

CLARENCE

By JAMES H. BRUNGARD

Mrs. Andy Mattalla called on her friends the Bugosh's Sunday last. Pupils of Fourth grade who continue in perfect attendance for the term to date follow: Helen Baran, Mildred Kolasa, Madeline Muirhead, Martha Solis, Helen Was, Andy Bitgans, Gail Grieb, Cyril Jendrasak, Ralph Kochik, John Martonchik, Elmer Shotovsky, John Stephens.

Report cards with the end of the 5th month were distributed among pupils of the Hill school since the 22nd.

Among those of our former sick list who are better or improved in health are: The Wagner of Gillentown and Mrs. Pete Houser near Scotchtown.

The first robin to make its appearance in town was seen the 22nd along Pancake road.

Mr. Brungard entertained Wednesday at his apartment a choice few of his boy friends, to monopoly with local refreshments.

At the teachers conference Monday night called by the principal, at her room, nothing new occurred. The usual pigeonholing on general opposition to any idea suggested for a teacher's play or supper only aroused Irish ire and broke all ethical records of an antagonistic atmosphere. We do quote our working hours may not bear fruit but we will question the profitable leisure of a certain other party.

What we think of commuters wouldn't look good in print, but a townsperson's "to farm a job" should be good enough to live in.

Mrs. Helen Moore and two small children of Karthaus spent Friday with Mrs. Evelyn Dudish.

Danko's were Sunday visitors in Lock Haven among their three children residing there.

Waxmunsky's had some out of town callers at their house two days the past week.

The Belter family of Windy Hill were to Karthaus Sunday to visit on Grandma Stone.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Dudish were Saturday shoppers in Bellefonte.

Padish brothers seem to be doing a prosperous business at their new garage and filling station adjacent to the home farm which was formerly the Central garage.

We express our regrets over the expiration with this week's issue of the Centre Hall Reporter. It will be missed by many long distance subscribers for it had a wide circulation for a small town paper and with the years had built an enviable reputation. Arlos Reporter and all you stood for.

Birthday's were recently observed by Helen Baran, Made ne Muehl, Mary Kosik, Annie Birgitz, Joe Koschik, William Stark and Paul Kosik.

Sue Wagner acted chauffeur Tuesday for Mrs. A. A. Groe of Moshannon on a shopping tour to Tyrone.

Among others to Bellefonte Saturday on business were Mr. and Mrs. Offner Bell, Miss Zoe Meek and her mother Benj. Konec. Mrs. Andy Parnay called on her sister Martha Royer at Bugosh's Monday.

Eighth Grade celebrated the 22nd with another p. m. party. Hill school partied over Valentine's Holiday.

Mr. F. J. McGowan was in Tyrone Saturday night motorist to Bellefonte.

Miss Joann Drapcho accompanied the McGowans on a business trip to Johnstown Saturday.

New members who recently joined TPA and a list of old who just paid their dues follows: Mrs. Mike Grant, Mrs. William Burns, Mrs. Joe Morgan, Mrs. Byron Baumgardner, Mrs. Robert Shive, Mrs. William Dudish, Old: Mrs. Emro Drapcho, Mrs. James Kolasa, Mrs. Frank Kobularchik, Mrs. Joseph Puhalla, Mrs. Charles Anderson, Mrs. Robert Hall, Mrs. Francis McGowan, Mrs. William Houser, Mrs. Steve Kochik, Mr. John Duke.

Grade Four as is usual by custom, observed Lincoln's and Washington's birthday in picture, poem, song and story.

Big snow of the 14th somewhat held up traffic to Kato and Poor-manside. Schools in those burrs were closed for several days due to lack of teachers.

Clare daughter Lenore and husband from Pine Glen, Mrs. David Long and brother Bud Krone and daughter Judith Carolyn of Lock Haven.

Mr. Brungard recently visited with friends in Ferguson, Gregg and Potter townships.

Don't forget the Moshannon Presbyterian baked ham supper this Saturday night from 5:00 to 8:00 p. m. at 15 and 35c.

WINGATE
On Friday evening, Feb. 23, the members of Mrs. Roy Fisher's Sunday School Class gathered at the home of Mrs. Stella Davidson, and gave her daughter Vera a surprise by celebrating her fourteenth birthday anniversary. The evening was spent in playing games. Delicious refreshments were served that consisted of cake, sandwiches, pies, candy, jello and ice cream. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shillings and son, Rouny of State College; Betty Keeler of Milesburg; Annabelle Cowan of Central City; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cassidy, Mrs. Roy Fisher, Mrs. Stella Davidson, Genevieve Summers, Mae Summers, Miriam Murray, Lois Snyder, Vera Davidson, Betty Cassidy, Dorothy Reetz, Beryl Hendershot, Ethel Hendershot, Donald Irwin, Harold Davidson, Paul Davidson, Eugene Davidson and Amos Summers. Vera received many beautiful gifts. At a late hour they returned to their homes, wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Mitchell and son Robert, called to Montgomery on Sunday, where they visited with his sister and family, Mrs. Herbert Harman.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Summers and children of State College, were visitors on Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Summers.

Mrs. Cora Witherite and son Augustus of Osceola Mills, were guests on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Lydia Irwin and with friends at Runville.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Walker and daughter and Mrs. Ida Wither, went to Milesburg on Thursday afternoon where they were guests at a delicious birthday supper in honor of his father Forden Walker's fifty-ninth birthday anniversary.

Miss Helen Shaw of Snow Shoe was a visitor over the weekend with her sister and family, Mrs. Donald MacMillan.

Miss Betty Keeler of Milesburg, visited over the weekend with her mother, Miss Vera Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fisher of Milesburg, was a visitor one evening of last week with his brothers, Roy and Lloyd Fisher.

Thomas Summers and Miss Margaret Weaver of Renovo, were entertained on Sunday at the home of his uncle and family, Zach Summers, who with his father and family, William Summers.

George Snyder of Pleasant Gap, was a caller on Tuesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Snyder.

An Easter Sunrise service will be held in the Evangelical church, on Easter morning at 6 o'clock. The message will be given by Rev. Lewis E. Kline. The public in general is welcome.

Master Samuel and Lynn Besides of Bush Hollow, were visitors over Sunday with their grandmother and family, Mrs. Mabel Burns.

Quite a number of our people went to Milesburg on Saturday, and attended James Starrette's sale.

ZION
Mr. and Mrs. George Snyder of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday at the Struble home.

Miss Hannah Bayle spent the weekend in Renovo.

Mrs. John Harbeck and son spent last week with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Hockman.

Mrs. Paul Vonada entertained at a quilting party on Tuesday.

Sorry to lose Mrs. Finkle from our neighborhood. She has gone to spend some time with her daughter at Jersey Shore.

Mrs. Ray Corman had the misfortune of falling and breaking her arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Noll and sons of Jersey Shore, spent the weekend with Mr. Noll's mother, and Mrs. Nora's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Corman at Bellefonte.

PINE GROVE MILLS

(Continued from page two)

was an important caller at our County Capital last week.

Grain merchant Jacob D. Neidigh, is loading 3 cars of wheat this week at Strubles Station at $1.05 per bushel.

Veteran Silo agent and retired farmer Samuel I. Cori enjoyed his 78th birthday hale and hearty at the Hamilton Seibert home in State College.

Clarence L. (Dick) Irvin, wife and son, Dick, Jr., of the Branch, were dinner guests, Sunday at the Willis Schilling home on East Main street.

Our Clover Farm Merchant E. C. Martz was off duty several days the past week under his M. D.'s care, suffering a badly infected eye, is improved at this writing.

Farmer John H. Marshall was tendered a sumptuous birthday supper at his home on the Dr. P. D. Gardner farm, Feb. 22nd, a few close friends and relatives attended and later in the evening the Marshall's accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. Heno Fry motored to Jacksonville to take in the first neighborhood night meeting of County Granges in 1940.

The ladies bible class of Baileyville Presbyterian Sunday School will present in the community hall March 18, at 8 p. m. (The Anybody Family) a one act play and some other entertainment, silver offering will be lifted. Refreshments will be served proceeds for the church. Come and tell your friends.

Central Properties of the Bellefonte Hardware Co. Mark W. Williams was within our gates last week taking orders for his share of spring business and talking a little politics on the side.

Mrs. Emory Cramer of Altoona, spent a few days recently at the Alfred L. Albright home.

Mrs. Paul Stephens entertained the members of the Presbyterian Ladies Sunday School Class at her home last Wednesday evening after regular business routine a pot luck supper was served.

The Rev. Albert Grundke is driving a brand new sedan, a Ford V-8 purchased last week of Black Bros. agency, Tyrone.

Our men's chorus motored to Shamokin Sunday to assist in two church services in Rev. Robert Leidy Methodist charge. The Rev. a former pastor here with a host of friends who always wish him well in his good work.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard Parsons entertained at a card party last Wednesday night at their home, some of their close friends. Choice refreshments were served at a late hour.

Mrs. Laura Krebs, Mrs. Arthur Stephens were State College callers on Saturday p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cori, Charles Strouse and Miss Cora Cori were Sunday visitors at the Russell Fishburn home, Sunbury, where Mrs. Charles Strouse is recuperating nicely after an operation last week in Sunbury hospital, her many friends hope for complete recovery.

Willis E. Weaver has accepted a nice position at the Penna. State College Farms in the Machinery department as foreman.

One of our school bus drivers, J. H. Gilliland, is off duty a few days this week under the care of Dr. J. M. Malcolm of Alexandria, Norman Pawley is substitute bus driver.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Barto entertained at their home last Thursday evening the Men's Bible Class of Baileyville's I. C. Y. church, at their regular meeting, after usual devotional and social hour luscious refreshments were served by Mrs. Barto. Election of officers for 1940 as follows: President, Willis Schilling; vice president, J. H. Gilliland; secretary, L. R. Barto; treasurer, C. M. Barto; teacher, G. Mac Fry; assistant teacher, J. H. Gilliland.

Mr. Harry Murtioff of the Kline Hardware, Bellefonte, was circulating among his usual customers on Friday p. m. in our burg.

HUBLERSBURG
The regular grange meeting will be held on Friday evening, March 15th. All members keep the change of date in mind. On Thursday evening, March 21, the grange are holding a public card party and Chinese Checker games in the grange hall, admission will be 25c. Keep the date in mind and come, bring your friends and enjoy yourselves.

Mrs. Jacob Weaver was a Friday evening visitor at the home of Mrs. Walter Corman of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. George Vonada, of Zion, Mr. Emer Weaver, Miss Lucille Hyde of Jersey Shore and Mrs. Eva Markle spent Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hogan Markle in honor of Mrs. Markle's birthday. They spent the evening in playing games, later on they were served refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes and family were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hayes of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Krape of Bellefonte spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krape.

BLANCHARD

Mr. Leroy Rupert and family have moved back to Beech Creek after being a tenant of the Charles Smith house.

Mr. C. Sherman formerly of this place visited with Mrs. Sherman during last weekend.

A special feature for Thursday evening will be the Missionary lecture in the Baptist church by a missionary recently returned to America after spending 30 years in Burma. There will be a meeting in the afternoon for members of all missionary societies, at 4 p. m. a special meeting for the children, and an evening service for all.

Mr. Walter Lindsey, employed at the County Home in Bellefonte spent Sunday at his home here. The occasion was a birthday dinner for Mrs. Annie Page, to which all members of her family were present.

Miss Betty Bechdel spent the weekend with Blanche Williams, also Jane Williams spent the weekend at her home here.

Mrs. George Hortel of Far Rockaway, N. Y., returned home on Sunday, having spent a few days with her mother Mrs. Tillie Gardner. Mrs. Hortel was called home due to the death of her brother Raymond Gardner.

M. and Mrs. James Martin are making regular visits to Teah's Hospital, Lock Haven, where Mrs. Martin's daughter, Mrs. Fred Noll, of Curtin, has recently been operated on for appendicitis.

It is being noised about the community that Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kunes are contemplating purchasing the property now occupied by Fores, Gardner and family.

Miss Jean Kunes and her mother took a group of girls to Pleasant Gap on Friday to attend a program given by the pupils of the Pleasant Gap school. Those accompanying the Kunes were: Peggy and Jane Harter, Julia Holter, Anna Spangler, and Margaret Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Hoy and daughter of Flemington spent Sunday with Mrs. Hoy's mother, Mrs. Mary Hendricks.

The Amoma class of the Baptist Sunday School held their regular meeting with Mrs. Fred Miller on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Alex Heverly had quite a serious attack of indigestion on Saturday.

Mr. William Sheer, brother of Mr. Frank Sheer passed away at the Sheer home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams and daughter of Lewistown visited Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Williams on Sunday.

Miss Louise Courter, nurse in the Lock Haven Hospital, has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. John DeHaas and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Spangler attended the convocation of Baptist churches at Williamsport on Monday evening. Mrs. DeHaas was unable to attend the afternoon services, the rest of the group arriving for the evening service only.

Meeting of the W. W. G. of the Baptist church will be held at 7:30 prompt on Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Harris Confer.

Some men succeed in public life because they speak frankly instead of attempting to be on every side of every question.

Suspended Head Down
Charles Gable, of Bloomsburg, suffered a deep laceration over the left eye, three inches in length, and concussion of the brain, when his car got out of control at Catawissa, and struck two cars and a truck before it overturned. The machine came to a stop on its top, with Gable a prisoner. A foot caught in the foot pedals of the car, suspending him on his head.

Bull Becomes Balky
An unruly bull, belonging to Chas. E. Sassaman, Winfield, Snyder county, broke loose when about to be tied, pinning its owner against a wall and fracturing three of the man's ribs. Mr. Sassaman was dazed but was able to roll from the animal's path. He was alone at the time and could obtain no help.

Beat the Price Rise

LOUNGE CHAIR

With OTTOMAN to Match

$34.50

The February Sale as much as makes you a present of this Ottoman. The chair alone should sell for more than $44.50.

Choice of Latest Coverings and Colors

BETTER BEDDING

Smashing VALUES

You May Never See Again Here!

Shop Everywhere for FURNITURE—Then COMPARE With WOLF'S

Last big outpouring of bargains for the final bustling days of our Great February Sale! Heavy shipments of new merchandise are unpacked daily. We must have more room at once! So for the closing Sale days, we have further reduced prices in every department—in some as much as HALF! Want of ready cash need not deny you this golden opportunity. WOLF'S friendly, generous plan of payments brings you everything you need within your reach while reduced prices are most attractive!

Upholstered Occasional Chairs

$7.95

Several groups that started the Sale at higher prices are one group now!

COCKTAIL TABLES

Usually Up to $16.50

$4.95 to $8.95

Attractive models, all with glass top. LAMP TABLES Special at $2.95

END TABLES of SOLID Walnut, Worth Up to $15

$4.75 to $8.50

With our new shipments we have combined many high priced tables.

WALNUT BOOKCASES

High 4-Shelf Model

$5.25

Pairs are as easy to place attractively in your living room as end tables.

Innerspring Mattress and Box Spring

Made in a Leading Eastern Mill

$34.50

FOUR PIECES in All

This is the usual $29.50 Mattress! So this high grade Box Spring and Pillows cost you actually only $5.00!

Final Reductions NOW

ONLY THREE OF THESE SUITES!

Modern Dining Rooms

8 PIECES At Advertised Price

China, if Desired, Slightly Extra

$76.50

Small Down Payment

Three suites left from our original February Sale shipment—further reduced to move them out tomorrow—sure!

Last Few Days

OUR LOWEST PRICE ON

Studio Couches

As Pictured or With ARMS and BACK

ONE CARLOAD! No More at This Low Price!

$26.50

Small Down Payment

Other Very High Grade SIMMONS COUCHES Usual $69.50 Quality Now $44.50

CLOSING OUT ALL FLOOR LAMPS

Used in Our Displays

$9.75

Were up to $21.50.

ODD VANITY DRESSERS

Usually Sold for $42.50

$24.50

WOLF FURNITURE CO