

CENTRE HALL AND VICINITY

FIVE DANCERS TAKE PART IN CENTRE HALL REVUE

The Dance Revue conducted by Miss Frances Burns in the Centre Hall-Potter auditorium Thursday night included complicated routines of ice, tap, acrobatic and ballet dancing by five local girls.

GIRLS SPENDING WEEK AT SLACK HUNT CAMP

Nine young girls and three chaperons are spending this week at Slack's hunting camp near the Penn-Roosevelt dam in the Seven Mountains. They expect to return Monday.

The following are in the party: Patricia Booser, Ellen Bradford, Joyce Bradford, Miriam Brooks, Isabel Emery, Nellie Knarr, Betty Seaton, Betty Smith, and Martha Snyder. The chaperons are Mrs. Donald Shope, Miss Jane Spyster, and Mrs. B. F. Goodhart.

Mrs. Paul Bradford and son, Paul Jr., returned from Phoenixville Sunday.

Guests at the Harold Settles home are Mrs. Settles' parents, from Indiana.

Mrs. C. C. Otto's mother and sister from Milton, were her guests last week.

Sandra Keener accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bradford on a trip to Millinburg, Sunday.

Mrs. R. T. Baird of Tyrone spent several days last week at the William Luse and Ernest Wagner homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Potter visited their son Taylor, at the Scout Camp in the Seven Mountains, Sunday.

Chris Morrow, employed at the Bendix Corporation, Baltimore, is spending an operation in one of the city hospitals this week.

Taylor Potter, one of the local youths who spent the past week in Boy Scout Camp, injured his leg with a saw in the workshop.

These persons from Centre Hall have matriculated in the Penn State Summer Session: Robert Gerhart, David Graybill, Roy Jamison, and Ernest Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. George Boggs of Herminie started on their vacation Tuesday. They plan to spend part of it in the Rove cottage on Nittany mountain, and visiting among relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Jamison spent the weekend in Washington with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wigman and Mr. and Mrs. William Hutchinson. Enroute they visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Boggs at Herminie.

Four young people from the Presbyterian Sunday School will leave Monday for a ten-day camping trip at Camp Shekinah, near Mt. Union. Those who will go are: Dean Brungart, Taylor Potter, Geraldine Smeltzer and Thelma Spotts.

The Rev. and Mrs. Delas R. Keener and Sandra returned from a visit at Allentown and Fleetwood last Wednesday. The Rev. Mr. Keener who has been resting and recuperating from an illness for several weeks, was able to conduct his services, Sunday.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The Rev. and Mrs. Delas R. Keener and Sandra returned from a visit at Allentown and Fleetwood last Wednesday. The Rev. Mr. Keener who has been resting and recuperating from an illness for several weeks, was able to conduct his services, Sunday.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

The local W. C. T. U. is to be hostess to the County convention, Thursday, July 25, in the Methodist church. Mrs. L. E. Allis of State College, County chairman of the music department, has invited the local music club to sing at the evening session.

CHILDREN SERVICES

The children of the Methodist church presented a special service Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Details of the program follow: Recitation—Janet Leister; Group Song—"The World is Beautiful"; Recitation—Joanne Wert; Exercise—Nancy Zellers, Nancy Michaels, Lucile Emery, Wayne Emery, John Michael and Gloria Irvin; Song—"Jesus Loves Me—Lucile Emery; Recitation—Evelyn Emery; Duet—Ruth Spyster and Joan Wert; Recitation—Mildred McClellan; Exercise—Janet Leister, Joanne Wert, Joanne Wert; Offering recitation—Gloria Irvin; Offering.

Play—"The Adopted One;" Closing recitation—John Michael.

The cast for the one-act play follows: Marion Michaels, Margaret Emery, Ruth Spyster, Omer Michael and Dale Confer; Closing recitation—John Michael.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Carl Burkholder. Mrs. John Wert, Jr. and Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew.

At least six bands and eight fire companies, besides the Boy Scouts, the Elks marching club and several local lodges will be part of the parade at the firemen's carnival next Friday and Saturday, July 12-13, at the Grange Park in Centre Hall.

The affair will open with the parade at six o'clock Friday evening. A special demonstration of high diving and ladder stunts is scheduled for Saturday evening by the Lewistown firemen.

On the grounds will be bingo, and games of skill, besides eating concessions.

Chances are being sold on three prizes to be given away Saturday, a fifty dollar electric toaster, a twenty-five dollar radio, and a fifteen dollar candid camera.

Fred Homan is installing plumbing and heating systems in the George Shaver home in town.

J. William Bradford traded his Dodge sedan for a new Buick Torpedo this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Elder and family of Tyrone had dinner at the Harry Potter home Sunday.

Friday Miss Ruth Smith, Mrs. Edna Noll and Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew spent the day in Sunbury.

Fourteen of the local Rebekah members attended the thirtieth anniversary of the Lewistown lodge Friday night.

August 3 has been announced as the date for the street carnival for the benefit of the Centre Hall-Potter alumni association.

The Woman's Club has announced plans for a combination festival and dance to be held in the Centre Hall-Potter school building early in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frank drove to Harford, Conn. Thursday and returned Saturday bringing with them Mrs. Frank's mother and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Daniels.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Evangelical church met last night at the home of Mrs. David Stoner. A similar organization in the Reformed church met with Mrs. Fred Slack.

Miss Orpha Gramley of Millheim visited at the Bartholomew home from Thursday to Sunday of last week. E. L. Bartholomew was a visitor at the same home Thursday and Friday.

The Centre Hall-Potter band and the local fire company will go to the Howard fireman's parade Thursday, July 11. The fire company also expects to parade at State College in the July Fourth demonstration.

The Gleasons Sunday School class of the Evangelical church met last Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. John Whiteman. There were present besides Mrs. Whiteman: Mrs. William Hanna, Mrs. W. K. Hoesterman, Mrs. Roy Jamison, Mrs. George Ralston, and Mrs. Reuben Rickert.

The summer schedule for the Centre Hall-Potter band includes the engagements: July 11, Howard; July 12-13, firemen's carnival here; July 20, Spruce Knob festival; July 27, Jacksonville festival; August 3, Alumni street carnival; and one day at Grange Fair.

The Blair Rice home last Thursday morning.

Andy Bressler is sporting a new Ford.

Mrs. Harter, of Jacksonville, is visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Emerick and children spent Saturday with Mr. Emerick's parents at Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Irvin, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with the former's parents.

Miss Virginia Irvin left Friday for Waynesburg where she will spend the summer vacation.

The fact that Hiller consults Mussolini might lead it Duce to think that he is more than the tail to the kite.

The people of the United States might as well learn how to live at home; if Hitler wins this war they might have.

Mr. and Mrs. Kryder Clevantine, of Washington, D. C., spent the weekend with relatives in Hubersburg, and Paul Vonatz, of Pleasant.

Miss Maxine Houde, of Pleasant Gap, spent a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hoy and family.

Joel Royer improved his home by having it painted.

Harry Rockey is improving his farm by having the building painted, both jobs being done by Homer McKinley, well known painter of Lamar.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rice are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a young daughter born at the Blair Rice home last Thursday morning.

Andy Bressler is sporting a new Ford.

Mrs. Harter, of Jacksonville, is visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Emerick and children spent Saturday with Mr. Emerick's parents at Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Irvin, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with the former's parents.

CHURCH SERVICES

Evangelical—The Rev. W. K. Hoesterman, pastor. Centre Hall: Sunday School 9:30; Church services 10:30; Spring Mills: Church services 9:15; Sunday School 10:15; Tusseyville: Sunday School 9:30; Church services 9:30.

Lutheran—The Rev. C. C. Otto, pastor. Centre Hall: Sunday School 9:30; Church services 7:30; Farmer's Mills: Communion 9:00; Sunday School 10:00; George's Valley: Sunday School 9:30; Communion 10:30.

Methodist—The Rev. Walter Glenn, pastor. Spruce Knob: Sunday School 9:30; Children's service 7:30; Centre Hall: Church service 9:30; Sunday School 10:30; Spring Mills: Sunday School 9:30; Church service 10:45.

Presbyterian—The Rev. J. M. Kirkpatrick, pastor. Lemont: Sunday School 10:00; Church services 11:00; Pine Grove: Church service 9:30; Sunday School 10:30; Centre Hall: Sunday School 9:30; church service 7:30.

Reformed—The Rev. D. R. Keener, pastor. Centre Hall: Friday, prayer services 7:30; Sunday School 9:30; Communion 10:30; Tusseyville: Church service 9:00; Sunday School 10:00.

Mrs. Frank McClellan and children, Mildred, Bernina and William, spent Sunday at the home of C. F. Emery.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Vogt and Mrs. Philip Smith visited Sunday with Mr. Vogt's brother, Lewis Vogt, in Lewistown.

Miss Jennie Thomas returned Friday from a visit with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Reitz, at Upper Darby.

The Newton Emerick family moved Monday into the Church Street apartment in the Hotel building, owned by Miss Laura Runkle.

Robert, fifteen-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Shaver underwent an operation in the Lewistown hospital Saturday for mastoiditis.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Spyster, son Fred and daughter Ruth left Monday for Marklesburg to visit Mrs. Spyster's sister, Mrs. Viola Wilson.

Mrs. Anna Bartholomew and daughter, Jean and Elizabeth attended a surprise party for Mrs. Edna Noll at Pleasant Gap Friday evening.

The administrative council of the Locust Grove Evangelical church will sponsor a festival on the Spring Mills athletic field Saturday night, July 6.

Miss Doris Moltz is a counselor at the Newton Hamilton Junior high camp this week. She will be in charge of seven of the four hundred girls enrolled.

Last Thursday at Paradise Daniel S. Daup captured one of the largest fish caught locally this summer, a twenty-one inch brown trout weighing four pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerlin and Mrs. S. W. Smith drove to the Robert Peacock home in Monroe N. Y., Sunday. Mrs. Smith plans to remain with Mr. and Mrs. Peacock for several weeks.

Miss Elizabeth Harpster and Mrs. Kate Moore of Carlisle were driving guests of Mrs. Catherine Herminie, of Stanford, N. Y., on a trip to Centre Hall where they visited at the I. M. Arney home last week.

Drew Peteroff and David Booser are advertising a circus for Tuesday afternoon in the Peteroff's back yard. About ten other children will participate in the show, admission to which will cost two cents. Lemonade is to be on sale for one cent.

Those who attended the Woman's club dinner at the Penn Belle Hotel last Wednesday follow: Mrs. Anna Bartholomew, Miss Elizabeth Bartholomew, Mrs. George Benner, Mrs. J. Shannon Booser, Mrs. J. William Bradford, Mrs. William Campbell, Mrs. Harold Durt, Mrs. Albert Emery, Mrs. F. P. Geary, Mrs. B. F. Goodhart, Mrs. F. V. Goodhart, Mrs. Roy Jamison, Mrs. Rita, of Stanford, N. Y., and Mrs. Charles Light, Mrs. Edgar Miller, Miss Doris Moltz, Miss Helen Odenkirk, Mrs. Harry Potter, Mrs. Reuben Rickert, Mrs. George Rimmer, Mrs. Donald Shope, Mrs. Chester Spyster, Mrs. George Stover, Mrs. George Sweeney, Mrs. Ernest Wagner, Mrs. Wallace Ward, Mrs. John Wert, Jr., Mrs. J. F. Wetzel and Mrs. John Whiteman.

The Blair Rice home last Thursday morning.

Andy Bressler is sporting a new Ford.

Mrs. Harter, of Jacksonville, is visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Emerick and children spent Saturday with Mr. Emerick's parents at Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Irvin, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with the former's parents.

Miss Virginia Irvin left Friday for Waynesburg where she will spend the summer vacation.

The fact that Hiller consults Mussolini might lead it Duce to think that he is more than the tail to the kite.

The people of the United States might as well learn how to live at home; if Hitler wins this war they might have.

Mr. and Mrs. Kryder Clevantine, of Washington, D. C., spent the weekend with relatives in Hubersburg, and Paul Vonatz, of Pleasant.

Miss Maxine Houde, of Pleasant Gap, spent a few days with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hoy and family.

Joel Royer improved his home by having it painted.

Harry Rockey is improving his farm by having the building painted, both jobs being done by Homer McKinley, well known painter of Lamar.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rice are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a young daughter born at the Blair Rice home last Thursday morning.

Andy Bressler is sporting a new Ford.

Mrs. Harter, of Jacksonville, is visiting her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Emerick and children spent Saturday with Mr. Emerick's parents at Nittany.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Irvin, of Bellefonte, spent Sunday with the former's parents.

Miss Virginia Irvin left Friday for Waynesburg where she will spend the summer vacation.

The fact that Hiller consults Mussolini might lead it Duce to think that he is more than the tail to the kite.

The people of the United States might as well learn how to live at home; if Hitler wins this war they might have.

RUNVILLE

Arthur Bennett met with an accident last Monday while at state road work at Milesburg. He got several ribs broken and was taken to the hospital and is improving now at home.

Ralph Poorman of Lukachuka, Arizona, who is a government employee as teacher of Indian boys, on his vacation called at Newton Louck's home last Sunday.

The Ladies aid supper last Thursday evening was a real success.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Herold and three children and Mr. and Mrs. John Puri and grand daughter motored to Pleasant View Union chapel last Friday evening to attend the Father and Sons day program which was very interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bennett motored to Altoona last Sunday to visit the sick, Mrs. Harry Daughens' daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Puri and daughter of Williamsport, motored here Sunday and visited with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Watson accompanied them home.

Douglas Poorman of Williamsport, spent last week with his grandfather Thomas Poorman, and while here sprained his ankle but is better and will go home Sunday with Samuel Puri.

Mrs. Lulu Davis has been layed up with an accident of cutting her hand with a grass cycle, but is improving now.

Ronald Confer, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Confer is on his way to the Hawaii Islands via Panama for 2 years training in a Government camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Walker of Allentown, motored here and visited with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bumbergar and two children left on Sunday to spend their vacation at Waterloo, Pa.

Junio, Kauffman of CCC camp spent the weekend with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gussallus and two children will motor this week, to Detroit, Mich., to spend part of their vacation with his brother and family.

The Men and Women's Sunday School Classes will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Watson on Tuesday evening July 9th, for their business meeting.

A number of our folks attended the children day service at Yarnell, Pa. church last Sunday evening, they had an interesting program and a good crowd.

The Otterbein Brotherhood met last Saturday evening in the U. B. church and agree to change the meeting to Thursday night. So will meet on Thursday evening, July 11th, at 7:45.

Rev. Tobias and family will take their two weeks vacation starting this week to motor to Morgan Run.

FILLMORE

Mr. and Mrs. Domer Smeltzer of Centre Hall, visited at the Bernard Crust home one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Orvis Harris and family of the Triangle, and Mr. and Mrs. George Koons of State College called at the Frank Hill home on Saturday evening of last week.

"Mac" Taylor of Bush Addition was a caller at the home of his parents, on Thursday evening, of last week.

James McKivison of Port Matilda, has been visiting at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harshbarger for several weeks.

Emice Wolford is working in a private home at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smeltzer and children Lois and Sunday with his brother, Harry.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Harshbarger and children Twila, Janet, and Betsy visited at her parents home at Sandy Ridge on Sunday.

Virginia Smeltzer visited at the Earl Crust home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Huey and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill motored to Williamsport on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Leaver Crust and family Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bloom and family motored to CCC camp down below Laurelton to see Harry Hill who is in camp at that place.

PORT MATILDA

The chicken supper held at the Bald Eagle Grange on Friday evening, June 14, was largely attended.

The B. E. Grange started a juvenile Grange for children 5 to 12 years old, on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Butterbaugh are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Milford Butterbaugh.

Mrs. Harry Elder and son, Ronnie, of Tyrone, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Betty Butterbaugh.

Miss Kathryn Yeckley, of Bellefonte, spent the weekend with her friend, Miss Marguerite Kerin.

Mr. and Mrs. James Goss spent Sunday with the latter's parents in Julian.

Mrs. Gertrude Beckwith spent Saturday in Tyrone.

Mrs. A. J. Collett spent a few days with her sisters in Tyrone.

Carl Price is building a brick bungalow on his land near Elk Haven.

Quite a few went to see the ballgame played with donkeys by the Brick Yard and Port Matilda Merchants.

John Brightbill spent Sunday with his sister in Altoona.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hooper, of Unionville, spent Sunday with Mrs. M. A. Kerin. Other Sunday visitors were M. J. Schell, of Tyrone, and Delbert Long, of Tyrone.

Mr. and Mrs. Milford Butterbaugh visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brock and daughters Kathryn and Helen, and Norma Bane, of California, spent a few days with their father, A. J. Collett.

Arma Duey, who was in the Aspinwall Hospital in Pittsburgh for a couple months, returned home on Friday evening.

Adequate defense is an elastic term; just now it means more army, more navy and more planes.

MILESBURG

Wednesday of last week was general cleaning day at the Methodist church. Those who helped were Mrs. James Letzell, Mrs. Lee Jones, Mrs. Leon Yorks, Mrs. Henry Spear, Mrs. Mann and son Gerald, Miss Edna McCullough, Mrs. John Bryan and daughter Maxine, and Miss Hilda Haupt.

The W. C. T. U. will meet on Friday, July 5th at the home of Mrs. Lee Fetzer.

Mrs. Harry Hall of Unionville was a caller Tuesday evening of last week at the Emma Smith home.

M. L. Wetzel attended a meeting of funeral directors at Conesaut Lake, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

Miss Louise Walker entertained at her home on Wednesday evening of last week for Mrs. Charles W. Harris, the former Janet Brouse. The affair was a towel shower of gifts to be used in the bathroom.

Word has been received here that James Starcke now a resident of North Carolina, has suffered the loss of a couple of fingers. Further details were unavailable.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Slacker and family of Detroit, are spending two weeks with Mrs. Slacker's father, D. F. McKinley.

Mrs. W. S. Walker Jr., was a visitor of Tyrone the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Foehler and sons Bobby and Jerry and Mrs. M. H. Hall were Tyrone and Altoona visitors on Thursday of last week.

Miss Hilda Haupt was an Altoona shopper on Thursday of last week.

Why kick about the weather. We have to like it anyway, and all our grumbling will not change it a bit. So if there isn't much sunshine, smile and make believe. For smile and the world smiles with you, weep and you cry alone is an old adage and true.

Mr. Bruce Peters, Sunoco gas station attendant is ill at this writing, and was taken to the hospital Sunday morning for treatment.

Mr. Jesse Showers suffered a painful and perhaps serious injury of his foot while on duty at the local light plant here. His foot being badly crushed.

Mr. Del Shearer of New Alexandria was a weekend visitor at the W. S. Walker home.

Mrs. H. W. Smith has gone to Harrisburg for visit with her son Russell and wife.

The Misses Marjory Hall and Jane Letzell returned home Sunday from a week at camp at Newton Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greeninger of Lockport Heights, son-in-law and daughter and two children of Mill Hall and Mr. Greeninger's mother of Lock Haven were Sunday callers at the George Smith home.

The Misses Anne Sere, Lois Long Verna Poorman and Lorraine Miller, attended a Baptist church conference at Bucknell University Friday and Saturday of last week, returning home Sunday.

CUNNING

There was an old man Just as cunning as a fox This old man lived in our block He always saved his money And was never on the rocks.

He always had tobacco In his old tobacco box. Now another old man Lived in this block.

He never saved his money And was always on the rocks. He never had tobacco In his old tobacco box.

Said one old man