Presbyterian Church Services: Bible Study Class Monday evenings under the direction of Rev. H. E. Oakwood. Sunday School Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. and the regular preaching service in the evening at 7:30 p. m. with sermon by the pastor, Rev. H. E. Oakwood.

Ladies Aid Meeting: The members of the Ladies Aid will hold a special meeting at the home of Mrs. Lena Spotts on Monday evening, December 11th, 1939. On account of a change in the Discipline of the Methodist church, there will be a change in the organizations of the church, of which the Ladies Aid is one. A full attendance is requested of all members.

Free Methodist Church Services: Young Peoples prayer service Tuesday evenings. Adult prayer service Friday evening, Sunday School Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. followed by the Class meeting. The evening service at 7:30 p. m. will be under the direction of the pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett and will be in commemoration of Universal Bible Sunday. A special program is being planned which will include special singing, talks by different folks including the pastor. All persons are asked to bring their bibles with them to this service.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Custer of this place, were her sisters, Mrs. Lona Hinton of Altoona, and Mr. and Mrs. Eward Adams of Swissvale, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Custer spent last Wednesday with the latter's aunt, Mrs. Dora McSherry at New Berlin, Pa. Mrs. McSherry and her daughter are moving this month from New Berlin, to Norge, Virginia, where they will make their future home.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Custer on last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Lucas of Union Township, Mrs. Ralph Moran and son, Milton and Miss Pauline Stiffer of Altoona, Pa., the latter coming to take Mrs. Hinton back to her home from a weekend visit.

Don't forget to mark down on your new calendar, when it comes, the special Evangelistic services which will be conducted in the Free Methodist church commencing January 1st and continuing to January 14th. Rev. E. C. John of Fairmont, West Virginia, will be the evangelist, he is a son of Mrs. G. A. Garrett.

We were not able to secure information as to all the deer gotten in this vicinity but the crowd that went out daily from town were successful in bringing in three thus far. Two friends of Rev. and Mrs.

G. A. Garrett from Greensburg and New Kensington, took back with them two which they got the first day. Boyd Lucas got a nice one the first day. Charles Bruss and his father William Bruss of Union Township each got one. Dayne Holt of State College was successful in getting one. Frank Stiers took a walk up by the reservoir and came home with his share. The members of the Unionville Rod & Gun Club at Camp Askins had three the first day.

Mrs. John Hoff of Tyrone, spent Monday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. B. E. Holt.

Miss Ida May Barton has returned to her studies at Lock Haven Teachers College after having been home for the last week with a bad cold and gripple.

The Home Hygiene Class under the instruction of Miss Bertha Rimmey, Red Cross Nurse of Bellefonte, has completed its course and will have a demonstration and presentation of certificates at the Community House Tuesday evening, December 12th at 7:30 p. m. This meeting will be free to all who desire to attend. A couple of short plays will be presented.

Mrs. David Custer accompanied Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Williams to Philadelphia over the Thanksgiving holiday and spent the time with her sister, Mrs. Alma Alexander at the home of her son Ralph Alexander and wife. Mrs. Alexander, who has been ill for some time past, is very much improved and able to take daily walks in the vicinity of their home.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Fisher over last weekend and to take in the first few days of deer season, were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fisher, Mr. John Pewatt and Mr. Randolph Randall of Pittsburgh and vicinity. They took one deer home with them, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Fisher and son of Pittsburgh also spent a few days with their respective parents at the same time.

MOSHANNON

There have been a large number of hunters in our town since the beginning of the deer season. Quite a few deer have been shot.

C. C. Lucas of Pleasant Gap visited at the J. F. Lucas and LeRoy Lewis homes Monday and Tuesday. Tuesday a. m. he accompanied J. F. Lucas on a business trip to Philipsburg.

John T. Lucas of Emporium was home for the weekend to hunt. Mary Ann of Bellefonte was home Monday evening and Tuesday.

Don't forget the bazaar at the Print Shop Dec. 16th, benefit of M. E. church.

The supper at the Presbyterian church Dec. 2, was a success.

The condition of Mr. M. D. Flanagan is not so good at this writing.
