

8 REASONS WHY

You'll Want
An American Auto Policy
On Your Car

- 1 Selective Underwriting Plan of rating gives the deserving car owner a substantial premium saving in advance.
- 2 Strong Stock Companies—oldest and largest insurers of automobiles exclusively.
- 3 Improved liability policy extends to both husband and wife all the benefits of the important Drive Other Private Passenger Automobile Coverage including the occasional operation of hired private passenger automobiles, and also, the operation of private passenger automobiles by the named insured's private chauffeur or domestic servants—at no extra cost.
- 4 Improved Theft Insurance clause includes up to $5.00 per day for taxicabs or substitute transportation at no extra cost.
- 5 Waiting period of only 30 days in Total Theft loss settlements.
- 6 An Installment Plan of Premium Payment is available.
- 7 Claims Service extends to all parts of the United States and Canada and, of course, policies meet the requirements of all Financial Responsibility Laws in both countries.
- 8 American Auto has served more than 4,000,000 Policyholders and paid losses amounting to more than $75,000,000.

Academy Reunion Creates Interest

the re-opening of the Academy are planning to attend the reunion to lend their wholehearted support to any proposal which may be advanced, it is claimed.

Since the reunion is being held in Pittsburgh—the area from which the Academy drew nearly 50 per cent of its students—it is believed that any suggestions toward the re-establishment of the old school will fall on fertile soil.

Among the noted speakers who are expected to be present will be Federal Judge Albert W. Johnson, of Lewisburg who in accepting an invitation expressed great interest in the move toward returning to Bellefonte the school, which for many years was recognized as one of the leading preparatory schools of the country.

BUSH HOLLOW

We believe spring has come at last. The last few days have been the sort of weather we have been looking for and everyone is busy trying to get caught up with work. Everyone will soon be making gardens.

The nice weather also brought more out to Sunday School on Sunday morning. We had 54 present. Hope that good attendance keeps up. Remember the Sunday School each Sunday at 9:30 a. m.; Prayer Meeting in the church Wednesday night May 1 and 8, and preaching service on Sunday May 12 at 11 a. m. Everybody welcome to these services.

Mrs. Andrew Irwin and Mrs. Martin Spotts spent last Thursday with Mrs. Charles Way at Jacksonville.

The following persons attended a quilting at the home of Mrs. Edna Spotts last Wednesday: Mrs. B. M. Stover, Mrs. Myrtle King, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Stover and daughter Nellie and Mrs. Roy Spotts and son David. We guess Woodrow didn't quilt much but he ate his share of the good dinner, anyhow.

The school children are counting the last few days of school. They are eagerly looking forward to Thursday which will be their last day. Several of the scholars have been absent quite a number of days recently on account of illness.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Edna Spotts were Miss Dorothy Manning, Charles, Arisa, and Georgianna Spotts, all of Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar King, Mrs. Myrtle King and Beverly Gray. Miss Florence Lucas of Bellefonte spent the weekend with her father, E. P. Lucas and family.

Glad to have Benner Hall back to Sunday School and church on Sunday after being absent for a number of weeks on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Irwin and family spent Sunday at the Roy Spotts home. Other visitors at the same home were Miss Dorothy Manning, Charles, Arisa, and Georgianna Spotts, of Williamsport.

On Wednesday night, April 24, the board of the B. H. church met with the cemetery association officers and tried to plan a way for the upkeep of the cemetery. Up until the time the church was organized into a Pilgrim Holiness church the Sunday School paid for mowing the cemetery but now the Cemetery association is trying to get money enough in the treasury to keep up the expenses of the cemetery. If anyone who has a lot in the cemetery wishes to donate any money towards this fund we know it will be appreciated. Any one wanting to send any money may either send it to the secretary, Miss Neam Resides, Julian, Pa. or the treasurer, Mrs. D. H. Ciser, Fleming, Pa. May 15 was set as clean-up day and we urge every one who can to come and help.

Edgar Hoyer and wife of Altoona, Merrill Copenhaver and family of Aaronsburg, Oscar Bierly of Hublersburg, and lady friend, Miss Veda Hoy of Bellefonte, visited at the H. E. Faust home.

REBERSBURG

Woodrow W. Bierly of Lancaster spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Bierly. He is employed by the Intelligencer, a daily paper published at that place.

Eugene T. Bierly, who has been employed by the Woolworth Company at Atlantic City during the past year, will be transferred to their Chestnut Street store in Philadelphia next Monday.

Miss Ruth Bierly completed her course at the Peirce School in Philadelphia last Saturday, and yesterday (Wednesday) accepted a secretarial position with the Department of Public Information at DuPont State, she entered upon her duties at once.

Maybe He's Pro-Nazi

A 22-pound turkey gobbler landed right on the neck of Census Taker James Quinn when he entered Mrs. Joseph Hedge's yard at Branchdale, carrying an umbrella. Quinn retreated from the attack, but his umbrella was ripped to shreds. Mrs. Hedges explained that displaying an umbrella to the gobbler was like waving a red flag in front of a bull.

Never get mad with an individual who doesn't know as much as you do.
