

NEWS IN BRIEF AND PERSONALS OF UNIONVILLE

(Reported by Special Correspondent)

Watson-Brugger: A very pretty wedding was solemnized in the Methodist church here on Saturday afternoon, November 25th, at 3 p. m. at which time Miss Mary A. Brugger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger of this place, became the bride of Mr. Louis Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watson of Union Township. The church was very beautifully decorated in evergreens with white chrysanthemums and ferns. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. D. Kauffman, pastor of the church. The bride was attired in a long white crepe dress with a long wedding veil and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The maid of honor was her sister, Miss Martha Rose Brugger of Wilmington, Delaware, and wore a white satin brocade blouse with long crepe skirt of yellowish hue and carried a bouquet of large yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid was a cousin of the bride, Miss Virginia Brugger of Cannonsburg, Pa., and wore a long wine colored velvet dress and also chrysanthemums. The best man was a cousin of the groom, Mr. Leroy Nearhood, Jr., of Tyrone, Pa., and wore Mr. Ward Southard of Wilmington, Delaware, and a brother of the bride, Joseph Brugger of this place. With Miss Ruth Parsons at the piano, Miss Mabel Barton, of Union Township sang "I Love You Truly" which was immediately followed by Lohengrin's Bride. March as the bride party entered the church. The bride was given in marriage by her father, C. K. Brugger and immediately after the ceremony, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played as the bride party left the church. Mr. Watson is employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad and Mrs. Watson is a graduate of the Bellefonte High School, class of 1939. The young couple will take up housekeeping in part of the home of her parents for the present. They did not take their wedding trip now but expect to at a later date. A wedding dinner was served to the bridal party at the home of the groom in Union Township after which the serenaders gave them the usual welcome. Most hearty congratulations are extended to this happy young couple and may your life be full of sunshine and happiness.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Lucas on Thanksgiving day were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Miles and Ruel Lucas and son of Union Township and Mrs. Sue McEwen of this place.

Mrs. Ruel Lucas and two children of Union Township, left the latter part of last week to spend Thanksgiving with her sister in the state of North Carolina. They returned home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brugger and two daughters of Cannonsburg, Pa. spent several days over the holiday season at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brugger, also attended the Watson-Brugger wedding on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams and daughter, Nell motored to Philadelphia, on Thursday morning where they spent Thanksgiving and the remainder of the week with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nasson.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jarrett and son of Pittsburgh, Pa., were holiday guests of her aunts Mrs. J. S. Askins and Miss Mary Turner also with her brother, Mr. Raymond Snook and family. They left for their home Sunday morning.

J. Blair Holtzworth and son Cleveland enjoyed a Thanksgiving turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Stere, with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Stevenson of Altoona and John Stere, student at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Irvin and son Clair of Edgewood, Pa., motored here Saturday, bringing with them their niece, Mrs. H. Hugg, who has been visiting with them and other relatives in that section as well as in Columbus, Ohio. Mrs. Hugg reports a very enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Nannie Williams wishes to improve this opportunity to express to her many friends, of this community, her sincere appreciation and deep gratitude to each one for their generous shower of valuable gifts with which they deluged her on Thanksgiving evening. She feels as one very unworthy of the many good things and of such respect, but accepts it as from the Dear Heavenly Father whose tender mercies extend beyond our comprehension and in whose service she does love to be active. About 20 were gathered at the home and others contributed who could not be present, it came as a complete surprise. The evening was very beautifully spent with a program of gospel songs, scripture and prayer. Mrs. Orrie Holt gave a poem "I am not growing old" so appropriate for the occasion. Mrs. Robert J. Keeler recited a couple of her choice poems.

It was an evening of great pleasure, the memory of which will linger.

Miss Eva Rowan enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner at the home of friends in Tyrone.

Mrs. J. B. Stere spent the latter part of last week visiting with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stevenson, of Altoona.

Little Miss Janet Arlene Alexander is sending numerous messages to Santa Claus and early as it is, he is most graciously responding.

Mrs. Robert J. Keeler of Upper Darby, Philadelphia, spent several days over the Thanksgiving holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Bullock.

Dame Rumor has it that we are going to have another wedding in the very near future and we believe it is more than just a rumor since she told it herself.

Mrs. Robert Mong made about twelve gallons of good old fashioned sauerkraut last week which looks promising for lots of good sauerkraut dinners this winter.

Mrs. H. Thompson Elway was a guest over Thanksgiving of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Butler of Altoona, Pa., and of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Nicodemus for the past weekend.

Miss Margaret Parsons, a student in Harrisburg, Pa., spent the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parsons, returned to her school on Sunday evening.

Miss Ida Mae Barton, student at the Lock Haven Normal School, spent the holiday season with her mother, Mrs. Hazel Barton and other friends and relatives in and about the community.

Guests at the home of Mrs. Amanda Way over the past weekend were her sister-in-law Mrs. Gertrude Swartz of Harrisburg, Pa. and son William and wife and son Richard of Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tallhelm left on Tuesday evening for Philadelphia where John had been called by the Railroad Company, he being one of their employees, to undergo a physical examination.

Joseph B. Alexander was one of the lucky ones in securing a fine wild turkey last Friday. He and Mrs. Alexander aided last Saturday at the butchering at the Mr. Lucas home in Snow Shoe Intersection.

Mr. and Mrs. Pearce Rumberger of Maryland, spent the Thanksgiving season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lucas of Union Township, also attended the Watson-Brugger wedding on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Lucas and son Walter and daughter Janie, of Union Township accompanied by his sister, Mrs. B. E. Holt of this place, Miss Charlotte Stere and Ruth Parsons, motored to Altoona last Tuesday evening where they attended the special Evangelistic services in the Cavalry Baptist church there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mauder and son Forrest and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Williams, enjoyed a turkey dinner on Thanksgiving at the home of their son George Bauder and wife of Altoona, Pa. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bauder and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Updegraff of Williamsport and their families were also present to complete the family circle.

The members of the Ladies Bible Class of the Methodist church have in their possession some bottles of vanilla which they would like to dispose of and are taking this means of making it known so that persons desiring flavoring will relieve them of it. It is very good and the generous amount in the bottles will last some time.

Mr. Marion Stere, son of H. M. Stere of this place, and a patient in the Mercy hospital at Pittsburgh, is improving slowly. Last reports are that he is able to walk around some in the hospital. He hopes to be able to go to the home of his brother, James Stere of Pittsburgh in the very near future where he will remain until he has recovered sufficiently to make the trip home.

The members of the Young Ladies Sunday School class taught by J. H. Finch, held their annual birthday social on Tuesday evening in the community house. Supper was served at 6:30 P. M. to about fifty guests and members of the class. The table was laden with most delicious food of all kinds. A silver offering was lifted which netted them a nice sum for their treasury.

A number of friends and neighbors of Mrs. Nannie Williams gathered at her home last Thursday evening and presented her with a nice lot of groceries as a Thanksgiving donation. She was very much surprised but gladly accepted the things and enjoyed the evening to the greatest extent. The evening was spent by singing hymns, prayer, recitations and refreshments.

Fireman Smells Smoke, Rescues Woman, Baby

Fireman James F. Armstrong's keen nose for smoke probably saved the lives of a woman and her seven-months-old baby Monday at Altoona.

As he stepped from his home on his way to work, Armstrong sniffed wood smoke and traced the odor to a house a block distant. He walked in, found a partition ablaze and aroused Mrs. H. L. Lockard and her baby, then turned in an alarm in time to save the building.

It continues to surprise us how many people race locomotives to the crossings.

It is very easy to forget a task that you are anxious to do.
