Crash Victim's Fiancee Is Ill (Continued from Page 1) breakdown. Relatives of the girl report that grief over the tragic death of the man she was to have married this spring was a contributing factor to her illness. The girl, daughter of Mrs. Florence Steele, of Bellwood, yesterday was reported to be responding to treatment and is expected to be discharged from the institution today or tomorrow. Her mother is at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Stover, on West Logan street, Bellefonte. Miss Steele's fiancee and his father, Robert P. Strouse, 46, both of near Spring Mills, lost their lives when the Liberty Limited crashed into their sedan after it stalled on a grade crossing at Tipton. The men were enroute to Spring Mills after having taken Mrs. Strouse and daughter to their home in Bellwood from a visit at the Strouse residence.

Open Bids On Road Project (Continued from Page 1) the point where the present road intersects with the Houserville road, by-passing Lemont. From the Houserville intersection, the new road will parallel the railroad tracks to the stretch in front of the prison. The road, it was originally reported, eventually is to continue east through Pleasant Gap, and from there on to Zion. The State Highway Department last fall virtually assured Bellefonte that a link from Bellefonte to meet the State College link at Dale's Summit, would be built this spring, but something happened to quash the Bellefonte link. The Secretary of Highways was quoted as having said Centre county didn't need the relief work, and no road would be Complete Movies of Bellefonte (Continued from page one) purchased from local merchants. In the space of an evening you will go to school with the youngsters, to Scout meetings to the district sessions of Council, be a guest of the Rotarians, Kiwanians, Woman's Club, the Garden and Mother's Clubs; you will take a sightseeing trip to the Fish Hatchery, Fishermen's Paradise, Nittany Mountain and other scenic spots. You will visit the industries of Bellefonte, the quarries, and limestone production plant activities; scenes at the Maten factory, a trip through the Titan Metal's interesting plant, then watch grain hastily ground into flour, and being made into tasty loaves of bread for final consumption. You will be taken to the Hecla Poultry Farm, see the baby chicks being hatched out; you will see the lovely floral specimens at Bellefonte's greenhouse; see how straws are put up for local nations, see behind the scenes of the banking institutions. You may take your pick of the many new models of cars shown, as well as fashions in dress; have Sunday dinner at the Penn. Belle, learn the advantages of many of Bellefonte's commercial products. All Bellefonte parades before the movie camera; churches, the Marching Clubs, High School Band, fire department, Banjo Band, Motor and local Police, Battery E. 16th Field Artillery, Junior Legion Band, and just ordinary citizens, some unaware of the camera's eagle eye. All public buildings and officials have been resorted on celluloid for posterity. Besides being a means of affording an evening of good clean entertainment, the movie is a permanent record of Bellefonte activities, and since it becomes the property of the Chamber of Commerce, will be filed away as an historical record of the community, but is available to any responsible group for future showings. Professional projection at this initial showing will assure the public of a full-sized theatre picture—a full-length feature movie of Bellefonte. School children are urged to take advantage of the low cost matinee, only ten cents. Regular adult prices
