

CLARENCE

By JAMES H. BRUNGARD
David Drapcho caught six very big trout the other day. Two of them were better than 14 inches. Agnes and Mary Swander of Drifting called on Pauline Ludwis Saturday night.

Pauline Retoric from Williamsport was here for the Betty Kachuk wedding.

Andy Kachuk from Bellefonte was to visit his grandmother, Sunday.

Yes, we think a universal curfew law should be put into effect. We've been agitating for it now quite awhile 8 p. m. is none too early.

Fourth grade observed a half day holiday Tuesday p. m. when Mr. Brungard, accompanied by Mrs. Salena Ebers, Mrs. Herb Craft and Mrs. Leroy Lewis all of Moshannon, attended the funeral rites in memory of Miss Ella Craft, late of Clearfield.

A moving picture machine salesman was in town Tuesday on demonstration of a machine teachers of Brick building wanted PTA to purchase for school purposes. Due to the admission to see the picture and a $300 indebtedness needed to defray cost, school patrons met the proposition with little enthusiasm.

That evening PTA met for its last session of the term. A very interesting talk was given by Dr. George F. Bible of Bellefonte. Of the entire Parent and Teacher association from Snow Shoe who were invited as guests to share this treat only four were present. In Mrs. Von Johnson, Mrs. John Musser, Mrs. Samuel Reese and Mrs. Harry Ebers.

Miss Jo Ann Drapcho and Miss Jane McGowan obliged with some piano selections while the refreshment committee served ice cream, cake and coffee to approximately 50 attendants.

Since the two unsolved murders in Centre County, female workers at the Clarence hostery mill are skeptical about quitting work after dark and going home unescorted.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Watson were Sunday visitors at State College.

Mrs. Emro Drapcho, daughter Jo Ann and son Emro Jr., motored to Scranton Sunday to spend a few days with relatives there.

Mrs. E. D. Myers and family from Lock Haven spent Sunday with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Logan Guenet of Moshannon, were visited by the stork Sunday the 12th, and are now the happy parents of a baby girl. Mother, the former Vivian Carlson and baby are doing well at the County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. McGowan motored to Philipsburg Saturday on business.

Vera Staco and friends Mr. DeSoto and son all of New Kensington spent the weekend at Andy Bugosh's and other relatives visit there. Now her brother Michael has gone to the western town for a vacation.

Mrs. L. H. Cole and daughters are about to leave their home in this township and return to Texas where they formerly resided before coming to Pennsylvania some years ago.

Mrs. Rosie Schall late of No. 10 died last Sunday and was interred in St. Michael's cemetery Thursday the 9th.

R. R. Grieb bungalow which they are erecting on Snow Shoe heights is going up fast and will likely be occupied by Memorial Day.

Other noticeable building operations or added improvements are being made at Joe and Andy Perolovich's and Lar Wagner's.

Snow Shoe High's annual commencement exercises will occur May 29th, when a large class will be graduated. Kathryn Caldanna is to be valedictorian while Judy Budinger takes second highest honors.

font after concluding a fortnights stay at the Brungard apartments.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zimmerman and Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bugosh attended the christening of Mrs. John Kachuk's infant daughter Sunday. The name chosen was Delores Monica. Godparents were from Mahanoy City.

Miss Myra Peters called on Mrs. Cordella Craft Saturday p. m. Thursday this school marm with years experience completed her 5th term at Poormanside. Today Monday she left Clarence to resume summer residence with her elderly parents at Beech Creek.

6th and 7th grades enjoyed hikes in observation of close of school term. 8th grade picnicked at Whispering Pines. Grade four had a real days outing, taking a bus trip Thursday which totaled 100 miles.

Truly the trip was educational as well as entertaining. 42 pupils with chaperon besides their teacher availed themselves of this never to be forgotten event. Points of interest contacted and greatly appreciated were the Court House, Co. Library; Big springs; mammoth trout at Bellefonte Fish Hatchery, at Pleasant Gap; Nittany Mt. top view of Penns Valley; Old Fort; Penns Cave and its underground wonders; Round Barn in Brush Valley; Logan School of Gregg Twp. Rockview Penitentiary; College Barre, greenhouses; Educational buildings, etc., at Penn State; Pine Barrens; Skytop and Bald Eagle Valley. The cost of the trip which included bus fare, cake inspection and an icecream treat amounted to $30, which was earned by the recent production of a Tom Thumb wedding by Fourth grade pupils.

They take this means of thanking any and all who contributed toward making both these projects unprecedented successes. Especially gratitude is extended to Mrs. Eva Simpson, Mrs. Muirhead and Sue Wagner for costuming; Retorick of Moshannon and Mr. McGowan music and tickets; Elizabeth Frey soloist and the small lots of pre school age who attended former girls, also special acclaim to Arthur Stephens who was so accommodating in transportation on both these memorable occasions.

Mrs. William Craft and Mrs. Dolly Mooney of Clearfield, called on Mrs. Abe Craft, Thursday.

Moshannon Presbyterians will have church next Sunday evening, May 19th at 7:30 p. m. services to be in charge of the Rev. Gaynell Ardell of Tyrone.

Mrs. Ida Gros, Miss Emma Jane Retoric and Aunt Agnes, Mr. Brungard attended Sunday evening church services at Philipsburg.

Sunday baseball game between a Clarence team and Moshannon on the latter's field resulted in a defeat for the home team. Score being 9-8 which says real competition.

Miss Martha Kerin was a Sunday visitor at the P. J. McGowan home.

The Albert Carlsons of Scotch-town visited Sunday evening visitors with friends in Clearfield County.

Mrs. E. C. Remsnyder and two sons Dyane and Kay of Williamsport, spent Mother's Day with the boys grandmother, Mrs. Craft at her comfortable home on Windy Hill.

Fenny packet seeds, were distributed recently to Fourth grade pupils as well as 40 Bronze badges depicting the sower as awards for selling $49.25 worth of Hygrade seeds.

The names of pupils from this room receiving perfect attendance seals or certificates for the term follows: Seals—Andy Mikuskak, Mildred Kolas, Helen Watson, John Stephens, Gail Bobby, Grieb and John Martonchik; certificates—Martha Solita, Madeline Muirhead, Helen Baran, Elmer Shotowsky, Carl Kochik, David Kirko, Cyril Jendrisak, and Andy Biggans Jr.

The Meeks had a Mother's Day feast Sunday the 12th. Those who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. H. Lucas of Clearfield; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Krone and four children, from town; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hoover from Pine Glen; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Krone from Pleasant Gap; Mr. Henry Knoefinger, Green Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. William Dudish were shopping in Bellefonte Monday.

Mrs. Mary Waxmunsky had the following Sunday guests: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shankey of Stob Hill; Mrs. Katie Mihalk and four children, also Mr. and Mrs. John Mihalk of Snow Shoe.

(From last week)
Want to laugh? If you do, get your tickets for the new and riotous farce entitled "Aunt Tillie Goes to Town," that is to be presented at the Snow Shoe High School on May 15, 1940 by the Junior class. This bright and amusing play was written by Wilbur Braun especially for Samuel French, the largest play publishers in the world, and is being given here by special arrangement of said publishers. Dozens of plays were read before this one was selected. The play has some of the funniest scenes ever to be written into a farce. It is novel and ingenious, has loads of peg and action and is thoroughly clean and wholesome. Certainly this performance is going to be one that the whole town may be proud of and will establish a new high record for attendance. The cast is as follows: Tillie Trask—Lulu Herr; Lucinda Talbot—Catherine McCloskey; Pamela Marsh—Antoinette Bosak; Lizette Parsons—Virginia Haynes; Ellen Neeland—Cecilia Harm; Ronald Howland—Phil Budinger; Lulu Lortimer—Charles Budinger; Mervin Tucker—Donald Ebers; Charlie One Lung—Harry Hall; Mrs. Tillie Tucker—Isobel Stephens; Dr. Hattie Blig—Geraldine Bathgate. Admission for the matinee is ten cents; while the charge for the evening performance is thirty-five cents for adults and fifteen cents for children.

SNOW SHOE

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Harris, of Pleasant Gap, spent Sunday with Mr. Harris' parents, Dr. and Mrs. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wagner, daughters Margaret Ann, Nancy, song Jr., and Curtis, visited Sunday with Mrs. Wagner's mother and sister, Mrs. Grant Klesling and Mrs. Lesher Heahley and family.

Mrs. Irey White and Miss Vera Rockfeller, of Sunbury, spent the weekend with Mrs. Julia Sinclair and family.

Mrs. William Hall's daughters and sons gathered at her home on Wednesday evening, May 8th in honor of their mother's birthday. At a late hour lunch was served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Clair Hall, Sr., Mrs. Esther Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hall, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George Hall daughter, Cleo, son Bobby, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall, Mr. and Mrs. William Hall Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Rex Lucas, Mrs. Ira Hall Jr., Bernice Gillette. Mrs. Hall received beautiful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Logan, daughter, Connie, son Jimmy, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Stanley, daughter Beverly Spangler, spent the weekend at Hall's hunting camp, also Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hall, daughter Irey.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Rathgate, daughter Lois, transacted business in Bellefonte, Saturday.

Miss Beulah Oswald, of Harrisburg, spent the week with her mother, Mrs. Leona Oswald and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Watson, daughter Janet, sons Jay and Larry of Moshannon, Mrs. Anna Lucas of Runville, visited over Sunday with Mrs. Mabel Lucas and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Park spent Saturday evening in Bellefonte, visiting friends.

Paul Irwin who was a surgical patient in Bellefonte hospital, returned home recently.

Tom Lucas spent the weekend with his sister, Miss Eunice Lucas R. N. in Philadelphia.

Miss Francis Pieburn, is visiting Mrs. Anna Lucas at Runville.

Our community was saddened last week by the death of Mrs. Stella Miller, of Yarnell. The family have our deepest sympathy in their sorrow.

POTTERS MILLS

(From last week)
Mr. Charles Faust from Royersford on Saturday morning, motored to the home of Mr. J. G. Boal, returning home the same day. He took with him Anna Sara Faust who will be with them for an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Palmer, Miss Alberta Faust and Mrs. G. H. McCormick, were shopping in Lewis-town on Saturday afternoon.

The born dance held at the Mr. William Workinger home on Saturday evening was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Carson visited with friends at State College Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Alvin Sellers, wife and son, Mr. Paul Palmer, wife and son called at the Mr. E. B. Palmer home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. McCormick, Mrs. Laura McCormick, Miss Caroline McCloskey attended the funeral of Mr. John Bowersox at State College on Monday.

Mr. Merrill Copenhaver, daughter of Harrisburg and Mr. H. E. Faust motored to Philipsburg on Wednesday, and brought home with them Miss Amelia Copenhaver who is spending some time at the Faust home.

Mr. Hoy Royer and family, Mr. John Spear, of Bellefonte, Mrs. Mamie Lee, of Lynn, Bron and family of Centre Hall called on Sunday at the Mr. F. F. Palmer home.

Our community was saddened last week by the death of Mrs. Stella Miller, of Yarnell. The family have our deepest sympathy in their sorrow.

LaVera Ebnihizer of Lemont and Johnny Rudy of State College, spent Saturday evening with home folks.

Theodore Ebnihizer and Anna Rudy visited at State College on Monday evening with Mrs. Rose Rudy and Mrs. Mary Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Savers and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Lucas of Yarnell, spent Sunday with their father.

Clear Richner and sons of Summit Hill visited his parents on Monday.

BUSH HOLLOW

(From last week)
There was quite a bit of sickness in the Hollow over the weekend which kept quite a number of folks home from Sunday school. There were only 43 present on Sunday morning. Hope the sick are all better until next Sunday. Prayer meeting in the church this Wednesday night, Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Sunday and prayer service at 11 a. m. You are all welcome to all these services. We also expect to have Bible study in the church Wednesday night May 15. Everybody welcome.

Don't forget the rededication services to be held in the church, Sunday, June 9 at 2:30 p. m. There will also be services each night starting June 6, continuing until Sunday night. Rev. Gangware of Pine Grove is the engaged Evangelist. Rev. Garware was the first Pilgrim Holiness preacher to hold services in the Bush Hollow church so everyone is looking forward to having him back for a few nights services.

School closed last Thursday with the children and their teacher and several little visitors taking their lunches and going for a walk and eating out in the woods. The children were glad to hear that Mrs. Williams will be their teacher for another term.

On Saturday Jean Spotts and Harold Weston took the examination for high school at Bellefonte. Best of luck to both.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Spotts and children, Mrs. Edna Spotts and Jean Spotts spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Tomer Spotts at Centre Hall.

Eleanor Haasinger of Hecla spent several days last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lucas.

Doris Spotts, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Spotts was ill over the weekend and had to be absent from Sunday school. This was the first she was absent from Sunday School for 2 1/2 years.

George Talbot purchased a new tractor last week to be used on his place here in the Hollow.

Miss Jean Spotts, who has always made her home with grandmother, Mrs. Edna Spotts has gone to make her home with her mother Mrs. Edgar King at Milesburg.

ZION

(From last week)
Weekend visitors at the C. F. Cleveland home were: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Miller of Clearfield, Mr. and Mrs. Miles Russ of Williamsport, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Minnich of State College.

Mrs. Elizabeth Herman spent the weekend with her son Milford and family.

Miss Miriam Beck, Mrs. Mildred Wenzke and son Johnny Joe of Snyderstown, spent Sunday evening at the home of Prof. Pawcett.

Walter Irvine returned home from the Centre County Hospital where he had been a patient for the past 10 days.

YARNELL

(From last week)
Dr. and Mrs. Adams and daughter Nancy of Bellefonte called Sunday afternoon at the H. O. Miller home.

We are glad to welcome back Mr. and Mrs. Lester Mayes and son, who moved from Runville to the place known as the William Center home. Mr. and Mrs. Mayes had lived here several years ago.

The Women of the Yarnell church will hold a roast chicken supper at the home of Mrs. Clair Shawley on Wednesday May 22nd, price of supper, adults 40 cents, children 25 cents. Home made ice cream and candy will also be sold.

There will also be a festival held here on June 8th.

Mrs. Herman Kessling who was operated on last week is a little better at this writing, we all wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reese and family and Miss Pearl Miller called at the Ralph Edmiston home Sunday evening.

Those who spent Mother's Day at the H. B. Walker home were Mr. and Mrs. Keller Snyder, and children Geraldine, Pauline, Marlin, Nevin and Donald and girl friend of Rebersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Mervin Walker and children, John, Fay, Janet, Jimmy, Barbara and Francis of Spring Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller and children Hebbie Evelyn and Paul of Milesburg, Ruth Walker of State College and Ralph Walker of this place.

Visitors at the Home, Walker home on Saturday were his brother, Forden Walker and wife and son Wayne of Milesburg, Mrs. Walter Spotts and two daughters Patty and Gay of Centre Hall.

HOLTS HOLLOW

(From last week)
Our revival is still in progress with good interest, we welcome all who will come and meet with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poorman drove to Clearfield on Sunday, Mrs. Poorman expects to spend this week with home folks at that place.

Mark Johnson is spending a few days at her home at this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Ard Burg and Mrs. Edith Burg visited at the John Poesinger home at Coleville, also at the Howard Burd home at Unionville recently.

Mrs. Harry Haagen of Yarnell, greeted friends and attended church at this place on Sunday.

REBERSBURG

Commencement exercises of the Miles Township High School will be held on Thursday evening, May 23, 1940, in the Evangelical church. The speaker will be Prof. Verne Walthimer of the Thompson Business College. The orations will be given by Betty Miller, Salutatorian and Betty Smith, Valedictorian. There are sixteen graduates. Music will be rendered by the Glee Club and the Centre Hall Brass Sextette. Baccalaureate services will be held next Sunday evening in the Reformed church.

A delegation of ladies from the Lutheran church attended a missionary convention at Millheim last Wednesday.

Sunday dinner guests at the John Brungard home were Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Brungard and family of Coburn, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Gephart from State College and Mr. and Mrs. Lesser Welshans of Booneville. Other visitors at the same home were Amanda, Pauline, Pauline, Mark and Samuel Dohendorf and James Hocketburg from Sunbury, Mr. and Mrs. John Wert from Madisonburg and Rev. Truman Wise and family from Rebersburg.

Dr. Russell L. Barr of Philadelphia visited at the Rev. N. F. Douly home last week.

Sunday visitors at the Mrs. Ada Huber home were Mrs. Harry Huber of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Huber of Millheim, and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Weaver of Lewis-town.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jodon and son Robert of Millheim and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Conifer of Harrisburg, visited at the Stanley Zeigler home on Saturday evening.

Mrs. John Reish spent last week with her sister, Mrs. William Johnson at Lemont.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Winters accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Winters visited relatives in Altoona, on Sunday.

Paul Zeigler and family of Port Matilda visited with relatives over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Zeigler and family of McAllisterville visited with his parents and friends on Sunday.

Schaffer's parents in Williamsport, Glad to report Miss Lottie Kauffman is around again after being ill with a gripe over the weekend.

The Birthday Club of the Reformed church held their monthly meeting in their social hall on Friday evening.

Chad to report Miss Lottie Kauffman is around again after being ill with a gripe over the weekend.

The Birthday Club of the Reformed church held their monthly meeting in their social hall on Friday evening.

Chad to report Miss Lottie Kauffman is around again after being ill with a gripe over the weekend.

The Birthday Club of the Reformed church held their monthly meeting in their social hall on Friday evening.

Chad to report Miss Lottie Kauffman is around again after being ill with a gripe over the weekend.

The Birthday Club of the Reformed church held their monthly meeting in their social hall on Friday evening.

Chad to report Miss Lottie Kauffman is around again after being ill with a gripe over the weekend.

On Tuesday of last week Mrs. C. E. Ale, son Leon and daughter Betty motored to Centre Hall where Mrs. Ale consulted Dr. Light and is now one of his patients a victim of laryngitis, and we are glad to say is improving.

Sunday dinner guests at the Sumner Noll home were his mother, Mrs. Estle Noll and daughter Betty of State College, Mr. and Mrs. Ray McGhee and daughters Eleanor, Barbara and Martha of Port Matilda, Kenneth Neidigh of Bellefonte, R. D. and Miss Mary June Fye.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Corman and daughter Betty of Aze Mann were Sunday evening supper guests at the D. P. Ertley home, other callers were Guyer Ertley and son Bill of this place, last week visitors at the same home were Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Kling and daughter Louise and friend Mr. Caum and Mrs. Walter Dalley of Altoona, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Yearick of Hubersburg.

Sunday callers at the Elmer Swope home were Mrs. John Lucas daughter Lucille and grandchildren Arlene and Larry Strouse, of Fox Hollow, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Saylor and children of Bellefonte.

Sunday evening callers at the James Shaffer home were Mrs. Harry Baird and son Ralph of Bellefonte and Miss Mabel Garrett.

Barbara Ann Shaffer spent last week with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Shaffer of Curtin.

Mrs. Walter Dalley returned to her home in Altoona on Monday after spending several days here with her many friends and also attended Ascension Day club at the home of Mrs. Mabel Bennett near the Knecht Mill.

Mrs. Jack Mabius is spending this week at her home here while Mr. Mabius is in Pittsburgh on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Noll and children Dick and Elsie Jane were Sunday evening supper guests of Mrs. Ertley and son Bill of Bellefonte R. D.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lucas spent Sunday evening at the home of the formers parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lucas of Fox Hollow.

Mr. Elmer Toll resigned his position as a farm laborer for Nevin Yearick and has secured employment in Lock Haven and last week moved his family and goods to Jersey Shore.

Mrs. Richard Vonada was admitted to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday of this week for an operation.

On Saturday afternoon from 2 till 4 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. George Weight gave their son Henry a surprise birthday party in honor of his 9th birthday. The afternoon was very enjoyably spent by playing children's games and at a reasonable time delicious refreshments were served to about 30 invited guests after which all departed for their homes wishing Henry many more happy birthdays. He received many nice as well as useful gifts.

Mrs. Richard Vonada was admitted to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday of this week for an operation.

On Saturday afternoon from 2 till 4 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. George Weight gave their son Henry a surprise birthday party in honor of his 9th birthday. The afternoon was very enjoyably spent by playing children's games and at a reasonable time delicious refreshments were served to about 30 invited guests after which all departed for their homes wishing Henry many more happy birthdays. He received many nice as well as useful gifts.

Mrs. Richard Vonada was admitted to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday of this week for an operation.

On Saturday afternoon from 2 till 4 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. George Weight gave their son Henry a surprise birthday party in honor of his 9th birthday. The afternoon was very enjoyably spent by playing children's games and at a reasonable time delicious refreshments were served to about 30 invited guests after which all departed for their homes wishing Henry many more happy birthdays. He received many nice as well as useful gifts.

Mrs. Richard Vonada was admitted to the Bellefonte hospital on Monday of this week for an operation.

On Saturday afternoon from 2 till 4 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. George Weight gave their son Henry a surprise birthday party in honor of his 9th birthday. The afternoon was very enjoyably spent by playing children's games and at a reasonable time delicious refreshments were served to about 30 invited guests after which all departed for their homes wishing Henry many more happy birthdays. He received many nice as well as useful gifts.

LIME!
Produced from Highest Quality High Calcium Limestone
Agricultural Burned Lime (All Forms)
Hydrated Lime In 50-lb. Bags
Pulverized Limestone In 80-lb. Bags or Bulk
Can Make Prompt Delivery
Attractive Prices Quoted Upon Application to WHITEROCK QUARRIES
Pleasant Gap, Pa.
Phone Bellefonte 901

Let This Be Your Invitation!
We invite you to come in and see the convenience of having Safe Deposit protection.
No one else has access to your box—you carry the key, and it is reserved exclusively for your own personal use.
For less than one cent a day, you can put under protection your valuable papers in our modern fire and burglar proof vault.
The First National Bank
Bellefonte, Pa.
Member of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

When Visiting THE 1940 World's Fair
WE INVITE YOU TO STOP AT OUR Conveniently Located Rooms (Large and Small)
ALSO Light Housekeeping Suites Beautifully furnished and comfortable.
Moderate Rates
EBY'S
22 West 83rd Street, NEW YORK CITY
Telephone SU 94-7823