

UNIONVILLE

Free Methodist Church Services: Services each night this week of a Evangelistic nature...

Methodist Church Services: Prayer service this Thursday evening, Sunday School Sunday morning...

Ladies Aid Meeting: The members of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church met on Monday evening...

Presbyterian Church Services: Bible study class Monday evening at 8 o'clock, Sunday School Sunday afternoon...

Tax Reminder: Don't forget to pay your tax some time before February 1st...

Miss Eva Rowan entertained the ladies of the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church last Thursday evening...

Mrs. Amanda Way has at her guests this week and over the past weekend, Mrs. Eva Dawson of Bellefonte, Pa.

Mrs. Ruel Lucas and two children Walter and Jean spent part of the Christmas vacation with her sister in Chicago, Ill.

The monthly business meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held on Wednesday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Nannie Williams.

Mrs. John Tallhelm has recently been employed at the new County Home in Bellefonte as cook...

Mrs. W. H. Barton spent several days over the Christmas holidays with her daughter and husband...

Mrs. Blanche Poorman of Bellefonte, who has been ill for some time past, is now being cared for at the home of Mrs. Harriet Askins...

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Robison and sons motored to Corning, N. Y., on Sunday and were guests of their sons, Harry, Basil and Winfield, Harold Fisher drove the car for them.

We are glad to learn that Miss Alice Brugger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger, and who had been confined to her room for several weeks past, is improving and able to be down stairs with the rest of the family...

Mrs. Norman Fisher of Union Township is a patient in the Centre County Hospital having been admitted last Friday evening for treatment and observation. Her children are being cared for by her mother, Mrs. Boyd Lucas...

Mrs. Marion Stere, who has been a patient in the Mercy hospital at Pittsburgh for the past several weeks, made an over night visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Stere...

Mr. and Mrs. James Stern, of Pittsburgh had a business trip to this section and brought Marion with him, they left for home on Thursday. Marion is improving rapidly but is still under treatment at the hospital and staying with his brother.

PLEASANT GAP

Mrs. Roy Adams had the misfortune of falling while skating Monday evening and hurting her back quite badly.

Jared Evoy of near Bellefonte, spent Tuesday evening at the Noll-Melroy home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Noll received word Tuesday of the death of Mr. Paul Stover at his home at Duncannon that day, of pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Weaver of State College, were Sunday evening callers at the A. A. Garrett home.

The Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. William Dixon on Saturday with a good attendance and an interesting program.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mabius of Bellefonte, spent Friday evening at the C. E. Aley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley spent Sunday afternoon at the James Decker home of Lock Haven.

Callers on Tuesday evening of last week at the William Beightol home were Alice Betz and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. James Lucas, Arline Swope and Vivian Wolfe.

Arthur Dolan was a Friday evening supper guest at the Sumner Noll home.

Elmer Swope and daughters Arline and Vivian spent Sunday evening at the Harry Miller home of Snydertown.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lucas spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Miller at Lock Haven.

Sunday supper guests at the William Beightol home were Clair Beightol, Iva Berry, Mildred Hezel of Lock Haven, and Willard Weaver of this place.

Mrs. James Shaffer and daughter Charlotte were Monday callers at the Floyd Long home.

Mrs. Lucy Conaway was a Sunday dinner guest of her son Robert Conaway and family.

Mrs. Florence Roseman and daughter Shirley of Mill Hill, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Dietz and family, Sunday afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. George White and daughter Connie.

Mrs. James Lucas spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Alice Betz.

Miss June Yearick spent Saturday night and Sunday with her friend Miss Betty Aley.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon of Lock Haven, spent Sunday evening with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon.

Kathryn McCrea, Betty Aley and June Yearick spent Sunday afternoon with Norma Yearick.

Mrs. William Beightol and children Louise and Earl were Sunday afternoon visitors at the William Harter home and was very glad to see them.

BANNER YEAR PREDICTED FOR COLLEGES IN U. S. Junior colleges and small colleges throughout the United States should have enrollment increases ranging from six to eighteen per cent in 1940...

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Struble had as their guests Miss Sara Cable and Edgar Osborne of Lewistown, Saturday evening and Mr. and Mrs. William Krone Sunday evening.

Dean and Jack Miller arrived here from Alliquippa Tuesday evening to see their mother, Mrs. Elsie Miller who has been so critically ill in the Lewistown hospital for a number of weeks, but death claimed her at 10:15 a few minutes before they reached her bedside.

Rev. Russell of State College has filled the pulpit at the M. E. church for the past two Sundays.

THE STATE COURT UPHOLDS DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S ACTION The state supreme court has ruled that a district attorney cannot be prevented by the law from enforcing the law.

In nullifying a Crawford county common pleas court injunction restraining District Attorney Herbert A. Monk from prosecuting the Meadville, Pa., Park Theatre company for operating "bank nights," Justice George W. Maxey declared...

Payments for direct relief in Centre County for the week ending Tuesday, show a minor increase over those of the previous week, although $218 below disbursements for the comparable week in 1939, according to a report from State Treasurer F. Clair Ross' office.

Disbursements for the current week were $3,733.10, made in 667 checks. Disbursements last week were $3,678, made in 633 checks. Disbursements last year were $3,951.40, made in 619 checks.

The high court placed the costs of the case on the Meadville Theatre company.

Traveling Library For Clinton The Clinton County Commissioners considered the possibility of establishing a traveling library in Clinton county at their meeting Tuesday and will confer with N. L. Bariges, county superintendent of schools, in regard to the operation of a library wagon.

Regular Army Enlistments. Enlistments in the regular army have been so many it is believed that the required strength will soon be attained. All qualified young men who have thought of enlisting should do so at once, certainly before the end of January. There remain vacancies for most all branches for duty in the United States and foreign possessions, unmarried young men, ages 16-30, of good character and health are eligible.

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Sunday, Jan. 14th, are as follows: Sunday School 9:30 and C. E. 6:45, topic for discussion "What It Means to Live to Do His Will."

Miss Eleanor Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler and son Harry Jr. and grandson Taylor Doherty of Howard, were New Year's Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Vonada, evening callers were Mrs. Nora Weight of Howard and Mrs. Ted Dixon and children of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley were Tuesday afternoon callers at the Irvin Albright home at Salona, and the Albert Thompson home of Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Weaver of State College, were Sunday evening callers at the A. A. Garrett home.

The Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. William Dixon on Saturday with a good attendance and an interesting program.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mabius of Bellefonte, spent Friday evening at the C. E. Aley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley spent Sunday afternoon at the James Decker home of Lock Haven.

Callers on Tuesday evening of last week at the William Beightol home were Alice Betz and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. James Lucas, Arline Swope and Vivian Wolfe.

Arthur Dolan was a Friday evening supper guest at the Sumner Noll home.

Elmer Swope and daughters Arline and Vivian spent Sunday evening at the Harry Miller home of Snydertown.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lucas spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Miller at Lock Haven.

Sunday supper guests at the William Beightol home were Clair Beightol, Iva Berry, Mildred Hezel of Lock Haven, and Willard Weaver of this place.

Mrs. James Shaffer and daughter Charlotte were Monday callers at the Floyd Long home.

Mrs. Lucy Conaway was a Sunday dinner guest of her son Robert Conaway and family.

Mrs. Florence Roseman and daughter Shirley of Mill Hill, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Dietz and family, Sunday afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. George White and daughter Connie.

Mrs. James Lucas spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Alice Betz.

Miss June Yearick spent Saturday night and Sunday with her friend Miss Betty Aley.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon of Lock Haven, spent Sunday evening with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon.

Kathryn McCrea, Betty Aley and June Yearick spent Sunday afternoon with Norma Yearick.

Mrs. William Beightol and children Louise and Earl were Sunday afternoon visitors at the William Harter home and was very glad to see them.

BANNER YEAR PREDICTED FOR COLLEGES IN U. S. Junior colleges and small colleges throughout the United States should have enrollment increases ranging from six to eighteen per cent in 1940...

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Struble had as their guests Miss Sara Cable and Edgar Osborne of Lewistown, Saturday evening and Mr. and Mrs. William Krone Sunday evening.

Dean and Jack Miller arrived here from Alliquippa Tuesday evening to see their mother, Mrs. Elsie Miller who has been so critically ill in the Lewistown hospital for a number of weeks, but death claimed her at 10:15 a few minutes before they reached her bedside.

Rev. Russell of State College has filled the pulpit at the M. E. church for the past two Sundays.

THE STATE COURT UPHOLDS DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S ACTION The state supreme court has ruled that a district attorney cannot be prevented by the law from enforcing the law.

In nullifying a Crawford county common pleas court injunction restraining District Attorney Herbert A. Monk from prosecuting the Meadville, Pa., Park Theatre company for operating "bank nights," Justice George W. Maxey declared...

Payments for direct relief in Centre County for the week ending Tuesday, show a minor increase over those of the previous week, although $218 below disbursements for the comparable week in 1939, according to a report from State Treasurer F. Clair Ross' office.

Disbursements for the current week were $3,733.10, made in 667 checks. Disbursements last week were $3,678, made in 633 checks. Disbursements last year were $3,951.40, made in 619 checks.

The high court placed the costs of the case on the Meadville Theatre company.

Traveling Library For Clinton The Clinton County Commissioners considered the possibility of establishing a traveling library in Clinton county at their meeting Tuesday and will confer with N. L. Bariges, county superintendent of schools, in regard to the operation of a library wagon.

Regular Army Enlistments. Enlistments in the regular army have been so many it is believed that the required strength will soon be attained. All qualified young men who have thought of enlisting should do so at once, certainly before the end of January. There remain vacancies for most all branches for duty in the United States and foreign possessions, unmarried young men, ages 16-30, of good character and health are eligible.

Church services on Sunday, Jan. 14th, are as follows: Sunday School 9:30 and C. E. 6:45, topic for discussion "What It Means to Live to Do His Will."

Miss Eleanor Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Butler and son Harry Jr. and grandson Taylor Doherty of Howard, were New Year's Day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Vonada, evening callers were Mrs. Nora Weight of Howard and Mrs. Ted Dixon and children of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bartley were Tuesday afternoon callers at the Irvin Albright home at Salona, and the Albert Thompson home of Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Newton Weaver of State College, were Sunday evening callers at the A. A. Garrett home.

The Ladies Aid Society met at the home of Mrs. William Dixon on Saturday with a good attendance and an interesting program.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mabius of Bellefonte, spent Friday evening at the C. E. Aley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bartley spent Sunday afternoon at the James Decker home of Lock Haven.

Callers on Tuesday evening of last week at the William Beightol home were Alice Betz and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. James Lucas, Arline Swope and Vivian Wolfe.

Arthur Dolan was a Friday evening supper guest at the Sumner Noll home.

Elmer Swope and daughters Arline and Vivian spent Sunday evening at the Harry Miller home of Snydertown.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lucas spent Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Miller at Lock Haven.

Sunday supper guests at the William Beightol home were Clair Beightol, Iva Berry, Mildred Hezel of Lock Haven, and Willard Weaver of this place.

Mrs. James Shaffer and daughter Charlotte were Monday callers at the Floyd Long home.

Mrs. Lucy Conaway was a Sunday dinner guest of her son Robert Conaway and family.

Mrs. Florence Roseman and daughter Shirley of Mill Hill, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. John Dietz and family, Sunday afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. George White and daughter Connie.

Mrs. James Lucas spent Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Alice Betz.

Miss June Yearick spent Saturday night and Sunday with her friend Miss Betty Aley.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon of Lock Haven, spent Sunday evening with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon.

Kathryn McCrea, Betty Aley and June Yearick spent Sunday afternoon with Norma Yearick.

Mrs. William Beightol and children Louise and Earl were Sunday afternoon visitors at the William Harter home and was very glad to see them.

BANNER YEAR PREDICTED FOR COLLEGES IN U. S. Junior colleges and small colleges throughout the United States should have enrollment increases ranging from six to eighteen per cent in 1940...

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Struble had as their guests Miss Sara Cable and Edgar Osborne of Lewistown, Saturday evening and Mr. and Mrs. William Krone Sunday evening.

Dean and Jack Miller arrived here from Alliquippa Tuesday evening to see their mother, Mrs. Elsie Miller who has been so critically ill in the Lewistown hospital for a number of weeks, but death claimed her at 10:15 a few minutes before they reached her bedside.

Rev. Russell of State College has filled the pulpit at the M. E. church for the past two Sundays.

THE STATE COURT UPHOLDS DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S ACTION The state supreme court has ruled that a district attorney cannot be prevented by the law from enforcing the law.

In nullifying a Crawford county common pleas court injunction restraining District Attorney Herbert A. Monk from prosecuting the Meadville, Pa., Park Theatre company for operating "bank nights," Justice George W. Maxey declared...

Payments for direct relief in Centre County for the week ending Tuesday, show a minor increase over those of the previous week, although $218 below disbursements for the comparable week in 1939, according to a report from State Treasurer F. Clair Ross' office.

Disbursements for the current week were $3,733.10, made in 667 checks. Disbursements last week were $3,678, made in 633 checks. Disbursements last year were $3,951.40, made in 619 checks.

The high court placed the costs of the case on the Meadville Theatre company.

Traveling Library For Clinton The Clinton County Commissioners considered the possibility of establishing a traveling library in Clinton county at their meeting Tuesday and will confer with N. L. Bariges, county superintendent of schools, in regard to the operation of a library wagon.

Regular Army Enlistments. Enlistments in the regular army have been so many it is believed that the required strength will soon be attained. All qualified young men who have thought of enlisting should do so at once, certainly before the end of January. There remain vacancies for most all branches for duty in the United States and foreign possessions, unmarried young men, ages 16-30, of good character and health are eligible.

REED IS CHAIRMAN OF 'GIVE A DIME' CAMPAIGN

Orvis Reed, of Bellefonte, president of the Centre County Central Labor Union, has been named chair in the living room and says that it is more pleasant and convenient.

Callers at the Miles Bartley home on Sunday evening were Dorothy and Fred Betz and Arthur Bartley.

Miss Betty Aley spent Sunday night with her friend Miss June Yearick.

Edward Bland of Snow Shoe, was a caller one day last week at the home of Mrs. Lucy Conaway.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lucas accompanied by Mrs. Alice Betz spent Wednesday evening at the Harold Betz home at Howard, the main attraction was to see the new baby boy who came home from the hospital on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son, Paul of Bellefonte, were Sunday dinner guests at the E. R. Bartley home.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Neidigh and son, Robert of State College were Sunday afternoon callers at the Sumner Noll home.

On Saturday evening about six o'clock one of the worst car accidents that has happened here in several years happened in front of the Nevin Yearick store, when a Mr. Henry from Lock Haven came driving from Lewistown, to his home and hit Mr. Merrill Fetzer, who was standing on the road, injuring him critically. He was immediately taken to the Centre County Hospital where he died before morning. His parents and many friends have our deepest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

There are always people who believe in hard work and low pay for other people.

PERSONALS FROM BELLEFONTE'S NEIGHBORING CITY PINE GROVE MILLS

With many water wagons and trucks on the highway, the water situation is beginning to be real serious in most sections.

Mr. Charles Gearhart and bride are arranging to start housekeeping in an apartment with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mothersbaugh of Boalsburg.

Insurance Agent and Banker, J. Milo Campbell of State College was a business visitor in our town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Irvin and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Eberhart were New Year's Day dinner guests at the Roy Gates home in Sinking Valley.

Miss Anna Jane Musser has accepted a nice clerical position with the National Youth Administration in State College office.

Among the gripe victims this week are Mrs. R. W. Reed, Willis Weaver and Mrs. Besse Corl.

Many folks from this section are preparing to attend the Penna. Farm Show at Harrisburg next week which promises to be better and bigger than ever.

Reports are that after April 1st, 1940 the Leonard Rudy family of Tusseyville will till the M. B. Musser farm on the Branch.

One of Half Moon's progressive farmers Harry Fisher and family were dinner guests the first day of 1940 at their sons home, Rev. and Mrs. James Fisher at the Lutheran parsonage.

Mr. LeRoy Barto, one of contractor Arthur P. Stevens' boss carpenters was off duty the past week on account of an injured hip sustained while at work recently.

The popular cow driver Mr. S. P. Fisher of Lycoming County was in our midst last week in quest of good fresh cows but found them scarce and very hard to buy, worth the money.

At the L. K. Metzgar dam in Baileyville on Sunday a large crowd enjoyed the excellent skating, just 89 cars and one bus load at one time in the meadows, despite the zero weather.

Mrs. Wilbur Dodd was a business caller in State College last Friday A. M.

Retired merchant Harry N. Musser and wife are skipping their usual custom of spending the winter months in the sunny south, Florida, and are enjoying the winter in their cozy home at Strubles Station near State College.

Reports from Roy Strouse at the Buffalo Hospital, is most gratifying to his many friends, his condition is much improved since minor operations last week.

Miss Esther Corl is spending some time in Juniata a guest of her sister and family, Mrs. Florence Wogan.

Continued on Page 7

MILESBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Centobene, Crawford Avenue, Altoona, tendered a dinner to a company of friends on Dec. 23rd, and at this time announced the engagement of their son Andrew to Miss Ruth Gingham, daughter of Mrs. Hilda Gingham, 1208 Washington Avenue, Altoona. The wedding date will be set later. Among those who attended the dinner were guests from Altoona, Tyrone, Baltimore, Rochester, Bellefonte and Milesburg. The bride-to-be is well known here having visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Bryan frequently. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan and son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Meyer attended the dinner. Another guest was Miss Anne Stere.

The M. Y. W. Class of the Methodist Sunday School will meet this Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary Hall Bryan.

Mrs. Annie Whitman is confined to her bed with a fractured rib and a bad cold.

William Shawley, Jr. is quite ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Bryan, attended the fur show at the Gable Department Store, in Altoona, Saturday.

L. G. Peters has purchased the James Startha home.

Miss Martha Brillhart, William Yates and Mrs. L. G. Peters, attended the wedding of Miss Brillhart's nephew at Lock Haven on Thursday, last.

DISCARDED. Driobed of its tinsel And gay colored light, Which shone so brightly On Christmas night, Driobed of its ornaments, Presents and such, It really don't amount to much. It's been thrown on the dump Just beyond town, And its bright green needles Are fast turning brown. Like all good things, That just don't last, Our Christmas tree, Is a thing of the past. But it gave us joy while it was here, And lent to the house A festive air. And we now look forward To another year, When a Christmas tree Will bring us cheer. L. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Moore, of Montoursville, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Mabel Kenkins and mother.

The "Win One" Class of the Reformed Sunday School will meet at the home of Mrs. Lee Dorman this Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Pifer spent Tuesday in Williamsport at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard DeVicor.

Mrs. Kate Weber and daughter Nelle, were Friday shoppers in Williamsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Robb and daughter Janice, returned to their home in Baltimore, Saturday after several weeks, visit in Howard and vicinity. Mr. and Mrs. Robb made their stopping place at the Mr. William Robb home.

There is now quite an epidemic of chicken pox among the pupils of the first and second grades.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met with Mrs. Mayme Shaw on Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Pore are both quite ill at this writing. Mrs. Pore has suffered a near attack of pneumonia, and was taken to the Lock Haven Hospital on Sunday.

Earl Shilling is greatly improved from his recent illness.

Mrs. Tillie Gonsalus is again grandmother, as a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arlington Gonsalus of Lock Haven on Monday.

Mary Belle Miller daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller spent the weekend with her grandmother, who is employed at Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lucas also Mrs. Joseph Butler of Runville, were callers in our village, Friday.

Mrs. Ellis Hiram is visiting with her sisters Mrs. Mollie Leathers and Mrs. H. Alkey.

Mrs. H. E. Leathers and daughter Miss Alice also Mrs. Lilly Bryan, spent Sunday p. m. at Pleasant Valley at the Irvin Confer home.

Eugene Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Lucas, is a patient in the Centre County Hospital. The family have our every hope for him a speedy recovery.

We are having winter to the full extent at present.

J. P. McCartney, who is working at Beaver, spent the weekend with home folks.

The ladies of the M. E. church are having a chicken and waffle supper on Jan. 27 at the home of S. R. McCartney of Mt. Eagle. Come and help a good cause.

L. L. McCartney is building a bungalow in our community.

BLANCHARD

Preaching services at the Baptist church on Sunday morning, at that time the Ordinance of Communion will be observed.

The children of the vicinity serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Miller at the Ward Packer home on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Robert Besty, daughter, Virginia, Mrs. Hayes Pletcher and Mrs. Harris Confer motored to State College last Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mr. William Spotts, an uncle of Mrs. Besty and Mrs. Pletcher's.

Miss Jane Bolopue was able to return to her work in Lock Haven last week after suffering a sprained ankle, which caused her to be recuperating at her home during the holidays.

There is now quite an epidemic of chicken pox among the pupils of the first and second grades.

The regular meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met with Mrs. Mayme Shaw on Wednesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Pore are both quite ill at this writing. Mrs. Pore has suffered a near attack of pneumonia, and was taken to the Lock Haven Hospital on Sunday.

Earl Shilling is greatly improved from his recent illness.

Mrs. Tillie Gonsalus is again grandmother, as a daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Arlington Gonsalus of Lock Haven on Monday.

Mary Belle Miller daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Miller spent the weekend with her grandmother, who is employed at Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lucas also Mrs. Joseph Butler of Runville, were callers in our village, Friday.

Mrs. Ellis Hiram is visiting with her sisters Mrs. Mollie Leathers and Mrs. H. Alkey.

Mrs. H. E. Leathers and daughter Miss Alice also Mrs. Lilly Bryan, spent Sunday p. m. at Pleasant Valley at the Irvin Confer home.

Eugene Lucas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milford Lucas, is a patient in the Centre County Hospital. The family have our every hope for him a speedy recovery.

We are having winter to the full extent at present.

J. P. McCartney, who is working at Beaver, spent the weekend with home folks.

The ladies of the M. E. church are having a chicken and waffle supper on Jan. 27 at the home of S. R. McCartney of Mt. Eagle. Come and help a good cause.

L. L. McCartney is building a bungalow in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lucas also Mrs. Joseph Butler of Runville, were callers in our village, Friday.