WASHINGTON. Today we celebrate the birthday Of one who gained much fame,

For truthfulness and valor George Washington was his name

He was just like other boys Happy and carefree, But he would not tell a lie When he cut down the cherry tree.

He led his troop to battle And they said about him then, He was first in war, first in peace, And first in the hearts of his countrymen. He became our first President. And every heart he won, Today he still is listed

Our nation's hero number one. On the banks of the Potomac There stands for him a shrine Where thousands go, pay homage To one who was so fine. He left behind no son His work to carry on.

But his memory lingers still In the hearts of every one. L.S.
