January 4, 1940.

Echoes From the Past

Fifty Years Ago

Joe Furey, editor of the Clinton Will Marshall, who was brought . . . The stork left a fine baby girl Democrat, Lock Haven, spent New home from the Miners' Hospital, at the Frances Miller home in State Year's Day at this place, his for- Ashland, Pa., is slowly improving College just in time to enjoy mer home. Time is frosting his locks from his serious injuries caused by Christmas Gordon Montgomery and gives him somewhat of a digni- a fall. He is able to move about but a student at Pierce Business Colfied look, but he is the same whole- the wounds on his head have not lege, Philadelphia, and his brother, souled genial, good fellow, with a healed up yet. smile and kind word for all. Leslie, son of Prof. John A. Wea-

The annual hop held by the Lo- year, of Pine Grove Mills, after a Mrs. J. L. Montgomery in Bellegan Company on New Year's eve, lingering illness of almost two fonie. was the largest and finest yet held. months, died with pneumonia on The costumes were unique, striking, Sunday night. Leslie was a bright costly and startling and furnished and interesting lad of about four much amusement and merriment to years of age and his death cast a those present. Prof. Deitrick's or- gloom over that community. Interchestra was present and all were ment took place on Tuesday morndelighted with their elegant music. ing. The receipts were large and a hand-The apparatus for the new Y. M.

some sum was realized.

The Collins Brothers have open- Their building is almost completed ed a rich vein of pipe ore on the and will be ready for use in a short Weaver, both of Salona; William farm of Mr. Runkle, within a half time. The structure is about thirty- J. Jones, Jr., mile of Old Fort. The Collins will five by sixty feet and has an oval Rachael D. Roberts, Lancaster; put in a switch to connect with the ceiling of about 20 feet in height. Harry A. Bohn, Coburn, and Marrailroad and ship the ore to their The structure is entirely of wood tha G. Smith, Millheim; Leroy K. furnaces at Bellefonte. We under- and will be heated by steam. The Fye and Erma A. Frankenberger, stand they have obligated them- apparatus on hand consists of row- both of Penn township; Ray Cronselves to take out 100 tons of ore ing machines, quarter circle, swing- ister, Martha, and Annabelle Milper day, for which Mr. Runkle is ing rings, trapeze, Indian clubs, ler, Julian; Donald, A. Rote, Belleto receive a royalty of 25 cents a dumb-bells and other items. From fonte, and Ruth G. Spotts, Flem-

The constant procession of visit- paratus and improve the surround- ie M. Perry, both of State College; ors to the Bellefonte jail is increas- ings. Their start is a very creditable John W. Spotts and Olive Brower. ing every week. Any hour of the day one.

and coming from that place. It Matilda Castle were elected for the rone: Warren J. seems as though the jail, a place ensuing six months' term: N. C., field, and Lena M. Hoover, Julian; built to confine criminals, has been A. J. Johnson; V. C., Martin Cow- Ray J. Sharer, Centre Hall, and turned into a veritable side show or pher; H. P., W. G. L. Crain; V. H., Laura M. Reeder, Spring Mills; dime museum since the incarcera- William Lewis; M. of R., R. D. Ard- Fred D. Osman, Centre Hall, and tion of the two murderers. The ery; C. of E., T. J. Woodring; K. of Tressie M. Reed, Pine Grove Mills; sheriff should put a stop to this and E., A. Y. Williams; S. H., A. Cow- George H. Cox, Bellefonte, and only admit persons who have oc- pher; W. B., H. C. Woodring; E., Rose Johnson, Zlon; Samuel W. casion to see the prisoners.

ed. There is much speculation as to for relief. $53.50. Amount of funds who will draw the prize. Among the on hand and invested, $297.67. foremost applicants are Mr. Malin, Everybody is clamoring for an op- burg; George P. Snyder, Metamora, the telephone man; Druggist John era house. Everybody says one Ohio, and Clara Mills, Bellefonte. Harris, Chairman Brown and Editor ought to be built at once and no James A. Feidler. Rumors indicate one will build one. That is what is that Feidler will get the appoint- the matter with Bellefonte. The enment and his friends are very con- tertainments given in the Court fident

On last Thursday evening a de- ized yet they were rendered to a lightful entertainment was given by disadvantage. There are plenty of Mr. and Mrs. Bonbright in their men in Bellefonte today who have studio in the Crider Exchange. The the ready capital for a paying in- 18 and 19, examinations for the high large rooms were filled by those who vestment yet no one is willing to school semester's work will be held. came in response to their invita- place it in an opera house. There These examinations will cover all tions. The programme was a mu- is no doubt but that it would yield subjects and will be held according sician and elocutionary treat. Mrs. a good return but they can not see to a schedule. Pupils must be pres-Bonbright, who is an accomplished it in that light. We want an opera ent at the time for examination in planist, delighted the audience with house. Who will build it? a number of skillful renditions which no doubt meet with success.

THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT, BELLEFONTE, PA.

pure maple sugar, worth about 35 cents a pound. Ed. Hull, an employe at the Chemical Lime Co. quarries, had his nose broken and received severe bruises when a crow bar with which he was loosening rock slipped and struck him in the face The stork left a fine baby girl Jack, a student at Tome Institute, were spending the Christmas vacation with their parents, Mr. and M Denning. She is an ardent ed.

ery

worker and well qualified for the position.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples: Oscar J. Witmer, Pennsylvania Furnace, and Mary B. Reed, Pine Grove Mills; Robert H. Homan, Zion, and Emma Gerna, Altoona; John L. Steele and Lydia Curry, both of Bellefonte;

Maurice O. Yearick, Woodward, C. A. gymnasium arrived this week. and Grace L. Hosterman, Coburn; Joseph R. Walker and Martha M. Washington, D. C. State College, and time to time they will add new ap- ing; Peter C. Mackenzie and Gold-bo,h of Fleming; Harry Garbrick, large numbers can be seen going to The following officers of Port Zion, and Elizabeth S. Rhine, Ty-Hoover, Clear-William Daughenbaugh; E., William Mattern and Miriam K. Mattern, cook.

Postmaster James H. Dobbins is Vaugh; F. G., A. S. Williams; S. G., both of Port Matilda; Carl E. Bradclosing up all accounts in his office William Shay; T., W. J. Weiser; R. ford, Lemont, and Chara L. McHenas his term expires the early part to G. S., S. U. Harshberger. The ry, Bellefonte; E. M. Stover, Woodof February, when it is expected membership is 63. Admissions for ward, and Elsie M. Boob, Aaronsthat his successor will be appoint- the past six months, 4. Amount paid burg; Edward I. Spotts, State College, and Marian E. Whitehill, Lemont; Lewis A. Crader, Spring Mills, and Ruth H. Gentzel, Elys-

WALKER TWP.

SCHOOL NEWS House this year were largely patron-Examinations On Thursday and Friday, January

each of their various subjects. No exemptions will be given this semes-Marriage licenses were issued to ter. Elementary Christmas Program Two Christmas programs by elementary schools of the township

While Centre countians were trip were his heels and hands.

the season in Bellefonte, Mary and Elizabeth Carpeneto, daughters of Mrs. Louise Carpeneto, were thrown from their sled and bruised. The girls were coasting on Academy

Hill when their sled hit an automobile at the Spring street inter-both girls were seriously injured.

section. It was first feared that

Joseph Alters, Sr., was slightly

Samuel Rhinesmith, of Hyde

Mrs. William Rhinesmith, in Belle-students had a two weeks' vacation at Christmas time; Bellefonte

Academy students were given a

Sugar was so scarce that Bellefonte grocers were able to sell practhem at 15 cents a pound. A week

fonte

. Bellefonte public school during Christmas week, Frank A. tis Publishing Company.

In the first coasting accident of at the school.

Over The County News

Mrs. Willa M. Sharp, of Lock Ha-ven, has received official appoint-ment from Senator Joseph Guffey constructing the storage plant and Mrs. Mae Smith and two de as census enumerator for the city the WPA is providing labor for conof Lock Haven. Mrs. Sharp, a for- struction of the ponds. At the remer Philipsburg lady, is acting vice search station problems pertaining chairman for the Democratic party to the improvement of fish food in of Clinton County, and a daughter streams and lakes, fish diseases and of Mrs. Denning and the late Harry selective breeding of fish are studi-

Numerous reappointments and several new appointments to 55

Private Myrrel D. Solt of E. county boards of assistance were Bishop street, Bellefonte, who re- announced last week by Gov. Arcently began his fourth enlistment thur H. James. The appointments in the U.S. Army, is spending the are effective as of December 31, holidays at his home. He enter- 1939. The appointments included: ed military service in October, 1927 Centre: Lewis Hohnka, (R) Philipsat the Hawaiian Islands and served burg; H. T. Struble, (D) Bellefonte, until 1930. He has served in Pan- R. D. ama, the Philippine Islands and a Bellefonte Lodge No. 268. F. & A. few months ago became stationed M., last week elected officers for at the Army Medical College at 1940 as follows :Worshipful Master, Melvin L. Cherry; Senior Warden,

The Philipsburg office, army re- Harry C. Taylor; Junior Warden, cruiting office, this week announced Earl H. Miller; Treasurer, Frederick the following enlistment and re- O. Witmer; Secretary, Arthur H. enlistment from this district: Alvie Sloop; Trustees, Ebon B. Bower, Woodrow Ogden, son of Mr. and Earl S. Orr, Lewis R. Lenhart; Mrs. Jasper Ogden, of Clearfield Representative in Grand Lodge, was accepted here and sent to Fort Arthur H. Sloop.

Monroe, Va., where he will be sent Harold C. "Jack" Leathers, 32to the coast artillery corps. Mr. year-old WPA worker, who lost his Edward M. Lybarger, also of Clear- legs after being run over by a 100field, was accepted for re-enlistcar freight train near his home between Mt. Eagle and Howard, on ment and sent to the Detached Enlistment Men's List, at the army Sept. 17 and discharged from the war college in Washington, D. C. Centre County Hospital where he His first enlistment was with the had been a patient since the acci-6th field artillery at Fort Hoyle, dent and returned to his home to Maryland. He is a graduate of the spend Christmas. Leathers' cries school for cooks and bakers at Fort for help brought neighbors to his Meade, Maryland and it is believed rescue about 3 o'clock in the mornthat he will prove to be a valuable ing of September 17 and he was asset to his new organization as a rushed to the hospital here where for several weeks he lingered be-of the hatchery, an area of four An explosion caused when a boilacres, bordering on the state high- er used to heat water for dairy way, is being developed into one of equipment blew up, caused considthe most modern fresh water biolo- erable damage to the milk house gical research stations in the Unit- on the J. Will Mayes estate farm ed States. It will be operated in near Howard, tenanted by E. N. conjunction with the biological re- Trostle, about 9:30 o'clock last search laboratory at the Pleasant Wednesday morning. No one was Gap hatchery under the supervi- near the small frame building when sion of C. R. Buller, the commis- the boiler exploded. The explosion sion's chief fish culturist. Also un- blew all the windows out, ripped der construction is a large building water pipes loose, blew a hole in the to be used for cold storage and as a roof and moved the entire building plant for fish food preparation. It from its foundation. One side of will have a storage capacity of 59 the building to which a garage was ons of food for use at the three built was blown in. Mr. Trostle units of the Bellefonie hatchery, had gone to Howard to look for a The amount of food needed for the stove and was inspecting one in three units, Pleasant Gap. Upper the Howard Fire Company building and Lowery Spring Creek hatcher- when the fire siren sunded an ies, is from 11/2 to 2 tons per day in alarm called in by a member of the fall when the fish in the ponds the Trostle family. Residents of have grown larger. When the ex- Howard were frightened considerpansion program has been com- ably by the siren's wall because of pleted there will be between 525 the low pressure caused by lack of and 550 ponds and pools for grow- water in the town's reservoir. Use ing all kinds of fish at the three of the fire hydrants would have hatcheries. In addition to trout dangerously depleted the fast diand bass, catfish, sunfish, yellow minishing supply.

Extensive building operations are tween life and death. He was given being carried on at the Pleasant a number of blood transfusions and Gap unit of the State Fish hatch- it was found necessary to amputate At the lower or northern end both legs below the knees.

WINGATE

Mises Connie Eckert and Doro-The Watch Night service was held here Sunday evening with a Sunday with her cousin, Ruby day with her cousin, Ruby

STATE COLLEGE

Mrs. Elizabeth Rand entertained several friends with a party at her home on Hamilton avenue Saturday evening.

Margaret Manning of East Fairmount avenue, spent several days

Mrs. Mae Smith and two daughters of West College avenue, spent Tuesday in Ebensburg.

Ruth Popp, Phyllis Watkins, Jonanne Morse and Betty Pielemeier entertained a number of their friends with a dance, at the Sigma Nu fraternity, Wednesday night. Mr, and Mrs. William Garner of McAllister street, had as their holiday guests their son and daughterin-law Mr. and Mrs. William Garner, of Cayuga, New York.

Martha Tobias of Hamilton avenue, had as her guest for several days this week, Marilyn Miles of Milesburg.

Hoy Ross son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ross of Second avenue, is a patient in the Altoona Hospital. Rev. and Mrs. John Harkins of Atherton street, had as their weekend guest the former's sister Miss Annie Harkins, of Harrisburg. Mrs. Harvey W. Rockey of State College, R. D., who has been confined to her bed for the past two years, is seriously ill at this writing. she will recover soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Long returned to their home on Heister street on Monday, having spent the holidays in Florida. Mrs. Margaret Fulton of Poster avenue, had as her guest Monday and Tuesday, Mrs. Grace Hutchinson of Rockview.

Theodore Fowler returned to Pittsburgh, having spent the holidays with his mother Mrs. Mildred Fowler of Garner street. Howard Parsons returned to Jonestown on Monday, having spent parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parons of Heister street. William P. Bell of South Allen street, spent Wednesday in Pittsburgh. Isabel Stover of Barnard street, had as her holiday guest Clyde Fitting of Norristown.

Mrs. Hugh Etters and two daughters Betty and Sally of Miles street, returned home recently, having visited in Philadelphia.

Josephine Pennington of Pottstown, spent the holidays with relatives in State College.

Mrs. Sara Erb of Heister street had as her guests over the holidays her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Lanker and two sons Donald, Jr. and Edward of Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gill of Pine street, had as their holiday guests Mr. and Mrs. George Gearhart and family of Jersey City, New Jersey. Mrs. Margaret Garner of East College avenue, who had been confined to her bed for fourteen weeks because of illness, is again confined to her bed with rheumatism.

Mrs. Anna Fortney of West Beaver avenue, is confined to her bed because of illness. The many friends of Mr. William Spotts of East Beaver avenue, will be sorry to know that he died at his home Sunday morning. er. Mrs. Margaret Fulton of East

Sunday School Lesson

OF FAITH.

International Sunday School Lesson for January 7, 1940.

GOLDEN TEXT: "Thou are the Christ, the Son of the Living God."-Matt. 16:16.

(Lesson Text: Matthew 16:13-28.)

been in the world but two opinions concerning Jesus of Nazareth. Acecond half in a six months' course cording to one opinion, Jesus is a in studies on the Kingdom of man, a great man, truly wonderful, not only a man, a bright and Caesarea Philippi was the most shining light like John the Bapnortherly point reached by Jesus in tist, a sensitive and tenderhearted nis ministry. With his disciples he patriot and martyr like Jeremiah, had journeyed northward from the an intrepid messenger from the Sea of Galilee, seeking to instruct courts of heaven like Elijah, a them for taking up his work, which beautiful Heraclitue, or Socrates, a would become necessary in about noble Seneca of Epictetus, a Pales-

six months Caesarea Philippi is eastward great and wonderful, but still a from the port of Tyre, and only a man,' few miles east of Dan, the city by Herod the Great.

comparison.

which with Beersheba was used in Rev. Jefferson presents the other, the phrase to indicate the entire "According to the other opinion, country. It had been built by he is the Messiah, the desired of the Herod Philip, named in honor of nations, the consummator of his-Her many friends hope that the Emperor, but with Philip's own tory, the One who was to come, the name attached to distinguish it Son of the Eternal, the only Son of from the seacoast Caesarea, built God, unparalelled, unapproached, > flict with the Jewish leaders rapid- that ever will be. These are the ly approaching, Jesus was anxious two conceptions of Jesus, and befor his little band of followers to sides these two there is none other. understand properly his mission From the beginning the Christian and his identity. So, as they near- Church took the higher of these two ed the northern limit of their tour, conceptions, and she has steadfastly ing them who the public thought he Jesus told Peter that he would was. The answers reveal a lot of build his church upon the faith the impression Jesus had made which he confessed, not upon the during his two and a half years, for person of the apostle, and Jesus the holidays at the home of his he was universally placed in a lofty predicted that the power and authority of death would not prevail

> Jesus to be none other than John At the same time, it was promised the Baptist, returned to life after that Peter would so increase in his execution at the hand of the spiritual life that he would know king. Others identified him with the divine will and wisdom, a Elijah, that great fighting prophet promise which inures to the benefit ancient times, who contested of any consecrated Christian who with false religion for the supre- earnestly and patiently follows him macy of righteousness, a man who in an effort to find everlasting life had worked miracles, and had not and eternal truth > tasted of death. Some thought he Then, Jesus tried to prepare his was Jeremiah, regarded as the lead- little band for the crucifixion which er of all the prophets, or at least, was soon to take place. Peter imone of the other great prophetical mediately, in his impetuous way, figures returned to life. protested, and Jesus rebuked him as Then Jesus put the supremely the instrument of Satan, seeking to vital question to his close group of lead him away from the divine followers, asking them who they plan. To follow him. Jesus pointthought he was. He had been with ed out a man must deny himself, them for thirty months, they had take up his cross, and lose his life. seen him at work, they had heard He wanted them to know that the him teaching the eternal princi- hereafter of eternity was more vital ples-would they recognize his di- than the present enjoyment of vinity? The impetuous Peter made time, that a man must seek noanswer, proclaiming his individual bility of character and life, rather belief that Jesus was the "Son of than enjoyment of maternal things. the Living God." Promptly he re- To gain the whole world at the exceived commendation with the as- pense of the eternal would be foolsurance that he correctly interpret- ishness.

> den and untimely death which oc-| N. J. is spending the holidays with curred to Mr. Fultz at Yeagertown her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. on Christmas eve at about 6 o'clock. Hazel,

This community keenly feels the Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Norris and loss of so helpful a Christion work- daughter Betty and Mr. Harvey He was a faithful and a con- Laudenslayer, all of Altoona, spent sistent member of above named Sunday at the home of Mrs. George church as was also his wife Bella L. Fisher were highly appreciated, the following couples: Charles D. Prof. Bonbright, whose profession is Rorabaugh. Jersey Shore, and Minthat of an elocutionist, gave a num- nie Bierly, Madisonburg; William H ber of fine selections and explained Hendershot, Bellefone, and Sadie J. some of the points embraced in Schnadly, Harrisburg; Joseph Schell, were well attended. The one provoice culture. The Prof. will organ- Dix Station, and Mary B. Flynn, gram was held at Logan school, ize a class in voice culture and will Snow Shoe; John Gripp, Tyrone, Mingoville, under the direction of The County Auditors, Prof. W. A. brook; Harry T. Eckert, Snow Shoe Zion, under the direction of Mrs.

Krise, A. McKee and S. Gray, of Intersection, and Miss A. Erhard, Myrtle Beightol. Both schools had a Buffalo Run, began their work this Unionville; William Stine and Miss large audience for their entertain-The task is a laborious one Margaret Dunsmore, both Huston men

THE CHRISTIAN'S CONFESSION ed the divine truth which he had

While the revelation received.

came from heaven, it was to Peter's credit that his own spiritual nature had been developed sufficiently to grasp and understand the great truth. "From the day of this conference at Caesara Philippi down to the present day," says Rev. Charles E. Jefferson, "there have never With this lesson, we begin the Heaven, as set forth by Matthew.

Page Three

tinian Confucius or Buddha, a very Contrasted with this viewpoint unapproachable, unique, unlike any With the time for his final con- other person that has ever been, or he opened up the discussion by ask- held it to the present hour."

There were many who believed against his established institution.

and will require about three weeks township; W. S. Musser, Millheim, Charles P. Hewes, Esq., and Miss Maggie J. Kreamer, Miles to finish. and wife, left last Friday for Erle, township; Lewis T, Jones and Miss being summoned there by the ser- Anna Riley, both Philipsburg; Wil- S. held a Christmas party in the delivered a wonderful message, that ious illness of Mrs. Kilpatrick, Mrs. liam G. Woomer, Jr., Roland, and high school building on Thursday was enjoyed by all present. Reformed church, of Zion, realized Joseph E. Irwin and Harriet E. was spent in playing games and ex- in the Evangelical church on Fri- and family Mrs. Mack Murray. about $150 from their festival dur- Kline, both Philipsburg; John Grove changing gifts. Refreshments con- day evening Jan. 12 at 7:45 by Rev. ing the holidays . . . W. C. Heinle, and Sarah McMullen, both Benner sisted of cookies, sandwiches and L. E. Kline. All are welcome to David Snyder and pickles. Esq., expects to occupy his new township; rooms on the first floor of the Con- Blanche I. Keller, both Centre Hall; The Senior class of the high rad building next week . . . Hon. William Smith, Milesburg, and Dora John H. Orvis is in Philadelphia Fulton. Hublersburg; Samuel Sny-enty-six boxes of Christmas candy, Reese and family on Christmas and is about recovered from an at- der and Mary Smith, Milesburg, more than any other customer of the tack of the grippe ... Judge Riley and Dora Fulton, Hublersburg; candy company. The Seniors take and Ray Shawley, Melvin Watson. shook hands with his many friends Samuel Snyder and Mary Flora, this opportunity to thank all of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Whitherite and in Bellefonte on Monday . . . The both Centre Hall; Steward Ripka, those people who assisted them in daughter Mildred, Mrs. Emma Reese big Chinaman at the laundry was Potters Mills, and Lucy Zettle, this project. arrested this week. Spring Mills.

at. Coburn, was transferred to the the Public Service Commission for Chapter of the F. F. A. The party her brother and family, Harris Harrisburg office and his successor permission to operate a bus line was held Wednesday night, Decem- Summers, over the weekend, also at Coburn had not been announced. between Bellefonte and Lewistown. While returning to Selinsgrove The proposed line was not a new president of the Bellefonte chap- Summers. from a visit with relatives in State one, but Mr. Pelter hoped to suc- ter. Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacMillan

Dr. Charles T. Aikens, ceed Guy Conner in conducting the Bellefonte group. College. president of Susquehanna Univer- the service. sity, suffered a broken rib when he jumped from his car as the machine began to skid. He didn't know he had broken the rib until several days later when a coughing spell resulted in severe pain in side and a physician discovered the fracture.

Miss Lydia Jackson, sister of Harry Jackson, fell down a flight of steps at their home over the John Meese store and tore several ligaments in her right ankle . . Mrs. John Blanchard returned to Bellefonte from Geneva, N. Y., where she had conducted a sale for the Relief Association. The French proceeds of the sale totaled about $500. Mrs. Blanchard had been engaged in that work for some time and had secured more than $4,000 for the cause.

burned by gasoline at the Belle-fonte aviation field. A plane was In a fall down a flight of stairs at her home in Centre Hall, Mrs. about to land, and Mr. Alters, an John G. King suffered fractures of employe at the field, in an at-. The building of the tempt to clear snow from the landthree ribs . . Millheim Farm Products Company, ing circle on the ground, poured at Coburn, was rapidly nearing gasoline on it and touched it off completion . . . The following Cen- with a match. He was singed by county students were included the flames before he could step folks. Last Friday she went on the in a list of scholarship awards an- back to safety. nounced by the Pennsylvania State College: Calvin W. Moore, State Otty, and Mack Rhinesmith, of College, a Louise Carnegie Senior Tyrone, spent Christmas at the home of their parents, Mr. and scholarship for $100; Homer Dudley, Blanchard, alternate for a se Carnegie Junior scholarship for $100. After undergonig treatment at Bellefonte Hospital, Samuel Ulrich was taken to his home near three weeks' recess, and a two Spring Mills for the Christmas holidays, Mr. Ulrich had suffered a Penn State. stroke of paralysis . . . A valuable farm horse owned by Clayton Musser, of near Linden Hall, had to be ed of to end its misery after tically anything sweet to the t had been kicked above the knee Christmas trade. One grocer orderanother horse . . . Ed. S. Weiser, ed some sugar, and when it arnear Coburn, purchased the rived from the wholesaler the large bank barn on the Emanuel storekeeper found that it was in enhuch farm in High Valley, the form of brown cakes. He sold and was having the building torn down to supply lumber for a shed or so later when the agent again should be remembered, depends in for his threshing machinery and called at the store, the grocer dis- part, upon the condition of busiother equipment. covered that the brown cakes were ness men.

The High School Classes The Sophomore class of W. T. H. this service.

Hon, William Smith, Milesburg, and Dora school sold one hundred and sev- the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles

Athletics

RUNVILLE

Sunday evening at 7:30.

ing a return.

visited with relatives.

to visit with relatives.

offensive to establish order.

train back home.

around again.

Lucas.

cemetery.

Vocational Members of the Hublersburg N.Y.

Chapter of the Future Farmers of Mrs. Irwin Lucas and daughter America organization were invited to Ruth left on Wednesday for Akron, Charles R. Meek, state forester | Charles A. Pelter had applied to a Christmas party by the Bellefonte O., where they were the guests with ber 20, at the home of Paul Krape, with her nephew and family Roy > and son Robert LeRoy, autoed to Snow Shoe on Chrsitmas, where they spent the day with her par-As a result of the magazine sellshivering in near zero temperatures ing campaign, sponsored by the Curfamily.

> the Ath-Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Baker, of Robinson, an air mail pilot, made a letic Association of W. T. H. S. has Pitisburgh, stopped here for a little flight from New York to Bellefonte, made a profit of $50.51. This is the while and visited with his friends. wearing B. V. D.'s, silk hose and largest amount of money the treas-Mrs. Eugene Beaver, Mrs. Ruth low shoes. He said the only paris ury has had in the past four years. Beaver and daughter Ethel, of Leof his body which were cold on the The money will be used to purchase were callers last Tuesday mont, equipment for girls' and boys' sports with their friends, Miss Marie Murray and sisters

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Smover and daughter of Downingtown, Mr. and Mrs. Millard Emel and chil-Revival services will begin next The New Year is a good time to make a resolution. If you have Christmas and New Year with their Pleasant Gap. not being going to church and Sunparents, Mr. and Mrs. William day School resolve to start next Sunday. Resolve to quit a bad habit: Resolve to make friends by doing them a favor without expect-Ida Witmer, on Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rupert of

Rev. Tobias and family motored Keith Walker,

Mr. and Mrs. Burtus Whitherite, Mrs. George Keller, of Arona, spent Christmas week with home Wingate, were entertained at a Lock Haven. Mrs. Pearl Fye is able to be Christmas dinner on Sunday at the

Mrs. Henry Confer, who has been Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Malone of with her son Claude for sometime. went to Jersey Shore last Sunday Malone also with his sister and A Mr. Strouse of Stormstown, is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Milligan Lambert

Rev. W. B. Tobias officiated at the home of Mrs. Sue Fisher. weeks' vacation was observed at the funeral of Mrs. William Richner Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Taylor and at the Fairview church last Sunday morning, interment in the Fairview

Rumors of peace indicate that Mrs. Clara Davidson prepared a Germany may want a few more delicicus Christmas dinner at her years before undertaking another nome for her children and families. Mrs. Willis Neff and daughter, of ef ones.

The condition of business, ft Curtin, Mr. and Mrs. James Davidson and children of Milesburg; Mr.

good attendance, to welcome the Davidson. New Year. The evening was spent

Mrs. Samuel McMurtrie and in singing and Rev. L. E. Kline, daughter, Mrs. John Halderman. Paul Halderman and Mack Bryan of Bellefonte, were guests last week There will be preaching service with Mrs. Halderman's daughter Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bennett and children, autoed to Runville on Sunday where they visited with his

Pautine Davidson all of Wingate.

Those who were entertained at parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Bennett. Ira Confer and Mrs. Maggie Tice were: Mr. and Mrs. Dennie Watson of Yarnell, were guests on Christmas with their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Zack Summers.

Those who visited at the home and Mrs. Earl Kepler, all of Runof Mrs. Mebel Burns on Christmas ville, Miss Sara Reese of Elmira, Day were her children and families: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Confaway of Snow Shoe: Mr. and Mrs. Miles Resides and children of Bush Hollow. Mr. and Mrs. William Glace and Lauretta Estright of Lewislown. Robert Murray and children of Bellefonte, were callers on Friday at the home of his sisters.

Those who attended the funeral of Mrs. Rebecca Starrette last Thursday at Milesburg, were: Mr. ents, Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw and and Mrs. John Smith and son Mahion and Mrs. Ralph McLaughlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Custer moved from Mrs. Trwin's property into Mrs. Ida Witmer's house Saturday, that was vacated several weeks ago by Mrs. Mildred Cowan who moved to Milesburg.

HOLTS HOLLOW

Mrs. Olive Rhoades, Mrs. Walter Sweitzer and daughter. Mrs. John dren of Coatesville, Miss Margaret, Watson, and Joanne Rhoades, spent Weaver and Thomas Summers of Wednesday of last week at the Reedsville, were guests over George Margargel Jr., home at the readers and editors of the Cen-

J. E Confer of Milesburg, Mrs. Summers and also with relatives. | Harry Haagen of Yarnell, and Mrs. Mrs. Madge Kauffman of Run- Edith Burd were guests of Mr. and letters instead of 1940. ville, visited with her mother, Mrs. Mrs. Nelson Confer at Niágara Falls last week.

Beech Creek, spent Christmas with of Moose Run, were callers at the 31st. It certainly was an interestto Morgan Run last Wednesday and her daughter and family, Mrs. Orvis Watson home on Wednes- ing and spiritual meeting to be day of last week.

of Osceola Mills, Miss Ruth Whith- burg, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas, enjoy these golden opportunities to erite of Harrisburg, Mrs. Lydia Ir- spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. do good. Let's all get back to God. win, and daughter Florence of Willard Emenhizer and family at Our entire nation needs a thorough home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisher. Day with home folks at Axe Mann. our security as a nation. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Reese and Milesburg, were visitors on Christ- daughter of Gum Stump, visited monthly business at the home of mas Day with his father, Robert relatives at this place on Friday. husband, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Watson of Washington, Pa., and was also enjoyed by all present. At

was a visitor on Christmas eve, at daughter of Pleasant Gap, were re- ensuing year: Harry Crader, presicent visitors at the Watson home.

Mr. and Mrs. I will layou an Everybody can'tell you how to secretary; C. hat would be the corresponding secy.; Trovola Stov-christmas day to supper at the make a success out of your life but corresponding secy.; Trovola Stov-home of his parents, Mr, and Mrs. you are the only person who can the make a success out of your life but corresponding secy.; Trovola Stov-er, financial treas., Mrs. C. E. Kreamer, missionary treas. Let all

Old folks who do a lot of criticising young folk might do more Those who were present: Mr. and good by reforming some of the old-and Mrs. George Davidson and envising that young men tell them. o'clock. It certainly was an im-children, Misses Margaret, May and there would be fewer marriages.

Poster avenue, spent Monday Tuesday in Harrisburg.

R. D. NO 1.

and spent a day.

again

Α,

of Altoona.

who preceded him in death just eleven days prior to his. PORT MATILDA

BOALSBURG

Miss Mary Lou Fisher of Hunt-

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lindeman and children, Bobby and Tommy,

are visiting friends and relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown, of

Mr. and Mrs. John Stover, of

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hess.

Along an Taligan

daughter, Mrs. Harrison

ingdon, spent a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. George Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Collett spent three days of the Christmas holldays with Mrs. Colletts son Paul I. merce building in Pittsburgh, spent Lego of Conemaugh. Then he mothe Christmas holidays with her tored back and brought them home parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Patterson.

Ellsworth Beckwith's family have Miss Eleanor Ishler, of Williamsall been on the sick list for two port, spent her Christmas vacation weeks but are better at this writing. with her parents, Mr, and Mrs. Mrs. Anna Duey has been con-George Ishler. fined to her home two weeks with Dr. and Mrs. David Ailman, of Lo Grippe, but is able to be around

Wyandotte, Michigan, spent a few days with the latter's parents, Mr. John Brightbill spent Christmas with his sister. Mrs. Hugh Leighty and Mrs. E. W. Hess. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Segner

Mr. and Mrs. Max Rorabaugh and and family of Huntingdon, spent twin daughters of Tyrone, spent Christmas Day at the Charles Seg-Sunday with their cousin, Mrs. M. ner home. Kerin. Also other visitors at Miss Anna Dale, of State College, the home were Mr. and Mrs. Sheris visiting for a few days with her burg.

ingdon

man, Miss Jane Schell, Miss Betty sister, Mrs. Harry McGirk. Grazier and Mahlone Fink of Ty-Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lewis and rone. Mrs. George Fisher spent Friday

Mr. and Mrs. James Rorabaugh evening at the Harold Fisher home of Tyrone, spent Saturday with her in Huntingdon. sister of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hosterman

Many lawns were fixed up beautifully for Christmas. Lowrence Way's home and lawn at Bald Eagle Mrs. Charles Hosterman, at Greenswas a sight never to be forgotten. A dance was held at the Bald Eagle Grange on Friday night. The next Grange night the second Tuesday in January, will be a sauerkraut supper. They would like to have a large crowd.

WOODWARD

Well, a Happy New Year to all at Myersdale Mrs. Frank Gardner has returned tre Democrat. Just check up on yourself and see how many times visiting friends and relatives at you'll write 1939 on your checks and Washington, D. C. Mrs. Harrison Shawley Revival services began in the Thursday in Lewistown, visiting Evangelical church on the last friends and relatives. Bellefonte, spent the weekend with their Shawley in-Altoona, spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. William Stover.

revival. In getting back to God Mr. and Mrs. Paul Coxey and children, of Greensburg, spent a few days with the latter's parents,

The E. L. C. E. society held their Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sheesley last Fri-Cecil Miller of Ruffsdale, Merril day evening. A fine social hour Clyde Watson of Milesburg, Mr. this business meeting the follow-Miss Pearl Zellers of Mingoville, and Mrs. George Magargel and ing officers were elected for the dent; Carl Motz, Jr., vice president; Tillie Bowersox, recording secretary; C. Harwood Kreamer, the County C. E. officers copy this

> Fultz, whose death you noticed the Centre Democrat, was held in Woodward Evangelical church the former's mother, Mrs. George Fish-Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Barner and Miss Lucille Patterson, who is daughter, Peggy Lou, of Lock Haemployed in the Chamber of Com- ven, spent Sunday with Mr. and

Mrs. Sterl Kunes and family, SPRING MILLS

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fisher of Huntingdon, spent Sunday with the

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hettinger, and Mrs. Harry Shreckengast of Farmers Mills, and Mr. Rufus Hettinger of Sunbury, and Miss Sosella Hettinger spent New Year's Day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Decker near Centre Hall where they were treated to a sumptuous turkey dinner, which they all enjoyed very much, as Mrs. Decker knows how to prepare.

The biggest hogs that we have any information of were butchered by Mr. Miles Decker, one weighed 825 lbs, live weight, same was weighed at Bradford's grain house. and the next largest were at D H Slegals dressed 600 a piece.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Long and sister Lottie Hettinger of Liverpool, spent a day recently at the home spent the weekend with Mr. and of her brother, E. C. Hettinger, afterwards made a business trip to Bellefonte.

Miss Mary Segner spent Friday Mrs. Eleanor spent last Monday at the T. B. Segner home at Huntat Millheim where she transacted some business.

LITTLE NITTANY

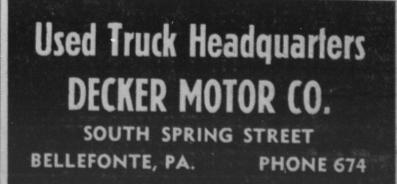

Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Clark and daughter Martha, visited Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Randall at Jersey Shore.

We are sorry to note that Mr. home after spending a few weeks Willard Harter is on the sick list at the present time.

Those who spent last Sunday at the Elizabeth Delaney home were: Joseph Piccalo, Lawrence Kesling, Thomas Kesling, Florence ,Verna, Mary, and Gloria Dullen of Williamsport, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Laubach and family and Mr. and Mrs. Pheras Eck and family of Jersey Shore, James Delaney and Sumner Auman of Centre Hall and Virginia Bennison, Correct this sentence: "I would have paid him this bill long ago. but for his insulting collection Miss Gladys Hazel of Glassboro, methods."

· Finishing the Barner in the BEFER State in a state of the second of the spent

Mrs. John Kelly and children evening of the old year, 1939, Dec. sure. Everybody is heartily election. The funeral services for John H. If young ladies did not believe ev- last Thursday forenoon at 10:30

