Thoroughly Every Town and Village In Centre County.

BELLEFONTE TO GET DIAL 'PHONES

Expect Complete Plans in Few Days

Several Sites Under Con- To Discuss Dramatics sideration For New Exchange Building

PREDICT WORK TO BEGIN IN 2 MONTHS

Change Necessitates New Numbering System, New Directories For Area

Bellefonte is slated to get dial telephones in the near future. Announcement of plans to install dialing equipment in Bellefonte and surrounding areas is expected to be surrounding areas is expected to be made within the next week or so to have an interest in dramatics by the Bell Telephone Company, it was reliably rumored last night. While telephone officials could not be reached for verification, usually authoritative sources had it that the Bell Telephone Company has inspected "two or three" building sites in Bellefonte, and is ready proceed with the erection of a building to house the new exchange equipment. Actual work on the changeover said to be slated to begin within "two months." Installation of the new system would entail virtually a rebuilding of telephone facilities in this area Entirely new and extremely intricate machinery is required in the central exchange, while every telephone must be equipped with dialing equipment. The change would necessitate a new numbering system and the issuance of new direc-Despite the tremendous

(Continued on page six)

Titan President

ington Beach, Petersburg, Florida, has been sold for a cash consideration of $14,000 to William P. Sieg., of Bellefonte, president of the Titan Metal Manufacturing Company.

The house, located in the Lone Palm Beach subdivision, has four rooms, three baths, seawall and dock. It is white stucco with red tile roof and has screened porches, adjacent garage and all modern conveniences. Mr. Sieg will spend the mid-winter months there. A house opposite the one chased by Mr. Sieg was bought by Harold S. Lake, of Hartford, Conn. for $8.500

Cyclist, Pedestrian Hurt in Accident

Elwood Robb, aged 17, son of Mr.

One of the pedestrians, Hazel suffered a head injury. She was (Continued on page 5-second sec.) a gunshot injury suffered about under treatment at her parental home. The accident happened while the cyclist was rounding a sharp

Robb was brought to the Centre County Hospital where he remained under treatment until the following

Society Holds Picnic The Woman's Foreign Missionary

Society of the Pleasant Gap Methodist church held an outing at the Fish Hatchery yesterday afternoon and evening, with Mrs. Dewey Sorenson as hostess.

Wins 1940 Buick Mrs. Alice Henry, of Sandy Ridge,

A meeting will be held in the Court House at Bellefonte on Monday evening, July 15, at 7:30 o'clock which will be of interest to all folks in Centre county interested in dramatics, according to County Agent

R. C. Blaney. Willis Kerns, Extension Rural Sociologist of State College, will discuss dramatics emphasizing in particular play selections, character selection, make-up and many other phases of play production that will be beneficial particularly to folks either taking part in or directing in Centre county this year to try # to be out on Monday evening. Corpus Hearing

from manual to dial operation is Action Brought in Effort to Have Millinder Released Under Bail

> Richard Millinder, 22-year-old confessed slayer of his wife's cousin, Faye Gates, of Mt. Eagle, is scheduled to appear in Court here Mon- Philipsburg State Hospital. day morning in connection with a cure his release under bail.

At the hearing, the date for which was fixed by Judge Ivan Walker upon petition by the defense attorney Lewis Orvis Harvey, of Bellefonte, the Commonwealth will be Buys Florida Home required to reveal sufficient evidence to lend credence to its contention The rambling style home of Mr. that the defendant is the man who and Mrs. Ralph Dewberry, on Red-slugged his 24-year-old neighbor to death with a rock on the "Spook Hollow" road, May 5, after she resisted his advances.

The defense is not required to produce any evidence at a hearing of this kind. It is the Common-(Continued on page two)

Group Hospital Plan Is Growing

Representative of Capital Service to be in Bellefonte

Every Thursday

Capital Hospital Service, central Pennsylvania's non-profit community plan for hospital care, is now represented in Bellefonte by Wiland Mrs. George Robb, of Coleville, liam Faux, who may be reached suffered bruises about the head and each Thursday through the Centre face about 7:30 o'clock Monday County Hospital. New groups alnight when he lost control of his ready enrolled by Mr. Faux include bicycle and ran into two pedestrians Worth's Dress Shop and the Weis Pure Food Store.

Record enrollments during Justice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. spring in Capital Hospital Service, Dewey Justice, of Coleville, was with concentration on a newlypushed against a nearby fence and opened office in Reading, have fire companies throughout the central part of the state to take part in the parade which will open the annual carnival to be held in Bellefonte by the Logan Fire Company, July 19 and 20. Many other organizations in addition to fire companies will take part in the parade.

Logan Firemen To Hold 2-Day Carnival

The carnival will be held on the school commons at Spring and Lamb streets and a variety of entertainment is being planned. The Triona Sisters from radio station won a 1940 Buick given away as a WRAK. Williamsport, will be among feature of the Philipsburg Firemen's the entertainers. Refreshments be sold on the grounds.

UNDINES CONTINUE BLITZKRIEG ON FIREMEN'S PARADE PRIZES

Bellefonte, during the next few pearing equipment.

men's celebrations in Centre and find out how they do it. One fire-Blair counties, the Undines have man said, "Listen, Mack, we've been been awarded a total of eight prizes, drilling several nights a week since 6 firsts and 2 seconds.

The prize-winning blitzkrieg be- ing, that's what I mean. gan June 27 when the Undines took | Another Undine, casting a billious two firsts and one second prize in eye at the reporter's baggy trousers. Tyrone. On July 4 the Undines, in and hap-hazard tie, commented: the face of stiff competition at "Take you, for example. You'd never band. The band was not in compeculations in Philipsburg and Os- be allowed to parade! Before we tition for prizes in either parade, sioner George M. Harter, fell last the face of stiff competition at "Take you, for example. You'd never ceola Mills, added a string of 5 start marching we go through an more prizes to their list.

Watch the Undine Fire Company, got second prize for the best ap-A reporter dropped In two days' appearances at fire- the Undine House the other day to cordially invited to stop at the stalast summer, and when I say drill-inspection that makes an army re-

James F. Uzzelll

Dies Suddenly

Was Retired Coal Operator; Prominent Resident of Snow Shoe Area

Death came suddenly and unexpectedly to James F. Uzzell, retired coal operator and one of Snow Shoe's best known citizens, who died at his home in Snow Shoe at 8 o'-clock last Wednesday morning, June 3, 1940, after a ten days' illness with a heart condition. He was aged 74 years, 8 months, and 17

Mr. Uzzell had not been in good health since early last winter when he underwent treatment at the

For a number of years Mr. Uzzell habeas corpus proceeding instituted was engaged in the operation of a by his attorney in an effort to se- large coal mine at Snow Shoe. He (Continued on page 5-second sec.)

Couple Observes 40th Wedding Anniversary

at Julian in honor of their 40th wedding anniversary. The dinner came as a complete surprise to Mr.

Among those present were their son and daughter-in-law. Mr. and Cal., who came here especially for the occasion; Harold and Hugh Gross, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gross, and Robert Gross and friend, all of Bellefonte. Others included John Gross' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gross, of Bellefonte

The honored couple were united in marriage in Altoona on July 3. 1900, and have spent all their married life in Bellefonte. Mr. Gross is 64 years old and his wife is nearing her 66th birthday. Both are in excellent health, Mr. Gross personally conducting the affairs of his grocery on South Spring street,

Local Youth Suffers Bullet Wound in Knee

Jackie Kerschner, aged 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kerschner, of East High street, is recovering from 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening while 15, were examining a 22-calibre rifle near their home the weapon, the trigger was acci- Tuesday, July 9. dentally tripped and the bullet one of the younger boy's knees. He was taken to the Centre County Hospital where a physician removed the bullet, after which the youth was permitted to return home.

BELLEFONTE TO HAVE NEW SERVICE STATION

Announcement is made elsewhere in this issue of the opening of the Bellefonte Motor Sales in the former Dave Hughes Service station at the intersection of Water and new establishment, which will be conducted by Harry "Had" McClellan. "Dick" Waite and Frank asserman, will offer complete sales and service for International trucks: Mobilgas and Mobilgas Special; Mobiloil and complete one-stop lubrication and service for all makes of cars. A full line of accessories also has been stocked. The public is

BANJO BAND ACTIVITIES

The Bellefonte Banjo Band appeared in both Osceola Mills and Philipsburg parades July 4. and was paid $125 for its services as hired and led Undines in both events, The band will play at a festival at broke her right arm at the wrist

He Was Lost-But Not Scared

"Jackie" Tate, aged 2 years, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Tate, of near Milesburg, had the Milesburg-Bellefonte area in a nervous fettle last Wednesday night. The youth, who with his sixmonths'-old Police puppy, disap-peared somewhat strangely from his home about 6:30 o'clock that evening, and who was the object of a widespread search most of the night, was found early the following morning in a clover field more than a mile from his home. Aside from a number of mosquito bites and some scratches he had suffered in walking through heavy brush, he was unharmed.

"Jackie's" parents reside in a small cabin in the woods across Bald Eagle Creek from Central City, below what is known as "Ten Acre." A mountain road leading "Tangletown," settlement along the creek opposite Milesburg is the chief means of access to the

According to the child's mother 'Jackie" was engaged in picking flowers near the house early Wednesday evening when he disappeared while the mother was absent for a moment tending to some peeps a short distance away.

Upon her return to the home she called to him, and receiving no re-(Continued on page 7-2nd sec.

Board Studies Kiwanis Meet At Grange Hall School Changes

Members of Pleasant Gap Defer Election of Teach-Groups Are Guests; Hear er; To Bring Suit to Re-Interesting Program

Members of the Pleasant Gap Club at a joint dinner and meeting a regular meeting of the School The four sons of Mr. and Mrs. Grange Hall in Pleasant Cap thoice of a teacher is to be a large Hall for Pleasant Cap thoice of a teacher is the teacher is the teacher is thoice held Tuesday night at the Logar Board here Monday night. The Grange Hall in Pleasant Cop, thoice of a feather is to be made ant Gap, and acrobatic dances by the field to those applicants who Betty Moyer of Pleasant Gap had teaching experience and ad-Mrs. Harold Gross, of Los Angeles, Piano accompaniments were played vanced degrees, while another memby Mrs. Earl K. Stock.

An interesting feature of the en- male teacher with children should Pleasant Gap Band, which is an any candidate. include young boys and girls, some trict from a 4th class rating to a only 10 years old, while women of 3rd class district. The change takes (Continued on page three)

Teachers Attend 3 Men Charged

Three-Day Session For Edu- Two Tylersville Men Fined; cators Being Held at Penn State

Between 300 and 500 school teachers and principals, most of were arrested Monday for violating he and his brother, James, Jr., aged them from central Pennsylvania, the game laws. after Game Protook part in a three-session Confer- tectors and Fish Wardens raided While the boys were inspecting Pennsylvania State College

The conference was sponsored by through the fleshy part of Penn State's School of Education. Three main topics were covered. Dr. Carroll D. Champlin, professor education at the college, was chairman of the opening session Tuesday afternoon, when the pro-(Continued on page 7-2nd sec.

Woman, 84, in Plane

While student pilots at Waynes burg College celebrated passing tests for private pilots' licenses by taking their sweethearts as their first passengers, Frank Jamison, Jr., of Waynesburg, had his 84-year-old grandmother, Mrs. Clara M. Jamison, as his initial flight companion She said: "I'm ready to go right back up."

Mrs. Jamison is a sister of the late Samuel Meals, former president of the Carnegie Natural Gas Com-pany at Pittsburgh. Pilot Jamison is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jamison, of Waynesburg, formerly Howard Woman Breaks Arm Mrs. Pietta S. Harter, of Howard, Tuesday evening at her home and first honors for the best appearing company. In Osceola Mills, they captured first prize for best appearing company and for the largest in fremen's convention might call number in line. The organization of the largest of the old street for a few weeks.

The fish was the rule rather than the exception one of the largest of its kind to be throughout the ten-day period. The tameness comes into the picture because the stay-at-homes in the older people of Orviston say it information regarding the sale.

The popular organization will appear or too hall at 7:30 p. m.

The popular organization will appear or too one of the largest of its kind to be throughout the ten-day period. Consult the Katz Store advertise-ment on another page for further information regarding the sale.

The popular organization will appear or too one of the cide at the Centre County Hospital one of the largest of its kind to be throughout the ten-day period. Consult the Katz Store advertise-ment on another page for further information regarding the sale.

The popular organization will appear or too one of the cide at the Centre County Hospital one of the largest of its kind to be cause the stay-at-homes in the district.

The popular organization will appear or too one of the largest of its kind to be cause the stay-at-homes in the district.

The popular organization will appear or too one of the largest of its kind to be cause the stay-at-homes in the district.

The popular organization will appear or too one of the largest of its kind to be cause the stay-at-homes in the district.

The tameness comes into the picture because the stay-at-homes in the district.

The tameness comes into the picture because the stay-at-homes in the district.

The popular organization will appear or too one of the largest of its kind to be cause the stay-at-homes in the district.

The popular organization will appear or too one of the largest of its kind to be cause the stay-at-homes in the district.

The popular organization will appear organization will appear or

LITTLE JACKIE TATE simply doesn't understand

cover Tuition Accounts Decision to postpone the selection Inter-organization Council were of an English teacher for the Belleguests of the Bellefonte Kiwanis fonte High school was postponed at

The entertainment program in- for nearly an hour several of the cluded group singing led by Cecii more than half a hundred candi-A. Walker, of Bellefonte; sleight-of- dates for the vacant post. Some hand acts by Roy Adams, of Pleas- members favored narrowing down ber expressed the belief that tertainment was a concert by the chosen. No vote was taken on unusual organization. Among its County Superintendent of Schools members are five or six men who F. Glenn Rogers was present to have been playing with the bano outline to the board the changes since its founding more than a which will result from the elevahalf century ago. Other members tion of the Bellefonte school dis-

School Meeting With Killing Deer

(Continued on page eight)

McElhattan Man Goes

Three residents of Clinton county ence on Instruction opening at the farms at Tylersville and McElhat- ahoe, N. Y.; Blackhawk Restaurant field, which was at first slated for on tan and discovered freshly killed deer

At the George Grieb farm near Tylersville, Game Protector Miles W. Reeder and Fish Warden George Hotel, St. Paul; St. Francis Hotel Cross are reported to have found the carcass of a whole deer which room, Los Angeles. they later learned had been killed near Logan Mills early Monday morning.

As a result of their search, Richard Grieb, son of the owner of the farm, paid a $100 fine and $16.50 (Continued on page three)

Ride With Grandson Carnival at Howard Will Begin Tonight

the Howard Fire Company begins highway. today and will continue through Saturday, with a varied program of Ray C. Noll, sponsor of the pool each day.

a parade in which more than a by employes of Pleasant Gap indozen visiting companies and num- dustries during their spare time. erous musical organizations will ap-The parade will move at 6:30 KATZ CLEARANCE SALE Tomorrow there will be a basebal game between Mill Hall and How-ler Band of Milesburg will play and days, the management announced a league baseball game between yesterday. Monument and Howard will begin Lands Mammoth Catfish. exception this year, for again every Clifford Gardner of Orviston item in the large stock of the store

Heda, Aug. 7

Public in Bellefonte And Vicinity Invited to Attend Community Picnic

2 FREE SHOWS, MANY CONTESTS BOOKED

Baseball Game, 3 Bands Sponsored Event

The business men's pinic being poor district. the Bellefonte Chamber of Commerce shows every indication of becally in recent years.

The picnic, to which all business men and residents of the central part of the county are cordially invited, will be held on Wednesday, why grown-ups should make such August 7, at Hecla Park. The proa fuss over his one-night leave gram will begin at 10 a. m. will continue until late that night. All organizations in Bellefonte and vicinity are urged to participate in a booster parade which will be held here the night before the picnic. The committee is bending every effort toward making the picnic an annual red-letter day for the business men and residents of > Activities at Hecla will begin at 10 a. m. with a variety of races and contests for boys and girls being scheduled. At 1:30 o'clock a free show, lasting one hour, will be pre-(Continued on page six)

RED NORVO

Red Norvo, "the world's greatest xylophonist," and his orchestra will appear at Hecla Park, on Saturday night. July 13, through arrangement with Music Corporation of America. The dance will be from 10 to 2 o'clock and tickets will be 75 cents, including tax. Norvo has been rated among the big "name" bands of the country for many years and his engage ments at many of the outstanding night clubs, theatres and hotels have been tremendously successful have been, Benjamin Franklin Hotel, Philadelphia; Southland building. Night Club. Boston: Murray's Tuck-Chicago: Pennsylvania Hotel, New York: Meadowbrook Country Club Cedargrove, N. J.; Famous Door Astor Hotel, New York; Lowry San Francisco and Palomar Ball-

Pool At Pleasant Gap Being Repaired

Reconditioning of the Pleasant Mix and his company will arrive Fire Company arrived.

Gap outdoor swimming pool which in Millhelm early Thursday afterwas damaged by spring floods, is noon to be ready for the 7 p. m. was pulled from its base by the serproceeding rapidly. The pool is being dredged and will be put into service as soon as possible. It is planned to build a new concrete stage and picture shows beginning wire covering and a quantity of The annual three-day carnival of bridge between the pool and the at 7 and 9 p. m. For an evening of gasoline which remained in and owner of the land on which The opening tonight will include it is located. The work is being done

WILL BEGIN TOMOBROW

The annual July Clearance sale ard at 5:30 p. m. and the Hope Hose of the Katz Store, Bellefonte, will Company Band of Lock Haven will open at 9 o'clock Friday morning, furnish music. Saturday the Wetz- July 12, and will continue for ten

This clearance sale, one of the most popular annual merchandis-ing events in Bellefonte, will be no At Philipsburg the local firemen view look like play." Warming up largest uniformed company and first honors for the best appearing company. In Osceola Mills, they call the subject of the subject of the subject of the subject of the store and while standing on top store and while stand

Business Men Report 'Amazing' Plan Outing At Find in Taylor Case

Hamilton Buys Boro Poor Home for $1900

"Willowbank," for many years the Bellefonte Borough Poor Home, was sold at public sale Saturday afterto Clarence Hamilton, of North Allegheny street, Bellefonte the purchase price being $1,900.

Personal property disposed of at the sale totaled $194.25. The sale, held by Bellefonte Borough, conclude the affairs of the Bellefonts on Program for C. of C. Borough poor district which went out of operation two years ago when all borough and township poor units were combined into a county-wide planned by the Retail Division of The poor home property on South Potter street has not been in use some "amazing" information resince early last winter when the garding the blood-stained ing one of the largest and best or- County Home on East Howard street handkerchief found on the road at ganized outings of its kind held lo- was completed. Mr. Hamilton's Shiloh church near where the perplans for the large stone building have not been revealed.

Man Ends Life

Robert A. Hendershot, 56, Found Dead in Lonely Home at Rock

near Rock, along Spring Creek be-tween Bellefonte and State Col-lege. Saturday night returned a Police, questioned closely in re-by his own hands. The Jury, impanelled at the Koch Funeral Home, State College, by Deputy Coroner Frank Baird, of Milesburg, in the absence of Coroner Charles Sheckler, found that Hendershot, a World War veteran dershot, a World War veteran had ended his life by firing a charge from a 12-gauge shotgun through his heart. Death is believed to have been instantaneous. The tragedy was discovered about midnight Friday by Hendershot's (Continued on page 6-2nd section)

Airport Opening Date Postponed

Erection of Administration Building Will Determine Decision

Due to unexpected difficulties, the Black Moshannon airport near Philipsburg, will not open until late this summer, it was learned on Tuesday All work on the field, one of the largest and best-constructed in the State, has been completed with the exception of the administration building, it was stated. The WPA work of excavating the foundation and laying the cement for the base

A few of his best known bookings is understood the State has not yet | tiong will take part. A feature of completed its specifications for the Saturday's program will be aerial Consequently, the opening of the

(Continued on page three)

TOM MIX APPEARS AT MUNICIPAL THEATRE, JULY 18

Tom Mix and his horse Tony II, and (Western Company) will appear a gasoline pump at the Stein Mo-in person on the stage of the Mu-tor Company. South Burrowes nicipal Theatre, Millheim, Thursday street, State College, Monday mornevening, July 18. This will be Tom's ing. Garage employes used chemifirst personal appearance in Centre cals and had the flames under con-

Bloody Handkerchief Is Said to Have Revealed Important Lead

SOLUTION OF CASE MAY BE "FANTASTIC"

Police Admit Prospects Brightest Since Investigation Began

The Centre Democrat has learned on unimpeachable authority that State Police investigating the slaying of Rachel Taylor, Penn State co-ed, on March 28, have turned up sonal belongings of the murdered girl was thrown, presumably by her evidence resulting from examination and tracing of the handkerchief constitutes a highly valuable clue pointing toward the identity With Shotgun of the person who battered the 17-year-old co-ed to death sometime between 1:30 and 6 a. m. on the morning of March 28. For some time it has been whispered about that State Police had not received final reports from laboratory experts to whom Miss Taylor's clothing and other bits of evidence were submitted for examina-A Coroner's Jury probing the by those in close contact with the death of Robert A. "Diddie" Hendershot, aged 56, at his lonely home ments regarding the handkerchief

Police, questioned closely verdict that the man had met death gard to the handkerchief angle. declined to comment other than to (Continued on page three)

Whether Street Lights Are Practical

There are some people in high places in Bellefonte who are beginning to wonder whether street lighting is practical.

And you can't blame them a Last week while borough employes were driving iron posts along the curb on Allegheny and Linn streets to carry speed limit signs, the posts cut the heavy underground cable supplying current to street lights. There were three or four breaks, entailing replacement

(Continued on page eight) Carnival To Open at Centre Hall

Friday and Saturday of this week are set aside for the annual Centre Hall firemen's carnival, to be held on the Grange Park The festivities will begin at 6 m. Friday with a street parade in which a number of fire companies is now practically finished, but, it lodges, bands and other organizaacts, including high diving, ladder demonstrations, and stunts. Three grand prizes are to be awarded.

SERVICE STATION PUMP

the electrical equipment destroyed trol when members of the Alpha first-class entertainment see this at- hose. The pump was completely de-

Bellefonte Has Safe, Sane, And (Pardon Us) Tame Fourth of July

Bellefonte observed a safe, same I ty of activity at Hecla Park, State and if you'll pardon us, a some what tame Fourth of July last Safety was achieved through the absence of firecrackers or fireworks aside from the Chamber of Commerce display at the Community Field that night. Sanity was prevalent on the highways, and aside from regular pa-trols and traffic duty, State Motor Police at Pleasant Gap had nought to do but twiddle their official College, Philipsburg, Osceola Mills and in other cities in this and held, but for the homebodies Fourth was an unusually quiet day.

On the streets the only sounds of celebration to be heard were a few perfunctory cap pistol shots. Some-one discovered that by piling up caps in an iron tube and striking the pile sharply, the stack of caps would explode with a report that thumbs. There wasn't a single mo- was at least reminiscent of the