

LOCALS

Mrs. James Kellerman, of Altoona, is spending some time among her many relatives and friends in Bellefonte and State College.

Carl Detrick drove to Sunbury Wednesday to bring home with him his mother, Mrs. Emma Detrick, who has been with her daughter Mrs. Charles F. Snyder and family for several weeks.

Mrs. Lloyd Loewer, of Brooklyn, N. Y., arrived in town Wednesday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Smith. Mr. Loewer will come to Bellefonte later on to join his wife for a visit before they return to their home.

The Bellefonte public school officials announce that the school offices of the Supervising Principal and secretary will be open daily from 8:30 a. m. to 5 p. m. during the week and from 9 a. m. to 12 noon on Saturdays through the summer vacation.

Miss Betty Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Howard, of Reynolds Avenue, who at Bellefonte High School commencement exercises last Thursday was awarded the general excellence prize in commercial subjects, accepted a position with the American Lime and Stone Company and began the duties of her post Monday, in the offices of that industry.

Nittany Country Club golfers lost the first tournament of the season Sunday when the Clearfield Country Club team carried home a 56 to 34 victory Saturday afternoon of this week Nittany players will meet the Centre Hills Country Club team, of State College, on the Nittany course. Both tournaments are Central Counties Golf Association events.

George I. Purnell, Jr., of East Curdin street, a member of the graduating class at the Bellefonte High school last week, departed yesterday for Baltimore, Md., where he hopes to secure a position on a coastwise steamer plying between Boston and Florida, for the summer months. George's plans are to enter Penn State in the fall and he expects to take a liberal arts course, specializing in personnel work.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Thompson, of the Bush Arcade apartments, West High street, who were injured last Wednesday morning when their car left the road and struck a telephone pole near Pine Grove Mills, are recovering nicely at the Centre County Hospital and are expected to be discharged from that institution today. Neither of them suffered any broken bones, although Mrs. Thompson was quite severely cut about the face. The accident happened when she was stung Mr. Thompson while he was driving the car.

Miss Janet Brouse, daughter of W. H. Brouse of South Thomas Street, was honored guest at a miscellaneous shower given by Miss Pauline Witmer and Miss Helen Jenkins at the Witmer apartment West High Street, last Wednesday night. Those present were: Mrs. James Funk, Mrs. Guy Glenn, Mrs. James Hartman, Mrs. Robert Griswold, Mrs. Misses Jean, Helen Garbrick, Eleanor Wion and Carolyn Brouse, all of Bellefonte; and Miss Julia Spear and Miss Louise Walker, both of Milesburg.

Borough employes yesterday completed the installation of a new drinking fountain at the entrance to the Big Spring property. The standard and bowl of the fountain are of solid stone construction, and there are three fountains inside the bowl. The fountain is so constructed that it is virtually impossible for germs to be transmitted from one user to the next. The water flows continuously, eliminating the need for manual operation. The fountain is a vast improvement over the ancient and unsightly one which has been at the spring for many years.

William P. Thomas, of Savannah, Georgia, came north by rail early this week for his first month's visit with his brother Daniel Thomas, of Snow Shoe, and with other relatives and friends in this area. When Mr. Thomas left Savannah the thermometer registered 91. Tuesday morning when he arrived in Harrisburg it was so cold he was forced to buy heavy overclothing. Upon his arrival in Bellefonte Tuesday afternoon the weather had turned hot and sultry and Mr. Thomas was thinking a bathing suit might be appropriate clothing.

Jacob Smith, of Bush Addition, Bellefonte, escaped serious injury Friday afternoon when he was struck on the head by a small crowbar. Mr. Smith, employed by his brother, Contractor Lewis Smith, on remodeling of the Elks lodge home West High street, had gone to the basement to get some materials. A fellow workman, not knowing Mr. Smith was in the cellar, pitched the crowbar down the stairs. The heavy bar struck Mr. Smith above one eye, rendering him unconscious. He was carried outside where he quickly revived and a short time later returned to work.

While enroute from his home in Wilmington, Del., to Pittsburgh to attend a business conference Friday night, Charles Warner, president of the Warner Company, of which the American Lime and Stone Company, Bellefonte, is a part, was stricken ill in the train, and when the train stopped at Altoona he sought medical advice. He was taken to the Altoona Hospital where he was found to be suffering from appendicitis. Arrangements were made for his return to Philadelphia for an operation, but Saturday evening his condition became such that immediate operation was necessary. Mr. Warner withstood the operation nicely and is now reported to be recovering satisfactorily at the Altoona institution. His son, Fred Warner, of East Curdin street, has been a daily visitor at his father's bedside since he became a patient there.

Mrs. Daisy Henderson will start her six-week summer course in shorthand and typewriting on June 17th.

James Hoffer, son of Mrs. G. Earle Hoffer, of West High street, will leave this weekend for Lake George, N. Y., where he will be employed at an exclusive girls' camp during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rider and daughter, of East Bishop street, returned home Sunday from a several days' visit with Mrs. Rider's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Trivelly, in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Shope and Mr. and Mrs. Elery Shope and Charles Shope, of Holts Hollow, returned home Monday from Baltimore, Md., where they visited several days with the former's son Roy and family.

Miss Martha Barnhart, who was granted a leave of absence from her teaching position in the Bellefonte schools last winter, received her bachelor's degree at Penn State College at Commencement Exercises held on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crossley and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crossley, all of East Bishop street, departed Sunday for a motor trip to New Orleans, La., where Mr. Crossley and Mr. Francis are attending a Shrine convention being held there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Shillcock and two sons, of West Linn street, left last Thursday for the Pocono Mountains where they will spend the summer at their cottage. They had as their guests during the weekend Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin, of West Linn street.

William Reynolds, of Summit, N. J., is spending a two weeks' vacation with his grandfather, Col. W. Fred Reynolds, and Mrs. Reynolds, at their home on West Linn street. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Reynolds, Jr., former well known residents of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Niles E. Davis and family, of East High street, moved Tuesday to the former Snyder house on East Linn street which they purchased some weeks ago from the Daniel Snyder heirs. For a number of years the house was occupied by the Morton Smith family.

Mrs. Wells L. Daggett returned to her home on East Linn Street, Sunday, from the Centre County Hospital where she had been under observation and treatment for nearly two months. According to reports Mrs. Daggett's condition is somewhat improved although she is confined to her bed.

Mrs. N. J. T. Jones was operated on at the J. C. Blair Hospital, Huntingdon, Tuesday morning, June 4, and is doing fine. She was a graduate of the Bellefonte Hospital in the class of 1926, and any of her friends in Centre county wishing to see her can do so. She was the former Miss Iva Glass.

Phillip Barnhart and son, Philip, returned to their home in Pittsfield, Mass., Sunday, after having spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. Barnhart's father, James K. Barnhart, at his home on West Linn street. Mr. Barnhart came here at this time especially to attend his class reunion at Penn State.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Carey, who were married in Houtzdale last week, have come to Bellefonte and are now at home in an apartment in the Collins Shoemaker residence on South Spring street. Mrs. Carey is the former Genevieve Burns, of Houtzdale. Mr. Carey is employed in the Martin barber shop here.

James E. Scott, a former Bellefonte printer, now a resident of Cleveland, Ohio, was greeting old friends in Bellefonte this week. He was accompanied by his brothers, William Scott of Canton, Ben Scott and wife, of Alliance, and the latter's grandson, Will Keyler. The party returned here Monday and left Tuesday for a trip through southern Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Miller are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their first child, a son, at their home in Bush Addition, Sunday night. Mrs. Miller, the former Bessie Haupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haupt, of Bush Addition, and the little boy, who weighed nine pounds, are reported to be getting along nicely. The father is a son of Clark Miller, of South Allegheny street.

Mr. and Mrs. John I. Thompson and two sons, of Wayne, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Thompson, who have been patients at the Centre County Hospital since last Wednesday when they were injured in an automobile accident near Pine Grove Mills. Mr. Thompson's sisters, Mrs. Mary Shaffer, of Sellersville, and Mrs. Louis Crossman, of Oaks, were also in Bellefonte during the weekend.

Clair W. Link, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Humberger, of Lancaster, who was graduated from the Bellefonte High school in the class of 1934 and who received his diploma at Penn State in 1938, has just completed a two-year course in the Graduate School of Business at Harvard University, at Boston, Mass. He was accepted in position with the International Business Machine Co. and will be located in Boston, Mass. Mr. Link and the Humberger family are well known in Bellefonte, having resided here much of the time while Mr. Humberger, who is a Sergeant in the State Motor Police, was stationed at the headquarters formerly located here.

Edward Plumb, Jr., of North Allegheny street, Bellefonte, received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy at the 118th commencement of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science held in the auditorium of the institution on Wednesday evening of last week. The members of the graduating class, recently completed a fortnight's industrial trip to Washington, Indianapolis, Chicago, Dayton, New Brunswick and New York, visiting leading pharmaceutical establishments in these cities. Among those who attended the graduation exercises were Plumb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Plumb, of the Partridge street, Mrs. Anne Fox, of North Spring street, and Dr. Joseph A. Parrish, of West High street.

Miss Ethel Dale, of East High street, will leave today for a several days' visit in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Mrs. Harry Curtin, who has sublet her apartment in the Orvis apartments, East Curdin street, to Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bechel and family, left Sunday for a visit with relatives and friends in Harrisburg, Inlet, N. Y., and Norfolk, Va.

Robert F. Curtin and James B. Craig, both first year students at Mercersburg Academy, arrived in Bellefonte last week to spend the summer vacation at their respective parental homes. Curtin is a son of John Curtin, Sr., of West Linn street, and Craig is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Craig, of West Curdin street.

One of the newest wonders of science, the artificial creation of speech, will be the subject of a lecture-demonstration June 18, at 8 p. m., in Schwab Auditorium, Pennsylvania State College, by Dr. J. Owen Perrine, assistant vice president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. It was announced yesterday. The noted lecturer and scientist, one of the world's foremost authorities on human speech, will address twelve hundred members of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, assembled at State College from every State in the Union. The meeting is open to the public.

The Barages East Centre County Band schedule is as follows: Friday, June 14, Flag Day, parade and festival, New Columbia; Saturday, June 15, festival, Clintondale; Sunday, June 16, concert, Rolling Green; Friday, June 21, festival, Milesburg; Saturday, June 22, festival, Salona.

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

30,000 People Read This Column

every week. That's why The Centre Democrat's classified advertising department has become so amazingly popular. Considering its low cost and the benefits derived, it is undisputedly Centre County's Community Bargain Counter.

REAL ESTATE—A straight one cent a word is charged for real estate advertising—sale or rent.

SUBSCRIBER'S PRIVILEGE—Every subscriber to The Centre Democrat is entitled to a 25-word advertisement in these columns one time, free of charge. This privilege can be used six times a year at different intervals.

FOR SALE—A child's bed in good condition. Inquire of Mrs. Harriet Williams, 8 Allegheny St., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—A coal, wood, sand, crushed stone, top soil and building stone. Lee A. Reed, Lamb Street, Bellefonte, Phone 174-R. $24.

FOR SALE—1937 Olds coach; 1934 turret top type body by Fisher; no rust; ventilation; hydraulic brakes. Down payment $150.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1936 Chevrolet town sedan; equipped with cruise and climatic transmission; excellent condition. Down payment $228.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1935 Plymouth 2 door touring sedan; double acting hydraulic shock absorber. Down payment $144.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1935 Pontiac 4 door touring sedan; K-Y member frame; very good mechanical condition; roomy trunk compartment. Down payment $110.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—Tomato, cauliflower, sweet peppers and disease proof plants. Inquire of Clarence M. Roy, Bellefonte, R. D. 2 (Pleasant Gap) $24.

FOR SALE—1936 Ford Coach with trunk; beautiful blue finish; motor, dual coil ventilators. Full price $118.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1929 Chrysler 75 sedan; hydraulic brakes and shock absorber; dual coil ventilators. Full price $79.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—Parquhar traction four-wheel potato sprayer, almost new, used to spray 4 acres one season only. Half price. Inquire of Wm. Sylvester, 100 E. R. D. $24.

FOR SALE—2236 Case thrasher, complete with belts, clover concaves and reel. Mrs. Margaret I. Plaburn, Bellefonte, Penna, R. 2, Phone 938-R. $24.

FOR SALE—Tappan gas stove, white enamel, divided top, four burners and oven. Burns city or bottled gas. Like new, self reasonable. Hubert O. Vonada, Jacksonville. $24.

FOR SALE—1937 Chevrolet touring sedan, super hydraulic brakes, 121 steel turret top type body, built in luggage compartment. Full price $228.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1937 Chevrolet touring sedan, super hydraulic brakes, 121 steel turret top type body, built in luggage compartment. Full price $228.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1937 Chevrolet touring sedan, super hydraulic brakes, 121 steel turret top type body, built in luggage compartment. Full price $228.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1937 Chevrolet touring sedan, super hydraulic brakes, 121 steel turret top type body, built in luggage compartment. Full price $228.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1937 Chevrolet touring sedan, super hydraulic brakes, 121 steel turret top type body, built in luggage compartment. Full price $228.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1937 Chevrolet touring sedan, super hydraulic brakes, 121 steel turret top type body, built in luggage compartment. Full price $228.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1937 Chevrolet touring sedan, super hydraulic brakes, 121 steel turret top type body, built in luggage compartment. Full price $228.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1937 Chevrolet touring sedan, super hydraulic brakes, 121 steel turret top type body, built in luggage compartment. Full price $228.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR SALE—1937 Chevrolet touring sedan, super hydraulic brakes, 121 steel turret top type body, built in luggage compartment. Full price $228.00. Jodan Motor Co., Bellefonte, Pa. $24.

FOR RENT—3-room apartment with tile bath. Heat, hot water and stove supplied. Available June 1. Inquire E. O. Harvey, Phone 998-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Second floor duplex apartment, desirable location, all conveniences, heat, hot water, garage, roomy. Mrs. Barbara Machine man, Corner Curdin and Ridge Sts., Bellefonte, Phone 202-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Large comfortable front bedroom with closet, near bath, at 184 North Spring Street, Phone 15-W. $24.

FOR RENT—2 furnished rooms for light, home-like. Inquire 125 Roxanna Smith, 116 E. Logan St., Bellefonte. $24.

FOR RENT—3-room apartment with tile bath. Heat, hot water and stove supplied. Available June 1. Inquire E. O. Harvey, Phone 998-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Second floor duplex apartment, desirable location, all conveniences, heat, hot water, garage, roomy. Mrs. Barbara Machine man, Corner Curdin and Ridge Sts., Bellefonte, Phone 202-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Large comfortable front bedroom with closet, near bath, at 184 North Spring Street, Phone 15-W. $24.

FOR RENT—2 furnished rooms for light, home-like. Inquire 125 Roxanna Smith, 116 E. Logan St., Bellefonte. $24.

FOR RENT—3-room apartment with tile bath. Heat, hot water and stove supplied. Available June 1. Inquire E. O. Harvey, Phone 998-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Second floor duplex apartment, desirable location, all conveniences, heat, hot water, garage, roomy. Mrs. Barbara Machine man, Corner Curdin and Ridge Sts., Bellefonte, Phone 202-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Large comfortable front bedroom with closet, near bath, at 184 North Spring Street, Phone 15-W. $24.

FOR RENT—2 furnished rooms for light, home-like. Inquire 125 Roxanna Smith, 116 E. Logan St., Bellefonte. $24.

FOR RENT—3-room apartment with tile bath. Heat, hot water and stove supplied. Available June 1. Inquire E. O. Harvey, Phone 998-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Second floor duplex apartment, desirable location, all conveniences, heat, hot water, garage, roomy. Mrs. Barbara Machine man, Corner Curdin and Ridge Sts., Bellefonte, Phone 202-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Large comfortable front bedroom with closet, near bath, at 184 North Spring Street, Phone 15-W. $24.

FOR RENT—2 furnished rooms for light, home-like. Inquire 125 Roxanna Smith, 116 E. Logan St., Bellefonte. $24.

FOR RENT—3-room apartment with tile bath. Heat, hot water and stove supplied. Available June 1. Inquire E. O. Harvey, Phone 998-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Second floor duplex apartment, desirable location, all conveniences, heat, hot water, garage, roomy. Mrs. Barbara Machine man, Corner Curdin and Ridge Sts., Bellefonte, Phone 202-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Large comfortable front bedroom with closet, near bath, at 184 North Spring Street, Phone 15-W. $24.

FOR RENT—2 furnished rooms for light, home-like. Inquire 125 Roxanna Smith, 116 E. Logan St., Bellefonte. $24.

FOR RENT—3-room apartment with tile bath. Heat, hot water and stove supplied. Available June 1. Inquire E. O. Harvey, Phone 998-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Second floor duplex apartment, desirable location, all conveniences, heat, hot water, garage, roomy. Mrs. Barbara Machine man, Corner Curdin and Ridge Sts., Bellefonte, Phone 202-R. $24.

FOR RENT—Large comfortable front bedroom with closet, near bath, at 184 North Spring Street, Phone 15-W. $24.

FOR RENT—2 furnished rooms for light, home-like. Inquire 125 Roxanna Smith, 116 E. Logan St., Bellefonte. $24.

FOR RENT—3-room apartment with tile bath. Heat, hot water and stove supplied. Available June 1. Inquire E. O. Harvey, Phone 998-R. $24.

Mrs. Daisy Henderson will start her six-week summer course in shorthand and typewriting on June 17th.

James Hoffer, son of Mrs. G. Earle Hoffer, of West High street, will leave this weekend for Lake George, N. Y., where he will be employed at an exclusive girls' camp during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rider and daughter, of East Bishop street, returned home Sunday from a several days' visit with Mrs. Rider's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Trivelly, in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Shope and Mr. and Mrs. Elery Shope and Charles Shope, of Holts Hollow, returned home Monday from Baltimore, Md., where they visited several days with the former's son Roy and family.

Miss Martha Barnhart, who was granted a leave of absence from her teaching position in the Bellefonte schools last winter, received her bachelor's degree at Penn State College at Commencement Exercises held on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crossley and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crossley, all of East Bishop street, departed Sunday for a motor trip to New Orleans, La., where Mr. Crossley and Mr. Francis are attending a Shrine convention being held there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Shillcock and two sons, of West Linn street, left last Thursday for the Pocono Mountains where they will spend the summer at their cottage. They had as their guests during the weekend Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin, of West Linn street.

William Reynolds, of Summit, N. J., is spending a two weeks' vacation with his grandfather, Col. W. Fred Reynolds, and Mrs. Reynolds, at their home on West Linn street. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Reynolds, Jr., former well known residents of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Niles E. Davis and family, of East High street, moved Tuesday to the former Snyder house on East Linn street which they purchased some weeks ago from the Daniel Snyder heirs. For a number of years the house was occupied by the Morton Smith family.

Mrs. Wells L. Daggett returned to her home on East Linn Street, Sunday, from the Centre County Hospital where she had been under observation and treatment for nearly two months. According to reports Mrs. Daggett's condition is somewhat improved although she is confined to her bed.

Mrs. N. J. T. Jones was operated on at the J. C. Blair Hospital, Huntingdon, Tuesday morning, June 4, and is doing fine. She was a graduate of the Bellefonte Hospital in the class of 1926, and any of her friends in Centre county wishing to see her can do so. She was the former Miss Iva Glass.

Phillip Barnhart and son, Philip, returned to their home in Pittsfield, Mass., Sunday, after having spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. Barnhart's father, James K. Barnhart, at his home on West Linn street. Mr. Barnhart came here at this time especially to attend his class reunion at Penn State.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Carey, who were married in Houtzdale last week, have come to Bellefonte and are now at home in an apartment in the Collins Shoemaker residence on South Spring street. Mrs. Carey is the former Genevieve Burns, of Houtzdale. Mr. Carey is employed in the Martin barber shop here.

James E. Scott, a former Bellefonte printer, now a resident of Cleveland, Ohio, was greeting old friends in Bellefonte this week. He was accompanied by his brothers, William Scott of Canton, Ben Scott and wife, of Alliance, and the latter's grandson, Will Keyler. The party returned here Monday and left Tuesday for a trip through southern Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Miller are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their first child, a son, at their home in Bush Addition, Sunday night. Mrs. Miller, the former Bessie Haupt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haupt, of Bush Addition, and the little boy, who weighed nine pounds, are reported to be getting along nicely. The father is a son of Clark Miller, of South Allegheny street.

Mr. and Mrs. John I. Thompson and two sons, of Wayne, spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Thompson, who have been patients at the Centre County Hospital since last Wednesday when they were injured in an automobile accident near Pine Grove Mills. Mr. Thompson's sisters, Mrs. Mary Shaffer, of Sellersville, and Mrs. Louis Crossman, of Oaks, were also in Bellefonte during the weekend.

Clair W. Link, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Humberger, of Lancaster, who was graduated from the Bellefonte High school in the class of 1934 and who received his diploma at Penn State in 1938, has just completed a two-year course in the Graduate School of Business at Harvard University, at Boston, Mass. He was accepted in position with the International Business Machine Co. and will be located in Boston, Mass. Mr. Link and the Humberger family are well known in Bellefonte, having resided here much of the time while Mr. Humberger, who is a Sergeant in the State Motor Police, was stationed at the headquarters formerly located here.

Edward Plumb, Jr., of North Allegheny street, Bellefonte, received the degree of Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy at the 118th commencement of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science held in the auditorium of the institution on Wednesday evening of last week. The members of the graduating class, recently completed a fortnight's industrial trip to Washington, Indianapolis, Chicago, Dayton, New Brunswick and New York, visiting leading pharmaceutical establishments in these cities. Among those who attended the graduation exercises were Plumb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Plumb, of the Partridge street, Mrs. Anne Fox, of North Spring street, and Dr. Joseph A. Parrish, of West High street.

Miss Ethel Dale, of East High street, will leave today for a several days' visit in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

Mrs. Harry Curtin, who has sublet her apartment in the Orvis apartments, East Curdin street, to Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bechel and family, left Sunday for a visit with relatives and friends in Harrisburg, Inlet, N. Y., and Norfolk, Va.

Robert F. Curtin and James B. Craig, both first year students at Mercersburg Academy, arrived in Bellefonte last week to spend the summer vacation at their respective parental homes. Curtin is a son of John Curtin, Sr., of West Linn street, and Craig is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Craig, of West Curdin street.

One of the newest wonders of science, the artificial creation of speech, will be the subject of a lecture-demonstration June 18, at 8 p. m., in Schwab Auditorium, Pennsylvania State College, by Dr. J. Owen Perrine, assistant vice president of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. It was announced yesterday. The noted lecturer and scientist, one of the world's foremost authorities on human speech, will address twelve hundred members of the American Society of Agricultural Engineers, assembled at State College from every State in the Union. The meeting is open to the public.

The Barages East Centre County Band schedule is as follows: Friday, June 14, Flag Day, parade and festival, New Columbia; Saturday, June 15, festival, Clintondale; Sunday, June 16, concert, Rolling Green; Friday, June 21, festival, Milesburg; Saturday, June 22, festival, Salona.

Band Schedule

Band Schedule

Mrs. Daisy Henderson will start her six-week summer course in shorthand and typewriting on June 17th.

James Hoffer, son of Mrs. G. Earle Hoffer, of West High street, will leave this weekend for Lake George, N. Y., where he will be employed at an exclusive girls' camp during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rider and daughter, of East Bishop street, returned home Sunday from a several days' visit with Mrs. Rider's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Trivelly, in Harrisburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Shope and Mr. and Mrs. Elery Shope and Charles Shope, of Holts Hollow, returned home Monday from Baltimore, Md., where they visited several days with the former's son Roy and family.

Miss Martha Barnhart, who was granted a leave of absence from her teaching position in the Bellefonte schools last winter, received her bachelor's degree at Penn State College at Commencement Exercises held on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Crossley and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Crossley, all of East Bishop street, departed Sunday for a motor trip to New Orleans, La., where Mr. Crossley and Mr. Francis are attending a Shrine convention being held there this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Shillcock and two sons, of West Linn street, left last Thursday for the Pocono Mountains where they will spend the summer at their cottage. They had as their guests during the weekend Mr. and Mrs. John Curtin, of West Linn street.

William Reynolds, of Summit, N. J., is spending a two weeks' vacation with his grandfather, Col. W. Fred Reynolds, and Mrs. Reynolds, at their home on West Linn street. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Reynolds, Jr., former well known residents of Bellefonte.

Mr. and Mrs. Niles E. Davis and family, of East High street, moved Tuesday to the former Snyder house on East Linn street which they purchased some weeks ago from the Daniel Snyder heirs. For a number of years the house was occupied by the Morton Smith family.

Mrs. Wells L. Daggett returned to her home on East Linn Street, Sunday, from the Centre County Hospital where she had been under observation and treatment for nearly two months. According to reports Mrs. Daggett's condition is somewhat improved although she is confined to her bed.

Mrs. N. J. T. Jones was operated on at the J. C. Blair Hospital, Huntingdon, Tuesday morning, June 4, and is doing fine. She was a graduate of the Bellefonte Hospital in the class of 1926, and any of her friends in Centre county wishing to see her can do so. She was the former Miss Iva Glass.

Phillip Barnhart and son, Philip, returned to their home in Pittsfield, Mass., Sunday, after having spent the weekend in Bellefonte as guests of Mr. Barnhart's father, James K. Barnhart, at his home on West Linn street. Mr. Barnhart came here at this time especially to attend his class reunion at Penn State.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Carey, who were married in Houtzdale last week, have come to Bellefonte and are now at home in an apartment in the Collins Shoemaker residence on South Spring street. Mrs. Carey is the former Genevieve Burns, of Houtzdale. Mr. Carey is employed in the Martin barber shop here.