

Dereneaux, 81, and the chauffeur were killed in the subsequent collision with a telephone pole and her daughter, Mrs. Irma Riegel, was severely injured.

Biggest Kick An Oil City Civil War cavalryman, celebrating his 99th birthday, Saturday, declared "I'm getting my biggest kick right now out of the way Finland is licking the Russians." He is Capt. Daniel Fisher, former mayor, councilman and Oil City's first fire chief.

Some Cake

had a birthday last week, so his for the murder of Edward C. Fisher, staff thought something ought to be his WPA foreman. done in a big way. The boys pitched in and ordered the largest birth- ed to the higher court with the reday cake ever made in Pittsburgn, quest that the conviction be set at least the largest in recent years. aside on the grounds that the jury It's 4 feet high, has 22 layers and had been improperly charged and cost $100.

Five Sets of Twins

For the fifth time in six years. Mr. and Mrs. Bud Chafin, of Logan, term of Northumberland county Va., are the parents of twins. The court of killing Fisher with a pis-next to the last set of twins were tol while they worked on a Lower born last January 18 and were Augusta township project. promptly named Franklin D, and On April 20 the foreman handed promptly named Franklin D. and On April 20 the foreman handed Eleanor R. Chafin in honor of the Schurtz a notice that unless he President and Mrs. Roosevelt.

Watchdog Stolen

During a shopping tour. Mrs. notice. Fisher refused. Schurtz held in Bellefonte in August of 1884. All day long the rattle of the blue uniform and the classic eagle ice. And when Pennsylvania decided drum, the music of the bands, the of liberty I handed the surrendered voluntarily.

in which she and her daughter were directly for their house and crash wreck. The front frame of the truck riding, in New York, Mrs. Cora into the corner of the wall and had pushed into the coal cellar affront steps. The impact of the crash slightly and knocking down a fence. stunned Mrs. Peters and her neign-

WPA Worker Must Die For Crime

New Trial Refused For Northumberland Man Who Killed Boss

The State Supreme Court last week ruled that Andrew Schurtz, a Northumberland county WPA work-Sheriff John Heinz, of Pittsburgh er, must die in the electric chair

> Counsel for Schurtz had appealhad heard "improper remarks" by the Northumberland county district attorney. The State Court refused to grant a new trial. Schurtz was convicted at the May

"gave more attention to his work"

To Rob L. O. O. M.

Back Up to Rear of Club

Building and Steal 5

Slot Machines

Slot machines valued at $1000.

from Lewistown Lodge of police reported, were stolen Sunday club building and loaded the five ter going over a seven-inch curb Relatives Gather To Attend Funeral; Find 'Corpse' Alive Police said damage to the truck was estimated at approximately $500. A cargo of soft drinks was They came in sorrow and left riving in Williamsport, and drove to only slightly damaged in the crash, with joy in their hearts because the Linden only to find Mr. Bixler out ton last week. nly three bottles being broken. man whose funeral they expected to feeding his chickens.

attend was alive, in good health and Mr. Bixler had been puzzled by the WOMAN RECEIVES TREATMENT in fact out feeding the chickens. many floral pieces delivered to his AFTER ACCIDENT AT PORT

LeRoy R. Bixler, Linden, Lycoming his "funeral," Injured when the car she was riding in crashed against a bridge abutment at Port Matilda last Wedries of events recorded for years. nesday afternoon Mrs. G. E. Potter of Pittsburgh was treated for injuries at the Philipsburg State hos- services were placed on the grave pital where she was taken. ago Monday.

Mrs. Potter, who suffered a lip Thursday, Dr. O. E. Salter, Sha of a car operated by her husband mokin, Mr. Bixler's brother-in-law, injury, was riding in the front seat when the car left the road and received what appeared to be a form announcement from an undertaker struck the abutment. saying: "Roy is dead. Notify relaoperated by Walter Hol- tives. Services 2 p. m. Sunday." Motor police said Potter's car and a truck lopeter of Luchersburg were travel-Ing in the same direction at the less the hub for the large group of R. F. D. Osceola Mills. They are Field, Va., two sisters, Miss Rose, at time of the wreck. Potter, accord- relatives in all sections of the state, expected to be sent to Fort Zragg, home, and Mrs. Joseph Golia, of ing to motor police, may have been notified each member of the family North Carolina, and assigned to Eddystone. and Sunday morning they began ar- the 36th Field Artillery. crowded off the road.

Such was the case of relatives of home, not realizing they were for county, who on Sunday were in-volved in one of the strangest se-sections of the state, stayed during

G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT IN 1884

Thefts In Clinton 307 Camp Sites ton County burgharies believed to acres in the western part of Centre, the afternoon, and the family en-Flowers sent to his home for the joyed an unannounced reunion. Dr. Salter states that the postof Mrs. Bixler, who died just a year mark on the letter was blurred.

To Enlist in Army Service

Two young men from Philipsburg area were accepted for army service last week. They are Richard Phillips, son of Mrs. Della Phillips, R. D. Houtzdale, and Philbert

In Sproul Forest

ins Have Total Value of $131,000 which embraces an area of 215,000 giving up an automatic pistol and telling them he had "enjoyed watching the lights" of their flash-Clinton County Coroner's Jury lights

Hann, married, father of six, and possessor of a good reputation among his neighbors of that rugged rural countryside, was accused of killing Criminal Investigator Sut-

Sutton, about 24 years old and a shot outside a remaurant while talking with Hann and Constable John Regi. The trooper had been assigned to help the constablewho had been in office only since the previous Monday-serve a war-morning at the All Saints' Catholic Church, Mercer, Burial was made in Harrisville, near there. Sutton is survived, in addition to his par-Lock Haven were: Dr. Edward Hob-erman, Edward G. Haines, Mill ents, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Sutton, by three brothers, Thomas and John, Hall R. D.; the Misses Evelyn and NEWSPAPER GOSSIP Betty Richey, sisters of the deceased: Miss Frances Merrill, pas-

Last rites were administered Sut-

College faculty member, and Miss Geraldine Stehmen, Teachers Colagain after suffering a slight attack

Members of the jury were S. M. Bickford, Brady A. Beck, J. E.

and Centre Hall Reporter have been senger in the car, Chief M. J. Petsold are denied by those in a posiers, City Engineer Warren H. Ohl. tion to know Robert MoGill, assistant engineer, Dr. Kenton Vickery, State Teachers RECOVERY NOTE This department is glad to see Police Officer Ralph Eyer about

ing of the inside tracks, and a freight train disappearing on the other inside track. Unless we're wrong, the two inside tracks of the Pennsylvania's main line are exclusively for passenger traffic. The two outside tracks are for freight use only. The apparent mistake makes no difference to anyone but persons who are slightly balmy about railroad-

Dr. Richards H. Hoffman of Bellefonte, is hobbying an infant moustache these days. He declared that Jergen's letion to keep his hands in Reports that the Millheim Journal

Have you heard the interesting good condition of the measles. One prominent Bellefonte business man, unusually finicky about the appearance of his hair, goes to his ORDERED TO PAY $110 barber every Tuesday and Friday as regular as clockwork, for a hair lege student.

Johnson, LeRoy Mader, A. J. Vir-gilis and Miss Elizabeth McCloskey.

he would be dropped from the pro-ject. The next morning. Schurtz demanded that Fisher withdraw the notice. Fisher refused. Schurtz held in Bellefonte in August of 1884. Held ar long the lag long the ratile of the held ar long the lag long the lag long the ratile of the held ar long the lag long the worthless $50 check.

Both drivers in the automobile crash in front of the Lock Haven Teachers' College, November 3, member of the force since 1937, was 1939, that resulted in the death of rant charging Hann with passing a The pistol bullet, apparently fired through an overcoat pocket plerced Sutton's abdomen. Requiem mass was said Saturday Ernest Richey, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Richey, Dunnstown, PROFESSIONAL MENTION were exonerated of blame Thursday afternoon by a Clinton county coroner's jury. After deliberating for more than Cam Heverly started one at the one hour, the jury ruled that "from same time but couldn't stand the the evidence submitted we can not gaff and has shaved it away. place blame or negligent driving Dr. Richard P. Noll, well known on the part of either Miss Evelyn Bellefonte dentist, was mentioned Richey or Edward G. Haines, drivduring the Walter Winchell broaders of the cars." cast Sunday night. The announcer, Witnesses called by Dr. W. J. in plugging the sponsor of the pro-Shoemaker, Clinton county coroner, gram, declared that Dr. Noll uses in the action held at City Hall in year-old German shepherd her automobile to guard her Christfound the watchdog had been Thieves Use Truck mas packages. When she returned, stolen but the packages were touched.

Exonerates Both

Drivers

Doubtful Samaritan

Harley Toland, 60, of Lincoln, Neb., isn't so sure he will play the of good Samaritan again. When he attempted to caution a motorist against crossing a bridge, he was blinded by the car's lights. stepped into a hole and broke his night machines on the truck. A rat trap which Eugene Ramsey, The thieves drove away while the a carpenter of Burgaw, N. C., tried to set snapped prematurely on his fingers. Whereupon Ramsey angrily threw the trap under the kitchen killed it.

Aw, Rats

Mont., recently found a quarter in officers and State motor police. a rubbish heap. It was dated 1876. and was found to be worth $199.

He's Got 'Ligion

A thief broke into a Methodist twelve months. Without charge church, at Dallas, Texas. All he for our advice, may we suggest. "Drive cautionsly always." look was a Bible

Application For Farm Loans Should Be Made At This Time

Calling attention to the familiar agement plans for the year. That i quotation. "If winter comes, can why we urge any farmer who feels spring be far behind?" Mr. Oakley that he will need a rehabilitation S. Havens, Supervisor of the Farm loan to come in as soon as possible viting eligible farmers to make Another reason exists for filing Episcopal church in 1876. Several planted No. tation loans. "Eligible farmers" in-clude those unable to obtain neces- debts are beyond the capacity of his patton, Emporium, Milton, Belloperating credit from the us- farm to pay. In such cases, Farm wood and Saxton. sources and willing to place Security attempts to secure friendtheir farms on an efficient operating ly adjustments between the farmer basis under trained supervision. Mr. and his creditors. This Farm Debt Havens, whose office is 234 East Adjustment Service is available also College Avenue, State College, han- to farmers who do not need FSA dles requests for assistance in Cen- credit.

tre and Blair countles.

Rural rehabilitation loans total-"It is none too early to apply for a loan for the new crop year," Mr. to 84 farm families in these coun-Havens stated. "You see, extending ties for the purchase of livestock. credit is only one of several steps taken to aid deserving farmers el-igible to take part in our rehabili-have started on the way to economtation program. First and foremost ic independence by following farm of those is the drawing up of a plans based on estimated producing farm management plan by the applicant and his wife with our help ing most of their subsistence needs on the farm.

will be used to put the family on Interested farmers may call at its feet, and that it will eventually the FSA office, 234 East College be repaid.

"Since each plan is based on the day between the hours of 9 a.m. individual farm's productive capac-ity and on the individual family's the hours of 9 a. m. and 1 p. m. needs, it often requires considerable Applications may also be mailed to time to draw up. Every spring, ap- the FSA office. plicants are turned away because they apply too late to permit the proper working out of farm man-one of the greatest events in the bawl of hackman. and the shrill The Encampment was held on piping of the lemonade and peanut history of the town. vendor, lent variety to the sounds what was then known as the old that confused and deafened the fair grounds, a location afterwards acquired by the Bellefonte Furnace crowds. Company near Coleville. Six hun-

At about five o'clock Saturday eve- that the flag should have the coatdred tents were erected on the ning the different Posts were at the of-arms of this great loyal State in position assigned them and at six the field and surrounded by stars the parade began to move. Over one and the thirtsen stripes of the Nadred tents were erected on the War veterans. It was estimated that the parade began to move. Over one and the thirteen stripes of the Na-War veterans. It was estimated that thousand veterans were in line ex- tional Government. I gave that flag nished appropriate music. Gregg Post, No. 95, of Bellefonte, clusive of bands.

constituted the reception committee. At the Diamond they were wel-The Encampment opened on Sat- comed by ex-Governor Curtin in flags and only two were lost in the at 6 p. m., and was witnessed by a urday, and from early morning un- the following words:

ed a truck up to the rear of the ing into town. Every conceivable duty of welcoming you to Belle- stalwart and patriotic men of mass of spectators. Hundreds of vehicle (except automobiles, of fonte. I welcome you for Centre Pennsylvania, who preserved the ladies dressed in white with lovely course) from the "one-hoss shay" to county. I welcome you for Pennsyl- flag of this great State, brought it plumes swaying gently to the zephthe beautiful and elegant bicycle, vania, I welcome you, veterans of back and it remains in the archives yrs, the bands in their elegant cos-coming train groaned beneath its you have saved to liberty and equal- saw you all, once before and you gation of Various Burglaries

liberty. I handed the regiments that the orphans of the soldiers serve liberty to humanity in this the great benevolence." country and teach liberty to all the world. Early in the war the governwas visited by throngs of people. er. ment of Pennsylvania determined The most important feature of the Weccacoe band of Philadelphia furto over three hundred thousand men myself. Two hundred and seventeen The first Dress Parade took place struggle, for the flag of the nation large crowd. The hill, sloping grad-Moose building by thieves who back- til late at night people kept flock- "I am assigned the very welcome was taken and borne by strong, ually from the race track was one janitor in an adjoining building was brought its load to town; every in- the war, for the great government of this State at Harrisburg now. I tumes with bright shining buttons, (Continued on Page 6)

Woman Charged

With Desertion

Last Week at State

College

W. S. Irvine, Bellefonte, R. D. 2, trim, Because of his penchant for of Pennsylvania the flag of the should be maintained and educated. was ordered to pay fines and costs well-trimmed hair, the barber has State and sent you to service to my heart went out in thanks for totaling $110 last Thursday morn- given the super-super customer a ning at Lock Haven police court special rate of 30 cents a cut, in-On Sunday the camping ground conducted by Alderman Allen Stern- stead of the regular 40-cent rate. S2 CHECK

Irvine, an elderly man, was little tale about a $2 check which is going the rounds of Centre county officialdom? The version we heard Irvine was arrested following an accident Wednesday evening at the has to do with forged endorsements, corner of Main and Grove streets, police investigations, men high in county government, and such things, His car collided with that of Harry Maybe we'll have a complete report R. Stevenson, Woolrich, whose automobile was damaged to the extent later. of $25. The amount of the damages STRAY DOGS to the Irvine car were not estimated With January 15-the date when but were more serious than to the all dogs must wear 1940 licensesother vehicle. No one was hurt. approaching rapidly, residents of Taken before Dr. George D. Green, rural areas report that many dog he was declared intoxicated. owners are taking their pets to the Irvine was traveling west on Main country and turning them loose street when Stevenson turned into rather than buy a new license. One the thoroughfare from Grove street. Boggs township woman reports that to date she has befriended three Huntingdon Newspaperman Diec stray dogs, and has found good Joseph G. Lesher, 84, former posthomes for all of them. Dog owners aster of Huntingdon and for the who no longer value their dogs Bronchial Attack Fatal to Authorities Making Investi- District Forester Reveals Cab- Jersey Shore Mother Arrested of the Huntingdon Monitor, died do well to destroy the animals rathpast 20 years publisher and editor above the price of a license would Friday morning at Orlando, Florida, er than turn them loose in the dead where he had been spending the of winter to shift for themselves. winter season. The remains were brought to Huntingdon where bur- SCHOOL BOARD ial was made Monday. According to We can't get over the admirable Mrs. Loretta Saar, 20, resident of Jersey Shore, was arrested in State a news dispatch Mr. Lesher was self-control this department dis-College last week at the home of found dead in his room in Orlando, played during the stormy early days an aunt after she allegedly left her Florida. Gas jets in his room were of the new school board. We didn't two children, both under four years found opened when his body was say a thing out of the way, although we often felt like it. And now we're glad we didn't, for with each meeting we get an increasing Cars driven by John Garner, of respect for the new board. There is Jersey Shore for a hearing. Justice State College, and Harry M. Stine, a healthy representation of all Hogeland, as theoretically each Crane placed the bail at $300 and of Port Matilda, R. D., collided at schools of thought, and when a matthe age of 17 he was converted and shortly thereafter dedicated his life cable chain were taken from a square mile. It is estimated that the committee the Lycoming of the Lycoming of the Lycoming of the taken from a the option from every possible and the Lycoming of the taken from a the option from every possible and the Lycoming of the taken from a the option from every possible and the taken from a take damage estimated at $10. Snow on 18 months of age and the other the road was assigned as the cause of the accident. No one was in-Governor James has fixed the tured.

Snow Causes Mishap

Breaks Hip While Skating Ross Meyer, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harper T. Meyer, of Osceola Mills, is suffering from broken hip sustained in a fall Monday of last week while skating on a pond near his home.

execution date for William H. Yeater, 58-yest-old Montour County fatmer, for the week beginning February 26. Yeager was convicted of first degree murder for the shot-gun- slaying of State Motor Policeman John E. Pessler, 30, who had gone to the farmer's home to serve a warrant.

understood the one child is about tal value of over $131,000. about three years, Several planted Norway spruce During the last big game season Christmas trees and a cook stove 2,346 names appeared on the rosters Well, let's suggest that 1940 is a cabin owned by Robert Rempe, of 665 persons camped in tents, trailgood year in which to read a book. Lock Haven, located in Lamar ers, etc., under temporary camp

What a person gets for nothing to be slightly over 9,100, and the State Forest during the past season, fishermen 23,273. The rangers re- and 53 bears.

cently prepared by District Forester Charges were filed allegedly by her permits. The forest rangers estimated the hunters on this State Porest ported 932 bucks killed on the Sproul at work. Thinking it was a garbage colstove. The trap hit a mouse and lector, the janitor failed to send in an alarm and the thieves made good Rey. Anderson their get-away. Dies at Age of 90 County Numerous Finger prints on a window ledge Quarter Grows to $100 and the tracks in the snow were Archie Harty, Jr., of Culbertson, photographed by police, Lewistown

Farmer to Die in Chair.

Well Known Retired M. E. Minister The Rev. Joseph Perguson An-derson, D. D., of Bellwood, for many Williamsport Motor Police, is as-lease in the Sproul State Forest, years a "brother beloved" in the sisting Sheriff D. Edward Grenoble Methodist Episcopal church, died in investigation of a series of Clinat the Altoona Hospital Friday afternoon of last week of a bronchial have been committed by the same county, according to a report re- of age, at her Jersey Shore home, discovered.

attack, after a week's illness. intruder. Largest of the thefts occurred at Chas. Hogeland, whose headquarters husband, Elmer Saar. Dr. Anderson was a native of 1850, the youngest of two children of David and Elizabeth Anderson and was the last of his family. At Bedford county, born March 17. the saw mill of John Wolfe, Logan to the Christian ministry. He was WPA shanty at Greenburr, Almond the cabins on these sites have an admitted to the Central Pennsylva- Showers told police. They were average value of $425 each, or a to-

Among the appointments he served were Williamsport, Altoona, were taken from the premises of a of these leabed camps. In addition son went to Bellwood as a retired minister, but his retirement was only nominal, as he was almost as rarely appreciated.

In the spring of 1925 Dr. Ander-Township.

busy in the years since then as when in the pastorate. For several years he served the church at

Mrs. Anderson died June 13, 1931. She was a daughter of the Rev. John Franklin and Nancy Jane Tailheim, and was reared in a United Brethren parsonage. Sur-viving are two daughters: Effic G., wife of H. M. Cassidy, Philadelphia, and, Miss Jessie E. Anderson, at diss Jessie E. Anderson, at John Franklin Tallheim, of

Unionville, is a surviving nephew.

Announce Engagement Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Loesch, of near State College, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Emma Mae, to Rodney Struble, son Bruce Struble, of Houserville. No date has been set for the wed-

Selfishness is often a moral issue. ding.

We have no idea who it will be, but some automobile driver who reads this paragraph will be injured or killed within the next