Several of the old time railroad men in the community have been called back to work. The first was John Talmeh who has now been employed, then came a call for Ruel Lucas, Forrest Lucas, Bill Hall and Elwood Way, also A. Y. Williams of Union Township.

Miss Ida Williams of Martha, Pa., spent the weekend with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Calhoun. Miss Williams just recently returned from a months trip with friends to Albuquerque, New Mexico and reported as having enjoyed the south land very much.

There will be a series of special Evangelistic services held in the Free Methodist church here commencing January 1st 1940 and continuing until the 14th. Rev. E. C. John of Fairmont, West Virginia will conduct the services. Rev. John is a son of Mrs. Garrett. Make your plans to attend these services.

Not many folks, especially hunters, can go out into their back yard these days and get a nice fat rabbit and feast on it for the next few days without the trouble of tramping through the woods for several hours. Well, the Senior sisters did this very thing but they did not do the shooting. Minnie slipped quietly over to Ardery Calhoun who made an end to Mr. Rabbit. But they said they did not enjoy it as much as one they had given to them several days previously. I guess it was because they saw the poor little thing being killed. Anyway, hunters, keep your eyes in your gardens

BUSH HOLLOW

Were 46 present at Sunday School Sunday morning. We were glad that that number present and invite them all back next Sunday and others too, who were not present on Sunday have an invitation to come each Sunday. Last Wednesday night there were two families out to the preaching service. Surely there are more people interested than that in the little church in the Hollow. We are hoping for a better attendance this Wednesday night and also for the revival which will start next Monday night, Nov. 20, at 7:45, with Rev. Shull of Geneva, as evangelist and the Zimmers, Sisters of Sunday 96.

Services will continue each night until Dec. 3 Everybody welcome.

It isn't very often there are two burials in the cemetery here in the Hollow within three days of each other. Like we had last week, on Tuesday afternoon the Rev. McClelland was laid to rest and on Friday afternoon his wife, the former, Ella Spotts was laid beside him. A number of the folks from the Hollow attended both funerals.

Mrs. Edith Shirey and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Shirey and daughter Shirley visited with the former's mother Mrs. Edna Spotts and family and attended the funeral of Mrs. McClelland.

We wish when people go visiting on Sunday afternoons they would leave a name card instead of tearing up porches.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Custer of Unionville, and her sister Mrs. Lera Spotts of North Hill, N. Y., visited at the home of Mrs. Edna Spotts on Sunday p. m.

Don't forget the revival starting Monday night. We'll be looking for you there.
