the weekend.

Mrs. Fred Whitehill and daughter Maria Kay, are visiting the Whitehill family at Lemont this week.

Miss Julia Ocker of Millheim, spent several days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bierly.

Mrs. Annie Ruhl and son Lester, and wife, of Millifinburg, called on Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Mallory, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Bierly and sons Billy and Darryl and Mrs. Ada Bierly called at the Eugene Lee home at State College on Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie Rohrbaugh of Jersey Shore, visited among relatives in and about Rebersburg last week.