

UNIONVILLE

Clean Up Week.—To all persons of the community we give this announcement that this coming week will be clean-up week. Each person is required to clean up their lot of all rubbish, ashes, and anything which will make the premises more sanitary and clean looking. Let's take advantage of this opportunity and all work together toward making our community a more desirable place in which to live. Some persons have taken the liberty of placing a lot of cans and rubbish on the Tennis Court property and we would suggest they get away with it in short order as the club will be working very soon to get the court in readiness for playing.

Tennis Club Meeting.—The Tennis Club Meeting which was scheduled for last Friday evening, May 1, was not very well attended but enough present to elect officers. Owen Reed Fox was elected President. Forrest Bauder, vice president and Ruth Parsons, secretary and treasurer. All persons interested in playing tennis this season can secure their membership cards any time from the secretary at the price of $1.00. Work will start soon on the grounds to make it ready for playing and we hope a number of young boys who are interested will offer their hands to this work. Quite a bit of repair work is needed since the flood.

Cemetery Meeting.—There will be a meeting of the Slover Cemetery Board, on the Cemetery grounds, this Friday evening, May 3rd, at 6:30 p. m. to discuss the upkeep of the cemetery and other matters of importance to the Board. If there are any who wish to attend and have no means of transportation to the cemetery, kindly contact Mrs. H. E. McElwain.
