Upon Mr. Moore's resignation, the school board attempted to fill the vacancy, but when a majority vote could not be obtained the matter was left to the Court's discretion. If the board had named the member. he would have served only until the next municipal election in 1941.

Although there was great interest the selection of a member for Mr. Moore's position, only one petition, naming Mr. Blaney, was presented to the Court. It was signed by ten citizens of town, as required by law. The appointment becomes effective immediately.
