

OBITUARY

MRS. ALMEDA E. VONADA.
Mrs. Almeda E. Vonada, widow of the late Thomas E. Vonada, of Woodward, died at her home there at 12:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon after an illness with a heart condition. A daughter of Philip and Mary Vonada, she was born at Woodward on October 22, 1863, which made her age at time of death 77 years and 5 days. She was united in marriage with Thomas E. Vonada, who preceded her in death. Surviving are two daughters: Miss Florence May Vonada, at home; and Mrs. Tammie R. Musick, of near Woodward. Also surviving is a sister, Mrs. Lida Minge, of Woodward. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the home, with the Rev. G. A. Fred Griesing officiating. Interment was made in St. Paul's cemetery near Aaronsburg.

held on Sunday afternoon at the Dix Run Baptist church, with the Rev. C. C. Shuey, of Bellefonte, officiating. Interment was made in the Oak Ridge cemetery, near Unionville.

WALTER W. CRITZER.
Walter W. Critzer, 47, former resident of Bellefonte, died at his home in New Kensington, Wednesday of last week after an illness with a heart condition. Mr. Critzer left Bellefonte about 15 years ago to reside in New Kensington. He was a son-in-law of the late August Glintz, who a number of years ago owned and operated the Bryn-Mawr hospital Saturday morning, from the effects of a heart attack suffered several hours earlier. Surviving are his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Bernice Smith, and two grandchildren, all of Bryn-Mawr, and a brother, David Finkelstein, of Harrisburg. Before moving to the Philadelphia area about 25 years ago Mr. Finkelstein conducted a 5 and 10 cent store in Bellefonte. While the family resided in one of the C. Y. Wagner houses on Willowbank street. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in Philadelphia, with interment in that city.

MRS. SARAH J. BOAK COOK
Mrs. Sarah Jane Boak Cook, widow of the late Andrew J. Cook, of Bellefonte, one of the oldest residents of this community, passed away at her home at 122 West Linn street, Bellefonte, at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Last January 25 she observed her 95th birthday. Mrs. Cook had been in failing health for some time, but her condition did not become serious until about five days before death ensued. She was a daughter of James K. and Sarah Ripley Boak and was born at New Cumberland, Pa., on January 24, 1844. She was united in marriage at Harrisburg with the late A. J. Cook, who died about two years ago. Surviving are two children: Miss Margaret Cook, at home, and James Cook, of Colorado Springs, Colo. Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon at the family residence on West Linn street, with the Rev. William C. Thompson, of the First Baptist church, officiating. Interment will be made in the Union cemetery. Mrs. Cook was a member of the Bellefonte Presbyterian church.

MISS NAOMI ZERBY.
Miss Naomi Zerby, native of Millheim, died at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Elwood Orndorf, at Woodward, at 4 o'clock on Friday morning after a short illness with a heart condition. A daughter of J. W. and Annie Hosterman Zerby, she was born near Millheim on July 17, 1903, making her age at time of death 36 years, 3 months and 10 days. She is survived by her father, living near Springs Mills, and the following brothers and sisters: Henry, Mrs. Ralph Hagan, and Mrs. William Lowe, all of Centre Hall; Robert, Spring Mills; Miss Frances, and Eugene Zerby, of Spring Mills, R. D.; Miss Miriam, and Mrs. Harold Brungart, of Smullton; Mrs. Wade Fink, Philipsburg; Miss Maude, near Centre Hall, and Miss Irene, of Clearfield. Funeral services were held Monday morning at the Orndorf residence, followed by services in the Farmers Mill church, with Rev. D. R. Keener officiating. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church.

MRS. FRANK TOMLINSON.
Mrs. Ida M. Tomlinson, 76, wife of Frank S. Tomlinson, of Aaronsburg, died Friday at the home of her son, Dr. Charles S. Tomlinson, of Milton. She had been seriously ill for several weeks. Had she lived a little more than two weeks Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson would have observed their 55th wedding anniversary. In addition to her husband and son, Dr. Tomlinson, she is survived by another son, Howard L. Tomlinson, of Aaronsburg, a sister and two brothers. Services were held from the home in Aaronsburg Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with the Rev. O. E. Peeman, former pastor of St. James Lutheran Church at Turbittville, officiating.

MRS. HENRY CLARK.
Mrs. Minnie Winkelman Clark, wife of Henry Clark, of Audobon, N. J., first nurse to be graduated from the Lock Haven Hospital nursing training school and native of Nittany, died at her home in Audobon last week after a long illness with a complication of diseases. Funeral services were held last Thursday at Audobon. Mrs. Clark, a daughter of Benjamin and Amanda Wise Winkelman, was born at Nittany more than 70 years ago. She resided in Nittany Valley until her marriage 35 years ago to Henry Clark, who survives. Also surviving is a brother, Elwood Winkelman, of near Williamsport. Mrs. James Weaver, of West Logan Street, Bellefonte, is a niece.

PERRY J. HALL.
Perry J. Hall, retired farmer, native of Union township and former school director there, died at his home along Dix Run, four miles west of Unionville, last Thursday afternoon after a lingering illness with a complication of diseases. Although he had been bedfast at various times during the past year, his condition did not become serious until about a week before his death. Mr. Hall was a son of Andrew and Sarah Hall and was born in Union township on October 28, 1872, making his age at time of death 67 years, 11 months and 26 days. Surviving are his wife, the former Adia Scholtz, a son and daughter: John W. Hall and Mrs. Glenn Harper, both of Union township, and two brothers and a sister, Robert Hall, of Unionville; Homer Hall, Altoona, and Mrs. Hannah Scholtz, of Dix Run. He was a member of the Baptist church of Dix Run. Funeral services were

G. FRED MUSSER.
G. Fred Musser, of Philadelphia, former resident of Bellefonte and for many years former manager of the Lauderbach-Griest Company wholesale house in this community, died last Thursday afternoon at his home in Philadelphia after a week's illness with a heart condition. Mr. Musser moved to Philadelphia about 12 years ago. He was a son of Emanuel and Catherine Musser and was born at Houserville on April 16, 1864, making his age at time of death 75 years, 6 months and 10 days. His wife, the former Emma Haupt, of Bellefonte, survives with the following brothers and sisters: Boyd A. of Scranton; Mrs. Mamie Henderson, of Elizabeth, N. J.; Mrs. Helen Duff, of Roselle Park, N. J.; and Mrs. Lydia M. Bowman, of Harrisburg. After leaving the Lauderbach-Griest organization Mr. Musser organized the C. R. Damminger Company, whose rooms were located in the Phoenix Mill property. Three years later the company was re-organized as the G. F. Musser Company, continuing under that name until the business dissolved and Mr. Musser went to Philadelphia to engage in the insurance business. Funeral services were held Friday night in Philadelphia

MISS ELLA LUCAS.
Miss Ella Lucas, of Fairview, Boggs township, passed away about 6:30 o'clock Monday morning at the Centre County Hospital from complications resulting from a fall at her home two weeks ago when she suffered a fractured leg. Miss Lucas was a daughter of Morgan and Barbara Hawk Lucas and was born about 72 years ago at Fairview, Boggs township. Surviving is a sister, Mrs. Jesse Conier, of Boggs township. Miss Lucas was a member of the U. B. church at Fairview and was one of a family of ten children. A brother, with whom she resided, died about a year ago. Funeral services will be held at 1:30 o'clock this Thursday afternoon from the home of a nephew, Taylor Conier, near Coleville, with the Rev. William Tobias, of Runville, officiating. Interment will be made in the Fairview cemetery.

AMBROSE S. RAY.
Ambrose S. Ray, well known Bellefonte resident, passed away at the home of Mrs. Walter Dunkelbarger, on East Howard Street, where he had resided for some time, at 7 o'clock Saturday night after a brief illness with a complication of diseases. He was a son of Robert and Elizabeth S. Rohn Ray and was born in Bellefonte on April 29, 1836, making his age at time of death 73 years, 5 months and 29 days. Mr. Ray had been almost blind and deaf since his early youth as the result of a childhood disease. He was a member of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church in Bellefonte, and some months ago he donated to the congregation a tract of land beside his home on East Howard Street, where the new C. and M. A. church building is now under construction. Mr. Ray is survived by these nieces and nephews: Mrs. Harriet Ray Smith, Wyomissing; Elizabeth Ray and Calvin Thomas Ray, both of Baltimore, Md., and Mrs. Grace Bolinger, of Johnstown. Funeral services were held at the Dunkelbarger residence on Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. James D. Steele, pastor of the C. and M. A. congregation, officiating. Interment was made in the Union cemetery.
