IF WE HAD OUR WAY

If we had our way

We would never grow old,

And friendship we treasure Would never grow cold. But fate intervenes. In everyones days, And perhaps it is better We can't have our way. If we could see in the future It is all too true, Some things we have done We never would do, But we sometimes are stubborn And in our reckless way, We do many things That might shorten our days. If we had our way The sun always would shine, No clouds would arise On your pathway or mine There is no use lamenting For fate rules our days, And as long as we live
