

POMONA GRANGE NEWS

Schedule of meetings, projects, programs, etc. of Centre County Pomona Grange No. 13, for the year 1940:
Projects Sponsored—Community Improvement: "Go-to-Church" Sundays, May 19, October 20; Original Play and Essay Contest; Better Ritual and Music Contest.

Quarterly Pomona Meetings—January 27, "Sixty-fifth Anniversary Year." May 18, "Soil Conservation on Centre County Farms." Aug. 7, "Friendship, Fidelity, Fraternality." Nov. 16, "The Spirit of Thanksgiving Through the Years."

Neighbor Night Program—Theme, "Friendship," Slogan, "He Who Would Have Friends Must Have a Friend."
March 29—Host, Half Moon; Chairs, Victor; Program by Port Matilda. Theme, "Farming a Profession."

April 16—Host, Victor; Chairs, Spring Mills; Program by East Penns Valley. Theme, "Invisible Forces."

May 2—Host, Spring Mills, Chairs, Logan; Program by Baileyville. Theme, "Duties and Fashions—1875 vs. 1940."

June 7—Host, Logan; Chairs, Howard; Program by Blair County. Theme, "Friendly Neighbors."

July 12—Host, Howard; Chairs, Washington; Program by Pine Glen. Theme, "Attractive Farms."

September 10—Host, Washington; Chairs, Progress; Program by Moshannon. Theme, "Help the Youth to Like the Farm."

September 24—Host, Progress; Chairs, Union; Anniversary Celebration. Theme, "Grange Influence."

October 11—Host, Union; Chairs, Bald Eagle; Program by Walker. Theme, "Friendship in Business."

November 1—Host, Bald Eagle; Chairs, Marion; Program by Rebersburg. Theme, "Protection to Our Forest Friends."

This is our sixty-fifth anniversary year, Centre County Pomona Grange, having been organized at Progress Grange, September 24, 1875.

Of the above schedule, the Host Granges, and those filling the chairs, were organized since that period. Program themes are based on the subjects used for essays in Pomona meetings of 1875-1885, as recorded in the Pomona Minute Book of that period.

A ten-minute historical period will immediately precede each program.

The Traveling Bible will be presented, by candlelight, to the Chaplain of the Presiding Grange at the close of each program; Scripture reference to be used in this presentation is: "Thy Word is a Lamp unto my feet, and a Light unto my path."—Psalm 119:105.

YOUNG PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY PROGRAM
Mar. 25—"Crime Detection," by a member of the State Police.

Apr. 22—"Legal Pitfalls" and "Mock Trial."

May 27—"How to Take Pictures," by Geo. Johnson, Extension Service.

June 24—"Good Manners" and "Mock Marriage," Miss Helen Butler in charge, Extension Service assisting.

July 22—Camp Fire Party, Elton Tait in charge, Extension Service assisting.

Aug. 12—Annual Picnic.

Sept. 23—"Trends in Rural Life," Kenneth Hood, contact Extension Ser.

Oct. 28—"Superstition," by Attorney John Taylor.

Nov. 23—"Dramatics, Advisory Committee in charge.

Dec. 9—Christmas Party and Banquet.

POMONA GRANGE OFFICERS

- Master.....L. E. Biddle
Overseer.....William Benford
Lecturer.....Mrs. Phoebe Cronister
Steward.....Frank Keller
Assistant Steward.....Arthur Bartley
Chaplain.....Mrs. Morris Burkholder
Treasurer.....Joseph Owens
Secretary.....Harry Stover
Gate Keeper.....John Reirik
Pomona.....Mrs. Dorothy Markle
Ceres.....Mrs. Mazie Harpster
Flora.....Mrs. Beatie Johnson
Lady Assistant Steward.....Jennie T. Benford
Executive Committee—Geo. McCormick, Harry Confer, Prof. S. I. Mairs, Finance Committee—Prof. C. J. Irvin, Geo. Ralston, Harry Corman.

MILESBERG

We wish to correct a statement which appeared in this column last week. The new filling station in Central City is being built by M. H. Hall and not the Gulf Gas Co. Sorry this happened, but glad that we can rectify it.
Miss Stella Kohlbecker left Sunday for Pittsburgh to attend the funeral services Monday for her uncle, Mr. William Bonnett, who passed away on Friday. Mr. Bonnett visited here quite frequently and was better known as Uncle Billy.
Thomas Allen of Renovo, who was seriously injured in a motor accident, is the nephew of Mrs. Edith Kelly-Toman, as he is better known here has visited at the L. G. Peters home frequently. We hope for him a speedy recovery.
Mr. George Smith quietly celebrated his birthday on Sunday last.
Mrs. Harry McElwain of Unionville, was a Saturday evening visitor at the William Eckenroth home, William Flick and Miss Betty Jane Funk, of Bellefonte were Sunday visitors.

JULIAN

The Howard Woodring family, who reside on the Daniel Straw farm, had the misfortune to have their home with all contents including their clothing destroyed by fire, neighbors are endeavoring to collect furniture, bedding, clothing etc., and establish a home for them. Any contributions from readers of this article would be appreciated. If any one has a sewing machine to offer it would be greatly appreciated. Mrs. Woodring would make many articles of clothing if a sewing machine were available.
Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Richards and family and Mrs. R. M. Alexander and son Merrill attended the funeral of Mrs. Roy Miller at Altoona on Sunday.
Mrs. Harry Dillon and son Raymond are visiting at Lewistown.
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Myers called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Alexander on Monday evening.
John Tallhelm called at the parental home on Monday.
Miss Margaret Weller of Bellefonte is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dan Shuey.
Folks don't forget the candle light Communion Sunday at 11 a. m.
Robert Swisher, Ronald Swisher, wife and family of Clearfield called on friends in Julian on Sunday.
The Woodring family have seven children ages from 15 yrs. to 5 mo. Gladly would be acceptable. Mr. Woodring is a World War veteran.

Old at 40? Get Pep
Feel Years Younger
Get Pep by popular Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. It's the only medicine that gives you the strength and vitality of youth. It's the only medicine that gives you the strength and vitality of youth.

CLARENCE

Mrs. Harry Shive of Snow Shoe, Mrs. Francis McEwan and daughter Jane of this place, were shoppers Monday last at Bellefonte.
Mike Hotsen Jr. has resumed his school studies after being confined to his home a week with a far-from-pleasant affliction of boils.
Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bugosh and daughter Beverly Ann returned social obligations at the Andy Parney home Thursday evening.
Mr. and Mrs. Lee Moore and children Mildred, Lenore, Warren and Baby Moore, all of Windy Hill, called on the children's grandparents here Sunday, also at the maternal granddirt at Kyrletovsu.
Mr. S. S. Craft has somewhat broken his severe cold of weeks duration and is about back to normal health and activities again.
Mrs. William Dudish entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. Friends and relatives from Clearfield county helped surround the table and do ample justice to the occasion.
A delegation of our local Board of Education attended the County directors convention at Bellefonte last week.

Mr. Brunard observed his usual weekly ice cream party Wednesday. Several present and former pupils participated in the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Gumsall spent the weekend of the 25th and 26th at the William Tarman home. The ladies being sisters. The Gumsalls are residents of Clinton County.

Mrs. C. H. Walden in her capacity Secretary of the local school board had occasion to call on teachers of Hill school 4th and 5th grades the 27th of Feb. and 4th of March.

Don't forget next PTA date is March 12th. Unless present plans fall, some surprise entertainment is in store for all. Teachers still in demonstration against any form of advancement and up-to-date initiative utilize your boycott privileges and make yourselves generally conspicuous by your absence. Any who come bring your red hair or antidote for button busters. See you then! Danko student teacher at L. H. S. T. C. spent a lengthy weekend with home folks.

Dan Cupid has hit the Snow Shoe Knitting Mill quite hard since Feb. 14th. Getting engaged is an everyday occurrence. Possibly a layoff would remedy the situation. Hi!

Quite a lot of excitement in Clarence watching people doing gymnastics on the icy roads. Watch your step folks all up may come quick down like fabled Jack.

Miss Molly Swincer and boyfriend spent a quiet Saturday evening at the movies.

Mr. Rex Lucas of Snow Shoe, has recovered from a very bad cold.

Miss Verma Seprish and man attached shopped at Altoona recently. Wedding bells soon, eh!

Mr. and Mrs. John Patchcock of Poormanside and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bugosh made a business trip Saturday afternoon to Bellefonte.

Since the boys found a hangout at Padishake's garage the girls began loafing at Swancer's store. Grapevine telephone buzzes constantly. Let's listen in on a conversation soon.

Mr. Robert Peoples visited over the weekend at his home town Curwensville.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Myers and children of Lock Haven, and Mrs. J. Cloney and daughter Kathleen of Jersey Shore, visited home folks (Shives, etc) Sunday.

Jo Ann Drapcho spent a part of the past Sabbath with her best chum and confidant Jane McGowan.

Barbara Cingle and Paul Ceplich visited out of town friends Sunday. Miss Sophie Gornola was a pleasant caller at the home of her brother in Moshannon Saturday and Sunday.

Girls at the Knitting Mill are having as much vacation (off duty hours) as work with pay. Nice job if you can get it!

The Misses Bugosh and Drapcho entertained weekend guests from New Kensington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Casner had a Saturday supper guests Mr. and Mrs. William Reigel of Snow Shoe.

Among others, who witnessed "North West Passage" recently shown at the Plaza theatre in Bellefonte were the Krones in force; Cyril Drapcho and Steve Bugosh.

The Baked ham supper held by the Moshannon Presbyterians Saturday evening had loads of heat and plenty of eaters. Non-excusable absences were simply ignored so it goes without saying its success was assured. Results truly gratifying.

Slates Josephine and Catherine Kolasa helped swell the crowd at Friday night local movie audience. A highly commendable picture to be shown here later in this week is "The Rains Came."

Miss Joan Drapcho and Janie McGowan visited Sunday with Mae France at Snow Shoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Blanche Deter of Curwensville, were weekend visitors in town.

Mrs. Guy Watson and family made her customary Sunday pilgrimage to her parental home. Mrs. Aiken Quirk and three daughters spent Sunday evening with her sister-in-law Mrs. Lan Wagner of Gettysburg.

REBERSBURG

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hronimus, Mrs. Elizabeth Reigel of Middleburg, Mr. and Mrs. Presty Knepp and daughters Eleanor and Beatrice of Millburg, were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Arbostast.

Little Miss Sue Lane Miller of State College, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Adam Reish.

Mr. and Mrs. N. I. Astakoff returned home on Monday after spending a number of weeks in Philadelphia.

Mr. H. C. Ziegler visited at the home of his son-in-law, Fred Whitehill and family at Lemont.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Breun of Columbus, Ohio, were weekend guests at the home of W. J. Hackenberg and M. W. Breun.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Stover and son Bill of Monmouth, and Donald Beyer of Danville, spent Sunday at the Lee Kidder home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Masteller and children John and Gloria of Bloomsburg, were Sunday guests at the J. N. Moyer home.

Harry Yeerick Jr. of Mill Hall, and Miss Betty Bolopue of Lancaster, were Sunday afternoon callers in town.

Mrs. Elizabeth Page, Mrs. Elyer Herman, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Young and Miss Maxine Perree of Jersey Shore, visited at the A. B. Wolfe home, Sunday and were supper guests.

Mrs. Helen Brindle of Coburn, called at the C. S. Hosterman home recently.

Miss Petera must still be on the out with her Chevy as she has not been home since New Year's. She boards in town, walks to school at Poormanside and has her auto stored at Snow, Etc.

Our week's provoked comment is that we'd far rather be a peculiar old bachelor than a hen-pecked husband or a disillusioned old maid.

Grade Four closes their seed selling campaign March 15th. If you've not procured your seeds yet for the coming season let them know or send in your order soon. Reports of progress will be published in an early issue.

Miss Meek supervised at the local library Saturday. A formal plea for a change of library hours to our knowledge remains pigeonholed.

Miss Peters must still be on the out with her Chevy as she has not been home since New Year's. She boards in town, walks to school at Poormanside and has her auto stored at Snow, Etc.

Miss Norma Bonzell of Altoona, spent the weekend at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey.

Mrs. Mollie Sindall of Stormstown, spent Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams.

Mrs. Zelma Bickle and daughters Delores and Janet of Centre Line spent several days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Gingersy.

Mrs. George Harpster of State College visited Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ardery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughn and daughter spent Sunday at the B. H. Williams home.

The Baptist church will hold their quarterly Communion service next Sunday morning March 17th, at the regular morning worship service. The members of the church are urged to be present.

Miss June Robinson is spending several weeks with her brother Chaney Robinson and other friends at Baltimore, Md.

We are very sorry to hear that Miss Ida Williams has been ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Roy Calhoun at Unionville. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery and hope to see her back at Sylvan Crest soon.

Mrs. G. E. Ardery visited her sister Mrs. Esther Stone as Julian one day last week.

The friends of Harold Cronifer are very glad to know he has come home from the Phillipsburg Hospital, where he was a patient several weeks, and is able to be out among his friends again.

The following persons attended all or part of the sessions of the convention of the Baptist churches of Western and Central Pennsylvania held at the Baptist church at Hollidaysburg recently: Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Cronister, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ardery, Mrs. Romy Knarr, Mrs. Henry Cronister and Mrs. N. R. Stiver.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harter and family visited at the Calvin Young home on Sunday and found that Mrs. Young was sick in bed and had been for over a week.

Visitors at the R. H. Bemis home on Sunday were: Mr. Sumner Noll and Ralph Orr of Jacksonville, Melvin R. Case and two daughters, Doris and Fay and Sara Diehl of Millmont, Dean Stevenson and Genevieve Dine of Lock Haven, Marjorie Fletcher, Gloria Dullen and Maxine Dullen of Little Nittany, and Daniel Gordon and two granddaughters, Lois and Jean Gordon of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Walker visited on Sunday at the Willard Harter home. E. E. Vonada visited at the same place.

MARtha

The Willing Workers Bible Class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Spackman last Wednesday evening for its March meeting with the following members and friends present: Mr. and Mrs. William Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Korman and daughters Dorothy and Kate, Mr. and Mrs. Lundy Steele, daughters Helen and Lois, sons Morris and Gene, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Spackman and daughters Joan and Grace, son William Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Alta Spackman, Mrs. Belle Bailey and daughter Gwinnie, Mrs. Charlotte Weller and daughter Ethel, Mr. and Mrs. Ormsby Spackman and son Ronald, Mr. and Mrs. John Spackman, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Gensamer, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Spackman and son Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Gingersy and son Kyle, and Collie Woodring.

Mrs. Nannie Gingersy entertained with a quiling party, last Friday. The guests were: Mrs. Helen Spackman, Mrs. Mattie Williams, Mrs. Ethel Richards, Mrs. Edith Korman, Mrs. Hazel Spackman and son, Jimmy, Mrs. Charlotte Weller, Mrs. Belle Bailey, Mrs. Jean Gensamer, Mrs. Gladys Spackman, Mrs. Zelma Bickle and daughters Janet and Delores.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Skiles and son Clark of Spring Mills visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Skiles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Gensamer spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Gensamer of Warfordsburg.

Miss Norma Bonzell of Altoona, spent the weekend at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey.

Mrs. Mollie Sindall of Stormstown, spent Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams.

Mrs. Zelma Bickle and daughters Delores and Janet of Centre Line spent several days last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Gingersy.

Mrs. George Harpster of State College visited Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ardery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vaughn and daughter spent Sunday at the B. H. Williams home.

The Baptist church will hold their quarterly Communion service next Sunday morning March 17th, at the regular morning worship service. The members of the church are urged to be present.

Miss June Robinson is spending several weeks with her brother Chaney Robinson and other friends at Baltimore, Md.

We are very sorry to hear that Miss Ida Williams has been ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Roy Calhoun at Unionville. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery and hope to see her back at Sylvan Crest soon.

Mrs. G. E. Ardery visited her sister Mrs. Esther Stone as Julian one day last week.

The friends of Harold Cronifer are very glad to know he has come home from the Phillipsburg Hospital, where he was a patient several weeks, and is able to be out among his friends again.

The following persons attended all or part of the sessions of the convention of the Baptist churches of Western and Central Pennsylvania held at the Baptist church at Hollidaysburg recently: Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Cronister, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Ardery, Mrs. Romy Knarr, Mrs. Henry Cronister and Mrs. N. R. Stiver.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harter and family visited at the Calvin Young home on Sunday and found that Mrs. Young was sick in bed and had been for over a week.

Visitors at the R. H. Bemis home on Sunday were: Mr. Sumner Noll and Ralph Orr of Jacksonville, Melvin R. Case and two daughters, Doris and Fay and Sara Diehl of Millmont, Dean Stevenson and Genevieve Dine of Lock Haven, Marjorie Fletcher, Gloria Dullen and Maxine Dullen of Little Nittany, and Daniel Gordon and two granddaughters, Lois and Jean Gordon of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Walker visited on Sunday at the Willard Harter home. E. E. Vonada visited at the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shive and family called Sunday at the McGowan home.

Mr. Clifford Meek, only son of our aged and honored citizen Mrs. Elizabeth Meek was seen in town Wednesday.

Grammie Watson the 90 winners young mother of Hon. C. H. Watson was ill over the weekend. "We are glad to report she is much improved at this writing.

Our week's provoked comment is that we'd far rather be a peculiar old bachelor than a hen-pecked husband or a disillusioned old maid.

Grade Four closes their seed selling campaign March 15th. If you've not procured your seeds yet for the coming season let them know or send in your order soon. Reports of progress will be published in an early issue.

Miss Meek supervised at the local library Saturday. A formal plea for a change of library hours to our knowledge remains pigeonholed.

Miss Peters must still be on the out with her Chevy as she has not been home since New Year's. She boards in town, walks to school at Poormanside and has her auto stored at Snow, Etc.

Our week's provoked comment is that we'd far rather be a peculiar old bachelor than a hen-pecked husband or a disillusioned old maid.

Grade Four closes their seed selling campaign March 15th. If you've not procured your seeds yet for the coming season let them know or send in your order soon. Reports of progress will be published in an early issue.

Miss Meek supervised at the local library Saturday. A formal plea for a change of library hours to our knowledge remains pigeonholed.

Miss Peters must still be on the out with her Chevy as she has not been home since New Year's. She boards in town, walks to school at Poormanside and has her auto stored at Snow, Etc.

ORVISTON

There were 163 present at Sunday school.

The revival services started here on Sunday night with the Lanaster brothers conducting it. There will be services every night until March 17th.

William Craspen of Julian, spent Friday at the Clayton Watson home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barnhart and family spent Sunday with relatives at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gray and two children of Howard, spent the weekend at the G. H. Gillespie and W. O. Gray homes.

Ben Poorman of State College, spent several days the past week at the William Barnhart home.

Mrs. Bertha Condo entertained with a birthday supper in honor of her and her son-in-law Charles Heverly's birthdays. The following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heverly of Lock Haven; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Walker and son of Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Condit and daughter of Orviston; Mrs. Mary Belle Heverly of Lock Haven; Merrill and Mrs. Condo.

Mrs. Paul Lomison of Lock Haven, spent Sunday afternoon and evening with her family here.

Mrs. Anna Barnhart of Curtin is spending some time with her son William and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Herr visited Mrs. Herr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Toiling at Summit Hill, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Miller of Lock Haven spent the weekend at the Ed. Confer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Walker spent several days the past week with relatives at Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter and family of North Bend visited on Sunday at the John A. Gray home.

The Loyal Women's Class met at the home of Mrs. Clair Confer on Thursday night for their regular monthly meeting.

The Men's Bible Class met in the classroom on Friday night for their regular monthly meeting after the business meeting the evening was spent in playing dart ball.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walker and son James of Lanser, spent the weekend of Feb. 25th, with their son McDowell and family.

Mrs. Clair Butler and Mrs. Earl Lomison attended the donkey baseball game at Howard on Friday night.

Mrs. Blanche Daley visited her sister Mrs. C. D. Olmstead and Mrs. Mary B. Heverly at Lock Haven Thursday evening and Friday.

Yes! Yes! The latest counterfeit $100 bill is said to be perfect, except that it lacks a comma. Most of the $100 bills we get hold of lack of a couple ciphers.

The opening of the McGowan Beauty Salon was an outstanding event of last week. If the first week's custom foretells future success, an undiminished trade is assured.

A number of our towns folks (names unknown) availed themselves of an opportunity to attend a leap year party in the borough of the 29th.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shive and family called Sunday at the McGowan home.

Mr. Clifford Meek, only son of our aged and honored citizen Mrs. Elizabeth Meek was seen in town Wednesday.

Grammie Watson the 90 winners young mother of Hon. C. H. Watson was ill over the weekend. "We are glad to report she is much improved at this writing.

Our week's provoked comment is that we'd far rather be a peculiar old bachelor than a hen-pecked husband or a disillusioned old maid.

Grade Four closes their seed selling campaign March 15th. If you've not procured your seeds yet for the coming season let them know or send in your order soon. Reports of progress will be published in an early issue.

Miss Meek supervised at the local library Saturday. A formal plea for a change of library hours to our knowledge remains pigeonholed.

Miss Peters must still be on the out with her Chevy as she has not been home since New Year's. She boards in town, walks to school at Poormanside and has her auto stored at Snow, Etc.

Our week's provoked comment is that we'd far rather be a peculiar old bachelor than a hen-pecked husband or a disillusioned old maid.

Can't Be Done: A Long Island town has a law providing a fine of $25 for profanity. That must be an awful place to change a tire on a hot day.
Thought For The Day: If the nose of Cleopatra had been shorter, the whole face of the earth would have been changed—
Epithets replace reason when the intellect is deranged.
Maybe, Spring gardens will soon have a chance to grow.

DEAN PHIPPS AUTO STORES PENNSYLVANIA MOTOR OIL DIRECT FROM PENNSYLVANIA OIL FIELDS 3-DAY SALE!
2 GALLON CANS SEALED AT REFINERY! 89c VALUE 59c PLUS TAX
PENNA. MANY MILES 2 GALLON SEALED CANS S. A. E. 20, 30 & 40 ONLY 89c Plus Tax $1.29 Value! COMPARE WITH 25c OILS!
Genuine WESTERN LUBE COMPARE WITH 15c AND 20c OILS ONCE A YEAR SALE! FULL BODIED! QUALITY PLUS! Guaranteed
6 QT. Plus Tax DON'T MISS THIS BUY! 5 GALLON LIMIT

MAIL BOXES REG. 49c 3 DAYS ONLY 12c HEAVY METAL
Attention Men! HERE IS SOMETHING YOU HAVE ALWAYS WANTED TIE RACK A REAL HONEST TO GOODNESS FOLDS DOWN TO SAVE CLOSET ROOM. HOLDS 24 TIES! Reg. 50c Value! 12c EA.

FREE! 30c CAN JOHNSON'S AUTO WAX AND 15c SIZE POLISH CLOTH WITH PINT CAN JOHNSON'S POLISH AND CLEANER 57c
ROBIN HOOD HATS Boys and Girls HEAVY FELT THE LATEST RAGE WITH GAY COLORED FEATHER ALL SIZES ALL COLORS 3 DAY SALE! ONLY 6c

3 DAY TIRE SALE GENUINE BRUNSWICK SAFETY-TESTED Save up to $2.50 Each
NATIONALLY ADVERTISED GUARANTEED AGAINST BRUISES, BLOWOUTS, etc. LIBERAL ALLOWANCE HAS BEEN MADE FOR OLD TIRES

LONG GRAIN TOP MATERIAL 64 IN. WIDE 39c VALUE 19c
PERFECTION OIL TREATED TROUT FLY LINES 25 YARDS Reg. 99c 59c COIL
PHIPPS SUPER POWER BATTERIES As Low As $1.95 EX. SAVE 50%
45 PLATE $4.33 EX 51 PLATE $5.95 EX
GUARANTEED 12 TO 36 MONTHS BATTERIES RECHARGED All Makes 25c

RUBBER CUSHION DOOR ANTI RATTLES 2 For 1c FITS ALL CARS
DEAN PHIPPS AUTO STORES 28 S. Allegheny St. BELLEFONTE, PA.