

PINE GROVE MILLS

Farmers J. H. Marshall and G. E. Irvin attended a business farm meeting in State College last Friday evening.

Farmer and stock buyer Eugene Irvin transacted business in Bellefonte Monday where he purchased a fine team of roan geldings.

Mr. William Aukerman of Altoona, Democratic candidate for Congress was among the voters in Ferguson last Saturday p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh C. Fry of Smethport, were over past weekend guests at his parental home in Rock Springs, returning home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Blanche Miller, and daughter and son of Altoona, spent the past week with her twin sister, Mrs. Bertha Schilling and family on E. Main Street.

Mrs. Madeline Hawn and two daughters of Petersburg spent several days recently at her parental home, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gilliland on White Hall road.

Edward Harpster was in Baileyville Monday getting his cider press in operation for early pressing but, not a big job this year as apples are scarce in this section.

Mrs. Mary Myers one of our aged citizens, past the four score mark is confined to her bed this week Mrs. Mabel Tate of State College is assisting to care for her mother.

Mrs. Mildred Campbell Black and two sons of Altoona, are spending their summer vacation at the Campbell homestead in West Ferguson and at the J. Milo Campbell home in State College.

Ins. Agent, Thomas L. Frank of Williamsburg, and family were among their former neighbors and relatives here in the valley last Saturday. Lloyd is general Agent for Williamsburg Insurance Co.

John Everhart of Vandergrift Pa., was last weekend visitor with his aged mother, Mrs. Sara Everhart of Graysville. It looks by his frequent visits in our valley John may be interested in one of our fair sex—not real young.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ross Kessinger motored from Weatherly Friday accompanied by three sons, Tommy and twin sons John and Joe for the wedding Saturday of her sister, Charlotte Koch and Ed. Sear-theodore Eminhizer and Robert Rudy and Jane Eagler were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCartney.

Clair Richner and boys spent Monday afternoon with his father Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Savers and family of Yarnell spent Sunday at the home of their parents, Mr. William Richner.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Eminhizer spent Thursday at State College.

The trade-at-home program will work only when it has the support of buyers and sellers.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rudy spent a few days at their parental home Mrs. Rudy doing some canning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCartney and family attended the Robison reunion Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Eminhizer spent Sunday at Tyrone, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harmon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gilbert are the proud parents of a baby girl which arrived last Thursday. Both mother and baby are doing fine.

MOSHANNON

There were 74 present at the Methodist Sunday School, Sunday Preaching next Sunday 10:30 a. m. by Brother John Bealer.

Mrs. Catharine Lucas is visiting relatives in Renovo, at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Lutz visited at the Martin Cartwright home, of Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cartwright and family and Mrs. Annie Cartwright, attended the Maves reunion at Runville, Saturday. They motored to Pleasant Gap and spent a pleasant evening with Mr. and Mrs. Lee St. Clair.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lucas of Emporium, spent the weekend at the home of their parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. John McClusick and children, John Jr. and Jimmie, visited in Clearfield Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Smith. Little Marie Smith accompanied them home for a week's visit.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fye Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stuber, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Andrews of Altoona Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. David Gilliland and children of Oak Hill, Pa.; Miss Eva Weaver, Mr. E. W. Hansack of Williamsport, Pa.; and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Borger, Moshannon.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Lewis, Hope Lewis, accompanied by Mrs. T. M. Crowder, of Cuzco, Pa., left Friday on a motor trip to Chester Lansdown, Philadelphia, and Washington, D. C., they expect also to visit the New York World's Fair.

Miss Mary Ann Lucas, R. N. O. Bellefonte, and Mr. Harry Musser of State College, called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Lucas Sunday evening.

A Brooks Cori in his new Chevy sedan motored to Montrose Saturday p. m. to bring home on Sunday. Mrs. Cori and two daughters who spent the past ten days in Susquehanna County and at the seashore.

One of our former citizens, A. S. Bailey is enjoying a two weeks leave from the I. O. O. F. home at Grove City, Pa., visiting with friends here in and out of town. Stewart looks a picture of health and is much pleased with new home.

Our good Democratic friend Roy Gates of Lewistown was among the picnic crowd Saturday last getting his relatives lined up to vote for party visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bowersox, of State College.

Mr. and Mrs. James Smeal, Mrs. Emma Lanberry and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller of Centre Hall were dinner guests on Sunday at Alfred Lyles.

Mrs. Alvin Krebs and daughter Julietta, and son David were visitors on Wednesday with Mrs. William Neidigh.

Miss Anna Lyle was the guest Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lee and family at Houserville.

Charles Straub is ill at his home at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lyle and family were visitors on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Johnsonbaugh.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Krebs and children Julietta and David were Wednesday evening visitors at the Charles Shearer home.

Miss Nancy Lyle spent a few days recently with her sister Charlotte Lyle at the Graham home at State College.

Nancy Jane, infant daughter of less than a year, of Mr. and Mrs. William Hinds, of Jacksonville, died several days ago and was buried at Howard on Saturday forenoon. The child's mother was the former Miss Freda Coble of Houserville.

Jeff Houtz of Lemont, was a guest for a few days at the Alfred Lyle home recently.

Miss Nancy Lyle spent a few days recently with her sister Charlotte Lyle at the Graham home at State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Eminhizer spent Thursday at State College.

The trade-at-home program will work only when it has the support of buyers and sellers.

WAGNER REUNION

On Saturday, August 17, the descendants of John D. and Phoebe (Artery) Wagner held their fifteenth annual reunion at Reservoir Park, Tyrone. At noon fifty-two of the more than one hundred descendants, and three guests gathered around a long well-filled table and ate heartily of the good things a business session followed the dinner and it was decided to hold the 1941 reunion at Port Matilda Park the third Saturday of July. Byron Richards was re-elected president and Ethel Richards secretary and treasurer.

The afternoon was spent visiting and playing games, the latter much enjoyed by the young folks.

Eight persons have been present at all fifteen gatherings. They are Mrs. Annie Smith, Mrs. Martha Corman, Mrs. Birgit Adams, Mrs. Martha Livingstone, one and Wilbur Bruce Livingstone, Mrs. David R. Richards and David Richards.

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Overly, Mrs. of her niece Miss Betty Keller of Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Noll motored to Virginia last week to bring their son Buddie home after spending two months at a boys camp there.

Ray Melroy arrived home Sunday noon after making a trip to Elwood, Indiana to hear Mr. Wilkie's acceptance speech.

Mrs. "Ted" Harris had as her guest the early part of the week her sister-in-law, the former Jane Harris of Snow Shoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mulfinger and a friend who were here from Akron Ohio, for a short visit, about ten days ago took Mrs. Harry Shower and Jimmie Mulfinger home with them. They plan to return home the latter part of this week.

William Musser was on the sick list the early part of the week.

Robert Searing who just completed a course in flying at the Noll Flying School left today for his home in Montana.

Miss Joanna Decker and Mrs. Ethel McCoy called at the W. H. Noll home, Thursday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Barlett are expected home this weekend from Canada where they spent their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zerby and daughter Nancy returned to their home at Johnstown, last week, after spending two weeks with relatives here and at State College.

Mrs. Fred Eckenroth entertained at cards Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Henry Noll spent Thursday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Brungart at their home at Rebersburg.

Miss Martha Lohman and Miss Betty Krotz of Berwick spent Sunday afternoon at the H. T. Noll home.

Paul Lego had the misfortune of spraining a ligament in his foot last Monday and was unable to be about for a few days.

We are sorry to note the death of Mrs. Merritt Tate who died at her home Tuesday evening after an illness of nearly ten months. She leaves a husband and two children, William and Helen, as well as a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Noll and the following brother and sisters to mourn her loss: Ray Noll, Mrs. John Moore of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Paul Keller of Philadelphia; Mrs. Feldman Hamilton, Houtzdale, and Mrs. W. H. Koche of State College. We extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Luncheon guests at the Noll-Melroy home Monday were Mrs. Fannie Thomas, of Birmingham, Ala. and Mrs. Warren Wood of this place whom she has been visiting and Mrs. Rilla Heverly of Southern California who has been visiting the Wade Eveys.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerstetter, and son Robert and wife, of State College, motored to Cuba Lake, N. Y. Saturday and visited until the following day with L. B. McKean, blind musician, who visited the Kerstetters a number of times and is well known in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Clark of Roaring Springs spent the past month at the W. W. Kerstetter home. They had just been married the week before they arrived here. Mr. Clark is employed as a welder on the new road which is being built between here and State College.

Mrs. Harry Eby and daughter June will leave tomorrow for a few days visit at Chambersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore returned home Tuesday evening from Philadelphia where they attended the wedding of their niece Betty Keller and Mr. William Bauman Saturday and Atlantic City where they spent Sunday.

Mrs. R. W. Noll spent last week in Virginia and Philadelphia with friends and attended the wedding

PLEASANT GAP

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bean and son Donald and daughter Winifred and Mr. and Mrs. William Brindle Aurora, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Jennings and daughter, Plainville Illinois, and Mrs. Sara Saswell and daughter Joan, DeCob, Ill., were Sunday guests at the H. T. Noll home.

Mrs. Margaret Tate of Philadelphia is visiting her sister, Mrs. Esther Baney.

Mrs. Elsie Bosky of Philadelphia is visiting with friends in this vicinity. She was a driving guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore upon their return home from Philadelphia Tuesday.

William Musser was on the sick list the early part of the week.

Robert Searing who just completed a course in flying at the Noll Flying School left today for his home in Montana.

Miss Joanna Decker and Mrs. Ethel McCoy called at the W. H. Noll home, Thursday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Barlett are expected home this weekend from Canada where they spent their vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zerby and daughter Nancy returned to their home at Johnstown, last week, after spending two weeks with relatives here and at State College.

Mrs. Fred Eckenroth entertained at cards Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Henry Noll spent Thursday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Brungart at their home at Rebersburg.

Miss Martha Lohman and Miss Betty Krotz of Berwick spent Sunday afternoon at the H. T. Noll home.

Paul Lego had the misfortune of spraining a ligament in his foot last Monday and was unable to be about for a few days.

We are sorry to note the death of Mrs. Merritt Tate who died at her home Tuesday evening after an illness of nearly ten months. She leaves a husband and two children, William and Helen, as well as a father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Noll and the following brother and sisters to mourn her loss: Ray Noll, Mrs. John Moore of Pleasant Gap; Mrs. Paul Keller of Philadelphia; Mrs. Feldman Hamilton, Houtzdale, and Mrs. W. H. Koche of State College. We extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved family.

Luncheon guests at the Noll-Melroy home Monday were Mrs. Fannie Thomas, of Birmingham, Ala. and Mrs. Warren Wood of this place whom she has been visiting and Mrs. Rilla Heverly of Southern California who has been visiting the Wade Eveys.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Kerstetter, and son Robert and wife, of State College, motored to Cuba Lake, N. Y. Saturday and visited until the following day with L. B. McKean, blind musician, who visited the Kerstetters a number of times and is well known in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Clark of Roaring Springs spent the past month at the W. W. Kerstetter home. They had just been married the week before they arrived here. Mr. Clark is employed as a welder on the new road which is being built between here and State College.

Mrs. Harry Eby and daughter June will leave tomorrow for a few days visit at Chambersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore returned home Tuesday evening from Philadelphia where they attended the wedding of their niece Betty Keller and Mr. William Bauman Saturday and Atlantic City where they spent Sunday.

Mrs. R. W. Noll spent last week in Virginia and Philadelphia with friends and attended the wedding

DREIBELBIS REUNION

The tenth annual reunion of the John Jacob Dreibelbis cousins will be held at St. Peter's Church in Richmond Township, Berks County, on Sunday, Sept. 1, 1940. The event is to be an all day affair. The reunion is ideally located and has a fine grove suitable for the occasion and is but a few miles from the original Dreibelbis homestead. A program has been arranged with services in the forenoon as well as the afternoon after the dinner in the grove. Each family will bring a basket lunch where possible.

The history of the class dates back to 1732 when John Jacob Dreibelbis came from Switzerland and settled near Fleetwood in the beautiful East Penn Valley in Berks County. It is expected that many members of the clan from Centre County will attend the affair. Last year's reunion was held at State College, when Mary, Maude, and John Dreibelbis and Paul I. Wrigley of State College had charge of arrangements.

Officers of the organization are: President, Howard Dreibelbis, Hamburg, Pa.; Secretary, Earl J. Dreibelbis, treasurer, Wm. B. Dreibelbis, of Shoemakerville, Pa.; historian, Charles B. Dreibelbis, Philadelphia; chairman of finances, Lawrence T. Orner, Bloomsburg, Pa.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Fellow employes at Rockview on Tuesday presented Mr. Millward with an electric razor.

The Millwards expect to have their establishment in Butler county open and ready for business by Labor Day.

—Don't borrow your neighbor's paper; subscribe now.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Fellow employes at Rockview on Tuesday presented Mr. Millward with an electric razor.

The Millwards expect to have their establishment in Butler county open and ready for business by Labor Day.

—Don't borrow your neighbor's paper; subscribe now.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Fellow employes at Rockview on Tuesday presented Mr. Millward with an electric razor.

The Millwards expect to have their establishment in Butler county open and ready for business by Labor Day.

—Don't borrow your neighbor's paper; subscribe now.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Fellow employes at Rockview on Tuesday presented Mr. Millward with an electric razor.

The Millwards expect to have their establishment in Butler county open and ready for business by Labor Day.

—Don't borrow your neighbor's paper; subscribe now.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Fellow employes at Rockview on Tuesday presented Mr. Millward with an electric razor.

The Millwards expect to have their establishment in Butler county open and ready for business by Labor Day.

—Don't borrow your neighbor's paper; subscribe now.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Fellow employes at Rockview on Tuesday presented Mr. Millward with an electric razor.

The Millwards expect to have their establishment in Butler county open and ready for business by Labor Day.

—Don't borrow your neighbor's paper; subscribe now.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Fellow employes at Rockview on Tuesday presented Mr. Millward with an electric razor.

The Millwards expect to have their establishment in Butler county open and ready for business by Labor Day.

—Don't borrow your neighbor's paper; subscribe now.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Fellow employes at Rockview on Tuesday presented Mr. Millward with an electric razor.

The Millwards expect to have their establishment in Butler county open and ready for business by Labor Day.

—Don't borrow your neighbor's paper; subscribe now.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Fellow employes at Rockview on Tuesday presented Mr. Millward with an electric razor.

The Millwards expect to have their establishment in Butler county open and ready for business by Labor Day.

—Don't borrow your neighbor's paper; subscribe now.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Fellow employes at Rockview on Tuesday presented Mr. Millward with an electric razor.

The Millwards expect to have their establishment in Butler county open and ready for business by Labor Day.

PLEASANT GAP

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rudy spent a few days at their parental home Mrs. Rudy doing some canning.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCartney and family attended the Robison reunion Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Eminhizer spent Sunday at Tyrone, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harmon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Gilbert are the proud parents of a baby girl which arrived last Thursday. Both mother and baby are doing fine.

FAIRVIEW NO. 2

Visitors over the week at the home of Jesse Confer were Mrs. Harry Lucas and son of Yarnell Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lucas and family of Orrstown and Owen Kelley of Bellefonte.

Quite a number of our folks attended the home coming at Curtin on Sunday.

The Misses Barbara and Imogene Confer of this place accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Confer of Bellefonte, to the Smeal reunion on Thursday.

There will be preaching at Fairview church Friday evening, Aug 23 at 7:30 by W. B. Tobias. Everyone welcome.

There will be a festival at this place Aug 31 for the benefit of the church. All the good things of the season to eat. Music by the Confer sisters. Also a play entitled "Mrs. Apple and her Corps."

Mrs. Harry Nymman and children spent last week at the home of Mr. Robert Shope of Bellefonte, helping care for her mother who we are sorry to say is no better.

Barbara and Imogene Confer called at the Miles Ethers home on Sunday.

Mrs. Mies Estes is better at this writing.

Lucas' threshing machine is in the hollow and that means fall is just around the corner.

WANTED TO BUY!

SCRAP IRON AND METALS 50c A HUNDRED POUNDS FOR SCRAP IRON

HODES COAL & JUNK YARD West Park St. Phone 1671-R LOCK HAVEN, PA.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Fellow employes at Rockview on Tuesday presented Mr. Millward with an electric razor.

The Millwards expect to have their establishment in Butler county open and ready for business by Labor Day.

—Don't borrow your neighbor's paper; subscribe now.

Persons partook of a bounteous dinner and shared in the program of speeches, entertainment and music that followed. Mr. and Mrs. Millward received as a token of esteem a coffee urn.

Advertisement for Markle's Milk featuring a photo of a baby and text: "We Don't Claim That... JAMES DONALD BLACKFORD won the local Baby Contest because he drinks MARKLE'S MILK But... We Do Claim Markle's Milk Makes WINNERS"

Advertisement for Phipps Batteries and Electric Fans: "DON'T GAMBLE! With Old Worn Out Batteries SAVE MONEY THIS WEEK ON Phipps SUPER POWER Batteries"

Advertisement for McClure's Boot Shops: "Saturday Is $AYS at McClures Men's White Shoes $1.00 pr. Women's White Shoes $1.00 pr. Childs' White Shoes $1.00 pr. Boys' White Shoes $1.00 pr. 25 South Allegheny St. Bellefonte, Pa. McCLURE'S BOOT SHOPS, Inc. 25 South Allegheny St. Bellefonte, Pa."