District Patriarchs Meet, Visit Local Scenic Spots, Hear Fine Addresses

The Patriarchal Association of the West Branch Valley, I. O. O. F. held an anniversary celebration in the Odd Fellows Hall, Bellefonte, last Saturday afternoon and even-

The afternoon session was presided over by the president, W. E. Tharp, of Sunbury, after an address of welcome by Burgess H. P. Harris and response by the Grand Patriarch of Pennsylvania.

At 4 o'clock a bus load of Patriarchs and ladies visited Fishermen's Paradise, Rockview Penitentiary and the State Fish Hatchery at Pleasant Gap Patriarch "Alex" very ably supplied the needs of the inner man at his Diamond Restaurant on the return from the sightseeing trip.

The evening session opened at 7 o'clock with a splendid concert by the High School Band, under the direction of Past Grand Harold Wion. The remainder of the evening was devoted to talks by various officers and patriarchs. Dr. Zimmerman, grand patriarch, spoke on the ideals of Odd Fellowship, Past Grand Patriarch and representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge, Harry Stevens, of Philadelphia, dwelt on the topics of the day. Both these addresses were interesting and full of valuable information and instruction. Other visitors who addressed the assembly were Patriarchs Weber and Tharp, of Sunbury, and Lughart, of Williamsport. Two of the visiting ladies, Lady Gibson, district deputy of Lycoming county, and Lady Gehron, of the Patriarch's Militant Auxiliary of Williamsport, gave interesting talks enjoyed by
