

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday, Dec. 10, are as follows: Sunday School 9:30. Worship with sermon 10:30, C. E. 6:45, topic for discussion "Teaching, preaching, healing." Miss Frances Fogal of Bellefonte spent her Thanksgiving vacation over the weekend with her friend Miss Kathryn McCrea, other callers were Christine Burd, Geraldine and Arline Swope, Vivian Wolfe and Mrs. Ted Dixon and children. Mrs. C. E. Aley, son Leon and daughter Betty spent Sunday afternoon at the Horace Oberheim home, to visit Mrs. Martha Yearick, who was very ill, but was very glad to see that she has improved much and it is the wish of her many friends here for a speedy recovery to good health. Messrs Jacob Shearer of Centre Hall, and Joel Reyer of Zion, called at the Nevin Yearick home one day last week. Thursday evening callers at the E. R. Bantley home were the Misses Josephine Deitz, Geraldine and Arline Swope and Vivian Wolfe. Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children spent Thursday at Snow Shoe and Clarence and were dinner guests of the Misses Leona and Nora St. Clair and were supper guests of Miss Zoe Meek and her mother. They also called at the Krone home at Clarence and the Hackenberry home at Runville. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Malone and grandson of Jersey Shore, were all day visitors at the Orin Fye home. Mr. and Mrs. George White and daughter Connie of Salona, Mrs. Clayton Womelodorf and son Nevin, of Beech Creek, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Winfield Deitz home. Mr. and Mrs. Milford Ebers and Henry Kessling of Yarnell, spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lucy Conaway. The writer is unable to state whether Henry can wear the same size clothes or no, since deer season opened as he had the real thrill of killing a 30 point buck of which he is very proud. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Swartz and daughter Mary of Bellefonte, and Mrs. George Bais and daughter Alice of East Endicott, were Monday evening visitors at the Hubert Vonazza home. Miss Betty Corman of Axe Mann spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. D. P. Ertley while Mr. Ertley was at the hunting camp in search of deer. Monday evening reports that their crew had four deer. Different crews of day hunters are having fair luck as deer are reported to be scarce and lean this fall. Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul, of Bellefonte, Mrs. William Belghot and children Louise and Earl Geraldine and Arline Swope and Vivian Wolfe of this place, were Wednesday evening callers at the Robert Conaway home. Fred Conier and son-in-law Elmer Belghot of Madisburg, visited the Robert Yarnell home on Sunday. Mrs. Miles Bartley and son Philip assisted at the double butchering for the families of her father, Mr. Chester Neff of Howard, and her brother, John Neff of Boothwyn and Concord, held at the Neff home in Howard. Harold Betz and family of Howard, spent Sunday with his mother Mrs. Alice Betz and children. Miss Margaret Logan spent Wednesday evening with her friend, Louise Belghot. Richard Berkstresser of Rebersburg, was an over night guest on Friday night at the C. E. Aley home. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon spent Sunday evening with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon, Michael Russo of Lock Haven, was a Tuesday dinner guest at the Elmer Swope home and spent the remaining part of the day in search of bunnies. Lynn Winners and Mrs. Florence Stover, of Lock Haven, spent Sunday evening at the A. A. Garrett home. Miss Josephine Deitz is spending a few days at the Swope home in the absence of Mr. Swope, who is "chief cook" at the Weller's hunting camp in the Alleghenies. Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul, of Bellefonte, spent Friday evening at the William Belghot home. Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children were Sunday evening supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noll of Hubersburg, other guests were Harry Belghot and Lee Rogers. Some attraction boys? Mrs. Miles Bartley was a Friday afternoon caller at the E. R. Bartley home. Mrs. C. E. Aley, son Leon and daughter Betty were Sunday afternoon callers at the C. E. Postman home, the main object was to see the little granddaughter, Miss Patricia Ann Aikley who we are very sorry to learn is suffering from an obstruction of the leaders of her neck. Henry Kessling of Yarnell was a Sunday caller at the home of his uncle Robert Conaway and family. DEER KILL FAIR of a bullet wound in the hip. His condition is good. George Oswalt, of Osceola Mills, broke his shoulder bone Saturday near Osceola when he stumbled over a vine and fell on a rock. He underwent treatment at the Phillipsburg State Hospital. Roy Rider, of Bellefonte, R. D., was arrested Tuesday by game officials on a charge of shooting a bear near Berner Run, in the "Rattlesnake" area the previous day. Game Warden Thomas Mosler yesterday reported that although the deer kill is not so large in numbers, most of the animals being taken are good-sized and are in good condition. Few camps in the county have bagged the limit of 6 bucks at this time, which is quite unusual. In past years many of the camps killed the limit within a few days and broke camp. Hit by Glancing Shot Spicer was injured early Friday morning when a bullet glanced off a tree while the man was standing watch in the Barrens, two miles north of State College. It is believed the bullet struck the left eye at an angle, forced the eyeball to one side, and entered the area to the rear of the nose without striking the brain. Surgeons report that the eyelid was only slightly torn at one corner, and it is hoped that the optic nerve has not been severed. No facial bones are fractured, and last night the patient's condition was reported to be satisfactory. State Motor Police officers H. D. Ream and J. P. Jordan, of Rockview, who investigated the accident, reported that Spicer was hunting with a group of four companions. They said that just before the accident four shots had been fired at a deer by members of the party. Then, a few moments later, they added, another shot, not fired by any member of the party was heard, and the bullet glanced off a tree and hit Spicer who was standing about 35 feet from the tree. They were unable to say who fired the shot, police report. The injured man was taken to the office of a State College physician and was then brought to Bellefonte. The position of the bullet was revealed by x-ray examinations. Beekwith Hit by Stray Shot Beekwith, the Hannah Furnace hunter, was with a group of 18 hunters encamped about three miles southwest of Port Matilda at 11:45 o'clock Saturday morning, when he was struck by a pumpkin ball while walking through the woods. The bullet passed clear through his hip without striking the bone. Able to walk, he made his way to his car and was then driven by companions to the Phillipsburg State Hospital. The hunter was unable to state from which direction the bullet had come, although a hunter son 400 to 500 feet ahead of him claimed he heard the missile pass near by. Kills Bear Illegally Roy Rider, who was arrested on a charge of killing a bear out of season, is reported to have paid a fine of $100 to the game official who investigated the case. The carcass of the bear, described as being a good-sized animal, was given to the Phillipsburg State Hospital. Louis Haupt "Lost" Louis Haupt, of Willowbank street, Bellefonte, was the object of an intensive search on the part of his hunting companions Clarence Haupt, Donald Haupt and Albert Haupt, early Saturday evening when he became lost while hunting near the switchback of the Snow Shoe Mountain. Upon losing his way, Louis walked until he came to a road where he stopped a passing motorist who brought him home. He arrived here about 9 o'clock Saturday night. Meanwhile his companions, who had been searching the mountains since late in the afternoon had returned to Bellefonte, and upon learning that Louis had not returned home, returned to the woods to resume the search. When the "lost" hunter arrived in Bellefonte he learned that his companions had gone back to look for him, he drove out and called off the search. Entire Party is Lost A group of about ten West Penn Power Co. line men were hunting Saturday on the Snow Shoe mountain, and after they killed 2 bucks, they found they had lost their way. Even big Gib Anderson, leader of the party, forgot his Boy Scout training. Eventually the straggling crew reached a road from which they were able to plot their way to their cars which were parked miles away. Girl Has Success Miss Emma Yesney, 19, of Bellefonte, R. D. 3, never hunted before last Friday, and consequently she had never shot even a rabbit, much less a deer. However, she went out Friday morning and while hunting near the Beech Creek trestle brought down an 8-point buck. Of five shots fired at the deer three found their mark. William Homan, of State College, hunting with Victor Dawson, Russell Nelson and Jim Anderson, all of Bellefonte, along Dix Run, Saturday morning, brought down a fine 9-point buck. Many Report Success George H. Wilson, of near Zion, got his deer without much effort. Saturday morning he hiked to a woods on his farm south of Zion and after spending a short time sitting on a log, a fine buck walked into range. Upon bringing the animal down with a well-placed shot he found it had a rack of 9 points. The deer weighed 150 pounds. Jim Leitner, of Milesburg, got an 8-point buck weighing 184 pounds while hunting in Grubstone Hollow near the site of the old Gardner's Trapping Camp. In the woods above the old Titan plant opposite the McCoy dam, John brought down an 8-point buck which weighed 161 pounds dressed. He fired four shots at the animal, and three of them hit their mark. Bob Woods, of Milesburg, shot a 6-point buck near the Beech Creek trestle, Friday. An 8-point killed by Boots Ripka, a 9-point by Hugh Ralston, Jr., and a 7-point by Edward D. James, of State College. Reports from the Allegheny mountain section between Renovo and Snow Shoe credit the Big Bear Rod and Gun Club with 3 deer; Buck Harbor with a 5-point buck killed Saturday and Weaver's with two. The Big Bear camp deer were killed by John Lucas, Lew Smith and Dr. Richards H. Hoffman, all of Bellefonte. Fred Witmer of Bellefonte, bagged the deer at the Buck Harbor Camp. Among successful Port Matilda hunters were Clifford Kelly and his son, Harold Kelly, each of whom got an 8-point buck, and W. Scott Crane an 11-point buck. Rev. Charles Snyder of the Plummer Holiness church, got a buck. He had already shot a bear, a turkey, and numerous rabbits and pheasants during the season. Ranger Bennet Reports Stewart Bennet, forest ranger in the Woodward area, reported yesterday that no camps in that section had bagged the camp limit of 6 deer up to that time, although 1 group, the Fisher party at Sheasley Hollow, had 5 fine bucks hung up. Mr. Bennet's report follows: Woodward Hotel, 2. John Brindel party, Woodward. 1. Danville Camp, 1. Millheim party, 2. Panther Gap party, 1. Deerslayers, at Winkleblech field, 1. Vicksburg Club, 1. Millfingburg party at Winkleblech field, 3. Barner Gap crew, 1. Airline Camp, Sheasley Hollow, 1. Fisher party, Sheasley Hollow, 5. Bear Gap party in Bear Hollow, 2. Ard party, at Woodward, 1.

Harry Auman party, Woodward, 2. Snyder's crew, in High Valley, 4. Forest Ranger, John Meeker, of Centre Hall, R. D., reports that the largest deer taken in that area to date was killed by John Jordan, of Joyner. The buck was unusually large and had a rack of ten points. Only one illegally killed deer has been found in the woods to date, and so far there have been no arrests for violations, Ranger Meeker reports. Most of the camps in the area have closed for the season, and by today virtually all the camps will have been vacated, the officer said. He described the kill so far as being "fair," but said deer seem to be above average in size and in good condition. In the following report of deer killed in Mr. Meeker's section, the name of the club, the site of their headquarters and the number of deer killed are given in order. McKeesport Club, Gherty Run, 1. Sweetwood, Summit, 4. Paxinos, Wildcat Gap, 2. Lebanon, Gentzel Gap, 2. Decker party, 1. The Dan Pottery Mills, Day hunters, 4. Coyer day hunters, 4. Regulars, at Highway, 3. Viscoe Club, 1. Evergreen Club, Stagefields, 2. White Pines, Stagefields, 1. Underwoods, Underwood Valley, 1. Twin Springs, Hessian Trail, 1. Simpsonstown Club, Sassafras Run, 2. Lost Creek, Underwood Spring, 5. Rock Oaks, Rock Oak Springs, 4. Bradford party, Poe bridge, 3. Mexico party, Treaster Kettle, 1. Pelton Gun Club, Heckendorn Gap, 1. Windsor Hunt Club, Cold Springs, 2. 11 deer have been shot in this area by day hunters. Game Protector Joe Kistner, of Millheim, who patrols the area between Spring Mills and the Union county line, reported that the largest deer taken in that area was shot by Ralph Harbaugh, of Lodi, whose prize weighed 162 pounds, dressed. Mr. Kistner said there have been few violations of game laws and no accidents in that section so far this season. Many deer were killed Friday and Saturday in the Beech Creek, Big Run and Scoloc mountain territory. There was a lot of excitement Saturday afternoon a mile or two above Beech Creek on the farms of Jesse Glosener, Samuel Glosener and Alva Peters where four bucks were killed in a short time, driven by hunters out of a woods. Jesse Glosener, Nathan Shadle and Warren Driver, who happened that way, got three of them. Back in the mountains some camps complain of seeing but few, if any, bucks.

Sees Danger in Sympathy Pearl Buck, author who won the Pulitzer and Nobel prizes for literature, said Tuesday too many expressions of sympathy for Finland might lead to a world war. In an interview before she was honored at a meeting of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, at Philadelphia, Mrs. Buck said: "We must not be overwhelmed by emotion over Finland. This might drive Russia into an alliance with Japan. Then we would have a real world war."
