

UNIONVILLE

Methodist Church Services:—Prayer service this Thursday evening at the close of which will be held the regular monthly business meeting of the Official Board, Sunday School Sunday morning at 9:15 a. m. and Epworth League in the evening at 6:30 p. m. immediately followed by the preaching service at 7:30 p. m. with sermon by the pastor, Rev. D. D. Kauffman.

Missionary Meeting:—A special service was held Wednesday evening in the Methodist church under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church. A very interesting meeting was held and refreshments served at the close of the program.

Free Methodist Church Services:—Prayer service Friday evening in the church, Sunday School Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. followed by the regular preaching service with sermon by the pastor, Rev. G. A. Garrett. Young People's meeting in the evening at 7:30 p. m.

Group Meeting:—The group meeting of the young folks of the Methodist church will be held in the church here on Monday evening, February 12th at 7:30. All persons are invited to this meeting which will be accompanied by a social hour following the program.

World's Day of Prayer:—The World's Day of Prayer will be observed this Friday evening in the Presbyterian church. All churches of the community will take part and everyone urged to attend. Services at 7:30 p. m.

Ladies Aid Meeting:—The members of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church held their business meeting on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Effie Sier.

Presbyterian Church Services:—Bible Study class on Monday evenings, Sunday School on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Williams motored to Altoona Sunday and spent the day with relatives and friends.

Mr. Joseph Brugger of Philadelphia is spending some time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Brugger.

Mr. Ardery Calhoun of near Pittsburgh is enjoying another vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Calhoun. We are glad to see you around Ardery.

Mrs. William Yeany nee Jean Saxton, joined her husband recently at the Holt Lumber Camp at Cherry Tree where they will make their home while the job lasts there.

Miss Charlotte Stere spent the past week-end with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stevenson of Altoona and taking in the sights in the stores of the city while there.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Flick last week were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Finkbeiner, of DuBois.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Robison are again in our community after having resided for a time at Hannah Furnace where Kenneth was employed.

Some of the ladies from here attended special meetings held in the Christian Alliance church at Bellefonte last week. Sunday afternoon was a special meeting for the ladies.

Mrs. G. W. Bullock spent last Thursday evening and over night with her sister-in-law and children, Mrs. Gingery of Tyrone, Pa. On Friday she transacted business in Altoona.

The Bible Study Class of the Presbyterian church was held last Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Lucas of Union Township instead of in the church as on previous nights.

Miss Eleanor Snoke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Snoke, was unable to attend Bellefonte High School the fore part of this week on account of being confined to bed with an attack of the grippe.

Mr. J. R. Williams has been ill for several days past with an attack of the grippe. His many friends in the community hope his complete recovery may be hastened that he may be about his duties as usual.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bauder over the weekend were their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Updegraff and children of Williamsport, and Mr. and Mrs. George Bauder of Juniata, Pa.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parsons over the past weekend were their daughters, Lorraine of State College and Margaret of Harrisburg. They resumed their studies in school again the fore part of this week.

Mrs. Sue McEwen was confined to her bed the greater part of last week and part of this week with an attack of indigestion. Through the kindness of her neighbors she was cared for and is now very much improved which we are all glad to learn.

The citizens of our little village can feel proud of the little bit they did toward swelling the Paralytic Fund, on the birthday of F. D. Roosevelt. Through the efforts of the school children and some other citizens of the community, the sum of $2.22 was realized for that purpose and was immediately forwarded to its destination. Many thanks to all who contributed.

PORT MATILDA

Mrs. Ora Shoberg is on the sick list with grippe, she has been staying at the Johnson home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Crain, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williams visited on Thursday with Rev. and Mrs. A. Williams at New Cumberland.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Woodring and son Kenny, of Williamsport, visited Tuesday and Wednesday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Woodring. While here they attended the funeral of Mrs. Woodring's uncle, Mr. Enoch Hartshorn at Phillipsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Williams spent Monday afternoon at Tyrone.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Matern of Philadelphia, expect to move on the farm of their father, Mr. Collins Matern at Half Moon, this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Lundy Steele are the proud parents of a boy baby that arrived at their home on Monday, February 5.

The sophomore class of the high school held a party at the community club house, Thursday evening, George Rhule is president of the class and Joan Lanie, vice president.

The Missionary Society of the Baptist church held their meeting at the home of Mrs. A. B. Williams on Tuesday evening. The program was revealing of the secret sisters and exchanging gifts. Members present were: Mrs. F. S. Bish, Mrs. Charles Dunlap, Mrs. C. M. Pringle, Mrs. H. B. Woodring, Mrs. A. Q. Williams, Mrs. Chesser Smith, Mrs. L. M. Reese, Mrs. J. B. Miles, a member being ill with grippe was not present.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Robison attended the annual banquet of the employees of the West Penn Power Co. of this district which was held at Pleasant Gap on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. V. S. Gruber announce the arrival of a boy baby at their home at Jamestown, Pa., on Feb. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Robison and Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Williams of Washington, D. C. spent the weekend with their relatives here.

Mrs. George Harpster has been on the sick list for several days with neuritis.

Alice Patricia Cain, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Cain has been quite ill for some time.

MOSHANNON

Mr. Clarence Williamson and Mrs. Christine May of Williamsport, were weekend visitors at the home of Mrs. Anna Kerin.

Mrs. Catherine Lucas, who was ill and confined to her bed, is better. Tuesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis and daughter Hope, and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Lucas motored to Altoona, visited and took dinner at the F. L. Zimmerman home, on their way home, stopped in Tyrone at the M. E. Muhollan's to see Mrs. Anna Lewis, who has been very ill but is better at this writing.

Quite a number of our people were to Snow Shoe last Thursday evening to the concert given by the Banjo Band.

Mrs. Lewis' Sunday School Class "The Bible Readers" met at the

ORVISTON

There were 143 present at Sunday School Sunday, Feb. 4th.

Mr. Amos Nearhood has not been so well for some time past. We hope he may soon be feeling better.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wallizer and Mrs. Fannie Eby of Millburg, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Clair Butler and family on Sunday.

The Missionary Society met at the home of Mrs. Walter Shank for the monthly meeting on Monday evening. Those present were Mrs. Olive Grey, Mrs. Alfred Shank, Mrs. Bessie Thompson, Mrs. Essie Lomson, Mrs. Clair Butler, Mrs. Grant Hahn, Mrs. Ethel Comer and Mrs. Lois Gillespie.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Butler and Otto Schenck spent Saturday evening with Rev. and Mrs. DeBoer of Monmouth.

Mrs. Paul Lomson, Nellie Hevly of Lock Haven, and Mr. Jim Rupert, of Beech Creek, spent Sunday afternoon at the Paul Lomson home.

The Men's Bible Class held its monthly meeting in the church basement on Friday evening, they report a good attendance and lots to eat.

Quite a number of our Orviston folks attended the revival meetings held in the Baptist church at Lock Haven by Brother Dan McNally. Those who heard him, once were fascinated and touched by his life's story "From Crime to Christ" he surely is a power for God.

Rev. and Mrs. DeBoer of Monmouth are holding a two weeks campaign in the Church of Christ at Flemington.

David Confer who has been confined to his bed the past week with a cold, is improving at this writing.

VALLEY VIEW

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Corman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brown of Mill Hill.

Elmer Breon spent two days in Harrisburg, on business.

Mrs. Willis Johnsonbaugh spent last week with Mrs. Albert Corman.

Those present from out of town who attended the funeral of Mr. George Eckley, were Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Eckley, Mr. and Mrs. George Eckley, Mr. and Mrs. James Bradley and Mr. Carl Garbrick of Altoona.

Marion Houser and Martha Rider spent Sunday with Mrs. William Rote of Coleville.

CLARENCE

By JAMES H. BRUNGARD

A small conflagration at the Muirhead home last Monday evening which might have resulted in a serious loss by fire was early discovered and quickly extinguished before much damage was done.

Various teachers (feminine) are beating a path to the door of Miss Catherine McCowan's dress shoppe in Moshannon—a sure sign of the approach of spring.

Miss Margaret Morgan, our popular first grade instructor, spent the weekend about her usual haunts in Bellefonte.

Guy Watson, who is employed at Winburne spent the weekend at Windy Hill with his wife and family.

Mr. Stephens local garageman and bus driver of the large school conveyance of township officials, was ill for a few weeks and forced to relinquish his job to Bruno Carra. We are happy to note he has again resumed his former post.

Miss Elizabeth Cingle spent Friday night with her friend, Miss Ann Prebock.

Several minor sledding accidents, etc., which resulted in absences in grade five involved Barbara Heaton and James Sechick.

Mr. Martin Survey of Grassfield visited his sister, Mrs. Paul Cepriah.

Tylio's cow presented them with a new calf, which they have already named Eleanor.

Carl Kochik made his usual weekly trip to Poormanside Sunday to call on his elderly grandmother.

Albert McCloskeys are the proud parents of a new son born within the past month. This is the fourth child and third son in the family. Mrs. McCloskey will be remembered as the former Bernice Yeager of Moshannon.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. C. C. Craft is confined to her bed at her daughter's home in Williamsport, with a severe cold, for the past fortnight. Being one of our older highly respected township residents, we hope for her speedy return to health. This Tuesday, Feb. 6th, she will observe her 73 birthday. Congratulations "Mom."

The Lee Moores' of Windy Hill entertained guests at their house, Sunday.

Virginia Cole staged a walk-out Sunday and spent the night at Wagner's.

James Tubidy has purchased and is again driving a new motor vehicle.

The Rectoricks of Giltentown, attended church at Snow Shoe Sunday and the Banjo concert at the same place Thursday evening.

The concert was a huge success, but seems to us out of town attendants might have been given better seats than the bleachers. However it looks as if credit for the library itself is mostly claimed by the borough, although Miss Meek local principal of schools, is the only county library director from this end of the county. Scotchtown school is a building belonging to the township and the originators and instigators of the whole library scheme is our own local PTA.

The PTA mentioned in these items last week was a typographical error it should have read PTA plant a Valentine party for its next regular meeting Feb. 13th.

Pupils names not intentionally omitted from the list of Fourth grade pupils who also contributed toward their $2.00 sent to Washington for Crippled children fund were Mildred Kolasa, Madeline Muirhead, Verna Panik and Andy Kormanec.

Mr. and Mrs. William Duddish entertained at supper Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hoover and Betty Guenet all from Karthaus.

Callers at grade four the 5th, included Sue Wagner of Moshannon and Mrs. Watson, secretary of the local Board of Education.

Messrs Benjamin and Gene Krone made a business trip to DuBois Saturday.

Yeager brothers of Moshannon, made one of their frequent calls Sunday at the Cole ranch.

Teachers of Clarence schools were summoned Friday noon to a conference with their principal, Miss Zoe Meek.

More items of interest in Fourth grade follow: Snapshots were taken groundhog day when all pupils were present. Percentage of attendance for the term still remains at an all record high of 97%.

Bird feeders are again noticeable from 4th grade windows showing that these pupils are really interested in the welfare and destinies of our feathered friends.

Boys present and former pupils of Mr. Brungard who spent a sociable evening with him at his apartment, Monday evening included: George Tynia, Fred Herr, Paul Casher, John Stephens, Kenneth and Theodore Cahoon, Glen McCloskey, James Sefchik and James Matty.

Sunday, Mrs. E. A. Shive visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Peter Houser who is improving from her recent illness.

Snow Shoe HI schools basket ball team scored two victories over Centre Hall, Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McGowan and Jane visited friends in Phillipsburg, Sunday.

Arthur Huffman of Altoona, called on the Krozes, Thursday.

Fred Fisher of Lock Haven, visited among a number of friends about town Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emer Sharkey of Stob Hill were over Sunday visitors at Waxmunsy's.

The McGowan family and Mrs. E. A. Shive motored to Phillipsburg Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shive and children of Snow Shoe had Sunday dinner with the Shives of this place.

Mr. Brungard and friend from Pine Glen had dinner with a Bellefonte widow. In the p. m. they all called on some acquaintances and inspected the impressive County Poor Home.

Matthew Murgosh's of No. 22 have a new baby boy. Child No. 9. No depression there!

PERSONALS FROM BELLEFONTE'S NEIGHBORING CITY PINE GROVE MILLS

(Reported by G. Mae Fry)

Miss Mary Catherine Corl was a pleasant caller last Thursday at the J. Foster Musser home on the Branch.

Correction from last week—The C. W. Beiners new score opening in Tyrone should read Feb. 14 instead of Feb. 15.

The veteran State College mailman, John Shope and wife, mingled with their friends in our town Friday evening.

Miss Mabel Breauder one of our efficient school matrons is off duty this week nursing a severe attack of old fashioned flu under her M. D.'s care.

Cards from California announce that Miss Florence Port, former resident here, has accepted a nice position in a lawyers office in Los Angeles and is delighted with her new home and position.

Mr. Albert Henninger of Oak Grove has decided to discontinue his farming operations this spring. He is offering his large farm for sale at a bargain. Mr. and Mrs. Henninger will retire for a well deserved rest.

The school play "Johnny Grows up" last Friday evening presented in the school auditorium was greeted by a full house. All characters performing their parts exceptionally well. Teacher Miss Dorothy Bloom is to be congratulated on the success of the play.

Farmer and drover Luther K. Strouse and son Ralph, were Phillipsburg business visitors Monday.

Mrs. Ruth Bodle, Mrs. Nell Roush Kline both of State College, were dinner guests last Friday at the Samuel M. Hess home.

Mr. Shannon Osman spent Saturday in Bellefonte and visited his aunt, Mrs. John Bowersox who is improving slowly at the Centre County hospital.

President of the Paxtang Oil Co. of Harrisburg, John Filbert, and he is a real Indian Chief, was circulating among our farmers last week for early spring oil orders for his company.

Among those really down and out with that old croney-grippe, last week were: Little Dianne Smith, Miss Clara McCracken and Mr. J. H. McCracken, but all are improved at this writing.

Mr. Gordon Harper suffered a relapse from his recent illness last Tuesday and is now housed up with a case of pleurisy, under the care of a trained nurse and Dr. H. Glenn He is slightly improved at this writing.

Popular thresherman John W. Miller is nursing a serious leg injury caused while assisting John Kocher in hauling of some large logs to Albright saw mill. A large one caught Mr. Miller and almost crushed his leg.

Retired farmer J. Cal Gates, visited in State College last Thursday a. m.

Centre County's new sheriff, Edward Miller was a recent business caller in our burg.

One of Huntingdon county prosperous farmers Jimmy Cummins of McAlevy's Fort, was a pleasant caller within our gates Saturday afternoon.

Farmer Harry Peters is arranging for the drilling of a well on his glades farm to take care of ample supply of water when mountain streams run low.

The Evers Pines restaurant at the diamond, is about to be opened to the public, some improvements are being made. The new proprietor is not as yet made public.

Mrs. Allen Burwell of Tyrone, spent some time the past week with her daughter and family, Mrs. Carl Kocher on West Main street. Sunday the Kochers accompanied Mrs. Burwell to her Tyrone home.

Mrs. Ray Marshall after spending the past three weeks at the parental home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Wasson, departed for her Pittsburgh home last Friday. Mrs. Marshall was here since the illness and death of her brother John Wasson.

Mr. Maynard Williams recently resigned as boss farmer at the Hugh Dale dairy because of ill health. Mr. Williams expects to enter the hospital for treatment. His many friends here wish him a complete recovery. Maynard is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ray Williams.

J. Harry Stewart and wife, Mrs. Madeline Hawn and two daughters motored over from Petersburg, Thursday and were supper guests at the Joseph H. Gilliland home.

Harry, a rheumatic suffered for the past year and a half is entirely improved and able to perform his usual farm tasks.

HOWARD

Mr. Edwin Robb, of Marchantville, spent a day this past week at the home of his uncle Mr. Wilbur Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Zeigler, of York, spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Zeigler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bathgate and Mrs. Zeigler's sister, Mrs. Lewis Dorman.

Mrs. Sally McEntire accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bower to Altoona, where she will spend several months at their home.

Mrs. Sylvia Pleieter entertained the members of the Bible Class of the Methodist church last Wednesday evening.

Miss Grace Schenck of Milesburg, spent the weekend with her sister Miss Lulu Schenck.

Mrs. Ray Marshall after spending the past three weeks at the parental home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Wasson, departed for her Pittsburgh home last Friday. Mrs. Marshall was here since the illness and death of her brother John Wasson.

Mr. Maynard Williams recently resigned as boss farmer at the Hugh Dale dairy because of ill health. Mr. Williams expects to enter the hospital for treatment. His many friends here wish him a complete recovery. Maynard is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ray Williams.

J. Harry Stewart and wife, Mrs. Madeline Hawn and two daughters motored over from Petersburg, Thursday and were supper guests at the Joseph H. Gilliland home.

The Lock Haven Male Chorus will present a concert on Monday evening, February 15th, at 8 o'clock in the High School Auditorium. The PTA is sponsoring this entertainment and we can assure you an evening of fine entertainment. Please help us make this a success, so that in the future we shall be able to have more worth while entertainments come to our town. A silver offering will be taken.

1st grade—Beverly Kunes, Robert Neff, Joanne Shry and Peggy Wolf. 2nd grade—Dorothy Gardner, Janice Mages, and Merrill Fletcher. 4th grade—Mildred Fleck, Jack Schenck, and Patricia Schenck. 5th grade—Charles Hevly, Evelyn Poorman, Joanne Wagner, and Patricia Yearick. 6th grade—Beulah DeArmen and Suzanne Hoffman. 7th grade—Carolyn Kdahl, Dorothy Mages, Barbara Gardner. 8th grade—Sylvia Gardner, Nevada Yearick, Jean Yearick and Mildred Hinton. 9th grade—Paul Fleck, Lillian Neff, Sophomores—Phyllis Beushong, June Carson, Emma Gordon, Mary Soitz, Juniors—Erma Dullen, Seniors—Doris Amick, Dorothy Huff, Charlotte Jacobs, Marjorie Love and Nancy Stauffer.

Trifle.

Arrange 1 dozen macaroni in bowl, pour over them 1/2 cup brandy. While these are blending, prepare and chill 1 quart of custard. Line the dish with 1 dozen lady fingers, pour in the custard and chill for several hours. Whip 1 pint of cream and fold in 1/2 cup of sugar. Pile on top of the trifle, when it is thoroughly chilled, garnish with candied cherries and leaves of citron.

GET TOP-NOTCH BARGAINS GALORE

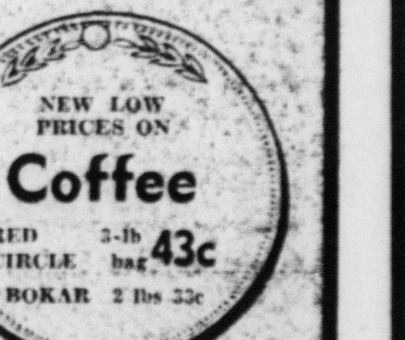

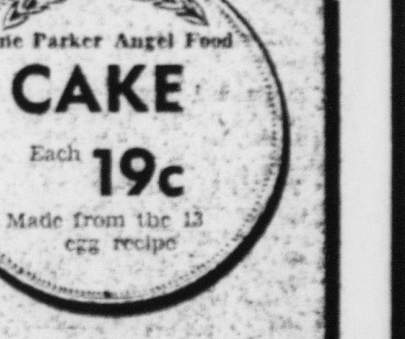

— It's Our 80th Founder's Jubilee!

These are great days at your A & P! We're bending every effort to bring you the grandest bargains ever! For this is our annual Founder's Jubilee... honoring George Huntington Hartford, who developed a business principle 80 years ago, that makes possible the savings you enjoy today! In 1859, the founder bought the entire cargo of a clipper ship just in from China... sold the tea direct to his customers for 70c a pound under the prevailing price. This method of direct buying and eliminating unnecessary handling charges and in-between profits... sharing the savings with A & P customers, has for 80 years been the day in and day out policy of A & P. It enables 6 million daily A & P customers to eat better and spend less. Come, you good neighbors... help us celebrate this great occasion... and save!

- Ann Page Sparkle Desserts... 3 pkgs. 10c
- Ann Page Salad Dressing... Qt. jar 25c
- Fresh Jelly Eggs... 2 lbs 19c
- Fifteen Varieties A & P Bread... 2 loaves 15c
- Fancy Tuna Fish... 2 tins 27c
- A & P Sardines... 2 tins 19c
- A & P Sauerkraut... 2 No. 2 1/2 cans 15c
- Ann Page Prep. Spaghetti... 3 cans 19c
- Mich. Pea Beans... 2 lbs 9c
- Ann Page Chili Sauce... 12-oz. btl. 15c
- Bab-O Cleanser... 2 cans 25c
- Zoup Concent. Dog Food 3 lb cans 20c

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

- ORANGES Pure Gold Calif. Navel, 200-220 DOZ. 25c
- BANANAS RI-C - Yellow - 5 LBS 25c
- D'Anjou Pears... 4 lbs 25c
- Texas Carrots... 2 bunches 9c
- Cauliflower - 11's - 12's... head 19c
- Iceberg Lettuce - 60's... 2 heads 13c
- Spanish Onions... 2 lbs 9c
- Sweet Potatoes... 6 lbs 19c
- APPLES Fancy Rome Beauty - 7 LBS 23c
- CELERY JUMBO PASCAL - 15's - 16's 2 stalks 19c

FINE QUALITY MEATS

- BRANDED STEER BEEF STEAKS ROUND AND SIRLOIN 1b 27c
- Quality Hamburger... 1b 17c
- Sunnyfield "Tendered" 18 to 22-lb Hams - Whole or Shank Half... 1b 19c
- Mett Sausage, Armour's Star... 1b 25c
- Cooked Picnics - Norfolk... 1b 17c
- Fresh Hams - Whole or shank half... 1b 18c
- Pork Shldr. Roast, 4-5 lb cali style... 1b 10c
- JUICY CENTER CHUCK ROAST 1b 15c

PRICES BELOW EFFECTIVE IN ALL A & P STORES IN VICINITY

- HEINZ - MOST VARIETIES SOUPS - Medium Can 12c
- ANN PAGE VEGETARIAN BEANS - 4 lb cans 23c
- A & P GOLDEN BANTAM CORN - 3 No. 2 Cans 25c
- RAJAH BLENDED SYRUP - Quart Bottle 21c
- SUNNYFIELD PANCAKE FLOUR - 5 lb package 15c
- NECTAR ORANGE PEKOE TEA - 1/2-lb package 25c

- Sandwich Spread, Ann Page... pt. jar 19c
- Nutley Oleo, Vegetable Spread... 2 lbs 19c
- Apple Butter... Two 38-oz. jars 25c
- Marshmallows, Campfire... 2 lb pkgs 29c
- Pink Salmon, Cold Stream... 2 lb cans 29c
- Oatmeal Cookies, Colonial... 2 lbs 25c
- Oyster Crackers, N.B.C. Dandy... lb pkg. 17c

