notice of the resignation, called a presented the request, that most special meeting of the board for general purposes for Monday, April members to wear caps and gowns tory because of a number of pressing matters which require the board's immediate attention.

Among the matters deferred by Mr. Hartranft were reports and discussions on the following: the contract with school architects Hunter & Caldwell, the resignation of Supervising Principal Earl K. Stock, action on past-due tuition accounts, a report of a committee which recently went to Harrisburg to discuss possibilities for a school building program, recommended changes in the duties of the Supervising Principal and principals, discussion and adoption of the school budget, the purchase of supplies, renewal of the lease on the Academy property, filling vacancies in the teaching staff of the schools, the appointment of a truant officer for the Bellefonte schools, and other matters.

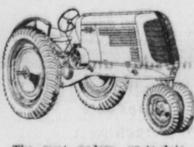

The board, by a unanimous vote, accepted a proposition offered by a commercial photographer in the matter of taking photographs of all school pupils. Under the arrangement, pictures will be taken of each pupil, and copies will be furnished the board for permanent files. The pupils will have the opportunity of purchasing duplicates. The board acted in the matter after local photographers were given an opportunity to submit proposals for the work if they wished.

Present at the meeting in addition to board members and newspapermen were Mrs. R. M. Beach, Mrs. R. C. Blaney, Niles Davis and Robert Woodring, members of the Chamber of Commerce Committee on schools; Charles Cook, school treasurer, and O. F. Sollenberger, high school prin-

Action on a request by the Athletic Association that the board assume $800 indebtedness now being handled through a bank, was deferred. .The board's increased rate would be considerably lower than the present rate. Mr. Hartranft declared that while he favored the re-
