

CENTRE HALL AND VICINITY

To Beautify School Grounds
Donald Coldron, chairman of the committee for landscaping the local high school grounds, reports that plans have been drawn by Mr. Rasmussen of The Pennsylvania State College.

Leave for Florida.
Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Kirkpatrick left on Tuesday, April 2nd for Tampa, Florida.

School Girl Breaks Arm
While at school on Friday, Bessie Schuyler suffered a fracture of the right arm.

Clear $84 From Operetta
The operetta, "Oh, Doctor!" directed by Donald Shupe and presented last Friday evening was a success.

Boxing Meet, April 5
James Meyers, physical educational director in C. H. P. H. S. will present an evening of boxing and wrestling in the high school auditorium at 7:30 on Thursday, April 5.

Church Schedule
Reformed—Rev. D. R. Keener: Church School 9:30; Church Worship 7:30.

PINE GLEN
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fulmer of Drifling, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Beckel of Harriburg, visited at the home of the latter's father, H. A. Beates, Sunday.

At a birthday supper in honor of Mrs. Cora Homan at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Homan, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lepley, Robert Reish, and Mrs. Cochran, of State College, and Miss Ann Homan were guests.

Friday, April 5, the Senior Class of C. H. P. H. S. will sponsor a dance. From 9 to 1 you can dance to the music of Casey's Rhythmites. Admission 35 cents.

Eighteen members from the Reformed church attended a Youth Conference at State College last Saturday. The two delegates from Centre Hall, Ray Delaney and Patsy Booser were present.

Miss Grace Wible, last Friday, attended the Eastern Arts convention held in the Bellevue-Stratford, Hotel in Philadelphia.

Miss Jean Bartholomew has recovered from a cold which confined her in her home for a week.

The Ladies Aid Association met at the Evangelical parsonage last Thursday. Thirteen ladies were present.

Robert Bradford on Sunday accompanied Mr. Samuel Bricker, Miss Betty Zeigler and Miss Helen Olsen of Bellefonte to State College, where they attended the concert given in Schwab auditorium.

The Friendship Bible Class of the Reformed church will meet on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. F. Wetzel.

Don Miller was a supper guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Sweeney last Sunday.

The Missionary Society of the Evangelical church will meet at the home of Mrs. George Ralston this Thursday evening.

E. L. Bartholomew of Altoona, was a Saturday visitor at the Bartholomew home.

The Consistory of the Reformed church held their quarterly meeting on April 3 at the home of Mr. H. C. Reish.

Because of flood conditions Mr. J. S. Booser spent the weekend in Lock Haven looking after the interests of his business.

Miss Jean Ross spent the weekend with her aunt, Mrs. Edward Durst.

TUSSEVILLE AND OLYVER.
Mr. and Mrs. Jay Runkle last Thursday moved to a farm near Bellefonte where they are starting to farm.

Miss Esther Hastings spent Friday evening with Miss Dorothy McMichael at the Faust home in Pottery Mills.

Morris Bryan and family of Bellefonte were Sunday visitors at the H. O. Detweiler home.

Clarence Neill is ill with pneumonia.

Paul Watson, who moved from the A. B. Lee farm near Spring Mills, is the new occupant of the Hosterman farm.

Miss Anna Louise Gorman, of Zion, was a weekend guest of Miss Esther Hastings at the Fortney home.

Mr. Lester Treaster and family have moved from the Reiber farm to their farm in Krise Valley.

Mr. Randall Williams and family from Oak Hall have moved into the property owned by Mrs. H. S. Lambert.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hoover, Harold, Jean and Marion Hoover and Mrs. Clyde Hoover went to Phillipsburg Sunday evening to hear Homer Rodeheaver sing in the Methodist church there.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mullholland of Altoona, visited the Robert Askey home Monday.

MILESBURG

The people of our community had good reason to be alarmed on Saturday night when Bald Eagle Creek and Spring Creek went on a rampage.

The evangelistic services in the church of Christ are apparently very successful. The second baptismal service was held on Monday evening.

Mrs. Dallas Kline and Mrs. Dora Hevery spent Wednesday with their sister, Mrs. Milford Hevery.

Mrs. Earl Shilling visited friends in Howard one day last week.

The Clayton Baney family of Mill Hill are moving into the home joining the James Garage.

Earl James made a trip to Harrisburg on Saturday to secure some belated licenses. Ronald Hendricks, Russell Gunsalus, Paul Pletcher and Ray Miller accompanied him.

Professor Honored
Theodore Roethke, assistant professor of English composition at the Pennsylvania State College, has been honored by the placing of eight of his published poems in the manuscript collection of the Lockwood Memorial Library, University of Buffalo.

Not every best-seller is worth reading.

During the height of the flood the road was patrolled by men from Milesburg, Borough and Centre City ready to lend their aid to those in danger of having their homes flooded, and we extend our sincere thanks to these men.

The temporary bridge over Spring Creek over which Tangleton residents traveled went out in the flood, so that now they have no way of getting out but by the railroad track and no one can drive a car on a railroad track.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of Baltimore, were weekend visitors here and at Bellefonte.

Mrs. William Peters is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Rabert at Snow Sho.

A number of cellars in the borough were badly flooded putting out furnace fires.

We may have done a lot of unnecessary work here over the weekend but better be safe than sorry.

Guess the warm weather brought a few more out to Sunday School, anyhow we had 51 present on Sunday morning.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Benner Hall is improving although he must remain in bed for some time yet. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spotts and son took dinner at the D. H. Custer home in Unionville last Thursday.

George Bahs was a visitor at the Roy Spotts home Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas returned home from the Bellefonte hospital last Friday. We all hope she will soon be out and around again.

Harry Lucas purchased a horse at a sale last week near Axe Mann to replace the one which died for him quite some time ago.

UNIONVILLE

Methodist Church Services—There will be no prayer service this Thursday evening; Sunday School on Sunday morning at the regular time and Junior and Epworth League in the evening at 6:30.

Presbyterian Church Services—Sunday School on Sunday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. Hiram VanCleave, of Altoona, will preach Thursday evening and again on Friday evening which will close the special services which have been in progress for the past two weeks.

Free Methodist Church Services: Prayer service Friday evening and on Saturday evening Rev. R. H. Blevins of State College, the District Elder, will conduct the regular quarterly meeting in the church here. He will also preach in the church here on Sunday morning.

4-H Club News—The Boys' 4-H club held their first meeting of the year on Saturday, March 27th in the Unionville Grange Hall with 15 members present.

Word was received in the community the latter part of last week of the death of Mrs. Howard Pratt at her home in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mrs. R. C. Williams has a quilt in the frames and is busy quilting with the assistance of her neighbors.

Harry Hawn of New Castle, Pa. was visiting his family here over the weekend, she being the daughter of Rev. G. A. Garrett.

Mrs. Carl Fick was admitted to the Phillipsburg Hospital last week one day where she remained for several days for treatment and observation.

Marion Stier of this place and Miss Margaret Hazard of Bellefonte spent the past weekend with her cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stevenson, of Altoona, Pa.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brink to dinner on Tuesday evening were Mrs. W. B. Parsons and Rev. H. E. Oakwood of the Presbyterian church.

Word was received in the community the latter part of last week of the death of Mrs. Howard Pratt at her home in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mrs. R. C. Williams has a quilt in the frames and is busy quilting with the assistance of her neighbors.

Harry Hawn of New Castle, Pa. was visiting his family here over the weekend, she being the daughter of Rev. G. A. Garrett.

Mrs. Carl Fick was admitted to the Phillipsburg Hospital last week one day where she remained for several days for treatment and observation.

Marion Stier of this place and Miss Margaret Hazard of Bellefonte spent the past weekend with her cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stevenson, of Altoona, Pa.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brink to dinner on Tuesday evening were Mrs. W. B. Parsons and Rev. H. E. Oakwood of the Presbyterian church.

Word was received in the community the latter part of last week of the death of Mrs. Howard Pratt at her home in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mrs. R. C. Williams has a quilt in the frames and is busy quilting with the assistance of her neighbors.

Harry Hawn of New Castle, Pa. was visiting his family here over the weekend, she being the daughter of Rev. G. A. Garrett.

Mrs. Carl Fick was admitted to the Phillipsburg Hospital last week one day where she remained for several days for treatment and observation.

MILESBURG

The people of our community had good reason to be alarmed on Saturday night when Bald Eagle Creek and Spring Creek went on a rampage.

The evangelistic services in the church of Christ are apparently very successful. The second baptismal service was held on Monday evening.

Mrs. Dallas Kline and Mrs. Dora Hevery spent Wednesday with their sister, Mrs. Milford Hevery.

Mrs. Earl Shilling visited friends in Howard one day last week.

The Clayton Baney family of Mill Hill are moving into the home joining the James Garage.

Earl James made a trip to Harrisburg on Saturday to secure some belated licenses. Ronald Hendricks, Russell Gunsalus, Paul Pletcher and Ray Miller accompanied him.

Professor Honored
Theodore Roethke, assistant professor of English composition at the Pennsylvania State College, has been honored by the placing of eight of his published poems in the manuscript collection of the Lockwood Memorial Library, University of Buffalo.

Not every best-seller is worth reading.

During the height of the flood the road was patrolled by men from Milesburg, Borough and Centre City ready to lend their aid to those in danger of having their homes flooded, and we extend our sincere thanks to these men.

The temporary bridge over Spring Creek over which Tangleton residents traveled went out in the flood, so that now they have no way of getting out but by the railroad track and no one can drive a car on a railroad track.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hall of Baltimore, were weekend visitors here and at Bellefonte.

Mrs. William Peters is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Rabert at Snow Sho.

A number of cellars in the borough were badly flooded putting out furnace fires.

We may have done a lot of unnecessary work here over the weekend but better be safe than sorry.

Guess the warm weather brought a few more out to Sunday School, anyhow we had 51 present on Sunday morning.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Benner Hall is improving although he must remain in bed for some time yet. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spotts and son took dinner at the D. H. Custer home in Unionville last Thursday.

George Bahs was a visitor at the Roy Spotts home Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas returned home from the Bellefonte hospital last Friday. We all hope she will soon be out and around again.

Harry Lucas purchased a horse at a sale last week near Axe Mann to replace the one which died for him quite some time ago.

UNIONVILLE

Methodist Church Services—There will be no prayer service this Thursday evening; Sunday School on Sunday morning at the regular time and Junior and Epworth League in the evening at 6:30.

Presbyterian Church Services—Sunday School on Sunday afternoon at 2:30, Rev. Hiram VanCleave, of Altoona, will preach Thursday evening and again on Friday evening which will close the special services which have been in progress for the past two weeks.

Free Methodist Church Services: Prayer service Friday evening and on Saturday evening Rev. R. H. Blevins of State College, the District Elder, will conduct the regular quarterly meeting in the church here. He will also preach in the church here on Sunday morning.

4-H Club News—The Boys' 4-H club held their first meeting of the year on Saturday, March 27th in the Unionville Grange Hall with 15 members present.

Word was received in the community the latter part of last week of the death of Mrs. Howard Pratt at her home in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mrs. R. C. Williams has a quilt in the frames and is busy quilting with the assistance of her neighbors.

Harry Hawn of New Castle, Pa. was visiting his family here over the weekend, she being the daughter of Rev. G. A. Garrett.

Mrs. Carl Fick was admitted to the Phillipsburg Hospital last week one day where she remained for several days for treatment and observation.

Marion Stier of this place and Miss Margaret Hazard of Bellefonte spent the past weekend with her cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stevenson, of Altoona, Pa.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brink to dinner on Tuesday evening were Mrs. W. B. Parsons and Rev. H. E. Oakwood of the Presbyterian church.

Word was received in the community the latter part of last week of the death of Mrs. Howard Pratt at her home in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mrs. R. C. Williams has a quilt in the frames and is busy quilting with the assistance of her neighbors.

Harry Hawn of New Castle, Pa. was visiting his family here over the weekend, she being the daughter of Rev. G. A. Garrett.

Mrs. Carl Fick was admitted to the Phillipsburg Hospital last week one day where she remained for several days for treatment and observation.

Marion Stier of this place and Miss Margaret Hazard of Bellefonte spent the past weekend with her cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Stevenson, of Altoona, Pa.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brink to dinner on Tuesday evening were Mrs. W. B. Parsons and Rev. H. E. Oakwood of the Presbyterian church.

Word was received in the community the latter part of last week of the death of Mrs. Howard Pratt at her home in Baltimore, Maryland.

Mrs. R. C. Williams has a quilt in the frames and is busy quilting with the assistance of her neighbors.

Harry Hawn of New Castle, Pa. was visiting his family here over the weekend, she being the daughter of Rev. G. A. Garrett.

Mrs. Carl Fick was admitted to the Phillipsburg Hospital last week one day where she remained for several days for treatment and observation.

UNIONVILLE

William Summers has not been so well the past week and is under the care of a physician. His many friends and neighbors hope for his speedy recovery.

Carlyle Garrett and daughter, Jean, of Franklin, Pa., were weekend guests of his father Rev. G. A. Garrett; how a patient in the Centre County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fox and son Owen Road moved to Jersey Shore on Sunday afternoon and spent the of ernoon and evening with his sister and brother of that place.

Rev. D. D. Kaufman of the Methodist church is leaving today, Thursday, for Clearfield where he will attend, over the weekend, the annual Conference of the Central Pennsylvania District of the Methodist church.

The recent high waters did some little damage to the property of Mrs. Sue McEwen. She had to move her kitchen equipment from the first floor up to the second floor when water started coming in late last Saturday evening.

Mrs. Alice Bosworth returned to her home here with her father D. Buck, from Buffalo, N. Y., where she has been with her daughters for the past several months recuperating from a recent illness. Her many friends are glad to learn of her return and trust she may regain her usual good health.

Mrs. J. C. Fox was surprised on Friday afternoon when the following persons came to remind her that it was her birthday. Her brother, Mr. Chanman Underwood and wife and daughter Arnie and son Clyde and Miss Mrs. Underwood, all of State College. They brought their baskets filled with good things with which they had a real supper including home made ice cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Miles of State College called on friends and relatives in the community on Sunday and attended Methodist church services in the evening.

Mrs. Amanda Way has a vacant lot which she desires to rent for gardening this Summer. Also she has a well rack, in good condition which she will sell. Any persons interested call on Mrs. Way at her home here.

The Boy's and Girl's classes of the Methodist Sunday School will hold a bake sale in the community house on Saturday, April 6th at 2 p. m. Everyone welcome to come and purchase your baked goods for over the weekend. Come and help the young folks.

A question is to be put before the citizens of the community on the Friday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the town council as to whether or not the railroad crossing on Walnut Street should be closed. It seems the railroad company have promised to repair and keep up the other two crossings provided this one is closed from vehicular traffic. All persons interested are invited to a town meeting which will be held in the Community House at 7:30 p. m. Friday April 5th.

A meeting was held two weeks ago in the Community House at which time was organized the Boy Scout of Unionville. The following officers were elected: Scout Master, Cleveland Holzworth; Assistant Scout Master, Frank Stern; Senior Patrol Leader, Walter Lomas; and Patrol Leaders, Walter Houtts.

(Continued on page 3)

Table with 2 columns: Assets and Liabilities. Includes items like United States Government obligations, Demand deposits, and Total Assets of $529,407.85.

REPORT OF CONDITION OF THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF CENTRE HALL OF CENTRE HALL IN THE STATE OF PENNA., at the close of business on March 26, 1940.

A&P SUPER MARKETS advertisement featuring images of apples and lists of products like BANANAS, LETTUCE, RADISHES, and CABBAGE.

Maine Seed Potatoes, Lemons, and various grocery items advertisement with prices and product descriptions.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 29th day of March, 1940. R. STANLEY BROOKS, Notary Public.

Jane Parker Layer CAKES 8 Varieties 33c

JUNKET RENNET TABLETS 2 pkgs. 25c

Hand Picked BOKAR COFFEE advertisement with a 3 lb. bag for 47¢.