

UNIONVILLE

Methodist Church Services—Prayer service this Thursday evening. Sunday School on Sunday morning and special Easter services in the evening at 7:30 at the preaching hour at which time will be presented by the young folks, a pageant.

Presbyterian Church Services—Bible Study Class on Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the church, Sunday School on Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Special services will be held in the church from Monday, March 25, to Friday, March 29, when the Rev. Hiram H. VanCleave of the 2nd Presbyterian Church of Altoona will present the message each evening which will be accompanied by special musical numbers each evening.

Denotation of Eggs—The young folks of the Epworth League of the Methodist church will gather up eggs this week to be taken to the Home for the Aged in Tyrone as the Easter donation from this church. Have your eggs ready when they come for them, on Saturday of this week, or bring them to the church on Sunday morning.

Free Methodist Church Services—Prayer service Friday evening. Sunday School on Sunday morning followed by the preaching service. Young people service in the evening at 7:30.

J. E. Brink is busy the past few days repairing his grape arbor which fell recently under the heavy weight of snow.

The sale of the household effects of the late C. R. Eckenroth will be held on the premises on Saturday afternoon, March 30th.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Watson moved to Altoona on Wednesday where they took in the sights of the town and transacted business.

Rev. G. A. Garrett, who has been ill and confined to his room for the past several weeks is somewhat improved at this writing and his many friends and neighbors are trusting his complete recovery may follow, with no further delay.

Rev. A. J. Tooten, pastor of the Free Methodist church of Tyrone, Pa., will deliver an Easter sermon on Sunday morning at 10:45 in the Free Methodist church here, as Rev. Garrett is still confined to his bed and not able to attend his services. They are desirous of having a good attendance to hear him.

Mrs. Margaret Morrison, a former resident of this community but in recent years has been living in Altoona, will move next week into the Boller property now that of Mrs. Sara Immel. She will occupy the large part of the house while Miss Clara Hall has moved into the back rooms formerly occupied by the Burkholder family.

Mrs. Roy Calhoun has ill over the weekend with an attack of the grippe. Miss Ida Williams who has been ill at the Calhoun home is improving and able to be around. Artery Calhoun, their son, is still home and taking care of the sick folks, he himself having been laid up for a couple days with the grippe.

Mrs. J. R. Williams, who has been in Philadelphia for several weeks taking care of the Nason family who were all sick, has returned and reports that the Nason's are all improving while in Philadelphia. Mrs. Williams attended the Flower Show as the guest of Miss Ridda as at the following business places: R. "Cam" Heverly's store, Parrish Drug Store, Cox's Restaurant, Big Trout Inn, S. H. Poorman's Garage, Hubert Rossmann's Service Station, and O. A. Kline Hardware. In State College tickets can be secured from "Pete" Hoffman, while members of the Pleasant Gap Association have charge of the ticket sale at that vicinity.

Expect Record Crowd at Dinner

(Continued from Page 1)

The Bellefonte Sportsmen's Association will hold an important meeting at the Court house here at 7:30 o'clock tonight for the transaction of important business and the election of a new president to succeed R. R. Seay, who has been unable to accept the presidency.

Prices for the dinner tickets are as follows: $1.00 for both a member, ship in the Bellefonte Association and a dinner ticket; 75 cents for persons not members of the Bellefonte association, and 50 cents for members.

Have You Ever Wondered... just what to wear when you see the Easter Bunny? We can answer that question at NIEMAN'S.

New Spring Coats, Suits, and Dresses are now on display in new plaids, tweeds, and shetlands. The fitted reefer type in navy and black carrying this season's ideas in buttons and pockets, is available from $9.95 to $25.00

New Suits For Men In tweeds and hard finish materials at $15.95, $20.95 and $24.95 along with smart seasonable accessories.

Beautiful Shoes for every member of the family at reasonable prices. Many famous makes such as Walk-Over, Air Steps, Florsheims are represented.

Niemans Depart. Store Millheim, Penna. Store Open Evenings, Except Tuesday and Thursday When We Close at 6 O'clock.

Huston who is a member of the Flower Club of Germantown and is the daughter of the late Doctor Huston, who at one time, was a very prominent physician in Centre County and Philadelphia.

Mrs. E. L. Parsons has a quilt in the frames and she, with some of her friends and neighbors are taking up their spare moments quilting.

Mrs. W. B. Parsons spent a couple days this week visiting with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Richards of Jersey Shore, also called on other relatives while there.

Mrs. A. F. Hazel left last Friday evening for Hazlet, Indiana, where she will visit with her son Edward Stevens who is employed as a fireman on the P. R. R. running between Columbus, Ohio and Chicago.

From last week Birthday Party—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burkholder had a birthday party for their son Stanley, on the 8th birthday, Thursday evening, March 7th at their home here. The evening was spent by playing games and refreshments were served consisting of ice cream, cake and candy. Many nice gifts were received from those present who were Paul Jones, James Watkins; John Robison, Jr.; Billy Resides; Donnie Reish; Harold Lucas; Vernon Emehizer; Billy Fisher; Earl Fick; Melvin Metzler; Lynn Stambaugh and Raymond Mong. A very delightful evening was spent by all present.

Joseph Way, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Way is laid up this week with tonsillitis.

Mrs. P. I. Holt and daughter Corinne of Millburg, spent Sunday with relatives here.

Rev. G. A. Garrett of the Free Methodist church, who has been ill for the past couple weeks is still confined to his bed but slightly improved at this writing. His many friends and neighbors hope his complete recovery may be speedy.

ZION

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clevens had as their dinner guest on Saturday, Mrs. Clevens' twin brother, Roy Garbrick of Centre Hall.

James Kane, a Sophomore at Temple, arrived home Saturday to spend his Easter vacation at the family home.

The young people held a union meeting in the Reformed social hall, on Monday evening.

The public is invited to attend an Easter Cantata Easter Sunday at 7:30 p. m. in the Lutheran church.

Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Grove of Centre Hall, spent Saturday evening at the John Hockman home.

Kenneth Noll, and sons of Jersey Shore, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Emma Noll.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Grove, of Bellefonte, spent Friday with their son, Roy and family.

Glad to report Miss Lize Boone is recovering very nicely from her recent illness.

Mrs. George Snyder spent Monday at the H. T. Struble home. She also called at the Carner home.

Church notes:—Reformed church Holy Communion 10:30 a. m. Easter Sunday; preparatory services Thursday evening 7:30. Lutheran church: Holy Week services Friday evening 7:30 p. m. theme Christ the Lamb, Easter Cantata Sunday evening 7:30.

Miss Louise Shaffer spent Saturday with Miss Betty Gentzel.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gummo, who were married Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Harter.

Miss Sara Krane spent the weekend with Miss Jane Allison at Harrisburg.

The John Baker family expect to move Wednesday from the Armstrong bungalow to Avis.

Charles and Jim Boone of Rebersburg, called at the Carner home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gilmore of Yesgetown, were recent callers at the Ebert home.

Spanked Bride Gets Revenge How a harassed woman married the family pet to save his life, but when she rebelled her husband took her over his knees. Now the court has soothed the pains of her bruises.

Read this story in the March 31st issue of The American Weekly, the big magazine distributed with the Baltimore American, on sale at all newsstands.

The reason most men work is that when labor ceases the pay-check falters.

Only at Wolf's

Have You Ever Wondered... just what to wear when you see the Easter Bunny? We can answer that question at NIEMAN'S.

New Spring Coats, Suits, and Dresses are now on display in new plaids, tweeds, and shetlands. The fitted reefer type in navy and black carrying this season's ideas in buttons and pockets, is available from $9.95 to $25.00

New Suits For Men In tweeds and hard finish materials at $15.95, $20.95 and $24.95 along with smart seasonable accessories.

Beautiful Shoes for every member of the family at reasonable prices. Many famous makes such as Walk-Over, Air Steps, Florsheims are represented.

Niemans Depart. Store Millheim, Penna. Store Open Evenings, Except Tuesday and Thursday When We Close at 6 O'clock.

PINE GROVE MILLS

Mr. Edward Harpser has returned to his home in town after spending the past two weeks with his sister, Mrs. Lavina Behrer at Grayville.

Mrs. Clara Logan Couch of Sausburg, Huntingdon County, spent a few days recently with her sister, Mrs. Ella Bloom on Water Street.

Dr. Hork is still wading the snow, as he left the past week, a sweet little girl at the Ollie Moore home and a fine 9-ber—a girl—at the Theodore Judy home.

After spending the winter with friends in Bellwood Miss Corene Conley has returned to their summer home at Baileyville, her sister, Mrs. Ida will join her in the near future.

The Golden Rule Presbyterian Sunday School Class enjoyed its March meeting last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. R. L. Thilingsworth on Wall Street.

Miss Anna Jane Musser spent the past weekend with her former school chum, Mrs. Peggy Everhart Ring of Pittsburgh, who was visiting at the home of her aunt and family, Mrs. John Quinn on the Branch.

Mrs. Sophia Reed of Franklinville is enjoying her spring visit at the home of her daughter and family, Mrs. Savelle Everhart.

Farmer Elmer Rider of Gatesburg was a pleasant caller in our town last Thursday on a business mission.

The new Dodd restaurant on the corner is almost completed and in the very near future will be ready to serve the public. A modern restaurant in town, worthy of your patronage.

Farmers J. Earl Crust, John Carney of Buffalo Run were here last Thursday for George Musser's sale and purchased a fine load of cows for their up-to-date dairies. The Musser cash sale totalled $2250.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gearhart were recent guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Thompson of Boalsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Hess moved to Newport, last Sunday to spend the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Leigh Ehrhart, former residents of Centre Hall.

Mr. Bright is cashier of the Newport First National Bank.

The Charles Markle family vacated the Harpser house on Tadpole last week and fitted to the Roy Gates dairy farm in Sinking Valley.

The popular Ford Salesman Guy Glenn, of Bellefonte, was a Monday caller at his parental home on E. Main street, Mr. and Mrs. Hamill own.

Mr. Jerry Newman is driving a new Plymouth coupe, purchased the past week from the State College agency.

Mrs. Charles Srouse returned last Saturday from Sunbury and is reported improving very nicely from recent operation in the Sunbury hospital.

Mrs. E. C. Martz, Mrs. George Smith, visited Mrs. E. M. Porter in the Lewisburg Hospital last Friday. Mrs. Porter underwent a major operation in that hospital Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Bertha Scolling spent some time in Altoona last week with her brother, Roy Gates who is in the States for a few days furlough from U. S. Navy where he has served as Midshipman for 7 years and recently re-enlisted at Philadelphia.

James William H. Knaz of Tyrone, and Howard M. Miles of Julian, were among the bidders at the Merle Pooman sale Monday in North Ferguson. Mr. Knaz purchasing 2 fine Holstein cows where bidding was brisk. A very large crowd. Cows sold as high as $135 per.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Corl attended the farmers' banquet last Thursday at Penn Belle hotel in Bellefonte.

Leap year wedding—Wedding last Saturday, March 16 of Miss Margaret Carrens of Waynesboro, and Conrad G. Fry of Waynesboro, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Mac Fry of Pa. Furnace, was solemnized in the Methodist church, Rev. J. C. Crowling performing ring ceremony, only immediate family members were present. Their attendants were Miss Helen Carrens of Waynesboro, sister of the bride and Mr. Hugh Fry, brother of the groom of Smethport, Pa. A reception followed at the bride's home. The newly weds departed for Philadelphia and New York City and Brooklyn, where they will spend a 10 days honeymoon. Both bride and groom are members of the Potter Ins. Co. force of Waynesboro. The groom the general agent. After March 23 they will be at home to their friends in South Waynesboro at bride's home. Those from this section attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fry, Mr. and Mrs. G. Mac Fry.

Luther G. Peters was a business caller last Wednesday in Bellefonte assisting Francis Musser preparing for his farm sale.

JACKSONVILLE

Church services on Easter Sunday March 24, are as follows: Sunday School 9:30; C. E. 6:45; Worship 7:30 at which time a screen will be used containing 90 pictures, 70 of them portraying the Easter witness.

On Wednesday evening March 21 the Salona group of the Reformed church will present their play here in Jacksonville, the play is entitled "Barabaa."

Mrs. Earl Bickle of Pine Grove Mills, Mrs. Daniel Stover, of Penna. Furnace, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rudy and Mrs. Paul Bohn of State College, spent Wednesday with Mrs. Quinner Noll the day was spent in quilting.

Mrs. Anna Robb was a Saturday afternoon caller on her friend Mrs. Charles Dolan of Little Nittany.

Miss June Yearick was an over night guest of her friend, Miss Betty Aley on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dolan and sons accompanied by his mother, Mrs. George Dolan, were Saturday afternoon visitors at the home of Mrs. Clarence Dolan, a former Howard resident and milliner, died at Williamsport and was brought here and laid to rest in the Presbyterian cemetery on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Lucy Conaway spent Sunday afternoon with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rhoda Conaway and children of Beech Creek.

Mrs. Harry Harter and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Donald Harter of near Kyrtown, spent Thursday at the home of the former's daughter, Mrs. William Beigholt. Afternoon callers were Mrs. Alice Baz and Mrs. Robert Conaway, the day was spent in quilting.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Kime were Wednesday evening guests at the Miles Barley home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schaeffer and daughter, Nancy Lou of Centre Hall, spent Saturday evening at the C. E. Aley home.

Mrs. James Lucas spent Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yearick of Fox Hollow.

That long looked for and much talked about electricity came at last and the current was turned into both of our stores and church grange hall and 19 dwelling houses on Thursday and more dwelling houses will receive the current in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dixon of Flemington and Mr. Ted Dixon of this place were Sunday afternoon callers at the home of their parent, Mr. and Mrs. William Dixon and finding their father not improving very fast.

Sunday afternoon callers at the E. R. Bartley home were Mr. and Mrs. Agnes Dunkle and son Paul of Bellefonte, Mrs. William Beigholt and sons Earl, Harry, Clair, Milford, and Willard Weaver.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hackenburger and two children, of Runville, and Arthur Dolan of this place, were Sunday dinner guests at the Summer Noll home. Evening callers were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Neidigh and son Bobby and Mr. and Mrs. McCloskey of Howard, and Robert Jane Fry of this place.

Sunday callers at the Robert Conaway home were Miss Madeline Conaway of Beech Creek, and Mrs. Lucy Conaway of this place.

Those who visited Mrs. Olive Spicer on Sunday were Mrs. Hazel Garbrick and sons Gerald and Donald and Miss Evelyn Spicer all of Milltown, and Mrs. Robert McCloskey, Mrs. Raymond Neidigh and son Robert of Howard.

Sunday visitors at the John Deitz home were Mr. and Mrs. George White and daughter Connie of Rote.

Miss Madeline Conaway of Beech Creek is spending this week with her grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Conaway.

Sunday callers at the Orin Fye home were Miss June Erley, Milford Beigholt and Mrs. Edith Long all of this place.

Sunday dinner guests at the William Beigholt home were Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul of Bellefonte, Milford Beigholt of Bellefonte, R. D. 2. Afternoon callers were Clair Beigholt and Iva Berry of Lock Haven.

Mrs. Walter Daley of Altoona, Mrs. Winfield Deitz and Master Kenneth Erley were Thursday evening callers at the C. E. Aley home.

A. A. Garrett and children spent Sunday afternoon at the Newton Weaver home in State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yearick and children Dean and Dorothy of Fox Hollow, were Sunday dinner guests at the Swope and Lucas home.

Mrs. Betty Aley spent Sunday with her friend Miss June Yearick of Little Nittany.

On Monday morning the first fatal accident occurred in our valley at the Miller Stone quarry while Mr. Frank Campana was barring down stone a large rock came down and crushed out his life almost instantly.

Miss Mable Lantz, a former Howard resident and milliner, died at Williamsport and was brought here and laid to rest in the Presbyterian cemetery on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Lucy Conaway spent Sunday afternoon with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rhoda Conaway and children of Beech Creek.

Philip Saylor, assistant fire marshal George Carpeneto; Michael E. Clark, fire chief of Williamsport; A. Nelson Yearick, fire chief of Lewisburg; and Arthur W. Espey, instructor for the Pennsylvania Fire School.

Mr. Espey traced the growth of fire schools in Pennsylvania, reporting that they are now being conducted in 61 communities. He added that the training being received by present-day volunteer firemen is similar to that received by members of paid departments, and that the standards of fire fighting have risen immeasurably in the past several decades.

Espey declared that firemen are the soldiers of peace who conduct an unending war against a foe that is never defeated. He referred to the great responsibility placed in the hands of firemen by the public in guarding communities against loss of life and property, and characterized fire fighting as requiring the highest type of courage.

Toastmaster, Gillen read an interesting and comprehensive review of the difference between the old-time volunteer fire companies and the present day units. "The bitter rivalry of former years," he said, "has been turned into a spirit of co-operation." No longer do rival companies seek to hinder each other, but instead members of different companies now work with each other and frequently obey orders from officials of other companies, he related.

Guests introduced during the dinner were: James R. Hughes, Thomas Beaver, president of Council; Council members W. J. Emerick, W. W. Sieg, Leslie Thomas, E. J. Tennant, H. E. Maudk, John Weber and Harold D. Cowher; William Doll, oldest member of the Undine company; the Rev. A. J. Chervenak, assistant rector of St. John's church; the Rev. William C. Thompson, pastor of the Presbyterian church; Herman Hazel, president of the Logan company; Arthur Booth, chief of the Logan; Daniel Krumrine, chief of the Alpha company, State College; Loren Elder, chief of Alpha's first aid squad; Nevin Adkins, chief of the Pleasant Gap company; Malcolm Swartz, chief of the Milesburg company; Norris Shay, chief of the Howard company; and Captain C. J. McKee, of the State Motor Police at Williamsport, formerly of Bellefonte.

Entertainment at the dinner included group singing and Irish numbers sung by Cyril Moerschbacher, George Sheckly, was pianist.

State Treasurer F. Clair Ross, of Harrisburg, spoke briefly at the beginning of the dinner. Mr. Ross, principal speaker at a birthday dinner at Brooks-Doll Post American Legion Home, Bellefonte, visited the Undine firemen upon invitation by that company.

Lucy Conaway of this place. Those who visited Mrs. Olive Spicer on Sunday were Mrs. Hazel Garbrick and sons Gerald and Donald and Miss Evelyn Spicer all of Milltown, and Mrs. Robert McCloskey, Mrs. Raymond Neidigh and son Robert of Howard.

Sunday visitors at the John Deitz home were Mr. and Mrs. George White and daughter Connie of Rote.

Miss Madeline Conaway of Beech Creek is spending this week with her grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Conaway.

Sunday callers at the Orin Fye home were Miss June Erley, Milford Beigholt and Mrs. Edith Long all of this place.

Sunday dinner guests at the William Beigholt home were Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul of Bellefonte, Milford Beigholt of Bellefonte, R. D. 2. Afternoon callers were Clair Beigholt and Iva Berry of Lock Haven.

Mrs. Walter Daley of Altoona, Mrs. Winfield Deitz and Master Kenneth Erley were Thursday evening callers at the C. E. Aley home.

A. A. Garrett and children spent Sunday afternoon at the Newton Weaver home in State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yearick and children Dean and Dorothy of Fox Hollow, were Sunday dinner guests at the Swope and Lucas home.

Mrs. Betty Aley spent Sunday with her friend Miss June Yearick of Little Nittany.

On Monday morning the first fatal accident occurred in our valley at the Miller Stone quarry while Mr. Frank Campana was barring down stone a large rock came down and crushed out his life almost instantly.

Miss Mable Lantz, a former Howard resident and milliner, died at Williamsport and was brought here and laid to rest in the Presbyterian cemetery on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Lucy Conaway spent Sunday afternoon with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rhoda Conaway and children of Beech Creek.

Philip Saylor, assistant fire marshal George Carpeneto; Michael E. Clark, fire chief of Williamsport; A. Nelson Yearick, fire chief of Lewisburg; and Arthur W. Espey, instructor for the Pennsylvania Fire School.

Mr. Espey traced the growth of fire schools in Pennsylvania, reporting that they are now being conducted in 61 communities. He added that the training being received by present-day volunteer firemen is similar to that received by members of paid departments, and that the standards of fire fighting have risen immeasurably in the past several decades.

Espey declared that firemen are the soldiers of peace who conduct an unending war against a foe that is never defeated. He referred to the great responsibility placed in the hands of firemen by the public in guarding communities against loss of life and property, and characterized fire fighting as requiring the highest type of courage.

Toastmaster, Gillen read an interesting and comprehensive review of the difference between the old-time volunteer fire companies and the present day units. "The bitter rivalry of former years," he said, "has been turned into a spirit of co-operation." No longer do rival companies seek to hinder each other, but instead members of different companies now work with each other and frequently obey orders from officials of other companies, he related.

Guests introduced during the dinner were: James R. Hughes, Thomas Beaver, president of Council; Council members W. J. Emerick, W. W. Sieg, Leslie Thomas, E. J. Tennant, H. E. Maudk, John Weber and Harold D. Cowher; William Doll, oldest member of the Undine company; the Rev. A. J. Chervenak, assistant rector of St. John's church; the Rev. William C. Thompson, pastor of the Presbyterian church; Herman Hazel, president of the Logan company; Arthur Booth, chief of the Logan; Daniel Krumrine, chief of the Alpha company, State College; Loren Elder, chief of Alpha's first aid squad; Nevin Adkins, chief of the Pleasant Gap company; Malcolm Swartz, chief of the Milesburg company; Norris Shay, chief of the Howard company; and Captain C. J. McKee, of the State Motor Police at Williamsport, formerly of Bellefonte.

Entertainment at the dinner included group singing and Irish numbers sung by Cyril Moerschbacher, George Sheckly, was pianist.

State Treasurer F. Clair Ross, of Harrisburg, spoke briefly at the beginning of the dinner. Mr. Ross, principal speaker at a birthday dinner at Brooks-Doll Post American Legion Home, Bellefonte, visited the Undine firemen upon invitation by that company.

Lucy Conaway of this place. Those who visited Mrs. Olive Spicer on Sunday were Mrs. Hazel Garbrick and sons Gerald and Donald and Miss Evelyn Spicer all of Milltown, and Mrs. Robert McCloskey, Mrs. Raymond Neidigh and son Robert of Howard.

Sunday visitors at the John Deitz home were Mr. and Mrs. George White and daughter Connie of Rote.

Miss Madeline Conaway of Beech Creek is spending this week with her grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Conaway.

Sunday callers at the Orin Fye home were Miss June Erley, Milford Beigholt and Mrs. Edith Long all of this place.

Sunday dinner guests at the William Beigholt home were Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul of Bellefonte, Milford Beigholt of Bellefonte, R. D. 2. Afternoon callers were Clair Beigholt and Iva Berry of Lock Haven.

Mrs. Walter Daley of Altoona, Mrs. Winfield Deitz and Master Kenneth Erley were Thursday evening callers at the C. E. Aley home.

A. A. Garrett and children spent Sunday afternoon at the Newton Weaver home in State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Yearick and children Dean and Dorothy of Fox Hollow, were Sunday dinner guests at the Swope and Lucas home.

Mrs. Betty Aley spent Sunday with her friend Miss June Yearick of Little Nittany.

On Monday morning the first fatal accident occurred in our valley at the Miller Stone quarry while Mr. Frank Campana was barring down stone a large rock came down and crushed out his life almost instantly.

Miss Mable Lantz, a former Howard resident and milliner, died at Williamsport and was brought here and laid to rest in the Presbyterian cemetery on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Lucy Conaway spent Sunday afternoon with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Rhoda Conaway and children of Beech Creek.

Philip Saylor, assistant fire marshal George Carpeneto; Michael E. Clark, fire chief of Williamsport; A. Nelson Yearick, fire chief of Lewisburg; and Arthur W. Espey, instructor for the Pennsylvania Fire School.

Mr. Espey traced the growth of fire schools in Pennsylvania, reporting that they are now being conducted in 61 communities. He added that the training being received by present-day volunteer firemen is similar to that received by members of paid departments, and that the standards of fire fighting have risen immeasurably in the past several decades.

Espey declared that firemen are the soldiers of peace who conduct an unending war against a foe that is never defeated. He referred to the great responsibility placed in the hands of firemen by the public in guarding communities against loss of life and property, and characterized fire fighting as requiring the highest type of courage.

Toastmaster, Gillen read an interesting and comprehensive review of the difference between the old-time volunteer fire companies and the present day units. "The bitter rivalry of former years," he said, "has been turned into a spirit of co-operation." No longer do rival companies seek to hinder each other, but instead members of different companies now work with each other and frequently obey orders from officials of other companies, he related.

Guests introduced during the dinner were: James R. Hughes, Thomas Beaver, president of Council; Council members W. J. Emerick, W. W. Sieg, Leslie Thomas, E. J. Tennant, H. E. Maudk, John Weber and Harold D. Cowher; William Doll, oldest member of the Undine company; the Rev. A. J. Chervenak, assistant rector of St. John's church; the Rev. William C. Thompson, pastor of the Presbyterian church; Herman Hazel, president of the Logan company; Arthur Booth, chief of the Logan; Daniel Krumrine, chief of the Alpha company, State College; Loren Elder, chief of Alpha's first aid squad; Nevin Adkins, chief of the Pleasant Gap company; Malcolm Swartz, chief of the Milesburg company; Norris Shay, chief of the Howard company; and Captain C. J. McKee, of the State Motor Police at Williamsport, formerly of Bellefonte.

Entertainment at the dinner included group singing and Irish numbers sung by Cyril Moerschbacher, George Sheckly, was pianist.

State Treasurer F. Clair Ross, of Harrisburg, spoke briefly at the beginning of the dinner. Mr. Ross, principal speaker at a birthday dinner at Brooks-Doll Post American Legion Home, Bellefonte, visited the Undine firemen upon invitation by that company.

Lucy Conaway of this place. Those who visited Mrs. Olive Spicer on Sunday were Mrs. Hazel Garbrick and sons Gerald and Donald and Miss Evelyn Spicer all of Milltown, and Mrs. Robert McCloskey, Mrs. Raymond Neidigh and son Robert of Howard.

Sunday visitors at the John Deitz home were Mr. and Mrs. George White and daughter Connie of Rote.

Miss Madeline Conaway of Beech Creek is spending this week with her grandmother, Mrs. Lucy Conaway.

Sunday callers at the Orin Fye home were Miss June Erley, Milford Beigholt and Mrs. Edith Long all of this place.

Sunday dinner guests at the William Beigholt home were Mr. and Mrs. John Dunkle and son Paul of Bellefonte, Milford Beigholt of Bellefonte, R. D. 2. Afternoon callers were Clair Beigholt and Iva Berry of Lock Haven.

Mrs. Walter Daley of Altoona, Mrs. Winfield Deitz and Master Kenneth Erley were Thursday evening callers at the C. E. Aley home.

A. A. Garrett and children spent Sunday afternoon at the Newton Weaver home in State College.

Mr. and Mrs.