HOWARD SCHOOL NEWS The members of the junior class have ordered their class rings. They are very anxious to receive them, and expect them this week.

The seniors class of Howard High School will produce a play, directed by Miss Corman. It is a new comedy just released by Samuel French of New York, written by Tom Thurgart and entitled "Lucky Stars."

If not too long ago, you were a devotee of the kind of romance deventure typified by Cinderella with the tired young slavery finding happiness with a fairy prince—you will find nostalgic pleasure in "Lucky Star," for it is an up to the minute version of the old fairy tale.

This time Annie Hammer is our Cinderella, while the gay young prince is none other than Cary Southern, a movie star on a tour of personal appearances.

In the production of the play which will be presented at Howard High School Auditorium on December 8th and 9th, at 8 o'clock P. M. the part of Annie will be played by Doris Amick while Henry Schenk will undertake the role of Cary Southern. Others in the cast are as follows: Augie Hammer, a boy of twelve, Bill Wyland; Gram his grandmother, Nancy Stauffer; Lloyd, his brother, Bill Logan; Rosemary, Lloyd's girl, Bette Gates; Mrs. Hurst, her mother, Ann Daughenbaugh; George Bramby, a stranger. Well come and see who he is.

A very delightful farewell party was held at the home Miss Lois Allison for Ida Mae Pletcher, who has gone to York where she will be employed. Games and singing was the entertainment of the evening. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Greenaway and daughters Evelyn and Sally Anne of Hilton Village, Virginia, spent last weekend at the home of Mrs. Greenaway's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allison. They were accompanied back to Virginia by Lois Allison who will spend an indefinite time with them.

The Young People's Missionary Circle of the Evangelical church gave a spaghetti supper for the young people of the Zion church at Bond White's cabin. It was in the form of a Halloween party and the entertainment was in keeping with the season. Those present were Sara Krape, Mary Lois Krape, Mae Krape, Jean Shaeffer, Louise Shaeffer, Pauline Shaeffer, Pauline Smith, Mae Hagan, Ward Krape, Paul Krape, Paul Watson, Mark Smith, Charles Greeninger, Wilbur Bob of Zion, Violet Veina, Dorothy Hoffer, Louise Bryan, Mrs. Bessie Bryan, Betty Pletcher, June Carson, Lois Allison, Rev. and Mrs. L. E. Kline, Bob Pletcher, George Whitecraft and Dick Allison of Howard.

WOLFS STORE Harry Hanselman from Union County spent Saturday hunting with his brother, Blaine. Blaine, Ward Petzer of Wolfe's Store is our champion skunk killer.

Rev. Truman Wise from Pillow moved into our vicinity last week. Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Diehl of Pittsburgh, spent several days last week visiting their son at the M. W. Wert home.

The 23rd annual banquet of the Dairyman's League was held on Friday evening in the Trinity Lutheran church of Milton. The speakers were: Miss Vera McCrea of New York City and Prof. W. V. Dennis of State College. Those who attended from this vicinity were Mr. and Mrs. J. Victor Brungart, Mrs. R. E. Breen, Kenneth Breen and friend, Mr. and Mrs. John Brungart, Melvin Bright, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wert, Mrs. H. L. Diehl and daughter, Betty all of Rebersburg, Mr. Clare Brungart of Erie, and Mrs. D. G. Diehl of Pittsburgh.

ROCK FORGE We wonder if this snow is for the hunters or for an early winter. The new building at the Titan Metal is well under way.

Mrs. Pearl Fry of Runville, called at the home of her mother last Thursday evening where cottage prayer meeting was held. Prayer meeting this week will go to the Fry home in Runville.

Mrs. Catherine Brown called at the Caleb Miller home on Sunday. There was a good attendance at the Sunday school and church Sunday evening.

Miss Ruth Gordon spent an afternoon in Bellefonte one day last week. The young men from here seem to find real pleasure in going to Lock Haven. We wonder if there are some nice girls down there.

Harvey Becklet of Williamsport, spent a week with the William Lear family.

Don't forget Sunday School and church Sunday morning.

B.H.S. Alumni Float Wins First Prize In Hallow'e'n Parade

Interpreting among the marching units, bands and floats were groups of mummers. The costumes were so numerous and so varied that the corps of judges under W. Harrison Walker had considerable difficulty in placing the hundreds of awards. As a whole, the costumes were above average and displayed an unusual amount of thought and preparation.

About 200 persons attended a Halloween dance at the Spring Street School, after the parade, under the sponsorship of the Bellefonte Women's Club. Mrs. Luella Chessman was head of the dance committee. John Galaida's orchestra provided music.

Prizes were awarded to Misses Mary Fleming and Betty Casbeer for being the most unique couple; to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hewitt for the best impersonation; to Mrs. Richard Colburn for the funniest costume; to Mrs. Fike for the most original; and to Teresa Fike for having the prettiest masquerade.

The decorations, strings of lanterns and yellow bunting, were in charge of a committee headed by Mrs. Paul D. Eberhart.

Boy Scouts who assisted in the conduct of the parade were: Scoutmaster T. Augustine, Acting Scoutmaster, Jack Kasse, Troop 5 and assistant Scoutmaster, Bud Coble. Troop 2, Troop 2 Scouts—Bryan Cartwright, Hassel Cartwright, Billy Beaty, Tom Beatty, Tom Beck, James Clark, Warren DeCoursey, Wm. Eckman, Richard Gordon, James Gordon, George Port, and Elmer Shank; Troop 6 Scouts: Barney O'Leary and John Roskoff, and Troop 5 Scouts: David Dean, and Leonard Levine.

The total vote cast for the office of Sheriff, Tuesday, was 16,994, according to the unofficial newspaper tabulation. Four years ago when county officers were elected the total vote for Sheriff was 18,045. In the fall of 1937 the total vote cast in the Judgeship contest was 17,504. According to these figures Tuesday's vote was lighter than has been the case for several years.

The election, culminating a campaign which was outstanding chiefly because of the clean manner in which it was conducted, and because of the apparent lack of interest on the part of the electorate in general, followed a course which was closely predicted by some observers.

The chief battle centered around the Commissioners' office, where the new County Home was the principal issue. The newly-elected board will have no "hulking" members from the Board which constructed the home.

Officers who will retire from their present offices in January when the new officers are sworn-in are: Sheriff Harry V. Keeler; Treasurer Raymond N. Brooks; Register John L. Wetzel; Commissioners Paul N. Wetzel, Baker Weber and A. L. Bowers; Auditors Clement Gramley and Harry A. Corman, and Coroner W. R. Heaton.

Centre Countians turned in a substantial majority for Marion D. Patterson, Blair County Republican, over Herbert Pank Goodrich, Democrat, for Justice of the Supreme Court. Patterson polled 9078 votes to Goodrich's 6967.

William H. Keller, of Lancaster, Democratic and Republican nominees for Judge of the Superior Court, and brother of the late Judge Harry Keller, of Centre County, got a total of 14,396 votes on the bi-party ticket. Edward Jackson Thompson, of Phillipsburg, Democrat, candidate for the same office, got 7469 votes. Other candidates for the office were: J. Harold Flannery, Democrat, 6903; Thomas J. Baldrige, Republican, 6997; and William E. Hirt, Republican, 6978.

Ideal weather prevailed throughout the county on election day, and although the voting was light in the morning, it rapidly gained normal momentum after the noon hour.

Belleville Boro Results William H. Britze and Horatio S. Moore, both Republicans, won over Charles Keller and Robert T. Willard, Democrats, for the office of School Director for six years. Britze polled 1246 votes and Moore's total was 1058. Keller had 596 and Willard 702 votes.

For School Director for two years, Franklin B. Schad, Republican, defeated School Director James R. Hughes, Democrat nominee, 1158 to 746. Schad had majorities in each of the three wards.

W. S. Sieg, Republican, present incumbent, defeated Francis Crawford, Democrat, for the North Ward Council seat. The respective votes were 648 and 367.

In the South Ward Harold D. Cowher, running on both tickets, and John Weber, Republican, were elected as Councilmen. The third candidate was Clyde G. Swartz, Democrat. Cowher's total vote was 598; Weber's was 470 and Swartz's, 372.

Councilman Leslie Thomas, Republican, was re-elected to that post over Robert Montgomery, Democrat. The respective votes were: Thomas 214, and Montgomery 119.

For Borough Auditor James Morrison, Republican, was elected over John S. Walker, Democrat. The totals were: Morrison, 1378, and Walker 732.

G. Earle Hoffer, nominee on both tickets for Justice of the Peace in the North Ward, polled a total of 171 votes. He was unopposed.
