MOTHER'S DAY.

We have set aside for Mother the 12th day of May. Each mother in her home. Rejoins as queen that day.

We bring her many gifts. Candy and flowers too. She appreciates the tiniest token. That might come from you.

We all love our Mother. Though careless we may seem. No one else can take her place. Nor share our fondest dreams.

So when we bring her gifts. On the 12th day of May. Let's make a resolution, and Have every day, Mother's Day.

Let us greet her with a smile. When our days work is through. And she'll reciprocate. And smile back at you.

Now you may love your father. Your sister and your brother. But home just isn't home. Without a loving mother.

Some one from Bellefonte brought the news to town on Sunday that another girl of Mt. Eagle was brutally murdered near her home. It certainly is getting so bad that it is not safe to let girls travel alone at night, even in a car. It seems home training is losing out on the job. Movies should also be so severely censored so that nothing but pure and religious films can be shown on the screen. It seems above nature brutal act is just another repetition of the State College murder.

Frankly, we know of no substitute for advertising, even if it is put down in the books as "charity."
