—For Sale in bulk or singly at a fraction of their actual worth, the entire stock of S. H. Bernstein, Inc., Bellefonte, Pa. Men's department closes forever, Saturday July 6.

—C. L. Rosburgh, of Rome, N. Y., arrived in Bellefonte early this week for a month's visit with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Weg and family, at their home on East Linn Street.

—Mrs. Ella Kusse, of Barberton, Ohio, arrived in Bellefonte last Friday for a several weeks' visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Karl E. Kusse and family at their home on East Linn Street.

—Recent visitors at the James P. O'Connor home at Bellefonte, R. D. 2, were Miss Mabel Hassinger, and Mrs. Harry Gussallus of Red Roost, Bellefonte; Mr. and Mrs. Land of York and Mrs. Harry Roan Jr., of State College.

—Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Sturn and children, Janet and Leroy, and Mr. Sturn's father, Benjamin Sturn, all of Perth Amboy, N. J., arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday for a Fourth of July visit with Mrs. Sturn's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm W. Yeager and family, at their home on North Spring Street.

—W. W. Kerlin, of the Kerlin Poultry Farms; Paul M. Feteroff postal clerk; Ben Goodhart, of the Goodhart Funeral Home, and Prof. J. F. Wetzel, principal of the Centre Hall Schools; comprised a quartette of Centre Hall's representative business people which invaded this office last Friday.

—Willis Lucas and his young son, Willis Jr., of Bellefonte, R. D. 3, were callers at the office Saturday morning. Both fishermen, the two Lucas were most interested in the County's tallest fish story of the year—the one about the 29½-inch trout being killed by lightning. It so happens that the story, however incredible it may seem, is true.

—Mrs. Robert Torrens, of Rochester, N. Y., was at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hoag, on North Thomas Street, last week while Mr. Torrens and Mr. Hoag were on a camping trip in northern Canada. Mr. and Mrs. Torrens expect to spend the last six weeks of the summer vacation camping along the shores of a Canadian lake.

—J. Ned Corman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Corman, of Zion, left on Monday morning, July 1, to assist H. W. Higbee, professor of agronomy at State College, to do soil testing work for State College. This work will be done in the south central and western part of Pennsylvania. Mr. Corman expects to be a junior in the agronomy class in State College next year.

—Mrs. Paul C. Sheffer and three children, of East Linn Street, departed for Painesville, Ohio, early in the week to spend the month of July with Mrs. Sheffer's mother, Mrs. Joseph C. Custer. Mrs. Paul Sheffer, Sr. has gone to Titusville to be with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Glenn during the month. Meanwhile the Sheffer family home on East Linn Street has been closed until their return.

—Mrs. Mahlon K. Robb, of East, Curtis Street, entertained a group of her daughter's young friends last Thursday afternoon at the home of Anne's ninth birthday anniversary. After a trip to the movies the group went to the Robb home where a birthday supper was served. Guests were: Frances Dale and her cousin, Barbara Stiles, Joan and Nancy Crawford, Nancy Sherman, Patsy Blain, Cynthia Scott, Margaret Walker, Julia Ward, and the guest of honor, Anne Robb.

—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ray and grandson, Tommy Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Scribner, and Mrs. Lizzie Summers all of Niagara Falls, N. Y., were guests of friends and relatives at the home of Mrs. Ray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ray of Axle Mann and Milesburg the forepart of this week. The Rays were guests of Mr. Ray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ray of Axle Mann, while the remainder of the party were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Plack of Milesburg. They motored on to Johnstown and Greensburg later on in the week before returning home to the Falls.

—Charles Quici, who for sometime has been employed by the American Metal Products Company, at Detroit, Mich., was granted a week's vacation last week and came to Bellefonte to move his household furniture to his new home. Mr. Quici who has been here for the past several months undergoing treatment for an illness from which he had suffered for some time, is recovering nicely and accompanied his husband to Detroit. Mr. Quici was accompanied on the trip here by his brother-in-law, Herbert Clauser who also is employed in Detroit.

—Karl E. Kusse, secretary of the Bellefonte Chamber of Commerce who attended the annual convention of the Pennsylvania Commercial Secretaries' Association at Bedford Springs Hotel, Friday and Saturday, said a highlight of the convention was a trip along a portion of the nearly completed Pennsylvania Turnpike. The group entered the "dream road" at Bedford and traveled east for some distance, passing through the road's largest cut, in Bedford, narrow, and through the longest tunnel under Siding Hill. The tunnel, one and a half miles long, is still uncompleted but otherwise is near completion. Mr. Kusse said. Operations in the tunnel were suspended while the group made the trip through and returned. They also saw parts of the Hays Hill tunnel to be used to go through it. Five of the road's seven tunnels are located between Bedford and Harrisburg. The other two are between Bedford and Pittsburgh. At the sessions Mr. Kusse extended an invitation to the organization to hold the 1941 convention in Bellefonte. Although the offer was well received, definite action rests with the executive committee which meets later in the summer.

ding. They talked about the festival, and the date was set for Saturday night, July 29, at the Festival House. Amount taken in $28.08; expenses, $13.06. Cleared, $15.08. Our next meeting will be held on July 9, at 9:30 a. m., at the home of Gladys Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hoover were shoppers at Bellefonte one day last week.

Mrs. Fred Piubell, Mrs. Schmoke, Miss Veld, Hoover and Wayne Hoover were shoppers at Phillipsburg last Friday.

Mrs. Clyde Viehdorfer, Merrill and Alta Viehdorfer visited Bellefonte on Monday.

Due to the wet weather the farmers around here are not getting their buckwheat planted, nor can they make hay while it rains.

Mrs. Fred Piubell had a slight operation on her right eye. We certainly hope it is a success.

The 4-H club wishes to thank the people for their liberal donations which helped make their festival a success.

County Towns Prepare for 4th

building by members of the Phillipsburg Fire School, under the direction of George Carpeneto, of Bellefonte, who is affiliated with the State Fire Bureau.

The preparations for the Fourth include a mammoth parade Thursday afternoon in which numerous organizations from all parts of this district will take part. The Undine Fire Company of Bellefonte will enter its marching unit and the Mack quadruple combination, while the Logan Fire Company of Bellefonte will enter its marching club. The Logan will be accompanied to Phillipsburg by the American Legion Band.

More than 50 units will participate in the five-division parade Thursday at Altoona, according to Parade Chairman Harry Hallett, post commander of James L. Noble Post, No. 3, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The parade will move promptly at 9:30 a. m. with Colonel J. H. Shearer, president of the Pennsylvania Edison Company as chief marshal.

Altoona Plans Parade

More than 50 units will participate in the five-division parade Thursday at Altoona, according to Parade Chairman Harry Hallett, post commander of James L. Noble Post, No. 3, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Hecla Attractions

A feature attraction at Hecla Park will be Dr. Wise's big circus and side-show, which includes many of Ripley's Believe-It-or-Not Curiousities and freaks from all parts of the world.

This show has played all the outstanding towns and cities east of the Mississippi river, from the Gulf of Mexico to Canada, and will be at Hecla on the Fourth only.

Other departments of the show will include a famous dog field show directed from San Francisco, Cal., based on the Chinatown underworld of the Barbary Coast. This show carries 21 performers and is said to be one of the most powerful and unusual shows ever to be presented to the American public.

Other amusements available at the park will include free picnic facilities, boating, swimming, hiking, dancing, and many amusements for old and young.

Fireworks Display

The Chamber of Commerce fireworks display will be the largest and most varied ever presented here, according to Chamber officials. The many ground and aerial pieces will be touched off by members of Bellefonte's two fire companies, and fire apparatus will be on hand to guard against accidents. Ample parking facilities will be available in the vicinity.

The display is free to all, and the collection to be taken for the Red Cross war relief fund is purely voluntary. In case of rain on the night of July Fourth, the display will be presented the following evening, at the same time.

HOLTS HOLLOW

Mr. and Mrs. Art Burd and Mrs. Edith Burd were callers at the Edith Burd home at Pleasant Gap recently.

Mrs. Olive Rhoades and children, Mrs. Miles Stauffer and children spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Magargel and daughter at Pleasant Gap, and attended children's service.

Mrs. Ida Johnson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley, Mrs. Clayton Sliker, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson spent Sunday with William Johnson and family at Orviston in honor of Mr. Poorman's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sheesley and family, of Howard, called on home folks on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lingle and two children, and a friend from Tusseyville, spent Sunday afternoon at the Orvis Watson home.

Laura Confer, of Runville, Orvis Watson and son, and Donald Shade were treated to ice cream and cake at the Hayes Johnson home on Friday evening.

Don't forget Bible study next Tuesday evening at the Edward Heaton home.

Doughnut Mistake

An unsigned letter, with a nickel enclosed, reached a New Castle, Ind., bakery. The letter read: "Dear Sir, when I was 8 or 9 years old, I lived in New Castle and I stole two or three doughnuts. I am 14 now and I know it was wrong."

Play is important but some men give it too much prominence; they forget how to work.

Thinking is important but no work was ever accomplished by nothing but thinking.
