—A noticeable improvement has been made in the first floor windows of the Masonic building on North Allegheny street. The windows, formerly consisting of a number of small panes, have been remodeled to accommodate one large pane, and the exterior and interior appearance of the building have benefited greatly from the change.
—Our mailing list was corrected this past week and credit given to all subscribers who paid their subscription during the month of March. Kindly check the date on the label of your paper, and advise at once if an error has been made. We would like to hear from all subscribers who are in arrears with their subscriptions.
—Mrs. Carl Berberick of Chevy Chase, is spending this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. McGinley, on South Thomas Street. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McGinley and Mrs. A. L. McGinley were there when they met by Mr. and Mrs. Berberick, and Mrs. Berberick accompanied the McGinleys' back to their home.
—Three addresses given by Dr. Charles E. Barker, noted lecturer, in Bellefonte last Thursday were attended by capacity audiences. Approximately 670 Bellefonte High school students heard an address at a general assembly in the morning, while Kiwanis Club and Chamber of Commerce members heard him speak at the Penn Belle Hotel at noon. Dr. Barker's final appearance was at the Court House that night when several hundred parents and young people heard the nationally known speaker.
—Several Bellefonte families are considerably concerned over the German occupation of portions of Norway, for they have close relatives living in the occupied areas. Mrs. Egil T. Risat, of West Curtin street, has a sister in Bergen; Mr. Risat's parents and several brothers and sisters are living in Trondheim. Einar Nilsson, of the Chambers apartments, East Curtin street, is concerned over the welfare of his parents, who live in Oslo, and Odd Skawden, living in the Meek house, West High street, has relatives in Gledstad. Most of the local natives have received any word from relatives, since all the communication systems to that country have been disrupted.
—Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Schlutz, of McPherson, Kansas, have learned of misfortunes which happened to them last week. Last Tuesday Mrs. Schlutz, the former Rachel Gregg, of Bellefonte, became ill and was taken to a hospital where she underwent an appendectomy the following day. A few hours after the operation, her husband, who is an engineer for an oil company, was brought to the same hospital with severe burns about the hands and arms, suffered in an oil explosion. Mrs. Schlutz left Bellefonte last fall to join her husband in the mid-west. She was employed in the offices of the Titan Metal Company here for some time.

The first two days will be devoted to general cooking classes and demonstrations, while the third day will be reserved for instruction in home-making. For further information see story beginning on page 1 of this issue.
—Miss Sara D. Adams, of Bellefonte, was maid of honor at the church of the Brethren, Tyrone, Friday morning, when her sister, Pauline Elizabeth Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron W. Adams, of Tyrone, became the bride of George Ammon Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Wolfe, also of Tyrone. Mr. and Mrs. Wolfe will go to housekeeping in Tyrone upon their return from a wedding trip to the eastern part of the state.
—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frabutt and daughter are now in Port Myer, Florida, and expect soon to go to Mussel Shoals, Alabama, their plans for May including a trip to Bellefonte, where she hopes to put in some time fishing. In New Mexico he went fishing in Sheephead, a white striped fish which is peculiar in that it has a complete set of teeth. In Port Myer, the Frabutts report, the weather is delightful, the temperature ranging around 78 degrees.
—Marguerite, the 9-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis O. Keller, of Donora, Pittsburgh, underwent an appendectomy last Thursday in a Pittsburgh hospital and is reported to be recovering nicely. The little girl is a granddaughter of Mrs. Harry Keller, of the Orvis apartments, East Curtin street, and of Mr. and Mrs. George Stevenson, of Wadde. Ellis Keller is now in the personnel department of the Philadelphia Company of Pittsburgh, a holding company.
—Mrs. W. F. Beck, of North Fairview avenue, Lock Haven, on Monday observed her 60th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Beck, who is active and who despite her nine decades of life still performs her own household work, is an aunt of Mrs. Emma Wetzel, a great-aunt of Mrs. Ethel McCoy and a great-aunt of Amy Jane McCoy, all of Willowbank street, Bellefonte. She has always kept in touch with Centre county affairs through the columns of The Centre Democrat, and we number Mrs. Beck among our oldest subscribers.
WESTERN AUTO ASSOCIATION STORE TO OPEN SATURDAY
Car owners and householders of Bellefonte are invited to visit the new Western Auto Association store on North Allegheny street, which is locally owned and operated by Paul F. Leffler.
Leffler has had wide experience in the many lines that will be carried in stock at the new store. For the past ten years he has been with Montgomery Ward & Co. and has managed stores at DuBois, Meadville, Chester and Lebanon and at Olean, N. Y.
While quality will not be penalized, prices at all times will be kept as low as possible, Mr. Leffler said. Several executives will be here for the official opening on Saturday, April 13, among them being C. Waterman, district manager from the Baltimore eastern office, and Paul Quigley, display manager of the eastern division. There are more than 1400 associate Western Auto Stores, all home-owned and operated.
The store offers a general line of merchandise, including auto supplies, accessories, tires, radios, tools, bicycles, sporting goods, electrical supplies and appliances and many other items.
Mr. and Mrs. Leffler and daughter are residing at the Broeckerhoff Hotel until they have secured permanent quarters.
St. John's Evangelical & Reformed Rev. C. Nevin Stamm, pastor, Church school, 9:30 a. m. Morning worship, 10:45 a. m. Vesper service, 7:30 p. m.
