Court Here

County before being brought back to Centre County. The prosecutor in the case here was Officer V. E. Bell of the State Motor Police at Pleasant Gap.

Club Sentenced H. E. Bowersox, of Millheim, representing Keystone Post No. 444, of Millheim, entered a plea of guilty to maintaining gambling devices, the prosecutor being Officer James P. Lyons, of the State Motor Police at Rockview. The charge brought sentence of a $200 fine and payment of the costs of prosecution. It was testified that on January 13, 1940, officers found a five-cent slot machine and three punchboards in operation at the home.

Steal Copper Wire Myrtle W. Carling, of Tonawanda, N. Y., formerly of Tyrone, and Charles W. King were jointly charged with the larceny of copper wire from the Banner Company mine near Ocola Mills on two occasions. The first theft on November 23, 1938 netted them 408 pounds of wire, and the second on December 29, 1938, resulted in the theft of 882 pounds. The wire, it was testified, was sold to the Mountain City Junk Company at Altoona.

The mine owner, J. H. Wallin, testified that about $100 since the mine had to be closed one day while the stolen wire was being replaced in the mine. Previous to their arrest for the larcenies at the Banner mine, the two had been sentenced in Clearfield County for similar thefts. They were brought to Bellefonte when their sentences from Clearfield County expired.

Carlin, who aided police in the investigation, and who now is regularly employed as a mechanic in New York State, was sentenced to pay a fine of $25, the costs of prosecution and make restitution on each of the two charges. King, who had a previous criminal record, was sentenced to pay the costs, make restitution of the goods taken, and serve 3 months in jail on each of the two charges. The jail sentence, however, will run concurrently.

Gets Light Sentence Jeremiah Lehman, of Curtin, who several weeks ago walked into the offices of Centre County Sheriff Edward R. Miller and announced that he had cashed a forged check, was sentenced to pay the costs, make restitution of the goods taken, and serve 15 days in jail. The court indicated that the sentence was light in consideration of his voluntary surrender and confession.

Lehman declared that he cashed the check at the Sid Bernhardt store in Bellefonte last October for the purpose of obtaining money to pay a fine for his brother, who was held in the county jail on a game violation charge. He got the brother out of jail, he told the court.

Slot Machine Case Fred D. Askey, who conducts a licensed establishment at Philipsburg, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of violating the gambling laws by maintaining a five-cent slot machine. Askey declined to plead guilty on another count charging him with a violation of the liquor laws.

On the gambling charge he was sentenced to pay the costs and a fine of $100.

Must Provide for Child The usual sentence providing for the maintenance of the child was meted out to Donald Faugher, Ocola Mills WPA worker, when he entered a plea of guilty to a paternity case. He also is required to post $500 bond guaranteeing compliance with the order.

Forged Brother's Check Michael Labant, of near Madera, Clearfield County, charged with forging the name of his brother, Joseph, to a State Workmen's Insurance check for $440 mailed to Joseph, entered a plea of guilty and was placed upon probation for three years, upon paying $25 for the costs of the county, the costs of prosecution and making restitution of the amount illegally taken.

Labant's attorney averred that Michael and Joe lived in the same vicinity and that Joe, who maintained his own home, helped with the expenses of the other Labant residence, for which Michael is the chief support. It was declared that Michael's taking and signing his brother's check was a common occurrence between them, and that the only reason prosecution was brought was because Michael had torn off the voucher attached to the check, and without which the check was useless to the merchant who cashed it.

Michael, himself, went to bat for his brother and said it was all right with him that his brother took the check. It was a kind of ordinary procedure, he said. However, Officer Harold D. Ream, of the State Police at Rockview, prosecutor in the case, told the court that when the matter was being investigated, Michael claimed he had been missing other checks and blamed Joe for taking them. Michael didn't remember having made any such statement, he told the court.

Action is Postponed The case of George Perry Bressler, of Zion, who last December 5th, shot a neighbor, Donald Sampson, aged 25, in mistake for a deer was called and Bressler indicated his desire to enter a plea of guilty. Upon learning that the victim, Sampson, was not in Court Judge Walker delayed disposition of the matter, the inference being that the Court desires an expression of Sampson's feelings in the case before final action is taken.

BLANCHARD

Because Walter Lindsey, who had been appointed to test the fire siren each Saturday noon, has accepted a position in Bellefonte and was not on hand last Saturday the siren failed to blow.

died two years ago, leaving him with five children.

According to reports, his niece, Miss Hecker, who police say is the daughter of Kerstetter's brother, came in from Wisconsin to look after the children. The marriage resulted.

The man and his wife were arrested by Officers James H. Griffith and Harold D. Ream, of the Rockview State Police, and were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Harold D. Cowher, at his offices on East Bishop street, Tuesday night. They entered pleas of guilty to the illegal marriage and were released from custody upon posting bonds. They are expected to appear in court in the near future.
